A CHOICE LIBRARY OF MUSIC.—The United States Musical Review, published by J. L. Peters, 200 Broadway New-York, is a mammoth monthly magazine, sheet-music size, containing over seventeen pages of musical news, reviews, choice art items, every line of which is readable. This alone is well worth a year's subscription, which is only $2. Each number contains four pieces of choice new music by the best writers in America, thus giving a select library of new music at such a low rate that even the poorest may indulge in what has hitherto been considered a luxury. Nine dollars worth of choice music has appeared within its pages during the last six months. The U. S. Musical Review is published at $5 per year, single copies, 25 cents. No musical family should be without it.

SUICIDE.—On Friday afternoon, Mar. 27th, John Holmes, a young man of 22 years of age, son of L. V. Holmes, of Owego, (Cabinet maker,) purchased arsenic at Pinney's Drug Store, took several doses of it at different places, which soon brought on cramps and spasms, when he was taken home to his father's residence, on Central Avenue, where he died about midnight—all efforts of physicians to save his life proving unavailing. A Coroner's jury summoned by Dr. Allen, rendered a verdict in accordance with the foregoing facts.

The deceased leaves a wife and one child at Ithaca, and had lost one child a short time ago. Domestic troubles and dissipation are supposed to have led him to make way with himself.

TROY AND VICINITY.—The Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church at Sylvania, will commence on Thursday April 9th, and continue till Sunday April 11th. Rev. Wesley Cochrane, Presiding Elder of Troy District will be present on Thursday, and Rev. C. L. F. Howe will officiate on Sunday.

Miss Nancy C. Smith, of Springfield township, graduated at the Woman's Medical College in Philadelphia, receiving the degree of M. D.

The hills around Austinville, contain iron which has been tested and found to be of excellent quality. It is believed to be in large quantities, and yet, strange to say, the men of means have made but little or no effort to develope it. The iron of Austinville should not remain dormant.

The largest tree of Western Bradford, is going to decay on O. P. Ballard's farm between Troy and Alba. The tree is a chestnut, and twenty one feet in circumference at the base.—Gazette.

☞ Quite a controversy has been going on in reference to chartering a company to build a bridge across the Susquehanna about four miles above Athens, near the State line. An application has been before the Legislature of this State for a charter, but it was refused. The application in the New York Legislature has been granted, as we learn by the following paragraph in the Waverly Advocate:

The Legislature of this State has passed the bill granting a charter to build a bridge across the Susquehanna near the State line. A bridge there is a public necessity and will soon be built. We learn that nine roads coming from Litchfield, Nichols and adjacent towns centre there.

BISHOP STEVENS.—The many friends of Bishop STEVENS, in this County, will be rejoiced to learn that he is steadily improving from the effects of his serious accident, and it is thought that in a few weeks he will be able to return home. He is at the house of Judge CONNGHAM, an Wilkes Barre.

THE GALAXY.—Commencing with the May number. Sheldon & Co., will be the publishers of this favorite Magazine, which after an existence of two years, has already attained a most amiable reputation. With the advent of the new proprietors the Galaxy is to be enlarged and very much improved, in its appearance, in the sprightliness and variety of its contents, and in its embellishments, making it the most attractive and valuable periodical in the country. SHELDON & Co., publishers, No. 498 and 500 Broadway, New York.

☞ LAPORTE, Sullivan Co., is a model town. There are few towns of which it can be truthfully said, as the Free Press says of Laporte: "There is not a licensed hotel in the borough of Laporte; but one licensed eating house; and no groggeries, doggeries or rum-holes where whisky is 'sold on the sly.' To show the evil effects of all this, our county jail is empty four-fifths of every year; while we have a Good Templar's lodge with some forty-five or fifty members."

☞ Hon. JOHN MAGER, died at Watkins on Sunday, in the 74th year of his age.

☞ A severe snow storm paid us an unseasonable visit on Tuesday last, falling to the depth of several inches.

☞ The work of connecting the Barclay and Penn's. and N. Y. Railroads, has commenced, and we may, in a few weeks expect to see cars running through this borough, loaded with coal. A report is current, that the Erie Railway has leased the Barclay Road and mines.

☞ Miss GREEN'S Millinery Store will be opened Saturday, April 11. Ladies wishing to purchase anything in the line will find it to their interests to call.
