Local Ailmail Service to Be Doubled Here

ing westbound flight, the Postmaster said, will reach Pittsburgh, Chicago, Buffalo, Cleveland, Dayton, Boston, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Washington, to name only a few, the same afternoon.

The late afternoon westbound flight will provide overnight service to all parts of the country.

It also was pointed out by the Postmaster that air mail can be sent from here to other points on the Pittsburgh-Williamsport route in a matter of minutes.

These points are:

Pittsburgh, Pitcairn, Vandergrift, Leechburg, Indiana, Punxsutawney, DuBois, Clearfield, Philipsburg, State College, Lock Haven, Jersey Shore, Williamsport and Montoursville.

The Postmaster said that he expected the improved service to result in a big increase in the use of air mail here. The additional schedule, he said further, will give the community air mail service comparable to that received by the cities on the main air routes.

The new local schedules which will become effective on November 16 follow:

Westbound: 10:48 a. m. and 4:36 p. m.

Eastbound: 9:39 a. m. and 1:55 p. m.

300 Attend C. E. Convention Here

charge of the young people of the Bellefonte Reformed church. At 9:15 there were two conferences, one on "Taking Jesus Seriously," by Warren G. Hoopes, State C. E. secretary. The other was on "Your Bible and Finding Its Message," by Rev. D. A. Downin, pastor of the Pleasant Gap Methodist church.

The conferences were followed by the business session, at which time the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: president, Robert Rhoads, of Centre Hall; 1st vice president, Miss Rhoda Sheetz, of Milesburg; 2nd vice president, Edward Gillespie, of Orviston; recording secretary, Miss Phyllis Jodon, of Bellefonte; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Essie Lomison, of Orviston; and J. Marvin Lee, of Houserville, who has served the County Union as its president for the past three years, was elected treasurer. Rev. James Fisher, pastor of the Pine Grove Mills Lutheran church, was chosen as past councilor.

The Saturday afternoon session opened with devotions in charge of the Pine Grove Mills C. E. group. This was followed by a conference on "Building Today for Tomorrow," by Mr. Hoopes. He laid special stress on the fact that we must have Christ within us as a lively reality, in order to accomplish the things that count the most. A largely attended Junior convention was held at the same time in the Presbyterian chapel, in charge of Miss Rhoda Sheetz and Mrs. Lois Gillespie. Devotions were in charge of the Bellefonte Junior U. B. Christian Endeavor. The outstanding feature was an object lesson. Mr. Hoopes later addressed the Juniors.

The parade was then formed, which consisted of a number of C. E. Societies of the county. The Pleasant Gap-Centre Hall group had the largest marching unit, and the Houserville U. B. Society had the best display. There were no floats. Mrs. Elta Musser of State College, and Miss Dorothy Foust of Watsontown, were the judges. After the parade, a turkey banquet was served in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church, with Rev. James Fisher as toastmaster. At this time Mrs. Ida Witmer of Wingate, the oldest active Endeavorer in the county, read an original poem on Chirstian Endeavor in Centre county. After the banquet Warren Hoopes showed a number of slides of the places he had visited the past summer.

The evening session consisted entirely of recreation in the Spring street gymnasium, in charge of Elton B. Tait of State College. The convention closed with the installation of the new officers by Mr. Hoopes.
