The Pittsburgh Gazette

GLEANINGS.

—Lamartine is dying.

—Small pox rages among the Washington negroes.

—A new State prison is what the Californians want now.

—Cleveland is to have the renowned Boz early in February.

—There are seventy-six Congregational preachers in Vermont.

—Bierstadt has shown some of his pictures to the Queen of England.

—Hannibal, a small town in Missouri, had a dozen fights on Christmas day.

—Twelve thousand medals have been given by the Pope to his recent defenders.

—Sweetser, of the New York Mail, has started a penny morning paper called the Globe.

—$36,000 is what the Webb sisters get for playing one hundred nights on the Pacific coast.

—365 Congregational meeting houses have been built during the last twenty years, in this country.

—$250,000 is what a certain Englishman has to pay for the monopoly of the gambling business at Hong Kong.

—Henry Ward Beecher's income was large last year, he made thirty-seven thousand dollars from his farm alone.

—A negro thief was shot in Memphis and his carcass left lying for almost a week in the street, because the Coroner was out of town.

—A congress of skaters is to assemble shortly in New York; all skating clubs are to be invited, and a series of skating exhibitions and tournaments is to take place.

—The United States got fifteen thousand dollars in the shape of taxes from the Black Crook which was performed four hundred and seventy-five times in New York.

—The Hudson, N. Y., Iron Company has just declared a dividend of forty-five per cent., beside increasing the capital stock. We should think that such capital stock ought to be increased.

—The sudden ending of the Quimby divorce case has thrilled Chicago with a most delicious scandal, but has spared them the long columns of prurient details which would have filled their journals if it had ever come before the Courts.

—The pin money of the various sovereigns of Europe varies as much as do the sovereigns themselves. Napoleon has $7,500,000; King William has $3,000,000; Franz Joseph $3,500,000; Victoria $3,000,000; while the poor King John, of Saxony, has but $112,000.

—Thirty or forty mill operatives in Fall River had a horrible row recently, in which men and women engaged promiscuously and received black eyes and bloody noses indiscriminately. After this we should like, if possible, to hear no more about the superiority of New England factory girls over the rest of womankind.

—The elephant is likely soon to become extinct. Many of the places which knew him, know him no more, and the jungles and wilds of Asia and Africa have but ghosts of herds of them now, so that this representative of a mighty antediluvian constituency will probably soon take his place with the dodo, the saurian, megatherium, mammoth, etc., in the mighty list of things that were in the days of the giants.

—Gov. Magoffin, who the Harrodsburg, Ky., Signal says is a genial, wholesouled, old-fashioned Kentucky gentleman, recently gave a very elegant dinner to Raphael Semmes. A long poem was read, called the "Admiral's Sword," in which a prophet foretells that the said sword is sheathed, not surrendered. The company consisted of democrats and radical and conservative republicans, and everything passed off pleasantly.

—The Rev. Moodie, of Chicago, in speaking of the destruction of the magnificent building of the Young Men's Christian Association in that city, stated that God had suffered them to meet with that loss in order to give them a still better building. Another minister suggested that it might have been meant to humble them, a remark which carries much force with it, when we think of the avowed purposes of the Association and then of the amount of money spent on the building. We would almost venture to say that our Young Men's Christian Association does as much good as the one in Chicago, and yet it is content with neat and simple rooms, while applying what money it has to its legitimate purposes.

—A new troupe of Japanese, composed of gentlemen and ladies of rank and leisure, has come to New York. The members are all entitled to wear two swords each, yet we are jugglers. This might seem inconsistent any place but in America, where they are so accustomed to seeing high functionaries who are very accomplished jugglers. The manager of the troupe, who is a nobleman of high degree, has resorted to a rare expedient to obtain free puff and official patronage. On Tuesday he appeared with his companions before Mayor Hoffman and presented him with a sword valued at three hundred dollars. The Mayor in return bestowed his photograph on the foreigners, who were overcome by this act of condescension.

—One of the most able of the American monthlies is the "Northern," published in Newark, N. J., and circulated everywhere. The last number of this magazine, that for January, contains one of the most truthful, cutting, severe and unanswerable articles on Charles Dickens that we have ever seen. The statements are all facts, and such facts as have been most studiously kept from public view by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, Dolby and Dickens. Those persons who are unprejudiced enough to wish to hear all sides of the great case of Dickens vs. America and the World, should read this article, which, as we remarked above, is very severe, more so even than the remarks of a Sunday contemporary of ours are, when addressed to us.

—Captain Judkins is no longer in command of the Scotia, for which future travelers may be thankful. We wonder if it is impossible for a man to be as perfect a sailor as Captain Judkins, and at the same time be a gentleman? It has been said that the Cunard Company cannot get Captain Judkins' equal in knowledge of navigation and the sea, of which he has been termed the king. Of this we cannot assert the truth, but we do know that that company would have rather a hopeless task if a man was to be found who is the gallant Captain's equal in gruffness, impoliteness, disdain of all laws of kindness or politeness, and in general bearishness. We hope the Cunards will never attempt this task.

—The Emperor of Austria appeared at a recent ball attired in plain black evening costume. Such an innovation must trouble greatly the great Bourbon party of Europe, the large minority of the European upper classes. When the Bourbons fell it devolved on the Hapsburgs to sustain the dignity of monarchs, and uphold the good old principles of absolutism. All others have fallen away from the standard excepting Spain, whose influence is not large. Russia has shocked these exclusives by her vast strides towards disgraceful liberty. Italy has, in the most outrageous manner, swept out a herd of sovereigns, and the mushroom Prussia has upset some of the old thrones. Under these circumstances Austria was considered the only hope, the last stout thing to which to cling, and now Franz Joseph has apostatized; has gone back on the sacred laws of the etiquette of his ancestors, and has worn plain black ball clothes. After such signs and wonders what marvel is there in the growing number of disciples of such doctrines as those of Miller, Baxter or Cummings?

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, SS.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, TO THE SHERIFF OF SAID COUNTY, GREETING:—Whereas, Daniel Reisinger and Catharine, his wife, for use of the Real Estate Savings Bank, lately in our District Court, before our Judges of our said Court, at Pittsburgh, to wit: on the 24th day of October, A. D. 1867, by the judgment of our said Court recovered against Rees J. Thomas, executor of James Graham, deceased, a judgment for the sum of fourteen hundred and forty 46-100 dollars, for their debt, as well as twelve dollars for their costs, and charges by them about their suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said Rees J. Thomas, executor of James Graham, deceased, is convict, as appears to us of record. And whereas, by the insinuation of the said Daniel Reisinger and Catharine, his wife, for use of the Real Estate Savings Bank, we have in our said Court understood, that although the judgment in form aforesaid be given, yet execution thereof still remains to be made, whereof they have besought us to grant unto them in this behalf a proper remedy, and we being willing that what is right and just should be done herein, do command you as oftimes before we have commanded you, that by good and lawful men of your bailiwick you give notice to the said Rees J. Thomas, executor of James Graham, deceased, with notice to Fannie Graham, Hugh Graham and Fannie Graham (children of Hugh Graham, deceased who was a brother of James Graham, deceased,) Thomas Graham, James Graham and Martha McWilliams (children of Thomas Graham, deceased, who was a brother of James Graham, deceased,) Ellen Graham, Betty Graham, Robert Graham and Marten Graham (children of John Graham, deceased, who was a brother of James Graham, deceased) John Howe, Robert Howe, and James Howe, (children of Mary Howe, deceased, who was a daughter of said John Graham, deceased brother of said James Graham, deceased,) John Scarlett, Mary Scarlett, and Martha Scarlett, (children of Prudy Scarlett, deceased, who was a sister of said James Graham, deceased,) William Casey, (son of Ellen Casey, deceased, who was a sister of said James Graham, deceased,) Fanny Conly and Sarah Bell, (children of Mary Bell, who was a sister of said James Graham, deceased), ———, (children of Betty Wilson, was a sister of James Graham, deceased), as heirs of James Graham, deceased, and with notice to the terre tenants that they be and appear before our Judges at Pittsburgh, at our District Court there to be held for the County aforesaid, the first Monday of January next to show if anything for themselves they can say why the judgment should not be revived, and the lien continued, and why the said plaintiffs, Daniel Reisinger and Catharine his wife, for use of the Real Estate Savings Bank, ought not to have their execution against them for debt, interest and costs aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the recovery aforesaid if shall think fit. And further to do and receive whatsoever our said Court shall then and there of and concerning them in this behalf consider. And have you then and there the names of those by whom you shall make known to them and this writ.

Witness the Hon. M. HAMPTON, President of our said Court at Pittsburgh, the 7th day of December, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste heat which goes up the chimney is used in heating water, for which a separate fire is usually required, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH STOVE, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bib Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to
