SHERRY'S THEATRE. - This favorite troupe will perform at the Opera House this evening, introducing the new drama of "Blow tor Blow." We attended an entertainment giveraby this troupe last evening in Oil City, and are of the opinion that, if pos sible, the troupe has arrived to a greater degree of perfection, and we think will better beretofore.

THE PETROLEUM HOUSE, OIL CITY. -In the course of human events it is our lot, as well as that of others, to visit Oil City, and like others, when we visit this "land of plenty," we go where "plenty" is-at the Petroleum House, The indefatiguable Charley W. Stoats and the "Associate Judge," James G. White, proprietors, are gentlemen well known in the oil region, and worthy the popularity they enjoy.

An olive oil refinery has been established in San Francisco. The supply of crude oil is obtained from San Diego, Los Angelos, and other places in the southern portion of the State, where the olive tree flourishes luxuriantly, and itscultivation proves very temmerative.

Every vestige of small pox is now removed from Petroleum Centre, and we hope these who have given credit to the rumor of a number of cases existing here, will now be convinced that they are misinformed.
