MAYOR'S OFFICE,

PITTSBURGH, OCTOBER 7TH, 1868.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, Information has been received by me from a most reliable source, that certain persons are combining for the purpose of procuring weapons to be used in attacking political processions and public meetings, and committing other unlawful acts, I deem it my duty, as Chief Magistrate, to issue this, my Proclamation, enjoining on all good citizens to keep the public peace and to refrain from all acts calculated to endanger it, and in view of recent disturbances, I feel it incumbent on me to largely increase my police force, and will, if necessary, call to my aid the Sheriff of the county in order that the safety of the citizens may be secured, and I now hereby notify all violators of law and order, without regard to persons or parties, that I will faithfully maintain the laws, and will use my utmost endeavors to suppress riot and bring offenders to condign punishment, and I hereby invite all good citizens to aid me in the preservation of the public peace, and request the heads of all political processions and meetings to co-operate with me in the suppression of violence and disorder.

JAMES BLACKMORE, Mayor.

OCTOBER 7—10 O'CLOCK P. M.

The above Proclamation was written in full expectation that its public appearance this morning would be timely to prevent any encounter of citizens. The danger of the public peace has been anticipated by this night's events; and I now call upon each and every good citizen of this community, irrespective of all parties, to assist me by their individual influence in the suppression of that which would be regretted by our entire community, and for the first time stain the fair fame of Pittsburgh.

As a means toward accomplishing this good and desirable end, I earnestly suggest to the Clubs of either Party a complete cessation of all parades, now that the day of election is so near at hand, when the public peace must be preserved, for the sake of the undisturbed sacred right of the ballot.

JAMES BLACKMORE,
8oc:y74 MAYOR.
