LOCAL AND GENERAL.

NOTICE.—The Bradford County Medical Society will meet in Troy, on Wednesday, January 22 at 10 o'clock, A. M. ED. MILLS, Pres.

DIPTHERIA.—This malignant disease continues to make desolate many homes throughout the country. We hear of a number of deaths having occurred within the last week, in this and adjoining towns.

Persons intending to make application for licenses under the Liquor Law, must file their petitions in the office of the Clerk of the Quarter Sessions, on or before Monday next, or they will be too late for Feb. Court.

Our Carrier wishes to say to those who generously patronized him on New Year's day, in purchasing his Address, advertising, &c., that they may consider his hat on one side, and will always remember them among those who are willing to "give the devil his dues."

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—Prof. J. G. Ames will hold a Musical Convention at Ulster, commencing on Tuesday, January 2 th, and closing Friday evening, January 23d, with a Concert. The success that has attended Prof. TOWNER in these Conventions, has exceeded the expectation of his patrons. His advertisement will be found in another column.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.—On Saturday night the 28th ult., some person or persons forcibly entered the Daguerrean Car of Mr. D. W. HUGHES, of this place, and maliciously destroyed almost the entire contents of the establishment. His instruments, pictures, stove, &c., were wantonly broken up and destroyed, and trampled under foot. The perpetrators of this wanton outrage are, of course, unknown, and no pains will be spared to ferret them out and bring them to justice. Persons capable of perpetrating such malicious outrages, with no pretensions to profit, would not hesitate to commit highway robbery or shoot a man for a twenty-five cent shin-plaster. Let the proper authorities take notice of it.

Our "Curb stone Reporter," in his congratulations about town, on Christmas, reports everything passed off quietly in our proverbial quiet town with the exception of a slight skirmish on the Susquehanna, which occurred between a party of skaters and boaters. A few bloody noses was all the injuries sustained by either party. Among the numerous luxuries on occasion "tangle-foot" flowed freely. Coming up to many "Curb stone" came across a victim, affectionately embracing an awning post, who, under the combined influence of mad and lager, was soliloquizing, in tender tone, as follows:

"Little I as I really think I be,
I have a little dog at home who knows me—
Civil he'll wag his little tail,
But not I he'll bark and wail!"

We are not informed whether he was able to establish identity or not.

A GLANCE BACKWARD.—The year 1862 has been fraught with momentous events and important lessons. As we enter upon the New Year, a glance over the year that has just closed, will bring to many pleasing as well as painful recollections. It is to every philanthropic heart, a matter of profound regret that the dark shadow of war is still projected across the hearths and homes of our once happy land. The day which commemorates the nativity of the PRINCE OF PEACE should be ushered in once more by the martial sights and martial sounds of a fratricidal strife. Scarcely had the echoes of recent battle on the broken field of Fredericksburg died upon our ears, ere we were called, from the very heart of a conflict which has quenched the gladness in so many homes, to the Christmas tree in token of rejoicing. It is thus the lights mingle with the shadows which checker the social scenes of our mortal life. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

And yet Providence which allots in wisdom and love the ebbs and flows of His creatures has still appointed us a goodly heritage of blessings under all the "pressure of the times" from our national troubles. If Death has crossed many a door-sill during the year, there is still left a multitude of happy firesides throughout the States in which no echoes have ever reached save those that answer to the voice of thanksgiving and praise. And in all these at least the ensuing Christmas holiday may still be hailed with festivities which keep alive the heart of youth in the frosts of hoary old. But while cheerfully joining in the innocent joys which belong to this annually recurring anniversary, none should have forgot to mitigate the sorrows of the suffering, or to gladden the heart of the poor, to whom otherwise this festal day comes rather with memories that mock the pining heart than with thoughts that cheer the wounded spirit. Neither languishing in the hospital, with the child of pain his travel, should not be forgotten in those ministrations of kindness which, appropriate at all times, lend fresh lustre to the birthday of Him who, while He sojourned on earth, "went about doing good."

DIED,

In Orange, on the 13th of November, of diptheria, FRANCIS MONTANYE, aged 3 years, son of Mr. J. and Mrs. I. Rockwell.

In Ulysses, on the 3d inst., of diptheria, DORA MAY, aged 11 years, daughter of Mr. R. R. and Mrs. S. Rockwell.

Death has, in this case, bereft parents of an only child, a tender and lovely, who, from a gentle, thoughtful and affectionate disposition, was peculiarly engaging and deservedly beloved. She early manifested the goodness which flows from the grace of GOD. With her years her worth was developed, and when death came, it found her prepared, waiting and desiring to exchange this world of care and sorrow, for a purer and better life in Heaven.

On the 30th ult., of scarlet fever, FRANCES HELEN, eldest child of Stephen Strickland, Jr., aged 3 years and 15 days.

"There is a glorious world of light,
Above the starry sky,
Where saints departed clothed in white,
Adore the Lord most high.
And hark! amid the sacred songs,
Those heavenly voices raise—
Ten thousand thousand infant tongues,
Unite in perfect praise."

In Warren, Dec. 2, 1862, Rev. A. ALVORD, after an illness of but one short week.

In Troy, Jan. 1st, 1863, of a lingering pulmonary disease CHARLOTTE ELIZA, wife of C. C. Paine, and daughter of the late Col. I. N. Pomeroy, aged 36 years.

Truly beloved in life, sincerely lamented in death, long will her cheerful presence be missed amid the circle of her numerous friends and relatives; and more than all, by her bereaved husband.

Let we sorrow not as those without hope.
