LOOKING AT THE PLANS.

esigns for the Phipps Conservatory Soon to Be Adopted.

Oliver Scaife having returned to the city, e, with John Walker and Chief Bigelow, ent two hours yesterday in examining the lans for the Phipps conservatory. These ree gentlemen are Mr. Phipps' committee o dispose of the matter, and they will think ver and discuss the plans for another day r two before deciding which shall be dopted. None of the gentlemen would ex- ress an opinion on any of the designs esterday, and from answers they made to uestions it is still anybody's contest for the rize. Each of the competing architects ave a representative in the city who will emain until the decision is made.
