The New Administration.

President Buchanan has now entered fully pression made upon the country by the in-reported, was as follows: augural address of the new administration. Preperty subject to 3 mill tax It was worthy of the dignity and moderation of a statesman who has learned how deeply the love of country has taken root in the people's hearts, to attribute his election to the Watches influence of this prevailing sentiment. Nor could we desire a better guarantee that the government will be so administered as to promote the common happiness, than the pur- pated. pose, everywhere disclosed in the inaugural. to recognize in the conduct of public affairs. that lave of the Union, which the President be- this motion, the hour of five arrived, and the Menallen-Henry Rice, Jacob Group. lieves has been the controlling cause of his Board adjourned. elevation to power.

But we are not left to conjecture what to realize, as far as may be, for the advantage; add to the valuation of real estate $91,151. of the country, the substantial ends of good government. We cannot forbear also calling special attention to that portion of the inaugural which | 7 In that connection the President has manitoo highly appland. Though we may well around; in conscious integrity, to disregard as follows: much of the perversion which prevails abroad i in reference to our national expansion, it was yer well that the Preside a should state the principles which will govern the action of his cabinet in our intercourse with foreign nations. Such a policy will disarm the criticism of Europe, while it leaves us as free to pursue the ends of substantial greatness as any country could desire.

In the organization of his cabinet, the President has called to his aid men who will, in the execution of his policy. Happily for him the administration of the retiring President has caused the nation already to advance vote recorded accordingly. far upon the paths which the incoming administration has resolved to pursue. And it is the good fortune of the eminent man selected for the Department of State to succeed to the well ordered office of William L. The Democratic Meeting announced to take place at Levi Krebs's, in Littlestown, on the 18th ult., was changed, on account of religious exercises being had in the town, to Newman's School-house, in Mountjoy township, for Tuesday evening following—when the meeting came off in fine style, the house being perfectly crowded. Capt. ISAAC LIGHTNER was chosen President; Melchoir Wolf, Bernard Sheely, Joseph Arentz, Levi Gulden, John Buddy, Peter Orndorff and Jacob Althoff, Vice Presidents: and Wm. Snyder and Wm. Youst, Secretaries. The meeting was eloquently addressed upon the Democratic victories of last fall by Jesse D. Newman, Jacob Klunk, James II. Collins, Peter Smith. Peter Orndorff and Isaac Lightner. Jesse D. Newman then sang a song, after which he addressed the meeting at some length upon the treacherous conduct of Lebo, Wagonseller and Manear, and concluded by moving the appointment of a committee to report resolutions on the subject.
