EVANS & WATSON'S

Philadelphia Manufact'd

Salamander Safes.

No. 304 Chesnut Street,

PHILADELPHIA.

THESE Safes are now in use all over the United States, and have been tested in many fires; the following shows another instance of their capability in resisting fire!

WITMER'S BRIDGE,
Lancaster Township, July 30, 1860.

MESSRS. EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen:—The small size No. 1 Salamander Safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and those to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill, which was destroyed on the night fo the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor, and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the Safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders, a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me.

Yours, respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

Another Victory for Evans and Watson's Salamander Safe.

OSWEGO, N. Y., March 27 1860.

Gentlemen—It affords me much pleasure to inform you that the Safe No 5, (upright) which I purchased of B. Stroud, your traveling agent, has passed through an exceedingly hot fire in a three story brick building, which heated the Safe to a white heat, so that the corners of it appear melted; but it preserved my books and valuable papers to the amount of several thousand dollars, for which I feel thankful.

Yours, respectfully, J. N. ELDRIDGE

☞ A large assortment of the above SAFES always on hand, at 304 Chesnut street, (late 21 South Fourth st.) Philadelphia.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years's residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac-simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 232 Market st., Phila.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

Evidence Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Markefield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

CORDIAL ELIXIR OF

CALISAYA BARK

Prepared only by HEGEMAN & CO., Wholesale and Retail Chemists and Druggists, 161, 309, 511 and 736 Broadway, New York.

THE virtues of PERUVIAN BARK as a Tonic have been too long known to need comment.

The CALISAYA ("or King's Bark,") is the most valuable of the numerous varieties of the Peruvian Bark, and in the ELIXIR is combined with other ingredients that increase its efficacy and at the same time overcome the intensity of its bitter, rendering it a most Agreeable Cordial.

For persons living in FEVER and AGUE districts, it will be found invaluable as a preventive. Half of a wineglass full taken night and morning, rendering the system much less subject to the unhealthy influence of the atmosphere.

DIRECTIONS.—Dose for an adult, half a wineglass full before breakfast and dinner; children from one to two teaspoons full; it may be taken with or without a little water
