CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Gazette is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

The Board of Health will meet this afternoon, at their rooms, Fourth avenue.

Committed.—Justice Barker yesterday committed to jail for twenty days Alfred Kline on a charge of vagrancy.

Pocket Picking.—A Mr. McClosky who boards at No. 12 Smithfield street, had his pocket picked on Fifth avenue Saturday evening of his bocket book containing $61

Committed.—Yesterday Alderman Bolster committed for trial, Georgia Reynolds, charged with maintaining a bawdy house in the Fourth ward, Allegheny, on oath of D. S. McKnight.

Throughout the business portion of the city there are four deliveries and five collections every day. The last collection is made at eight o'clock in the evening.

Abandonment.—Yesterday Bridget Brightmore complained to Alderman Taylor that her husband Charles had abandoned her, from which a warrant for his arrest was issued.

Good Business.—During the month of October Deputy Mayor Cartwright had forty seven cases before him—thirty-seven drunks, five professional thieves, and five miscellaneous crimes.

Contract Awarded.—The Executive Committee of the Humboldt Memorial have awarded the contract for the completion of the work to Messrs. Knox & Bros., who laid the foundation.

Larceny of a Coat.—Owen McDonald was arrested by officer O'Mara last evening on a charge of stealing a coat belonging to David McKim from the Allegheny Valley Railroad Depot. He was locked up for a hearing.

Meetings To-Night.—The Allegheny Board of School Controllers hold a regular monthly meeting this evening at half past seven o'clock.

Birmingham Councils will meet to-night at seven and a half o'clock, in Burgess Saulbury's office.

Held for a Further Hearing.—The persons charged with committing a felonious assault and battery on George Faller, an account of which we published some days since, had a partial hearing before the Mayor yesterday; and were held for a further hearing Friday next. Faller, the injured man, is recovering slowly, but is not yet considered out of danger.

Alleged Larceny.—Joseph W. Kerr stated to Alderman Neeper yesterday that John Kerr, proprietor of a saloon in the Diamond, had taken a coat from him valued at $25. The saloon keeper alleges that Joseph came into his establishment in a slightly inebriated condition with the garment, and that out of a friendly feeling he took the coat to keep until the owner sobered up. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Belligerant.—Pat. Conway made complaint before Justice Salisbury yesterday of ill usage from an individual whose name was unknown to him. He alleged that he had taken a drink with the belligerant stranger, and was standing talking to him in front of Valney's saloon, Twelveth street, Birmingham, when the fellow, without cause or provocation knocked him down. A warrant was issued for the stranger.

Still There.—The carcas of the horse killed on Saturday evening by falling into the sewer excavation, near the Grain Elevator, had not been removed up to last night. Perhaps the Board of Health intend an inspection of the animal, after their meeting this afternoon. If not, the residents in the vicinity, are not particularly anxious that it should remain there. They would part with it willingly.

Disorderly House.—Yesterday Alderman Koenig issued a warrant for the arrest of Charles Eckert, charged by Joseph Platt with maintaining a disorderly house in Lawrenceville; the allegation being that Charles is visited every evening by noisy females, to the number of half a dozen generally, who, accompanied by male companions, remain until a late hour, and succeed by their conduct in annoying the neighborhood.

Too Much Married.—Polygamy is not recognized in a legal way in these parts, hence when Mrs. Catharine Hanley, alias Ray, attempted to enjoy the confidence and society of two husbands, she found herself in trouble, which eventually led her from her residence in Lawrenceville, to a home in the county jail, to await trial on a charge of bigamy, preferred against her by Cornelius O'Brien, yesterday, before Alderman McMasters.

Larceny.—John McAnery, came to the Mayor's office yesterday and made complaint against James Crilley. He alleges that Crilley relieved him of his pocket-book containing $71 65. It appears that he, Crilley and some others were in a saloon on Washington street, Saturday evening, and that he, McAnery, laid off his coat containing the pocketbook and money, and went outside leaving no one in the saloon except Crilley. When he came in and put on his coat he found that the pocketbook and money were gone. Crilley was arrested and held for a hearing.

Alarming—It is not usual for our city to be visited close after a snow storm in November, with several well rounded thunder reports and specimens of forked lightning flashes, which would have done credit to the month of August. Such an exhibition we had yesterday, in the heavens, and it came so unexpectedly as to cause considerable alarm and consternation to most folks who, forgetting that thunder might come in cold weather, imagined that a series of boiler or oil tank explosions had taken place, or perhaps one of the promised earthquakes had come on time.

Important that all should know what is going on—in this age of progress—our eastern States excited over a slight earthquake, the west discussing about the removal of the Capital. California buzzing about so many Chinese, Cuba trembling under the shock of contending armies, the Atlantic and Pacific united by iron bands, these and many other items of importance which are transpiring, can be seen by referring to the Gazette. For sale by Creelman & Stevenson, Wilkinsburg, News Agents, where can be found an assortment of books, stationary, notions, news, &c.

Burglars at Work.

Yesterday morning about two o'clock the dwelling house No. 108 Penn street was entered by two thieves, who first gained access to the cellar and then to the kitchen by cutting open a door leading thereto. A domestic in the family was awakened by the noise and gave the alarm. Other members of the family by this time were also aroused, and added to the cries of a neighbor who became aware of the thieves operations, succeeded in making considerable commotion. No police appeared. The thieves at last leisurely departed, finding the place too hot for them, but left behind a brace and bit and a couple of chisels. The police are enthusiastic in pursuit of them now, but the chances for their capture are slim.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Yesterday morning Mr. Partrick Murphy, Section Foreman on the Panhandle Railroad at Mansfield, received injuries which will probably result in death. He was engaged in pulling some cars along the siding, and reached the main track just as engine No. 66 was backing down. He was not observed by the engineer until the locomotive had knocked him down and two wheels passed over his legs, cutting them both off. A physician was sent for to the city, and Dr. McCook went out on the first train. At last accounts the unfortunate man was still living with but slight hopes entertained for his recovery.

—Since the above was in type, we learn that the injured man died a short time after the accident occured. The Coroner was notified and held an inquest on the body yesterday morning. Dr. Walker testified that he had been called upon to attend the injured man, and found upon examination that he had recieved a compound fracture of both thighes, a fracture of the left knee joint, and a compound fracture of the upper third of the right leg. He died about twenty minutes after I first saw him of hemorage resulting from his injuries.

The jury found that "deceased came to his death on the first day of November 1869 by being accidently run over by engine 66 while walking on the track of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad, at Mansfield station in Robinson township."

THE COURTS.

Supreme Court—Full Bench.

Monday, November 1.—The Supreme Court met at 10 o'clock, A. M. a full bench being present.

In the case of Burns vs. Clarion county, argued Oct. 20th, 1869, an opinion was delivered by Thompson, C. J.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

James T. Burns was Treasurer of Clarion county and was, under act of Assembly, authorized to collect the county taxes. The act first provided that when any parties refused or neglected to pay their taxes for a period of thirty days, the Treasurer should issue his warrant, accompanied by a schedule of the unpaid taxes, and place the same in the hands of any constable, charging him with the amount of said unpaid taxes. In accordance with said act, the duplicate of Porter township in said county was placed in the hands of Wilson W. McClelland, of said Porter township, who it appears had given bonds in the sum of $500 as constable, and who was a defaulter to the treasurer to the amount of $651 69, which sum was afterward paid by Mr. Burns to his successor. Subsequently an act of assembly was passed directing the auditors of the county to open the accounts of said Burns, in order that the matter might be corrected. The auditors opened the account, but refused to make any correction, from which action Burns appealed. An issue was ordered, wherein Clarion county was made plaintiff and James T. Burns defendant.

Plaintiffs held that Burns, having paid the money without objection, had no right to reclaim it, which point the court below ruled in the affirmative and directed the jury to find for plaintiffs. Judgment reversed and a venire de novo awarded.

AMUSEMENTS.

MARK TWAIN LAST NIGHT.—"Mark Twain," the most eminent representative of the humorous school of American writers, last night opened the lecture course of 1869-70 of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association, appearing at the Academy of Music before the very largest audience we have ever seen assembled to greet a lecturer. These present fairly and faithfully represented the reading and intellectual portion of these communities and the distinguished gentleman honored by such a welcome greeting from a class of people more conspicuous than any other for learning and refinement, has much occasion to congratulate himself on the large measure of appreciation in which he is held. His lecture on "Our Fellow Savages of the Sandwich Islands," was an able and brilliant effort in keeping with the high reputation of its author. There were just enough fun-provoking passages introduced to lighten up the burdensome task of properly describing a region about which most people think little and care much less. "Mark Twain" may have been very faithful and truthful in his descriptions of the character, habits, traits, customs, fashions and peculiarities of our "fellow savages," but he took his lessons in a different school from most writers on the Hawaii or Owhyhee citizens. He thinks the people are not, as a general thing, cannibals, and so do we; but Mark must remember that no safe criterion exists to form an estimate of the refined tastes of savages, in the fact that he escaped being gobbled up, for he is so thin and fleshless that a keen epicurean cannibal could at once discover that he would not go down well on a half shell or in any other toothsome way he might be dished up. The allusion to the government was ungenerous to Kamehameha and we thought that out of the many warm personal friends of that gentleman present, some would have retired in anger, but not a man moved in indignation, but many who did not know the King, shook themselves in laughter. The lecturer evidently is prejudiced against our fellow savages, and seeks to make the most of them. This he certainly does. We hope the Dispatch, the only journal of this city that circulates largely in the Sandwich Islands, exchanging with English journals printed at Hawaii, will faithfully report the lecture and let our friends know what the California pilgrim thinks about them—and, then if he ever does go back, why good bye Twain, for on pots, griddles and skillets he will be served up to gratify the avenging apetites of those he abused last evening

Altogether the lecture was pleasing and instructive. We relished the fine points and so did the audience if we are to judge from the frequent manifestations of applause which greeted the lecture Mark Twain has established his reputation firmly in this section and come when he will he is sure to receive a cordial welcome from our people. We trust those who heard him last night and who are relatives and intimate friends of the Sandwich Islanders will pardon any harsh things said, as Twain assured us that he did not desire to be construed as talking in a personal manner if he did aim at the truth.

The lecturer goes to Brookville to-day and will stop at Johnstown to lecture at the Opera House to-morrow evening. Great preparations are being made at both places to accord him that welcome he so richly deserves from an appreciative people.

OPERA HOUSE.—A large audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to welcome the "Leffingwell" back to Pittsburgh. No one who had the pleasure of seeing him last season had forgotten his "Blushing Clorinda," and all were anxious to see him in female toggery again, and we feel warranted in saying that no person was disappointed. To night "The Force of Circumstances" will be presented, and the "Leffingwell" will appear in his inimitable character of "Romeo Jaffir Jenkins."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The second and third entertainment of the course under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association will be given by Mr. George Vandenhoff, who will give select readings from Shakespear, Dickens, Scott, Tennyson, &c., at the Academy of Music, Thursday and Friday evenings, the 4th and 5th inst.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—This popular place of amusement is crowded every night and will continue to be so long as Mr. Williams caters with such a literal hand to his patrons.

Teachers' Institute.

The South Fayette Township Teachers' Association met according to adjournment, at school room No. 4, familiarly known as the "Mohawk School House," on October 30th, Miss Kate E. McQuitty instructor. The forenoon exercises consisted in the regular performance of the school, which were closed with remarks from the Misses Nichol and Lindsay, Rev. C. G. Braddock, and Messrs. Campbell, Shane, Griffin and Shaler, all of which were very highly complimentary to teacher and scholars.

Institute then adjourned for one hour, during which time the physical wants of all present were abundantly gratified by a sumptuous repast prepared by the ladies of the district, and which all seemed to enjoy hugely, as they did the "intellectual feast" in the forenoon.

After a little invigorating exercise in the play ground, Institute was called to order by the President, R. D. Nesbit, and the regular performances were taken up in order. Select reading by Miss Kate E. McQuitty; subject—"Washington's Farewell to his Army."

The next—an original oration by the President. After giving a brief inaugural the speaker made some remarks on the method of teaching. He said a failure with many was, that of merely hearing their classes recite, instead of illustrating and explaining the lesson. The next was a class drill in mental arithmetic, by Miss Carrie Nichol.

Essays were read by Misses Lindsay and Gaston, which were appropriate and instructive. A select piece was then read by Miss McMillen.

After assigning performances for next meeting, the Association adjourned to meet in school room No. 5, Nov. 27th, Miss Gaston instructor.

The meetings are interesting as well as edifying, and all friends of education are cordially invited to attend.

The Alleged Homicide.

In the case of Henry Canby charged with the murder of Alexander Best, the man found in the Allegheny river, Friday, a hearing was had yesterday, which resulted in the discharge of the accused. The testimony was in substance as follows:

The first witness called was John Walls, who testified that, between six and seven o'clock on Friday morning a young man who said he worked at Weyman's tobacco store came to him and told him that he had seen a man lying in the water by the railroad bridge. A skiff was procured and the two men went out and brought the body to the shore. It was found lying against the upper side of the fourth pier from this side, and could not possibly have fallen there from the bridge. It was in such a position that the features could not be seen.

Hugh Hanlon, of No. 447 Penn street, testified that Canby came to his house at about a quarter past six o'clock on Friday morning and got a drink, when he started away. He came back presently and said a dead man had been found in the river, and he recognized it as the body of Alex. Best. He insisted that witness should go and see the body. Witness went and identified it as that of Best.

G. W. Burns, brother-in-law of the prisoner, testified that Canby lives with him at No. 68 Robinson street. When witness came home on Thursday evening, at about six o'clock, he found the accused there, and he did not leave the place until about six o'clock the next morning, when they left together.

Daniel Dugan testified that deceased took supper in his house on Thursday evening, and left between seven and eight o'clock. He was sober when he went away.

This closed the testimony, and the Mayor discharged the prisoner.

The New High School.

The Building Committee of the Central Board of Education held a meeting yesterday, at which were present Messrs. Jno. Harrison, chairman; Joseph Hartman, J. H. Nobbs, James M. Taylor, Wm. Mays and T. J. Craig. After the examination of several proposals of the building of the new High School, the following awards were made:

For the stone and brick work, above foundation, materials supplied by contractor, contract awarded to Mr. Patrick Brough, at $66,513.

For carpenter work, material supplied, to Mr. Robert McCain, at $24,500.

Total for unfinished work of High School, $91,013.

This is a large sum to demand off the tax-payers for a scholastic institution, but when it is remembered that the sons and daughters of the veriest poor are entitled to home and place beneath its roof, then the heaviness of the taxation is regarded as a trifle. Cost it one million or more, the High School is a blessing and we are pleased that the Central Board of Education have the courage to go forward and onward.

PETROLEUM NEWS.

More New and Important Strikes—West Pithole Creek—New 140 Barrel Well—The Big Well Averaging 266 Barrels—Coal at a Premium.

The Titusville Herald of Monday says:

On Friday last one of the most important strikes that has occurred during the last month, with regard to the enlarging of the producing territory, was made on the J. Blanc farm, north of Pithole and east of Holmden run. This well commenced to produce on Friday, and since then, while it had been pumped, the yield has been at the rate of thirty barrels daily. The yield is black in color. It was, when first struck, reported as high as sixty barrels. The working interest is owned by Messrs. L. H. Smith, Armstrong, Williams and others. This well is situated at some distance from any other, and has extended the black oil belt a considerable distance.

Early last month a new well was tested on the S. Minor tract, a short distance south of the producing wells at Bean farm. The well is now producing eight barrels daily, and by the striking of it the territory has been enlarged by perhaps fifty acres

At Pithole, last month, two new wells were struck, which now produce respectively five and eight barrels daily.

The excitement occasioned by the striking of the large producing well on the Independent tract, West Pithole creek, still continues. Since the well was struck, a seven acre tract sold for $3,000, and another tract containing four acres, in a better location, sold for $3,600. Both of these tracts are on the Independent tract. A lease of one acre adjoining the lease on which the well that has caused the excitement is situated, was sold some time ago for $1000, and was leased at three eighths royalty to Mr. Fred. Andrews, who disposed of his lease last Thursday for $1,C0. This is the highest "bonus" paid for a working interest since the palmy days of Pithole.

The Mill farm, which adjoins the Independent tract on the east, and which is producing forty barrels of black oil daily, was purchased by Mr. A. H. Bronson on Tuesday last, for $30,000. Mr. B. owns nearly all of the working interest of this farm, and it his intention to sink immediately most of his wells into the green oil rock.

Another well on the Independent tract was sunk into the green oil rock last week. It was completed on Friday and pumping was commenced on Saturday. During Saturday afternoon and yesterday it produced at the rate of 140 barrels daily. This well is owned by Messrs. Nowlon & Hamilton.

The well owned by Messrs Winsor Brothers, Welch and others, produced 800 barrels during the last three days of last week—a daily average of 266 barrels. The product is reported to be increasing.

A Rouseville correspondent of the Herald says: Consequent upon some "coal" movement or other combination similarly respectable, coal has been so exceedingly scarce for a number of days that only partial operations are carried on at many of the wells. Anxious well owners vainly resort to their accustomed sources of supply; the dingy precincts of Venango City have been once again ransacked to no purpose; to "make the confusion worse confounded," the recent cold snap rendered abundance of fuel a prime necessity; and for the time every thing else is dwarfed into comparative insignificance by the urgent demand for the great combustible

Scrofulous Diseases.

(From the Health Reporter, Nov. .)

The scrofulous diathesis has a wide range of development, such as eruptions on the skin, affections on the eyes, nose, ears, and ulcers on different parts of the body, caries of the bones, cancerous affections, and affections of mucus surfaces, &c.

But the most common form is that of glandular affections, or swelling, enlargement and final suppuration of the glands of the body.

It is truly a loathsome and troublesome disease, and we should always regard with the greatest suspicion the enlargement or induration of any gland or the formation of any tumors on any part of the body, and from the very earliest period of its existence use our utmost exertions to prevent its further increase or extension, and to remove it as soon as possible.

Fortunately for those laboring under this class of diseases, the progress of science favors us with the means of detecting this peculiar state of the blood, as well as furnishing us with the remedies for completing a cure, when a cure is at all to be had.

In the urine of scrofulous subjects there is a peculiar substance called Cystine, which essentially characterizes this disease from all others, and there cannot, in any case, be a complete cure effected but by the remedies which favor a removal of this substance.

Whatever will arrest most speedily the contaminating virus of scrofula, will reduce most readily the tumors, or heal up most quickly the ulcers.

We have cured many very bad cases of this terribly annoying and loathsome disease.

One of the very worst cases we ever saw was from an adjoining county. He was cured in a very few months and is now well.

Several bad cases in this city, a number in Allegheny city and some from nearly all the surrounding counties have been cured of one or another form of this inveterate disease by our remedies and treatment.

If you have scrofula, or a scrofulous diathesis, white swelling, carious bones, running ulcers, tumors, eruptions, discharges from the ear, nose or eyes, or enlargement of the glands, send for the remedies thus scientifically prescribed, and have a complete cure effected, as hundreds of others have done.

A New Business Firm.

We heartily endorse the following notice which originally appeared in yesterday's Commercial:

We take pleasure in directing attention to the card of Dilworth, Harper & Co., who have just opened in the wholesale grocery business, at No. 243 Liberty street, opposite the head of Wood street. The partners are Geo. W. Dilworth, Albert M. Harper and Joseph Dilworth. The means of this firm, together with the established reputation of the gentlemen comprising it, entitle the house to the highest commercial consideration. The leading active member, Mr. Geo. W. Dilworth, has recently dissolved partnership with the house of J. S. Dilworth & Co., bringing into the new firm every qualification of an honorable, affable and successful merchant. Major Harper (son of John Harper, Esq., President of the Bank of Pittsburgh,) enters into the business arena with a well earned character for intelligence and integrity. Mr. Joseph Dilworth is known to every one as possessing to an exalted degree, probity energy, clear insight into business, and the fortunate realization of its rewards. It rarely occurs that a new firm is started combining so many elements of success. We bespeak for it a hearty welcome, for every man of judgment knows that such houses as Dilworth, Harper & Co., combining moral, financial and commercial strength, adds to the reputation of the city, and materially help to extend its trade, thus incidentally benefiting every other branch of active business.

The Methodist Graveyard.

An adjourned meeting of the lot owners in the Eleventh ward Methodist graveyard, about which so much has been written of late, was held at the Second Ward School House, last evening. The meeting was called to order by the President, Aaron Floyd. Mr. Miller, chairman of the Committee appointed at a former meeting to look after the interests of the lot owners, reported that the Committee obtained an interview with the Commissioners and they had agreed to compromise with the lot owners, proposing to pay to each the sum of $35, the lot owners to remove their own dead, and the Commission to remove and decently inter all other remains of persons buried therein, in the Minersville Cemetery. And they further agree to pay all expenses incurred by the lot owners in the law suits now pending relative to the matter.

The proposition was accepted and the Committee instructed to complete the arrangements for a compromise on the terms stated.

The meeting then adjourned.

Street Committee on a Tour of Inspection.

Yesterday the Street Committee paid a visit to Fifth avenue, in order to finally inspect the work done by contractor Flinn on that thoroughfare, preparatory to accepting the job as completed from his hands. This contract was one of the largest let by the Street Comittee this session of Councils, and, considering the many vexatious trials the contractor had to endure, great praise and credit are due him for finishing it before the inclement weather has fairly set in. The committee examined the work, and finding it done as per contract, accepted it, and returned their unanimous thanks to the contractor. It is unnecessary for us to award any praise to Mr. Flinn as a contractor, as it suffices to know that anything he undertakes is sure to be done right and on time.
