the 12th inst., a short distance from Chicago, a hurricane swept over Dunckleе's Grove, continuing its ravages to a narrow track, which destroyed several houses and barns, trees, fences, &c., killed several sheep. In Mr. Dunckleе's house fifteen persons were assembled. CALIFORNIA.—Twelve days later from the land of gold dust, a fire at Downieville, and loss of the steamer North America on the Pacific Coast, 70 miles south of Acapulco, are among the items of news. We give an abstract of the two Conventions. The Joint Delegates to the National Conventions report that the Whig Delegates for Webster, and that the Whig Delegates for Webster, have no instructions were given. The Opposition Convention voted down Douglas resolutions. The vote is said to be for Buchanan.

As the season is with us, when there is almost much sickness among children, caused by colds, it may not be amiss for us to mention the new medicine, "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral," attracting so much of the public notice, for the cure of serious Lung complaints, is, when used in small doses, one of the very best in the world for general family use. It is simple and harmless as children, as well as very palatable. We use it ourselves, and would recommend our friends to call on H. C. PORTER and get a bottle for.

REDUCTION POSTAGE.—There is a motion before the Senate of the United States for the reduction of postage, and petitions for that purpose are forwarded from various places
