Miss Loris Bierly of Harrisburg, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bierly the past weekend.

WOODWARD

Pfc. Guy Brindle of Fort Ord, Cal., arrived last Wednesday morning by bus, and Pfc. Harold Bechtol of a camp in Oklahoma, also arrived the same day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bechtol.

S 2/c Warren Shreckengast of Camp Bainbridge, Md., arrived on Saturday morning on a weekend leave, and S 2/c Russell Whitmyer of New York City, also was noticed at the Ard's public sale on Saturday. Believe me, our soldier boys, five of them, two of the Navy and three of the Army, viz: Shreckengast, Whitmyer, Brindle, Harold Bechtol and his brother, Staff Sgt. Kenneth Bechtol, had a fine time together, enjoying themselves and especially when Kenny related his dangerous trips against the Japs. It surely is a miracle that he returned home with all his limbs. After a much needed rest he still intends to do all in his power to win the war.

The Ard public sale was well attended and articles brought extra high prices in many cases.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brindle of Aurora, Ill., were called east on account of the death of a relative of theirs. Since then they are visiting relatives in this and Brush Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musser and their daughter, Mrs. Lewis Paulhamus of Selinsgrove, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiedler.

Steward Eisenhuth and brother, John, were weekend guests of their respective families.

Miss Helen Shirk of Hartleton, was a weekend and Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Bechtol. We were glad to see her attend the Sunday school, E. L. C. E. and the evening preaching services.

Staff Sgt. Kenneth Bechtol gave a very interesting address to an attentive audience at the desire of the pastor, Rev. H. S. Entz, concerning his thrilling experiences with the Japs, on Sunday evening. From his story our people do not know all the dangerous experiences our soldier boys pass through.

A certain radio announcer stated on last Saturday that whenever the Second Front opens the churches of England will be open for worshippers to pray for all our soldier boys. That's just what all the churches in America should not hesitate to do, and furthermore, that's what's going to happen here in Woodward. The church doors will be unlocked for just such work. Go to church and pray for our soldier boys and for our country. We've been living too far away from God.

Miss Erma Guisewite was the Sunday guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Guisewite. She also enjoyed the Sunday school and ELCE services.

Cpl. Malcolm L. Boob of Camp Carson, Colo., arrived at home on Monday of last week on a furlough. His brother, Sgt. Theodore M. Boob of Wilmington, Del., arrived home on Sunday and had only three hours time to talk with his mother, Mrs. Lodie Boob, and his brother mentioned above. That was indeed a short leave for "Teddy," as his chums used to call him.

BUSH HOLLOW

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. with preaching services immediately after, in charge of Rev. Thomas, our evangelist.

We have been having good services from night to night the past week. We are looking for more throughout this week. The attendance has been fair considering the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Wireman Warner of Axemann were Altoona shoppers last Thursday.

Mrs. Myrtle King is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Martin Spotts, and family and attending the revival services.

Mrs. Roy Spotts received a card last week from her brother, Clark Custer, who left for army service. He is stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Sunday dinner guests at the Lemuel Warner home were Mrs. Warner's brother, Sgt. Jonas Stine, of Camp Carson, Colorado, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stine, of Waddle. They also helped celebrate the first birthday of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Warner.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas and daughter, Priscilla, are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young while conducting our revival services.

Glad to see Rachel Resides was able to attend church one night last week. Hope she will keep on improving.

BENNER TWP.

Fred Neff has moved from Maryland, where he has been working for several years, to the farm he bought at Rock, known as the Lewis Marshall farm.

Kermit Rider is helping Jesse Witherite with his farming this spring.

Fred Neff and Ira Benner attended a sale at Shingletown on Monday.

Hazel Benner, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Benner of Mill Hall, returned to her home on Sunday after spending five weeks with her grandparents here at the home of Ira Benner.

Faye Witherite has returned home after spending a few weeks with her sister's family.

Bernard Crust has bought five hundred baby chicks. He has gained a record of raising early broilers for the markets.

Francis Benner and family and Cecil Hull of Mill Hall, and Wilbur Orndorf of Zion, visited at the home of Ira Benner on Sunday and did some fishing along Spring Creek. Other weekend guests were George Thompson's family from Altoona.

Vaughn Rider has started farming on the Brockerhoff farm near Fillmore.
