Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ A good opportunity is offered any one wishing to buy a good second-hand Piano, Rosewood case, in good order. Enquire at G. F. Binder's Photograph Gallery, Towanda.

WANTED.—A reliable young man to go home to the State of Delaware. To one who has a considerable experience in farming, and can come well recommended, I will give steady employment and liberal wages. G. T. COLE.

LOST.—A gold pen and pencil with the owner's name, date &c., epon it, has been lost or stolen—it was enclosed in a morocco case, and a liberal reward will be given the finder by leaving the same at the Banking House of B. S. Russell & Co.

NEW ENTERPRISE.—A Regular Daily Express Line has just been established between Towanda and Troy—another is in operation between Towanda and Waverly. Special attention paid to forwarding goods to all parts of the country. Office at the News Room.

THE FRIENDSVILLE HOMICIDE.—In the matter of the killing of Thomas Flaherty, in a drunken row at Friendsville, of which we published a statement last week, Thomas Dunn was arrested a few days after, and upon an examination of witnesses before Squire Avery, in Montrose, was held to bail in the sum of $5,000 to answer a charge of murder in the second degree.

☞ The Assessor of Internal Revenue, this District, has removed his office from Catawissa to Bloomsburg. Reports and letters pertaining to the office will hereafter be addressed to P. John, at the latter place.

TOWANDA FLATS NURSERY.—The subscriber is now removing the Nursery stock of Apple, Dwarf Pear, Cherry and Quince trees, and Grape Vines, purchased from DANIEL HARKINS, to his premises on Towanda Flats. He has for sale cheap, a fine stock of Apple trees of all the leading and best varieties. There is still time for putting out trees and vines this fall, if attended to at once.
R. M. WELLES.

GRAPE VINES.—I have an assortment on hand for sale at Marshall Brother's Hard-ware store, of Dr. Grant's celebrated seedling Iona and Israella Grape Vines. Also Delaware, Diana and Rogers Hybrid Vines of his raising; all of very fine quality; also at my nursery, Concord, Creveling and Isabella vines. For sale at Marshall Brother's Store, Dr. Grant's Descriptive Catalogue, 25 cts., and Illustrated Catalogue, 25 cts., and Manual of Vines, 50 cts.,—sent by mail on receipt of the price. Vines delivered on any Stage or Railroad route in the County. R. M. WELLES.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Thursday night last week, an accident occurred near Danville, on the Catawissa Railroad, caused by the breaking of a rail. The cars ran down a bank and, we understand, turned over. Several persons were injured, among whom were Misses MATILDA and JENNY CALDWELL, of Williamsport. The latter is very dangerously injured, but, we are happy to learn, not to endanger her life. The conductor of the passenger car was so severely injured that but little hope is entertained of his recovery.

CHIRIQUI IMAGES.—We have had the pleasure of examining a quantity of gold received by Dr. C. Ayer & Co., from Honduras, in payment for medicines, which are extensively sold throughout Central America. Among massive crosses, tablets, and chains, are the rude images which have been taken from the graves of the Chiriqui Indians, birds, turtles, serpents, bugs and reptiles cast in solid gold. They carry us back beyond modern times, to periods and places where barbarism reigned supreme. They seem to come here as mute appeal from the winding sheets of their ancestors, to ask for the simple Indians in the catacombs, medical protection from cultivated men against diseases which gather them up in too many graves. Ignorant and unlettered as they are, they have learned of the white man enough to know where to apply for relief, and what will cure. Our well known townsmen, above named, claim as that they require their remittances from foreign countries now to be made in silver and gold.—Lowell Sentinel, Mass.

"THE TRIUMPH OF FREEDOM OVER SLAVERY." Judson Holcomb, of this place, Clerk in the House of Representatives at Washington, has published a lithograph of the Constitutional Amendment to which is appended a fac simile of the autographs of the President, and of the members of the Senate and House who voted for this important measure, the whole being contained upon a card, making one of the most valuable contributions to the current publications of the day. This is most excellent and timely, and cannot be too appreciated by the public. The sheet is a lithograph, most beautifully gotten up, embellished with appropriate mottoes, printed tinted paper, and when framed will be ornamental, from its value as a part of the history of the day.

A specimen may be seen at the New Room, where orders will be received.

☞ JAMES G. CLARK, the celebrated Vocalist and Composer, proposes to hold one of his concerts at this place on Thursday evening, Nov. 16, the room to be hereafter announced. We need only say to our citizens that a rich musical treat is in reserve for them, as Mr. Clark's musical reputation is well known throughout the country. As a writer of songs he is peculiar for exquisite melody of composition, and striking beauty of versification. He is original in style, natural in manner, displaying the most delicate appreciation of the power of a voice of great sweetness, power and compass. In rendering a certain class of songs appropriate to the times, he has no superior. The following complimentary notice is from the New York Tribune:

Among those who have nobly contributed towards the Union triumph in our late Presidential contest, we accord a high place to the makers, and singers of songs, arousing the Patriotism of the People, and appealing effectively to the love of Liberty and Justice. Of these there are a goodly number; but we happen to be personally acquainted with James G. Clark, of our city—the ballad writer and singer, and as determined champion of the Union as exists. We have seldom or never possible to give this minstrel of Freedom a hearing at the Academy of Music or Cooper Institute, and have him, aided by others, give a score of the best Campaign Songs. Should we do so, because everybody's business is nobody's business, we venture to exhort our friends everywhere to welcome this singer wherever he may appear. Mr. Clark, we may observe, has devoted of the proceeds of his concerts nearly $4,000 since he began, to the sustenance and comfort of soldiers and their families.

"A NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN," is an old saw and house-keepers will be glad to learn of an invention that will keep them in new brooms at a comparative cost. O. W. Kellogg's Patent Door Broom, supplies this great desideratum. The invention consists of a Broom handle, which combines neatness with economy. EDMOND KINNEY of Windham, and JOSEPH TOWNER of Rome, have purchased the right for a large portion of Pennsylvania, and will dispose of County rights, on reasonable terms.

A MERITED COMPLIMENT.—The President has conferred upon Gen. H. J. MADILL, the brevet appointment of Major General, for distinguished services before Petersburg. This is a deserved compliment to a brave officer.

BROKE JAIL.—Cyrus H. Wheeler, confined in jail for stealing from Nathaniel Kingsley, in Troy borough, effected his escape from our jail, on Saturday night laet. He was confined in the "dark cell," and by making a hole through the brick wall, passed into the Sheriff's kitchen, and then by raising the window, into the open air and liberty. We have heard of "crawling out of a small hole," but we doubt if a man of the prisoner's size ever squeezed himself through as small an opening, on any other occasion. The aperture was 10½ by 9 inches. Wheeler was about 5 feet 7 inches in height, with chin whiskers. A reward of $50 is offered for his arrest, and return to the county jail. Wheeler has been twice convicted, and sent to the Penitentiary from this County.

☞ Mr, D. W. HUGHES, of this place, is agent for Headley's New Work, "Grant and Sherman, &c," which was noticed in our columns last week, for the towns o Smithfield, Burlington, Monroeton, Asylum, Terry, Wysox and Sheshequin.

The following testimonial is given H. W. HUGHES by subscribers to "Raymond's Life of Lincoln,":—

The undersigned, citizens of the County of Bradford Pa,, having purchased of D. W. Hughes, of the borough of Towanda, "Raymond's Life and Public Services and State Papers of Abraham Lincold," do most cheerfully bear testimony to the Book as a work of intrinsic worth and merit—a book that should be possessed by every person of American hear; and feeling:

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant, (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New-York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellencies of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood cuts; and it combines in it self the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. t has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRUBNER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.
