Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

GROW ON THE STUMP.—Hon. GALUSHA A. Grow is stumping Western Pennsylvania, under the auspices of the Republican State Central Committee.

☞ Several miles of the railroad between this place and Waverly have been laid with rails, and there is every prospect that at an early day, the "Iron horse" will take the place of the boat horses on the towing path.

☞ A Musical Convention will be held at Wyalusing, commencing Tuesday, October 8, 1867, at 7½ o'clock, to continue three days, and close with a concert on Friday evening, Oct. 11th. See Special Notice

☞ The North Branch Association of Universalists will hold its next annual session in Springfield, Bradford Co. Pa., on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 25 and 26. All are invited to attend.

STEPHEN BULLOCK, Standing Clerk.

☞ M. M. DELANO, of this borough, has established himself in business at Wellsboro', and will learn the people of that pleasant village how to buy goods at cheap rates for cash. "Bush" has served a long apprenticeship in POWELL'S and other leading establishments, knows what the public wants, and understands how to supply them at the lowest possible figures. We wish him success.

☞ The Lehigh Valley road will soon open to Pittston. Men work night and day on it, and the track is being rapidly laid. This road will have a branch from the point where it comes into the Valley in Newport to the lands of the Northampton Coal Company, which will send coal by that road.

☞ One of the most important objects a man can have in this world is to make sure his family will be provided for when he is taken away. Now if you have not made such provisions, you should call immediately and take a policy of H. A. BIRDSAKE, at Dr. Pratt's office, on State St., who is Agent for the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., one of the oldest, cheapest, and most reliable companies now in existence.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We are pained to chronicle a very sad accident which occurred at Blood & Co.'s Foundry in this place, on Wednesday morning last. Lemuel Sinsabaugh while oiling some part of the machinery—the "Line Shaft," he became entangled therewith, by his coat-sleeve catching, and after being revolved two or three times, was rescued seriously, though we hope, not fatally injured. On examination by Surgeon Eastman, he was found to have one arm and one leg broken, and his shoulder dislocated. Yet, after all of these injuries, up to the time we write, he is quite comfortable.—Athens Democrat.

WELL, I DECLARE!—We always thought, and so did everybody we ever talked with about it, that when an eye was injured, and replaced by an artificial one, the old eye had to be gouged or cut out previous to the insertion of the other.—But tisn't so. Nothing of the kind. The new eye is put right over the old, and moves about just as natural as life. No pain, no soreness, attends the insertion or wear. We know, 'cause didn't we see the thing done yesterday, by Dr. Up De Graff? —Elmira Advertiser.

☞ The Executive Committee of the Bradford County S. S. Association will issue during the present week a neat blank circular, to be sent to all S. S. Superintendents and Ministers in Bradford, soliciting contributions for the support of the S. S. Missionary's work in the County. Rev. Mr. CHITTENDEN, gives his whole time to this work, the results of which are well known and should receive a generous response to this appeal. He receives barely one half his support from the field. The committee most affectionately commend this Home Missionary work to the christian liberality of Sunday Schools and Churches in Bradford County. B. S. RUSSELL, Pres.

Towanda Sept. 18, 1867.

SUDDEN AND DREADFUL DEATH.—We chronicle with feelings of the deepest regret, the sudden and awful death of FRANCIS HOMET of Wyalusing township, which took place by an accident, occurring on Wednesday, 11th inst. Mr. HOMET was a contractor (with U. TERRY) for building the Railroad bridge across Wyalusing creek, and it became necessary to remove a large derrick used for raising stone. In taking down the derrick, and when it was ready lowered to the ground Mr. H. with a crowbar went to the end of it, to hold it in its position. It suddenly swung around and the end flew up, catching him, raising him into the air, and crushing his head against the abutment, killing him instantly.

Mr. HOMET was about 47 years of age, and leaves a wife and family. He was an excellent citizen, greatly respected by all who knew him, and his untimely death threw a gloom over the whole neighborhood.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF A STEAM BOILER!—TWO MEN KILLED!—On Friday last, about 8½ A. M. the boiler attached to the steam saw mill of D'A. OVERTON, in Franklin township exploded with a terrific report, demolishing the machinery, and making a complete wreck of the building.

There were several persons at work about the mill at the time of the explosion, of whom JOHN T. SMITH was killed instantly. He was outside the mill, and was literally blown to pieces. One arm was first discovered, some fifty feet from the place where he was at work. He was about 47 years of age, and leaves a wife and family; he had been in the employ of Mr. OVERTON for some years, and was respected as an industrious and worthy man.

The engineer, F. M. HAMMOND, who was in the mill at the time of the explosion was scalded from head to foot, and otherwise badly injured, and lingered until 8 o'clock in the evening, when death put an end to his sufferings. He was from Michigan, aged about 28 years, and leaves a wife.

D. HAVENS and HIRAM CRAYTON were slightly injured by timber falling upon them. MATTHEW MARSHALL was uninjured, though at work but a few feet from the boiler.

The cause of the explosion is a mystery. The boiler was nearly a new one. It had been "blown out" the day previous and at the time of the occurrence was working steadily and well, under about 80 lbs. pressure of steam, with apparently plenty of water. The boiler from appearances, blew into small fragments, being scattered in every direction.

The loss to Mr. OVERTON pecuniarily is a serious one, as the boiler and engine were completely destroyed, and the mill and machinery much damaged. The force of the explosion was terrific—the report and shock being felt for a mile distant.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BRADFORD COUNTY TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—In pursuance of the call issued by a joint committee of the Sons of Temperance and Good Templars to all friends of the cause in the county, a meeting was convened at the Odd Fellow's Hall, on Wednesday, September 4th, at 3 p. m. Gen. W. PATTON was called to the chair, and G. H. WOOD, appointed Secretary.

Several committees were appointed to report at the evening session. Adjourned to 7 o'clock.

At 7 o'clock re-assembled at same place. The report of committee on Constitution was called for, when at the request of the convention, Rev. G. D. Chenoweth, Corresponding Secretary of Pennsylvania State Temperance Union, reported a constitution which after some discussion was adopted, and is as follows: (Only the important sections are published.)

ART. 2. The object of this Association shall be to promote the cause of total abstinence from the use, manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

3. Any person may become a member of this "Union" by signing the constitution and pledge herein presented.

4. No person shall be a member of this society who does not subscribe to the following pledge: We the undersigned, do agree that we will not use intoxicating liquors as a beverage, nor traffic in them, that we will not provide them as an article of entertainment, or for persons in our employ, and that in all suitable ways we will discountenance their use throughout the community.

5. The officers shall be a President, two Vice Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, with two managers for each Town and Boro.

The committee on nominations reported as follows:

President, S. W. ALVORD.
Vice Presidents, W. PATTON and C. M. MANVILLE.
Treasurer, J. B. BURT.
Secretary, O. A. BLACK.

(The list of Town managers is not completed.)

At this point adjourned to the Court House. This meeting was called to order by the President, who introduced Rev. R. CHITTENDEN, who led in prayer. Rev. G. E. CHENOWETH then offered the following resolutions which were adopted.

Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the providence of God in the success of the Temperance reform in the history of the past, and that we humbly implore His wisdom to guide our counsels and His blessing on our efforts to banish the curse of intemperance from our community.

Resolved, That we consider it of the first importance that the rising generation be carefully guarded against the great evils of intemperance, and we earnestly recommend, that this subject should be brought to the attention of S. S. Supt's. and Teachers, with the request that they co-operate with us in securing the pledges of the children under their charge to total abstinence.

Resolved. That to the traffic in intoxicating drinks may be traced three-fourths of the Pauperism, Insanity, Crime and Casualties of the country, and that against these evils as a civil right, the people should be protected by wholesome legislation and that as a license gives freedom, approval and respectability to this traffic and denies the proper protection to the people, therefore it is the right and duty of the citizens of this commonwealth in self defense, by legislation, to adopt suitable means to bring this traffic to an end.

Resolved, That licensing of acknowledged evils is wrong in morals and ruinous in legislation and that a good law is a potent instrument in creating a good public sentiment, and a bad law corrupts and depraves it; therefore we can never give our consent to a system which shall give the legal sanction of the state to the traffic in intoxicating drinks, a business so ruinous to the morals and best interests of the commonwealth and that prohibition is the only safe legislation that can be.

Resolved, That we respectfully request the Pastors of the County to call attention to the subject of Temperance in their respective charges and preach on the subject at their earliest convenience.

After the adoption of these resolutions the President introduced Hon. BENJ. JAY, of Penn Yan, N. Y. who addressed the convention at length, advocating in strong terms the only safe way "Total Abstinence."

Rev. G. D. CHENOWETH addressed the convention in a pleasant earnest way urging the necessity of totally abstaining from every thing which intoxicates.

At the close of this address, all who were willing to speak for the right and take the pledge were invited to rise, when a large proportion of the audience arose.

These exercises were interspersed with Temperance Glees which added to the evenings entertainment.

This convention adjourned to meet at the Court House, October 16, 1867.

COBURN—Sept. 3d, 1867, of Consumption, at Harrisburg, at the residence of his father Professor Charles E. Coburn, Francis G. Coburn, aged 30 years.

Those of our readers who studied at Owego Academy between the years 1848 and 1854 will remember well the deceased, one of the most promising boys of the large numbers then in attendance. Equally energetic and equally excelling in his classes as in the academic games and amusements, he gave promise of a long and useful life.—He held various positions in the Post Office at Elmira and in connection with the Erie Railway and finally as chief clerk in the School Department of Pennsylvania in all of which his integrity and distinguished ability were manifest. While in Elmira part of his duties was to receive the night mails; in the exposure incident to which he caught cold which in one form or another clung to him and finally resulted in his death, after six months of severe suffering. He leaves a wife and two children, besides his sorrowing parents, a sister and brother to mourn his early death. When we look back to the many days, during which, under our instruction he conned the classic pages of Horace, Virgil and Homer, our eyes are dimmed with a tear, and the question is forced upon us; who next of us shall go that way whence we shall not return?—Owego Times.

CHAMBERLIN is now keeping the GROVER & BAKER'S

Family Sewing Machines.

These Machines are superior to all others for family use, for the following reasons:

They sew with two threads, liect from the spools, and require no rewinding.

They are more easily understood and used, and less liable to derangement, than other machines.

They are capable of executing perfectly, without change of adjustment, a much greater variety of work than other machines.

The stitch made by these machines is much more firm, elastic, and durable, especially upon articles which require to be washed and ironed, than any other stitch.

This stitch, owing to the manner in which the under thread is unwrought, is much the most plump and beautiful in use, and retains this plumpness and beauty, even upon articles frequently washed and ironed, until they are worn out.

The structure of the seam is such, that, tho' it be cut or broken at intervals of only a few stitches, it will neither open, run, nor ravel, but remains firm and durable.

Unlike other machines, these fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation.

With these machines, while silk is used upon the right or face side of the seam, cotton may be used upon the other side without lessening the strength or durability of the seam. This cannot be done on no other machine, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or made up with silk.

These machines, in addition to their superior merits as instruments for sewing, execute the most beautiful, and permanent embroidery and ornamental work.

You can get Sewing Machine Needles, and all articles pertaining to the machine business.
