Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ The Reporter is printed upon CAMPBELL'S Country and Job Press, Office No. 56 Gold st., New York. Thomas H. Senior, agent.

☞ A rather serious accident occurred at Franklin on Friday last. A deer was driven into the creek at that place by dogs, and while a man from the opposite side of the creek shot at the deer the bullet struck the water, bounded and entered the breast of Mr. Jacob Thall, standing on the opposite side. The bullet striking his breast bone glanced and passed into the right arm where it lodged. The wound was a painful one, but is not considered mortal.

JAIL STAMPEDE AT ELMIRA.—Ten prisoners let themselves out of the Chemung County jail, at Elmira, on Thursday evening, March 15, by sawing off the bars of one of the South windows. The same bars were partially sawn off several years since, and were not renewed, but only patched up, and blame is cast upon the county authorities for not providing a safer receptacle for criminals.—Sheriff Howell recaptured two of the ten escaped prisoners the same evening, leaving eight still at large. Their names are William Wallace, Alex Powell, Richard Harwood, James Jerome, James Dolan, Seth Palmer, Samuel Gorman, and John Malcahy. Most of them were in for larceny and burglary.

☞ The annual public Examination of the classes in the Collegiate Institute, will take place next week, commencing on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The closing exercises will be held on Friday afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

TOWANDA LYCEUM.—Our association met on Friday evening, March 23, for the discussion of the enforcement of the Monroe Doctrine, and disposed of the same, after an animated debate on the part of both affirmative and negative, by a vote of the house, in favor of the former. Several resolutions were offered and among others the following, presented by MR. SHORES, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Towanda Lyceum, tender our thanks to the Editors of the Bradford Reporter and the Bradford Argus, for past favors.

The society after considering a number of questions for discussion on Friday evening, March 30, finally adopted the following, which was handed in by Mr. G. D. MONTANYE:

Resolved, That there is more to praise than to condemn in the life and public services of Napoleon Bonaparte.

A full attendance of the members and all wishing to become such, is earnestly requested to be at the next meeting at 7 o'clock, as business of importance is to be transacted. The committee on Constitution and By-Laws will report, and steps will be taken to further the completion of the organization.

So far we have exceeded all expectations in regard to the success of the desired object of the institution. It is the manifest wish of all interested in the cause, to make it a permanent affair, and one which the citizens of Towanda will take pride in favoring with their patronage. In so doing we find but few obstacles in our way and those we expect to surmount easily, if the material of which our association is composed acts with the same interest and zeal, that has heretofore characterized all of its deliberations. Our ranks are filled to a large extent, with men who are not only able to make it interesting, but also, to give it a character which very few societies of this kind attain only by hard and prolonged efforts. A trouble, which at the outset seemed the most insignificant, and for which the association was more particularly formed, is now the largest that has yet presented itself. It is the entire indifference of Young America, who should be first and foremost in the lines, with the beautiful and apt inscription upon his banner, "Excelsior." Nearly all the young men of this place, who are at the proper age to take hold of the matter, and push it along as they should, stand aloof and act as if the organization was not founded, as it is, for their sole benefit, but for the men of our place and vicinity who have for many years been actively engaged more or less in politics and other matters of public importance. The audience was large and showed their appreciation to what was said by their close attention. We are always happy to see our friends, especially the female portion of them.

By order of the President.

W. H. WATKINS, Sec'y.

THE LADIES FRIEND.—This Magazine for April is before us, the steel plate for this number is, as usual, unsurpassed. The Fashion Plate, Wood cuts, reading matter, music, work table patterns for embroidery, dresses, &c., are excellent. Every lady should have it. Price 2,50 a year, two copies $4. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

☞ GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for April is a superior number. The steel engraving "The last Bouquet," is a beautiful domestic scene which rivets the attention and pleases the senses. The fashion plates are very elaborate, and the embroidery patterns numerous: the literary contents rich and varied. The finest writers in America furnish the Lady's Book with their pure thoughts. In short, the best magazine for ladies, in the United States is Godey's Lady's Book. One copy one year $3.—Two copies $5,50.

☞ About one o'clock on Sunday morning last a fire broke out in a furniture store on Water street in the city of Elmira at the entrance to Main st. Bridge. Two spans of the bridge and seven buildings were destroyed and other buildings injured. The buildings stood upon the bank of the river, and the engines could play only upon one side of them; and the wind blowing strongly down the river carried the flames along their rear and for a time baffled all efforts of the firemen.—One span of the bridge floated against the railroad bridge, setting it on fire and for a time seriously endangering it. The fire was arrested after six hours of unremitting effort. The Elmira papers speak in the highest terms of the efficiency of their steamers, as they do also of the Elmira Firemen.

Loss about $50,000, Insurance $25,000. The fire was the work of incendiarism.

CANAL PROSPECTS.—EX-SENATOR TRUMAN has been home on a visit, having spent the last two or three weeks in Albany looking after the Chenango Extension, which but for the persistent and energetic efforts of himself and Hon. JOHN J. TAYLOR, would have been hopelessly dead long ago. When Mr. TRUMAN arrived in Albany on his recent visit no progress whatever had been made with the Canal bills. Before he came away the new appropriation of $300,000 had passed the senate by a vote of 18 to 6 after having been once defeated by the absence of Senator Cornell and other friends of the bill from their seats when it was reached in the order of business; and the re-appropriation of the unexpended portion of the former appropriation had been read a second time in the Assembly. Mr. TRUMAN has gone back to Albany to help these bills through, and will be followed by Mr. TAYLOR in the course of the coming week. MESSRS. TRUMAN and TAYLOR deserve great credit for their persevering efforts in behalf of our Canal, and the prosecution of the work to its final completion will be in a great measure due to their efficiency in urging toward the enterprise.—Oneyo Gazette.

B. S. RUSSELL, Local Agent.

Towanda, March 26, '66.

☞ Proceedings of the Rome meeting of the Bradford County S S Association held February 27 and 28, 1866.

Meeting called to order at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. A. F. Harding, Vice President, in the chair. Opened the meeting with religious exercises, which lasted one-half hour. On motion of Rev. H. J. Crane a business committee were appointed, who after consultation reported a programme for afternoon, one feature of which was little business and much prayer.

After a season of prayer and praise adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Pres. B. S. Russell in the chair. The first half-hour was spent in social prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on this convention. The President introduced the business of the convention in a short address, showing the late glorious work of God in the conversion of so many from sin to righteousness from among us, to have followed the wake of this Association in a marked and peculiar manner, thus showing great reason for encouragement and inciting the members of the Association to renewed diligence in the work God has given us to do.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Minutes of A. M. read and approved.

On motion, a committee on place of next meeting, preacher, and topics, were appointed. The Association now listened to an address from Rev. J F. Brownell of Towanda, on "The importance of correct early culture." Music. N. Tidd offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Ex. Com. be requested with the concurrence and aid of our missionary, Rev. R. Crittenden, to appoint town Secretaries in the several towns, whose duty shall be to report to the Cor. Sec., monthly, the S S statistics of their respective towns.

After some discussion the resolution was laid over for action the first thing on the last A. M. Rev. R. Crittenden suggested that we spend the time, till 5 o'clock, in devotional exercises. Suggestion adopted. At five adjourned. Benediction by Brother Brownell.

EVENING SESSION.—After the opening exercises, had a sermon from Rev. R. Crittenden, after which the time was occupied with prayer, singing and exhortation.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.—Met at 9½. Spent first hour in devotional exercises. Then proceeded to business. Minutes read and approved. Busines Com. report. Com. on place &c., report as follows:

Place of meeting Burlington. Preacher, Rev. Jos. A. Knox, of Athens. Alternate, Rev. S. Dunlap, of Towanda. Time, Second Wednesday of June 1866.

Took up Res. of Mr. Tidd, which after being changed from monthly to semi-annually, was adopted. Music. The following query was then discussed at some length: "What is the best method to be adopted by young persons in the daily private reading of the scriptures."

S. W. Alvord, Cor. Sec., tendered his resignation which was accepted. The election of a Cor. Sec., to fill vacancy was postponed till afternoon session. Music. Benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—This session was set apart for the usual children's meeting. The children were addressed by N. Tidd, Rev. R. Crittenden and Rev. H. J. Crane. This meeting was well attended, and all seemed well pleased. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the members of this Association return their most hearty thanks to the people of Rome, for their kind hospitality in providing for their comfort during the sessions of this convention, also to the trustees of this church for the use of their house of worship.

The election of Cor. Sec., resulted in the choice of J. K. P. Gleason of Towanda. The usual collection was now taken up to defray the incidental expenses of the Association. Benediction per Rev. H. J. Crane.

The above record of the proceedings of this convention, gives but a meager idea of the interest of its sessions. Acting on the suggestion of the business committee, the exercises were made more devotional than at any former meting, and the time was occupied in exercises drawing the attention of the people to the great object of all true SS work, the salvation of sinners through Jesus Christ.

All in attendance seemed well pleased with the proceedings, and amply repaid for coming up to this meeting of our county S S Association.

O. A. BLACK, Rec. Sec.

FIRE.—The Toy Manufactory of HAWS BROTHERS', situated on Towanda creek, just above Monroeton, was destroyed by fire on Monday night last. The fire was discovered about 12 o'clock; all efforts to extinguish the flames were unavailing. We did not learn the amount of loss. Insured for $4,000, through C. S. Russell's Agency.

☞ If the following named persons will correspond with J. B. Ewing Esq., of Harrisburg, they will learn that there in his hands certain military monies belonging to them, viz: J. W. Burton, C. K. Kellogg, J. B. M. Means, Johnson Rogers, R. C. Sinsebaugh, Charles F. Willard, Richard Gustin.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"THE TRIUMPH OF FREEDOM OVER SLAVERY."

A COMPANION FOR THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

This National Engraving designed and copy-righted by J. BOLCOMB, and published by C. F. Cross, No. 137, Room 7, Broadway, New-York, is now being offered to the people of Bradford County through traveling agents.

It is a copy in official form of the Amendment of the Constitution of the United States abolishing Slavery: to which is appended the Autographs of President Lincoln, Vice President Hamlin, Schuyler Colfax, Speaker of the House of Representatives; J. W. Forney, Secretary of the Senate; Edward M'Pherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, and of all the members of both the Senate and House of Representatives, who voted for this important measure, giving 162 fac-simile signatures, and a reliable and true record of one of the most important events in the Nation's history since the immortal Declaration of Independence. The whole is engraved on copper plate, and published on strong, fine Card-board, 19x25 inches, and is accompanied by an explanatory Key, giving also the negative vote upon the amendment. The Engraving is appropriately embellished, and forms an ornamental and valuable memento. It should be procured and preserved by every friend of Freedom. Price $1 50.
