STEALING FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

The Provost Guard of Washington the other day made a descent upon a public house in that city, which was found completely filled with boxes of Government arms, accoutrements, clothing, &c., to the value of thousands of dollars. The stock consisted of many articles of which there was a constant demand in the army not easily supplied—boxes of Springfield rifles of the latest pattern, unused; new clothing, new shoes, non-commissioned officers' swords, and even stretchers for hospital purposes. The most of these articles were marked for the Eighth New York Regiment, "German Rifles," which it is said, belongs to Blenker's Division. The apartment was rented to a person for storage some months ago.—The person to whom the apartment was rented is said to be a Quartermaster in Blenker's Division. Shortly after this discovery, a similar development was made on Ninth street. The police have for time suspected the last-mentioned place. They observed that wagon loads upon wagon loads would be hauled there during the day, and were informed that the goods were removed by night in wheelbarrows. As the house appeared to be guarded by soldiers, they could not interfere; but having informed Captain Sherwood of the fact, he went to the house where was found a woman, who told him that the goods belonged to Blenker's Division; that they were put there for safe keeping, and that her husband, who was a Sergeant, was detailed to guard them. This opened the eyes of the military, and the result was the taking possession of the goods.—Sharpe's rifles, muskets, pistols, blankets, shirts, drawers, knapsacks, haversacks and other articles were recovered. These goods were said to belong to the Seventy-third and Twenty-seventh Regiments and to a Pennsylvania Regiment—at least, many of the boxes were so marked. The correspondent of the Times, by whom the above facts are given, says that this is not the first discovery of the kind where the parties concerned have been said to hail from Blenker's Division.

MACAULEY'S BOYHOOD.

While he was yet a boy he was in incessant request to "tell books" to his playmates. At that early day he would repeat and declaim the longest "Arabian Night" as fluently as Scheherazade herself. A little later he would recite one of Scott's novels, story, character, scenery, almost as well as though the book were in his hand. He himself used to tell a funny story of a nursery scene. For every one who came to his father's house he had a biblical name: Moses, Holofernes, Melchisedek, and the like. One visitor he called the Beast. Kind mamma, prudent papa, frowned at their precocious child, and set their brows against this name; but Thomas stuck to his point. Next time the Beast made a morning call the boy ran to the window, which hung over the street, to turn back laughing, crowing with excitement and delight. "Look here, mother," cries the child, "You see I am right. Look, look at the number of the Beast!" Mrs. Macauley glanced at the hackney coach; and behold, its number was 666!—London Atheneum.

PITHY.—The chaplain of the New Hampshire Legislature opened as follows one day last week: "We think every member of the House, O God, is in favor of a short session, and frequently manifest their appreciation of short prayers. We pray Thee that they will also conceive a love for short speeches; speak only when they have something to say, say it and then stop."

DIED FROM GRIEF.—The Enfield, S. C., Advertiser announces the death of Mrs. Julia Butler, relict of the late Col. P. M. Butler. She died from grief at the death of her youngest son, E. J. Butler, who was killed in the battle of Tuesday, the 1st inst., near Richmond.

☞ Floyd complains, says Prentice, that he is most unjustly treated. We are disposed to reply in the language of Rev. Spurgeon—"What! out of hell and complain?"

AT first the Government paid the negroes in South Carolina one dollar per acre for planting cotton. They now receive two dollars per acre for cultivating it.

Ex-Gov. SEYMOUR, of New York, has notified Gov. Morgan that he is ready to shoulder a musket and go to the wars.
