FARM LOAN GROUP TO MEET MARCH 21

A dinner will be held next Tuesday evening, March 21 at 7 o'clock, by the Loan Committee of the Centre County National Farm Loan Association of Bellefonte.

The following members will attend: J. Maurice Miller and Richard P. Feltenberger, of Spring Mills; Earl Harper, of Pennsylvania Furnace; George Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg; Andrew C. Rockey, of Howard, R. D. 2; and Earl Gentzel, Allen Harter, Nathan H. Mull, Jr., of Bellefonte. Also in attendance will be these members of the board of directors: James J. Markle, of State College; George C. Waite, of Port Matilda; Morris Burkholder and George I. Petterolf, of Centre Hall, and Ward C. Krape, of Zion. Representatives will be Colonel C. C. Dobbins of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore; Robert L. Akers and E. G. Fouse, both of Hollidaysburg, and Jean Fanning, of Bellefonte.

A business meeting will be held immediately after the dinner for the general discussion of the financial needs of the farmers of this community. Ward C. Krape, president, will preside at this gathering which is the third in a series of such meetings being conducted by the association in the interest of the farmers in Centre county.

The association, which is a non-profiting, farmers cooperative, has loaned nearly $7,000 through the Bellefonte office for the purchase of farms, refinancing existing debts, purchase of livestock and equipment, fertilizer and supplies or to provide the farmers with funds for any general agricultural use. Farmers who have need for cash for any of these purposes are urged to call on the association for assistance in view of the increase in production needed in 1944.
