The New York Sun predicts that Mr. Seward will be the next President and Horace Greeley his Secretary.

A gentleman standing on the street observed a lady passing, who was gotten up regardless of expense, and turning to his friends, said: "By Jove, Charley, isn't she splendidly upholstered!"

A great number of candidates for office now, when nominated and urged to speak, declares that they "can't make speeches." So much for the example of General Grant.

Yankee Robinson's circus drove into Brookville on Sunday, 18th inst., and put up at the hotels engaged for them. On Monday they were arrested and fined for breaking the Sabbath by traveling on that day.

VARIETY THEATRE.—This troupe promise a rich programme for to-morrow night.—The matinee to-morrow afternoon will be a pleasing entertainment for ladies and children. Remember Saturday night.

The Carpenter & Brown well, located on the west side of the creek, on the John Buchanan Farm, near Rouseville, which exploded a few days since, has since been producing largely. The rate of production to-day is 100 barrels. The well will undoubtedly prove a good paying one.

STILL BALLOTING.—The Republican Senatorial Conference, composed of delegates from Venango, Mercer and Warren counties, met at Franklin on Monday afternoon, to make their nomination. The candidates are Major Bredon, of Venango, General Allen, of Warren, and S. H. Miller, of Mercer. At last accounts the convention was still balloting.

ENLARGED.—The Venango Spectator comes to us this week materially enlarged and improved in typographical appearance. This is a sure indication that the proprietors, Messrs. A. P. & J. H. Whitaker, who have labored to make the Spectator acceptable before the people, have been successful in their efforts. They have our best wishes.

POULTRY, POULTRY.—As will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, James Linden, of this place, has on hand and for sale a large number of chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese. He has been to considerable expense to secure some of the best of stock, and from his variety can be selected a superb number. Those desiring poultry for the table, can be accommodated at his place at any time. Place of business at the mouth of Benninghoff Run. Call on him.

ON THE SPORT.—A large crowd collected last evening at a place up town, and we are sorry to say were considerably amused at a fight between a wolf dog and a dog without the wolf attachment. The match was for $50, which was won by the owner of the wolf dog. Those present seemed to be decidedly on the sport, and entered into the merits of the contest with a will. Considerable money changed hands. It is surprising to know men can be amused at the sport of witnessing two dumb brutes tear each other to pieces. Admission, 50 cents!

The Crawford Democrat of last week says: In Mead township, about five miles east of Meadville, parties are engaged in boring for oil. Four wells have been commenced, and a dozen more are in contemplation. The prospects are reported to be flattering, and the excitement is daily increasing.

James A. Sheriff.

The name bearing this article is familiar in Oildom, Mr. Sheriff being one of the pioneers in this region. We announced yesterday that he had disposed of his business in this place to Messrs Nicholson & Blackmon, and as he will soon leave us for a western home, it is proper, and indeed a pleasure for us to briefly refer to his experience in the oil region. He came on to oil creek in September, 1852, and commenced the business of a hardware merchant, which business he has followed until the present time. For a considerable length of time he was the only hardware merchant between Titusville and Oil City, and it was his custom to travel on foot to Titusville, [it being necessary for him to go over the hills where horses could not then pass.] where he did his banking business, often arriving at that place in the night, but his arrangements were such with the officers of the bank that his business would be attended to at any hour. He made this trip two or three times a week, stopping along the route making collections and taking orders. The manner in which he brought goods to his store in this place was extremely inconvenient, so long as the railroad came no farther down the creek than Titusville and afterwards to Shaffer, and kept in his employ at that time several teams hauling goods, and also loaded some, getting along as best he could.—His establishment being the only one of his kind on the creek, it was necessary for him to be in readiness to wait upon customers at all hours, and at a time when highway robberies were frequent, he was accustomed to be called at all hours of the night, as oil well tools and fixtures are liable to break at any time. These calls were attended with some fear on his part, many times the parties being entire strangers, he having large amounts of cash on hand, but luckily he has never been disturbed, which is somewhat miraculous, for he has been on the road on foot and alone at all hours of the night, with from $1,000 to $5,000 at a time about his person, with no fire-arms or other protection. He owns an interest now, and did at the time it was put down, in the second well drilled on the Stevenson Farm, which has to the present day yielded him a fair profit. We could recite many pleasing incidents in his life on the creek, but our space compels us to make brief mention. He now retires from business with a competency, and with a reputation for fair dealing which will be lasting to his name. His word was always as good as his bond, and he is looked upon and respected as an honest, christian gentleman. At his departure our town will lose an estimable citizen.

THE GENEROSITY OF OUR CITIZENS.—We made special mention a few days since of a donation of $50 from our townsman S. A. Woods, and $25 from M. E. Hess for the National Orphan's Home at Gettysburg. Since then the general agent, Rev. Mr. Atkinson, has been calling upon our people, and informs us that he has raised about $50, which is a larger amount than he receives from towns with five times the population of ours in some instances. This speaks well for Petroleum Centre, that her citizens should come forward and contribute so generously to a cause so worthy the aid of every American citizen.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday July 22nd, a distressing accident occurred at Henrys Bend, President Township, this county. John W. Langstaff was burned to death in the Engine house of the Smith well. From the position in which he was found it is supposed that he was caught by the belt which drew him against the boiler and held him there while he literally burned to death. When he was found life was extinct. The unfortunate man had resided at the Bend for several years. He leaves a wife and three children.—Venango Citizen.

For family use aie, there is nothing as good as Canadaigua, which can be had only at GAPPNEY'S.

The reconciliation between Millard Fillmore and Thurlow Weed, has given rise to a thousand and one rumors, not the least of which is that an effort will be made to bring about a similar meeting between Mr. Weed and Horace Greeley. Though Mr. Greeley speaks in the most bitter terms of Mr. Weed, Thurlow, it is said has lost his animosity, and has expressed a desire to have a peaceable settlement. It is reported that a prominent gentleman, an ex-Governor, is to go to New York for the purpose of making proposals to Mr. Greeley. It is predicted that these veteran editors will soon be brought together, and an amicable adjustment of all their differences effected.

The dove, recollect, did not return to Noah with the olive branch till the second time of her going forth; why, then, should you depend at the failure of a first attempt?

Owing to the increase of orders for Sunday Comfort, I am now selling for the small size at 25 cts per lb.

A new test of the diamond, which may be considered somewhat in the light of a "kilt or cure," consists in placing the stone to be tested in a platinum crucible, with pulverized flour-spar, and pouring upon it concentrated sulphuric acid. It is then to be heated for a time until all the fumes evolved pass off, and the crucible is then allowed to cool; should the stone be a real diamond it will be found unaffected, whereas an imitation will disappear entirely, or else be so greatly corroded as to be materially reduced in size. A better test than this, however, consists in the use of hydrofluoric acid itself, which when applied in the form of a single drop to the surface of the stone, will almost immediately act upon an imitation, but will leave a true diamond untouched.

There is trouble at the Poor House Farm in Erie county. An act was passed authorizing its sale, and it was bought by Urs Schluraff, subject to confirmation by Court. In the spring the purchaser sowed the ground with wheat, and as the Court had refused to admit the legality of the act the Poor Directors offered Schluraff pay for his labor and material. This he refused, and a few days since proceeded to reap the wheat, when he was arrested for trespass, and held in $2,000 for Court. In the mean time the Directors have cut the wheat and appropriated it.

THE BREMAN steamer has brought out twenty-nine cases of small-pox to this country. The vessel now lies in the New York quarantine, and everything is being done for the sufferers, many of whom have the disease in its malignant type, and to prevent the disease from reaching the city. Several cases have appeared already in New York, but no fatal ones have as yet been reported. With cholera, yellow fever and small-pox in her quarantine, New York at present, occupies a very unenviable position in a sanitary point-of-view.

Last week Cincinnati had the following sensation: The heaviest fall of rain ever seen there; a child killed by lightning; three cases of drowning; two deaths from sunstrokes; one case of infanticide; five suicides; a wife cut to pieces with an ax in the hands of her husband; a hotel proprietor and three others stabbed by a desperado; a court house clerk killed by falling from a window; a mechanic fell through a hatch-way sixty-five feet and crushed to a jelly; three children run over; a midnight murder.

Don't fool your money away buying a bottle of bitters, but if you will drink, buy a bottle of Sunday Comfort at GAPPNEY'S.

John G. Lee, who was charged with and tried for the murder of Captain Fletcher, at Dawson, Georgia, but in whose case the jury failed to agree, was murdered in the jail at that place last Wednesday night. The keys were forcibly taken from the jailer by disguised men, and the prisoner's throat cut.

A clerk, who used to work for $25 per month in Boston and now gets $200 in White Pine gold coin, writes home from Treasure City, July 2, that living is cheap, or there than in Boston, the people get larger beer and other refreshments without sneaking through a dark alley or climbing several pairs of back stairs, and that his present abode is ten thousand feet nearer Heaven than Boston.

The pastor of a popular church, one Sabbath evening, at the Sabbath School Concert said "Boys, when I heard your beautiful song to night I had hard work to keep my feet still; what do you suppose is the trouble with them?" "Chilblains, sir," said a little six year old boy, which, notwithstanding the solemnity of the occasion, set the whole audience in a roar.
