WOODWARD

Dr. and Mrs. George Ard of Hanover, were Sunday guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ard, last week. It had been now for about a year or more since they were here in the old home town for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser took the Ard bus on Monday morning of last week for a few days' visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Musser, near Hartleton. On Tuesday their son took them to Danville to the Geisinger hospital where Mr. Musser underwent a recheck examination on his chronic ailment. They returned home last Tuesday evening.

Harold Ard started work last week one day to enlarge his new garage in order to house more of his trucks and busses. Already the concrete foundation forms are finished. Before the week is out the concrete will have been poured.

George Bechtol, in company with C. E. Kreamer, attended the joint quarterly conference of the Evangelical church held in the Bellefonte Evangelical church last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser are suffering from a severe cold at the present time.

The pupils of our consolidated schools have succeeded in gathering about seventeen bagsfulf of wild cotton balls in this locality to be used for some kind of war use.

Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser were Grover (their son), and daughter, Mrs. Hazel Strand of York, Mrs. Gurney Musser, her nephew and niece, Stanton and Betty Ann, of near Hartleton.

After about two weeks' vacation in town and locality, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Orndorf returned to their city home in Philadelphia last Wednesday. They certainly appreciated the country air and pretty scenes.

Pfc. Carl Motz left this Wednesday for his post of duty at Buckley Field, near Denver, Colo. He certainly had a delightful 15-day furlough and we were glad to have him come home again.

Remember the next Sunday services: Sunday school at 9:15 a. m., followed by E. L. C. E. services at 10:30 o'clock. Harvest Home services in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are heartily invited to all these services.

DRY TOP

(Boggs Twp.)

On the largest fighting ship of the U. S. A. coming from the Top by plane are the Dry Toppers. Those who moved in new were Mr. and Mrs. Myran Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Sholl and family. The Sholl family do not expect to remain for long. There is Fred Summers' dad is fine; he and Roy sold some calves at the community sale and got himself some hogs.

Somewhere in the army to the Hillard boys: The folks are able to go down the side of the Top to school and town. The McKinley's are repairing their house to save fuel this winter. Dad and uncle Steve are good jobbers. Hello, Leamer. Mrs. Davis and Billy spent a few days with her parents this last week and Dad Breon has made quite an improvement in the spring, making it deeper and concreting. Well, Bug, old boy, everything is still under control and I'd be tickled pink to see you long enough any way to say hello. The folks are all fine as far as I can see. Hello Tommy Tucker. I guess you must be fighting Japs to earn your supper; well, good luck to you.

Now Paul and Tom we sure think you guys are swell. Kate and Gladys are both well and saucy. Oh, Red, yes he is fine too, and he argues the scribe down too just like his dad, ha, ha. Well Mahlon we hear about you once in a bit. I am sorry this is an open letter to all the boys off the Top or I would like to tell you about the nice high school senior who inquired after your health. Oh, yes, the girls have not forgotten what a sport you were. Dad and mother Harvey are fine at this writing.

Somewhere out on the ocean—Hello Walter, you are getting to be quite an old salt. Well, your folks are all well as usual. Russell and Laverne we had an old time Sunday today. Bruce and Ethel brought his father and mother also sister and daughters, to spend the day. Then Vernell and Marion Behers turned up in time to eat dinner. We are all in our usual health.

Harold and Paul: The last time I dropped in on your mother she was making ready to put up her winter supply of peaches. Grandma Eckenroth was at the peeling end of the job.

Mrs. George Kelley visited her son Guyer, over Sunday.

Hio, Chuck. The wife shared her pictures. They are real good of you. The same good big grin we all miss. Well, she is well and working like a beaver and when you come home she'll take you for the second honey moon. (chuckle.)

Harold: Saw Lucille, and the girls are all fine. Miss Theo Butler went to Altoona Wednesday to see her soldier friend off after spending his furlough with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Butler were shopping Wednesday at Lewistown. Did you say the stores were closed?

Well Boys, so long, till next time. Your Scribe.

LITTLE NITTANY
