LIBRARY EXPANDS WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Will Be Open 12 Additional Hours; Many New Books Now in Stock

Because of additional demand for books and reference service the Centre County Library will be open twelve additional hours.

The new schedule is as follows: Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Story hour for pre-school age children in grades 1 to 5, Saturday mornings at 10:30. Children from rural communities who are in town with their parents are most welcome to attend. The Historical Museum, free to all, is open on Saturdays from 2:30 to 9 p. m. (other days by appointment). Previous visitors to the museum will find new and interesting pieces have been added recently. Miss Mary H. Linn is in charge.

A few of the new books added recently are: Carrick, "Susan to You;" Knight, "Lassie Come-Back;" Mallette, "Wenderley;" Marsh, "Color Scheme;" Conger, "American Warplanes;" Raddall, "His Majesty's Yankees;" Llewellyn, "None But the Lonely Heart;" Wells, "Talent for Murder;" Smith, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn;" Lin, "Between Laughter and Tears;" Kinert, "America's Fighting Planes;" Yates, "Murder by the Yard;" Morris, "The Tuckers Tune In!" sary and what the expense would be for adding an additional tract of land to the eastern part of the airport.

Walter R. Eberhart submitted a report on steps being taken by the Warner Company to eliminate the lime dust nuisance. The report was prepared by the company and is published in full elsewhere in this issue of The Centre Democrat.

Police Officer Jerry Galaida submitted a police report showing 21 cars tagged for parking violations, 4 transients lodged in the lock-up, 12 confidential reports, and collection of $192.94 from the meters. Market collections totaled $7.

The Water Committee reported that the pump at the Phoenix Mill, which broke down about four weeks ago, is still out of operation and that there is no indication as to when necessary repair parts will be delivered. Council instructed the committee to take whatever steps necessary to hasten repairs to the pump.

A pig pen on the property of Fred Walker, on Halfmoon Hill, which has been the subject of complaints by neighbors, and which Council ordered removed to a distance of 300 feet from the nearest habitation in accordance with borough law, has been moved about 150 feet, it was reported. Council directed borough authorities to take action to see that the law is obeyed.

The borough secretary was instructed to inform Mrs. D. A. Grove, of East Linn street, that damage to a sidewalk and steps in front of her home, caused recently when a tree fell, will be repaired by the borough in the near future.

Preliminary plans for post-war projects such as establishment of a playground at the rear of the Phoenix Mill, improvement of the entrance to Reynolds avenue, extension of the retaining wall from Willowbank street along Holmes avenue, and other projects, are to be prepared by Council.

Some discussion resulted from a proposal that the north end of the Gamble Mill, on West Lamb street, be removed. That section of the mill, built as an addition to the original brick mill structure, could be removed with no damage to the original structure, and such action would eliminate a blind curve on Lamb street as well as improve the appearance of the locality, it was said. Much exceptionally fine timber and other materials in the structure could be salvaged to advantage, it was believed. No definite action was taken.

Dog Law Enforcement Officer James Marshall was employed 4½ hours and captured three dogs, which were destroyed, it was reported. The officer is now employed only when his services are needed, instead of on a regular basis.

Close Contests Feature Election

crat, holds the minority seat on the board by the unofficial margin of five votes over Fred C. Mensch. This margin may be changed one way or another by the official vote, or by the 41 military ballots which will not be counted until the official count which begins tomorrow.

James R. Hughes, of Bellefonte, will be president of the board of auditors, through having polled the largest vote. The other Republican member will be Howard M. Miles, with J. Victor Brungart as minority Democratic member.

One of the closest contests of the election was that for Sheriff. John "Jerry" Galaida won the office by a margin of 654 votes over his Democratic opponent Rudy Wettstein, of Julian, R. D. It so happened that Galaida's election was not assured until the last four or five election precincts sent in their returns, and until the early morning hours yesterday, Galaida and Wettstein were running a "nip and tuck" race.

Second highest vote in the county for any Republican candidate was polled for Bond C. White, who had a total of 7794 in his race for a third term as Prothonotary against Democratic nominee Frederic G. Hoffer, of Philipsburg, who polled 5208 votes.

Harry A. Corman led the Democratic ticket with 6891 votes, to win a second term as Register.

Leamer R. Woodring with 7177 votes won a third term for Recorder by defeating P. B. "Ben" Meek, of State College, who had a total of 5633.

Sheriff Edward R. Miller, Republican nominee for Treasurer, won that office by a margin of 925 votes over the Democratic candidate, Samuel H. Poorman, of Bellefonte.

Charles Sheckler, running for reelection as Coroner, polled 3055 votes more than the Democratic nominee, Anthony A. Donahoe, of State College, for that office. Sheckler, with a vote of 7935 led the entire field of candidates in the county.

For many of the offices and in most of the county's 65 districts there were clear-cut evidences that voters of both parties had "split" their tickets to an unusual degree. The tabulation of the vote reveals that most of the cutting was done in the contests for Sheriff, Register, and Commissioner.

In the only state-wide office voted on at Tuesday's election, Claude T. Reno, Republican, polled 6728 votes as compared with 5184 polled for the Democratic candidate, Curtis Bok.

For successor to James E. VanZandt as Congressman from this district, Centre countians gave the Republican candidate, D. Emmert Brumbaugh, of Claysburg, 7416 votes, while Edna Marsden, of Clearfield, Democratic aspirant, had 3146 votes. In Clearfield county Miss Marsden was the only Democrat on the ticket to carry the county, it is reported.

The voters of Centre county didn't show much interest in the proposed amendment to the Constitution, but of the comparatively few who voted on the question the sentiment favored the amendment, which read as follows: "Shall Section eleven of Article eight of the Constitution be amended to permit the boundaries of election districts and wards of cities and boroughs to be fixed and changed as provided by law instead of by the Court of Quarter Sessions?" There were 1801 votes in favor of the question and 1441 against.

Bellefonte Borough Results

Samuel D. Rhinesmith, unopposed candidate for election as school director for a four-year term, polled a total of 1437 Democratic and Republican votes.

Robert M. Woodring and J. Bossart DeHaas, both Republicans, were elected to six-year terms on the school board, defeating the present board president, Horace J. Hartranft, Democrat, and Charles Schaeffer, Democrat. The vote by wards was:

	Hartranft	Schaeffer	Woodring	Haas
N. W.	287	349	494	470
S. W.	173	223	338	343
W. W.	118	127	121	121
Totals	608	699	953	934

For Council William W. Sieg, present president of that body, was re-elected without opposition in the North Ward, polling 260 Democratic and 539 Republican votes.

In the South Ward for Council, Harold D. Cowher and Nevin Smith, both Republican, were elected over their Democratic opponents, William Brachbill and W. C. Coxey. The votes was: Brachbill, 196; Coxey, 204; Cowher, 394, and Smith, 337.

In the West Ward W. Leslie Thomas, running on a sticker campaign for Council, was elected over John Gordon, Democrat, and Wilbur Saxion, Republican. The vote was: Gordon, 70; Saxion, 70, and Thomas, 107.

Paul M. Dubbs, running for reelection for Borough Auditor, received a total of 1585 votes. He was the nominee on both tickets, and was unopposed for the office.

Harold D. Cowher, unopposed candidate for Justice of the Peace in the South and West Wards, received 541 votes in the South Ward and 238 in the West Ward.

awarded the Purple Heart and also a Silver Star for gallantry in action in the vicinity of Mateur, Tunisia, on April 30, 1943.

The citation, made by Major General Allen, states that Pvt. Fye at a time "when direct and accurate fire of an enemy machine gun nest prevented the evacuation of numerous casualties, advanced under heavy fire to within close proximity of the enemy nest and destroyed it with hand grenades."

Pvt. Fye enlisted January 22, 1941, and prior to being sent overseas was stationed at the following respective camps: Fort Joy, N. Y., Fort Devens, Mass., Camp Blanding, Fla., and took part in maneuvers in North Carolina. He was sent to Fort Bragg, Ga., and later transferred to Indiantown Gap for six weeks' training before leaving for overseas duty.

Pvt. Fye is a brother of Mrs. Irvin Borger of Moshannon.

Moshannon Girl Gives Blonde Hair for War

When the girl's hair is used by the company, the manufacturers will weigh it and will send to the Red Cross or the U. S. O. $2.50 for every ounce in the parcel.

To be suitable for use in precision instrument work, hair must be naturally blonde, must be straight and untouched by chemicals, hot irons, or waving machines, and must be at least 14 inches long. No black, red, or white hair is acceptable, nor can hair in which gray appears be used.

There is nothing that you can do to make a man believe something that he doesn't want to believe.
