The Pittsburgh Gazette

GLEANINGS.

A well known and highly respected gentleman of Boston was in a street car going to the theatre, the other evening, when a woman seized him by the collar and accused him of having picked her pocket of a portmonnaie containing seven dollars. The car was stopped, the gentleman was arrested, and in spite of all protestations was walked off to a police station. Here he succeeded in finding a friend who went his bail, and in the morning it was discovered that the woman could not prove the loss, and the gentleman was released. It is supposed that this woman intends to live by picking people's pockets judicially.

Chicago is just now much excited over the trials of some forgers and the recent arrest of others. One man was caught just as he was issuing a counterfeit $500 bill, so well executed that it would have become necessary for the government to withdraw its issues of that denomination had the imitation gotten into circulation. The climax, however, in this carnival of forgery has been reached in the accusation and arrest of a Mr. Rodney M. Whipple of that place, and said to be a prominent and active merchant. Mr. Whipple is accused of having passed, or negotiated, an immense amount of checks and papers, with forged signatures and endorsements. Mr. Whipple indignantly denies the charge, and is probably entitled to belief rather than his accuser.

A mysterious adventure is exciting the aristocracy of Wabash avenue, in Chicago. Recently a window in the third story of a building on that thoroughfare was seen to open, an anxious face peered forth, and a pair of lilly hands dropped two sheets tied tightly together from the sill; one end, however, was made fast above. Then a pair of little feet appeared, and soon the lovely being had adventured herself on the perilous voyage down, fully intending to alight on a shed below. But her intentions were foiled; her grasp loosened, and she fell heavily, instead of alighting airily on the roof. Persons then ran out of the house and carried her back. This was seen and enjoyed by quite a number of neighbors and passers by. But here comes in the question: What did it all mean? The mystery is unexplained.

A row occurred in Louisville in a den of low character, occupied by some negroes of the baser sort. The fight raged with great violence for some time, men and women being promiscuously mingled, and stones and sticks being the chosen weapons. Some policemen put an end to the affair, which had caused much alarm to the quiet neighborhood, particularly as it took place at noon on Sunday. The worst wounds were not very bad, being a slashed face and a hand cut open.

Some democratic papers, in spite of themselves, show their dislike for the soldiers and their hankering after the South. We clip the following savory item from a southern exchange:

"We have been repeatedly asked if we would support General Sherman for the presidency. We will stand by the Democratic party and support its nominee.

"A bet was made once by a boasting countryman that he could eat a crow. His adversary had the crow seasoned with French snuff. The man nevertheless ate it all, with a 'wry face.' When he had finished, he ejaculated very earnestly—'I can eat crow, but I'll be d—d if I hanker after it.'"

A very destructive fire occurred on Saturday on the line of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, near Milwaukee. A spark from a locomotive set fire to a pile of cord wood, of which some four hundred and fifty cords were destroyed, causing a loss of fifteen hundred dollars to the company. The flames set fire to the neighboring forest, and all day Saturday and until Sunday morning the fire raged, sweeping over fields and woods, destroying trees, grass and fences. When last heard from the fire was still raging.

We spoke the other day of the genius which Parisians display in inventing new and startling modes of suicide. The most imaginative Frenchman will find it difficult to discover any method more startling than that made use of by any American circus actor, called on account of some of his feats "The Man Fly," who took a pistol and shot himself in the mouth while hanging by his feet to the ceiling of a theatre in Berlin, and while two thousand people were looking at him.

On Saturday evening a car while going down Seventh street, in Philadelphia, was discovered to be on fire. A stampede occurred among the passengers and a small boy was slightly hurt. The conductor is likened to Cassabianca by the Press, because he stood upon the burning wreck when all but him had fled, and succeeded in putting out the fire.

Two vinegar factories in Milwaukee have been seized by the revenue officers. They were licensed for vinegar, but had taken to whiskey. A large amount of high and low wines were taken possession of, and the proofs are so overwhelming that the owners will scarcely attempt a defense.

A Maryland paper tells a very tough story about a negro, who, while out shooting, observed three deer, and after carefully choosing his position, he shot, killing all three at one shot. He brought them all home with him too.

Mrs. Lander is playing to very small houses in Baltimore, a place where it seems they have no taste for unsurpassed benevolence or unrivaled histrionic talent.

There is a flowing well at Glasgow, Kentucky, which has already produced several thousand barrels of crude petroleum, which is now being used in that vicinity.

Although Reading is a small place, it manages to get a longer list of deaths than we do in Pittsburgh. Last week there were thirty seven.

The New York Gazette asks, "Why is a clergyman marrying a couple like an apothecary?" and answers, "Because he compounds simples."

The Boston Post says that the Radicals are like Weston, the pedestrian, now, because they expect victory out of de feet.

The Boston Post gets off the following joke: "Brownlow is pretty bad for a Senator, but his associate is Fowler."

The Boston Commercial Bulletin observes that many politicians who itched for office were scratched last week.

TOTTEN & CO., IRON FOUNDERS AND ENGINE BUILDERS. FULTON FOUNDRY, PITTSBURGH. Office and Warehouse, 141 Wood St. Especial attention given to the manufacture of Rolling Mill and Blast Furnace Engines, Squeezers, Shears and Punches, Plain Chill and Soft Rolls, of any required dimensions, warranted, and turned to order. Nail Machines, Ernest's Pattern. Pollock's Hot Blast Pipes. House Fronts and Window Heads. Castings made of GUN IRON, if desired.

Totten's Patent Grooved Chill Rolls. Equally valuable for BAR IRON AND STEEL, and especially for rounds and squares. We have made these Rolls for 8 inch, 9 inch, 10 inch, 12 inch, 16 inch and 18 inch trains. Wherever used they have given great satisfaction, and we have the pleasure of referring to the following testimonials:

OFFICE OF THE AKRON IRON CO., Akron, July 12th, 1867. Mr. Robt. C. Totten, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sir: We have had a pair of your patent grooved chill rolls in our use for the last six months, and find them of a superior quality. The iron finished on them is of a smooth, even surface, and free from scales, and I consider them in all respects of great advantage, making better iron and of less expense, in consequence of requiring less dressing. Yours truly, BENJ. GROSVENOR, Supt.

PITTSBURGH STEEL WORKS, ANDERSON, COOK & CO., Manufacturers of all Descriptions of Steel, Corner of Ross and First streets, PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7, 1867. Mr. Robt. C. Totten—Dear Sir: The grooved chilled rolls which we procured from you about a year since have proved to be a perfect success. There is a great saving in dressing over soft rolls, and give a much better finish to the steel. We consider them indispensable. Your truly, ANDERSON, COOK & CO.

BLACK DIAMOND STEEL WORKS, PARK BROTHER & CO., PITTSBURGH, Sept. 12, 1867. Mr. Robt. C. Totten, Pittsburgh—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry in relation to your new patent grooved Chill Rolls, we have to say that having used a number of them, we find they answer our purpose admirably. We are now using a pair of 18-inch grooved Chill Rolls, the last pair you made for us. These Rolls are used for finishing large rounds, and enable us to obtain with a finish upon our Steel as could not be had with the use of the ordinary grooved Rolls. The saving in turning your Rolls ready for use, is plain Chill Rolls is less than is necessary when using lathes, whilst the advantage gained with face of the groove is uniformly hard, requiring not over one-half the work that is usually needed in dressing the ordinary grooved Rolls. We believe you have gained a great point in producing a grooved chill roll, an article that has long been needed by the manufacturers of bar steel and iron, to enable them to produce an article with a good finished surface. We take pleasure in recommending manufacturers of steel and iron to give your grooved Chill Rolls a trial. Respectfully yours, PARK BROTHER & CO.

We think we are warranted in believing that they will eventually take the place of Soft Rolls, especially for Rounds and Squares. All orders promptly attended to.
