ANOTHER BRAVE SOLDIER GONE.—JAMES DEFEW died in South Warren, at the house of his father-in-law E. E. ALLEN, aged 29 years six months and twelve days. He was a member of the 5th N. Y. Cavalry Co. "M," he fought at the battle of the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cole Harbor and before Petersburg was wounded in the left hand, but continued to discharge his duties as a soldier bravely until prostrated by camp fever. His wife hearing of his situation went to Spottsylvania Hospital procured a furlough and brought him home in her arms, that his life might close among those that esteemed him as a patriot, soldier and neighbor. A sermon was delivered by the writer from Isaiah 54.7—"For a small moment I have forsaken thee, but in greater mercy I will gather thee."

Peace to the ashes of our brave soldiers.

HALF PAST TWELVE.—If the saying be true that "a clock out of order is a sure sign of an ill-regulated household," what should strangers think of a large and flourishing town like Towanda, with its clock pointing to the same hour week after week and month after month? Some years ago many of our citizens loaned money to the borough to purchase a Town Clock which was bought and for a long time did very good service. Why does it not continue to keep time? It is in the care of the Town Council, but the building is county property and is in charge of the County Commissioners.—Perhaps the Council never meet, as they receive no pay: but we know that the County Commissioners do meet quite frequently and receive a comfortable compensation for every day's service. For a long time we were told that the roof leaked. A new one was put on, and then it was said the water passed down the rod of the spire, and it seems the County Commissioners and their executive officers cannot muster up energy enough to employ a mechanic to put in some simple contrivance to keep the rain from rusting the iron works of the clock. Our county and borough taxes are certainly high enough to furnish funds to keep the town clock in motion, or even to buy a new one if this is rusted to pieces by the leaky roof. It is evident that some of our public functionaries neglect their business to the disgrace of the town, and in order that the guilty may not escape, if this grievance be not remedied by our next February Court, it is recommended that the Council, Commissioners and all their subordinates be indicted for neglect of duty. There must by some way of bringing all hands up to

TIME.

THREE CHILDREN DROWNED.—A sad case of drowning occurred in the Loyalsock creek near Newberry, Lycoming county, on Sunday last. Three children—a boy and two girls—aged respectively eight, six, and, four years, of GEORGE LLOYD, went on the ice near the railroad bridge and soon after it was discovered that the ice had given way and they were all drowned. The father who had been absent three years in the army, arrived home that morning just in time to see the lifeless bodies of his children taken from the water. The names of the children were MARGARET, THOMAS, and HENRY W.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that ELIAS VARNAM, a citizen of Falls, Wyoming county, was killed, one day last week, by the falling of a tree. Mr. V. with another man was engaged in cutting logs with a cross-cut saw. In the forenoon of the fatal day, a limb of a tree being blown off, fell and injured an arm, so as to unfit him for labor with it. Notwithstanding this injury he, in the afternoon, continued to assist in the work with one arm, when, a tree blew down which instantly killed him. He leaves a large family to mourn his untimely death.

☞ WE noticed a short time ago the fact that the Bradford Reporter was soon to be enlarged and its former editor and proprietor, E. O. Goodman, Esq., was to asume editorial control. The last number is received and is decidedly one of the best journals of that State. It has been enlarged and is printed on a new press, new type, paper, &c., and contains some twenty columns of reading matter. The Reporter is fast attaining the reputation it is justly deserves, and the public will find at that office all the modern facilities for doing all kinds of work on the very shortest notice. It has a large circulation and the business community of Bradford can well be proud of such a journal.—Wyoming Democrat.

☞ COL. L. B. PIERCE, of the 12th Penn'a Cavalry is now in command of the post at Charlestown, Virginia. A small sheet, called the "Goddon" is printed in the camp, under a tent, in the field where John Brown was hung—the floor of the tent, and the stands for the cases being made of lumber taken from the house in which Brown was confined. A copy of the "Goddon" now before us, contains the following notice of Col. PIERCE:—

—Col. L. B. PIERCE, 12th Pa. Cavalry, is now in command of the Post at Charlestown and the wholesome effect of his presence, with that of his command, is already becoming apparent, in the greater feeling of security of the few loyal people that are still to be found in the neighborhood, and the absence of spies and bands of guerillas and marauders that were daily in the habit of making it their rendezvous. One or two men can now make the trip between there and Harper's Ferry without the certainty of being robbed or murdered, or having to depend on the fleetness of their horse.

☞ GEN. PATTON'S lecture on Temperance, at the Court House, last week, evinced a high order of talent, and commanded the admiration of his audience—some of whom, during a portion of his delivery, were affected to tears.

He showed how highly man is favored in the scale of creation; how happy he might be if he did not abuse his exalted privileges; that alcoholic drinks, mixed, are repugnant to one's natural taste and the various means resorted to, to cheat nature, and make them palatable. He warned young Ladies against the fatal delusion of supposing they could reform their suitors after marriage. His description of the inebriate, in the several stages of his career, and of his suffering family, was thrilling; while his arguments against the use and traffic of strong drinks were crushing. But his allegorical personification of the Deity with the elements of nature was grand and sublime.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A serious accident occurred on the Northern Central on Wednesday night, about four miles south of this station. The mail train bound north, due at Troy 10 o'clock and 30 minutes, when a few miles from Granville Summit, broke or displaced a rail which threw the two end cars from the track and ending one of the cars up, so as to pile the passengers, about 30 we believe, together with the loose baggage, bandboxes, &c., in the lower end in no gentle manner. So far as we can learn no lives were lost or limbs broken, but many were considerably bruised, and some slightly burned being thrown in contact with the stove. The sufferers were all brought to the Troy House, where with the kind attention of Judge LONG, and the professional services of Dr. A. K. AXTELL, they were soon cared for and everything that could be done toward making them comfortable was done with readiness and good will.—Troy Times.

☞ EDITOR OF REPORTER—Dear Sir:—I have just enjoyed the privilege of attending at Orwell Hill, another two day's meeting of our County Sunday School Association. It was not a regular but a special meeting, a meeting thrown in for the benefit of Orwell and vicinity.

Although the weather was decidedly Marchy, the attendance was large. In the afternoon of the first day, brief addresses were delivered upon the Economy of Sunday School Labor. What our Sabbath Schools are doing for our Churches and the framing of Children to habits of benevolence. A Sunday School patriarch who was present remarked to me, "That was a rich feast, I never heard so much said in so brief a space before." In the evening a most timely and admirable sermon was preached by the Rev. B. J. DOUGLASS, of Towanda, showing the good results of faithful Sunday School efforts.

The morning session of the second day was devoted to the free discussion of topics which led to the passage of a series of resolutions impressive of the sentiment of the Association. As usual the closing session, in the afternoon, consisted of a children's meeting.

At the appointed hour, the "reserved seats" were filled with youths and the "little ones" who listened attentively to four short, earnest and instructive addresses.

The answers, the singing and the behavior of the children throughout were highly commendable. Thus ended another truly precious and profitable meeting of our working Sunday School Association, whose united resolution it is, that "we will not relax our exertions until all the children and youth of the County are gathered into the Sunday School."

ACCIDENT.—A young man named CLAFLIN, was injured in Burlington township, on the 15th inst., while hunting foxes, by the accidental discharge of his gun.

☞ WE notice that Maj. ADDISON MASON, is home on furlough. We are pleased to record his promotion to the brevet rank of Major, for a more gallant or worthy officer is not in the army. Major M. is now upon the staff of Gen. MEADE.

☞ BRIDGE Letting, for building a Bridge accross Brown's Creek, in Burlington, has been adjourned by the Commissioners, until Jan. 19, 1865. See Advertisement in another column.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—No article has become more of a household necessity, than a good Match, and nothing is more vexatious, than a poor one, which despite of friction and perseverance, refuses to ignite, and goes out as his Satanic majesty is sometimes represented in a sulphurous smoke. To supply this necessity, Mr. J. O. FROST, has established at this place a Match Factory and is now manufacturing an excellent article of Percussion Matches, which are warranted to never try the patience of those using them. His enterprise deserves encouragement.
