Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ The progress of the funeral cortege with the remains of the late President LINCOLN, is marked with the same demonstrations of popular grief as given ot the outset. Indeed the popular feeling seems to deepen as the mournful cortege approaches the home of the late President. The time of the ceremonies at Springfield has been fixed for to-day, (Thursday.)

THE MEETING MONDAY EVENING.—A Republican Mass Convention assembled at the Court House on Monday evening, agreeably with previous notice, and was organized by electing EMANUEL GUYER chairman, and E. B. COOLBAUGH and P. H. BUCK, Secretaries.

On motion, five conferees were appointed to confer with conferees from Sullivan County, for the purpose of choosing Representative Delegates to the State Convention.

On motion, these conferees were instructed to support JOHN H. GRANT and S. W. ALVORD, for said Delegates.

On motion, E. B. PARSONS was recommended for Senatorial Delegate.

After the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions, the Hon. G. A. GROW, being loudly called for, was introduced to the audience and delivered one of the most eloquent and patriotic addresses it has ever been our pleasure to listen to. He was followed by the Hon. GEO. LANDON, who confined himself mostly to the life and character of our lamented LINCOLN. Judge MERCUR was then called for, and although the evening was far spent, was listened to with profound attention.

In conclusion, Messrs. TOWNER and BLISS, were introduced, and sang a patriotic song, which was loudly applauded by the audience.

EDITOR REPORTER:—I would be glad to hear through the columns of your paper, your opinion in regard to our duty as a christian community, to those vile wretches, wearing the garb of men, yet so devoid of all decency, morality and self-respect, as to rejoice at the death of the President. We have in our vicinity, and I fear such are to be found all through our country, characters, and some of them following a profession and looking to community for support and patronage, who are guilty of expressions like the following: "Well old Lincoln is dead, and I'm glad of it; he ought to have been dead long ago." The same interspersed with oaths too horrible to mention if uttered on the death of a dumb brute, and much less when uttered in regard to one of the best and purest men that ever lived. Now the question with me is, and I consider it of importance, should such persons receive the support and patronage of a christian community? I for one, although I differ with some of my good pious neighbors, think they should not, and I go further, I think that they should not even be treated with common civility until they have thoroughly reformed both in word and in deed.

[We hardly feel competent to give the advice our correspondent asks for. We do not approve of lynch law, nor unlawful violence, but we notice that throughout the country swift punishment has overtaken the wretches who have outraged the feelings of communities by untimely exhibitions of joy amidst the general grief, and we notice also that such denomstrations are received by the country with satisfaction, and the popular verdict is "served him right."]

☞ At the call of the Canton Baptist Church, Bradford County, Pa., a council convened in their house of worship on Wednesday, April 19, 1865, for the purpose of examining Mr. EGGLESTON BURROUGHS; and if found qualified, to set him apart to the work of the gospel ministry by ordination. The council was organized by choosing Rev. J. B. LAKE moderator, and Rev. J. EVANS BITTINY clerk.

The examination proving satisfactory, the council proceeded to ordination. Reading Scripture and opening prayer by Rev. J. EVANS BITTINY; ordination sermon by Rev. T. MITCHELL; ordination prayer by Rev. J. B. LAKE; hand of fellowship by Rev. E. S. BROWE; charge to the candidate by Rev. E. LOOMIS; closing prayer by Rev J. D. REYNOLDS; benediction by the ordained.

GODEY'S LADY BOOK.—We have received the May number of this excellent Magazine. As yet it has no equals among the monthlies, devoted to fashion and light elegant literature. The steel plate engraving the First of May, is one of the most beautiful we have seen, while the fashion plates, drawings and stories, cannot be surpassed. The May number is a real beauty. Every mother of a family of girls, and every young lady, should be a subscriber to Godey.

CHEMUNG CANAL.—It is anticipated that the Chemung branch and feeder will be in excellent condition for running boats by the first of May.—Indeed the water will be let in a day or two previous, and there is nothing at present known to interfere with the immediate commencement of navigation. The injury to the canal by the floods was not near so severe as at first reported.—Elmira Advertiser.

THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY.—The bridges damaged by the late heavy freshet having been repaired, the road is now in good working order to Elmira. Passengers are now conveyed, without delay, to Erie, Pa., and Elmira, N. Y. In a few days the double track will be completed from Parkton to Glen Rock, which includes both sides of what is known as Summit No. 1.

☞ The office of EATON & Co., coal operators, of Archibald, Luzerne county, was entered on Thursday night, April 13th, and robbed of $15,000. Keys were used, and office and safe doors unlocked and carefully locked again. $20,000, done up in parcels, ready for paying the men, was overlooked by the robbers.

THE SOLDIERS' CASKET.—We have received a copy of the New Monthly publication, styled "The Soldiers' Casket." The contents are mostly made up of articles relating to soldiers, scenes and incidents that have taken place during the war. Well written and interesting stories founded on some event that has occurred during the rebellion, anecdotes, &c. There has been an increasing taste for this style of literature of late, and we think the "Casket" comes in apt time to supply that taste. Published by C. W. ALEXANDER, 123 S. 31 street, Philadelphia. Subscription price $2.

7-30 LOAN—NEW ISSUE.—The First National Bank Towanda, is now prepared to receive subscriptions for the new issue of Treasury Notes, payable three years from June 15th, 1865, or exchangeble at that time for the 5-20 six per cent gold interest bonds at par. The notes bear interest as follows:

One cent a day on	$ 50
Two cents a day on	100
Ten cents a day on	500
Twenty cents a day on	1000

The interest from time of subscription to June 15th, will be paid by us to subscribers in advance. These notes, with the exception of the date, are in all respects like the old issue of seven thirty currency interest notes. A supply will be kept on hand for immediate delivery.

N. N. BETTS, Cashier.

MISS FLAVILLA WASHBURN, a trance medium, will speak at the Church in Sheshequin, on the death of President Lincoln, Sunday next at 11 a. m.

MARRIED.

MIDDAUGH—MIDDAUGH.—On the 27th ult., in Towanda, by Rev. E. Wood, Mr. Isaac Middaugh of White Lake, N. Y., to Miss Maria Middaugh, of Wyalusing, Pa.

DIED.

CONOVER.—In Wyalusing, April 25th, of Consumption, Mary Ann Conover, in the 33d year of her age.

LONG.—In Burlington Pa., April 16th 1865, Albert Eugene, only son of Philander and Harriett D. Long, aged 3 years, 3 months, and 19 days.

BRIGGS—In Towanda, on Thursday, April 6th, William Briggs. Aged 71 years.

The deceased was an old citizen in the County of Bradford, having removed from the State of New York at the age of 21 years. He settled at Athens, where he resided for some twenty-five years, during which time his business relations gained for him a general and favorable acquaintance throughout that section of the country, as an honest and kind-hearted man and highly esteemed by all who knew him. A generous friend to the poor, and one whose attention and means were ever at the disposal of the needy, at all times and under all circumstances.

Mr. BRIGGS, soon after leaving Athens, settled in Towanda, where he remained for a number of years, when he followed some of his children to Illinois, and located at Belvidere for a time, when feeling more at home among his old Bradford friends, he returned to spend his days among them.

He enjoyed good health until a few before his decease, and his last hours found him rational and with much earnestness and confidence he conversed with his children and friends in view of his approaching dissolution, being anxious, happy and fully resigned for the messenger of Death, which he met with the fortitude of a true christian.

His death has left children and friends to mourn the loss of one beloved and esteemed as the kind and affectionate parent, a good neighbor and respected citizen.

Of the name and memory of the deceased, no one is left to speak but in words of friendship and respect. COM.
