WOODWARD

Mrs. Bertha Boone of Millheim, is taking in the revival services here in the local Evangelical church since last week. While here she is the guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiedler, and also her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser.

On Sunday afternoon the remains of Calvin Snyder of Lewistown were brought here for interment in his father's (John Snyder) family plot in the Woodward Union cemetery. Mr. Snyder passed away at the above-named town on Wednesday of some chronic disorder, aged 64 years, Jan. 24, 1945. He leaves to mourn his departure as far as we know, two brothers, George, of Millheim, Bob of Harrisburg, and four step-brothers, Porter of DuBois, Fred of Lewisburg, Freeman of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Clayton of Lewistown. Mr. Snyder was never married.

For the past week this locality certainly had a hard time to transact any business due to the drifted roads, and now (Monday) the blower is on again after about a two-inch snowfall. For a number of days last week the children in what is known as Back Corner, did not get to school at all on account of the closed roads. The mercury hovered around the zero temperature mark for a number of days.

The revival meetings conducted by the Harmony Gospel Team of Johnstown, was well attended last week considering the inclement weather. On Sunday evening nearly 300 persons attended the interesting and spiritual services. These consecrated evangelistic girls certainly do their part in getting people persuaded of a better and contented way of life and people. Christians as well as sinners, cannot find a better place for help to start a new and consecrated life as right here in these meetings. We're glad to report that to date nine persons have accepted Christ as their personal saviour besides a number of consecrations. The Harmony Gospel Team will be with us up to and including Sunday evening. All are heartily invited to attend. Come and clean up your life.

The program for next Sunday is as follows: Sunday school at 9:15 a. m., followed by revival services at 10:30. At 2:30 another service, and in the evening at 7:30. During the week services will be at 7:45 p. m.

You might not like price control but you would like uncontrolled prices a lot less.

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church: No prayer service this Thursday evening, but instead there will be the quarterly conference meeting in the church at Milesburg, which all officials of the church here are expected to attend. This service will be conducted by the district superintendent, Rev. Meyer of Williamsport. Sunday school on Sunday morning. Youth Fellowship in the evening at 6:30, followed by preaching service at 7:30, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. A. Sower.

Free Methodist Church: Prayer service Friday evening in the church. Sunday school Sunday morning at the usual time, followed by preaching service at 11 o'clock, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. E. Joseph.

We had our usual weekly snow but it came a day early this week, instead of a Monday snow it came on Sunday. Just a little more added to what we already have makes a little more to be gotten rid of in the spring.

Paul Jones and his sister, Mrs. King of Tyrone, spent Sunday with their father, Harry Jones and wife of this place. Mr. Jones has been ill for the past week and confined to his home. His many friends and neighbors hope for him a most speedy recovery.

Thomas McClellan of Altoona, spent several days over the past weekend with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones.

At the candlelight service held recently in the Methodist church, at which time candles were lighted for each person in the U. S. service from the borough and Union township, two names were accidentally missed and they wish to make mention of them at this time. They were Israel Janet and George McClincy, both of Union township. These names were not missed intentionally, but the committee is sorry they missed them. We trust there have been no others missed. If there have been the committee would be glad to learn of them.

Rev. Sower of the Methodist church, conducted services Sunday afternoon in the County Home and the county jail at Bellefonte. Several young folks of the community accompanied Rev. Sower to these two places and assisted with the singing.

The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held Wednesday evening, Feb. 7th, at the home of Mrs. Carl Flick. A good attendance is desired. Topic for discussion will be the "American Indian," along with other business.

Pvt. Allen S. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Williams of Dix Run, gave them a welcome surprise by popping in for a week's stay, greeting old friends, looking over familiar scenes, and best of all, shouldering his gun with his dog Jock by his side and going to the woods to pass time he always enjoyed. This was his first trip home from Camp Swift, S. C., having completed the required four months training. He was given a certificate, badge and bars as an expert rifleman. He returned to camp last Thursday, Jan. 25, for a short stay and from there expected to be sent to Camp Meade, Md., for a short duration and then be sent across to some distant point.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Shope of Willowbank street, Bellefonte, are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Jan. 7th. They have named him William Kenzie, in honor of his two grandparents. This is their first boy and second child. Mrs. Shope will be better remembered as the former Mary Eleanor Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Williams of Dix Run.

William Summers, former resident of this place, but now living with his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Detling of near Pittsburgh, is holding his own considering his advanced age and what it brings. The Summers home here has been closed since the death of Mrs. Summers last fall.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Elmer Hosband, which occurred early Monday morning at the County Home where he has been a patient for the past several months. Funeral services will be conducted this Thursday afternoon from the Methodist church here, and interment in the Oak Ridge cemetery of Union township. We wish to extend most sincere sympathies to the bereaved family.

Walter Zahniser, who has been employed at the Titan Metal plant since his return from the Army, is at present a patient at Aspinwall, near Pittsburgh, a veterans' hospital, where he has gone for observation and treatment.

Mrs. Louise Stere visited over the post weekend with Mrs. William Musser and her mother, Mrs. Mary Wright of Bellefonte.

The members of the Bridge Club of the community were entertained last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. H. I. Kerchner and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Fisher.

Mrs. Helen Jones, teacher in the schools at Julian, Huston township, was not able to go to her school last Thursday on account of the illness of her husband, Harry Jones.
