The Pittsburgh Gazette

Origin of the Dimple.

One day, as Love's Queen on a couch was reclining,
Light Morpheus spread softly his opiate dew
Over her love beaming eyes, and a garland entwining,
Wreathed with it her hair, and as softly withdrew.

Morlong ere she dreamed that Adonis, her lover,
Impressed on her cheek his soul conquering kiss—
She dreamed that she saw his dark ringlets hover
Around his face, blushing beauty and bliss

Soon Cupid espied her, so calmly reposing,
Why slumber thus, mother—his Cupid—oh, speak,
Bright day it is set, and night's curtains are closing,
Awake—and his finger imprinted her cheek.

Betts it a goddess, so fair and enchanting,
On earth's lowly couch, among mortals to rest?
The moon cache his steed, for thy star is yet wanting,
And Vesper awaits thee to shine in the West.

Soft—soft, e'en as peach down, it sunk to the finger,
Kept—too, like fruit, the fond impress awhile,
Till forced to depart, though still striving to linger,
It fled with his frown—but returned with her smile.

And hence, it is said, a sweet dimple enhances
The charms of our lasses, so soft and so fair!
Adds charms to their smiles, and fresh fire shines the young god has been revelling there.

EPHEMERIS.

—Small-pox is on the increase in Chicago.

—Mrs. Littlefield, aged 106 years, died in Maine last week.

—Bandmann, the German actor, is playing in London.

—Last year 415 brown stone front buildings were put up in Brooklyn.

—Puss in Pelticoats is the name of Offenbach's latest musical burlesque.

—The old original Hutchison family is making a concertising tour in Iowa.

—Carl Formes has given up opera and taken to tragedy. His voice has given out.

—Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams are playing in Philadelphia; so is Lady Don.

—A baby was born with two front teeth two weeks ago in Des Moines, Iowa.

—There are one hundred and thirty-five thousand volumes in the Astor library.

—The heavy ice sunk a schooner laden with lumber in Baltimore on Friday.

—320,000 men and boys are constantly employed in the coal mines of Great Britain.

—Charles Dickens has already cleared sixty thousand dollars by his readings in this country.

—The Fifth of February is the day on which the New York State Republican Convention will meet.

—Mrs. Senator Sprague again receives on Saturday afternoons; her receptions last year were a success.

—Since the purchase of Russian America Siberian Sables sell at half their former price in San Francisco.

—There is one thing among many in life to try men more than any other. It is jury.—Exchange.

—The third edition of the first number of the new series of Putnam's magazine has been published.

—A young man in St. Louis recently endeavored to brain a little girl with a hatchet. He was arrested.

—The Liberty Index is the name of a new literary weekly published in Florence, Alabama. Its politics are to be neutral.

—There were but 127 deaths in the city of Raleigh, N. C., during the year 1867. Seventy-three of these were negroes.

—A city passenger car in Baltimore ran against a box containing plate glass, on Saturday, breaking two panes, valued at $300.

—Twenty-eight negroes stole $5,980 in gold out of a sugar hogshead in Alabama. The owner had put it there for safe keeping.

—Rich beds of iron ore and coal have recently been developed in Tennessee along the line of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad.

—To economise, is to draw in as much as possible. The ladies apply this art to their persons and the result is a very small waste.—Exchange.

—A tobacco box which once belonged to Ben. Franklin was presented, on New Year's day, to the editor of the Charlottsville (Va.) Chronicle.

—A thief broke open a safe in Baltimore on Saturday, after having evidently had several hours hard work, and got $10 in greenbacks for his labors.

—Tennyson's poem the Victim, has been published in many of the newspapers all over this country, thus rather forcing the Atlantic Monthly.

—Twenty-two thousand dollars have already been subscribed for the erection of a new building for the Young Man's Christian Association in Chicago.

—Some thieves, who were probably blessed with complete sets of sweet teeth, stole $1500 worth of fine candies from a confectioner in St. Louis on Friday.

—A negro in Selma, Alabama, shot another through the heart on Christmas day. It was another case of pointing a gun which was supposed to be unloaded.

—A correspondent thinks young women are very well on the promenade or at a soiree; but that they should prepare to be ignored at instrumental concerts.

—For some time the people of St. Louis have not been able to cross the Mississippi on account of the heavy floating ice, and the need of a bridge is more than ever apparent.

—Two brides, at a hotel in Chicago, had their trousseaux stolen on Christmas night; a porter was the thief who thus "completed their trousseaux," although they had no white kid boots.

—In Mr. Dickens' advertisement of his first reading in Philadelphia he observes that the reading will begin at eight o'clock, and that "it is expected the audience will all be seated by that hour.

—The Poe Monument Committee in Baltimore are about to renew their efforts to raise sufficient money for their purposes. If every admirer of the great American genius would contribute a single dollar, a memorial worthy of the poet could be erected.

—Jarrett and Palmer are going into the ballet business stronger than ever. They now have two complete troupes and some fifteen star dancers, and their intention is to run the White Fawn simultaneously at Niblo's, in New York, and at the Boston Theatre.

—The druggist Sügel, in St. Louis, who was struck on the head with a hatchet on the night of the 21st instant, as he was going through a dark hall in his own house, died last week from the effects of the wound. His wife is suspected by some of being the murderess.

—A new use for our distinguished fellow-citizen, Gen. Hancock, has just been found by a Southern paper: "The Albany (Georgia) News thinks that Gen. Hancock was probably born to redeem the character of Yankee commanders from infamy, and the South from the thraldom of scalawags and pegro supremacy."

—An English woman of high rank, and who was in opulent circumstances, was recently arrested in Paris for stealing; her only excuse was that it is impossible for her to resist the temptation of stealing, and resorting to all sorts of odd methods of appropriating things which do not belong to her, and for which she has no use.

—The present is said to be the last week which Signor Blitz will perform in public. It seems as if Blitz must have found the fountain of youth, for he has amused three generations with his magic, Bobby and the canary birds. Many times he has visited Pittsburgh, but his home was Philadelphia, where he is to make his last bow.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste heat which goes up the chimney pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary family, by passing the blaze directly around the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole in the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7 or more Cooking Stove, for $10 extra. Very extensively used in the Eastern States. UNION, VICTORY, BUCKEYE RANGE, THE UNION STOVE, AT ADAMS & CO.'S, and Cook Stoves made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Celebrated, the Boiler and Lid, the Eco Cook, for the low sum of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S

Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR

Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Colds, Costiveness, &c.

THE EXTRAORDINARY AND MERITORIOUS CHARACTER OF MY ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, has induced manyfold more than ever before, persons who suffer from Biliousness may be more extensively, and would much sooner, if they knew what relief and comfort they could find in the skill of the best Physicians, who have prescribed my Pills, and have witnessed the benefit to their patients. Dyspepsia, cause of lung scrofula, A cause of all diseases, the Dyspepsia is the source of more misery than any other disease of the medical profession, and yet there is no wider elucidation. Believing that there is no other medicine published for these complaints, that can be carried to every man's door without the aid of a physician; and it is well known that I have done the cases which are set up in the Pills, and that they are the cases which are set up in the Pills, and that they are the cases which are set up in the Pills, and that they are the cases which are set up in the Pills, and that they are the cases which are set up in the Pills, and that they are the cases which are set up
