They acknowledge that they could get no hold of the Lumiary by which they were not unwilling to use, especially when they offered more than ten hundred to one. Dr. Liebe, of Leavenworth, informed me, some time ago, that Wm. M. Miller was placed down at Parkville to drive me off. Springfellow and he were so loud selling in his presence.

From certain indications, we are led to believe that the destruction of The Luminary press was determined on months before it was put in execution. Letters were received asking the price of our press. We offered to sell at a reasonable price, but no trade was consummated. J. T. V. Thompson was heard to declare that the press should be thrown into the Missouri river, and its editors hung. By the way, we had opposed the appointment of that corrupt man to the office of Governor of Kansas, and thereby enkindled his wrath.—About the first of March last, after Atchison had left his seat in Congress and returned to Missouri, letters were said to have been received in Parkville, signed by D. R. Atchison, stating that the State no longer desired his services, but he had other duties to perform—certain individuals in Parkville needed his attention. Indeed, from that time rumors thickened that the press would be destroyed; but we did not alter its tone nor believe it till the deed was done. We have reason to believe that the money was made up to establish The Southern Democrat on the ruins of The Luminary, and its editors spoken to before it was destroyed. R. S. Kelley, of the Squatter Sovereign, received $700 at one time, and expected $1,300 more. Besides, Atchison gets for them the publication of the laws of the United States, Government patronage appears to be at his disposal. His servile tools, The Examiner, Platte Argus, Squatter Sovereign, and Kansas Herald, are the reciments. But they are ready, the moment they have obtained all the patronage at the disposal of the President, to turn against him. Even now, mutterings are heard. He is in danger the moment he disobeys them.

How so small a party exercises so much control, I cannot conceive. A half a dozen members of the secret association, acting in concert all over the country, get up meetings, pass just such resolutions as the leaders want; and the impression goes abroad that all the world and the rest of mankind are moving, when not one in twenty are favorable to the movement. The meeting got up in Parkville, that sanctioned the proceedings of the mob, was of this character. All good citizens in Parkville are opposed to the mob and their action; they did not go out to the meeting. Col. Summers, who was rung in as explaining the object of the meeting, voted against the resolutions. He advocated a resolution declaring that the citizens of Parkville considered their slave propety safe in my hands. I. H. McDonald, W. H. Miller, J. B. Ewell, are mere drones—blood-suckers on the community; they own little or no property, and have done nothing to build up the country, but they and a few others are the willing tools of their masters. Are any of the presses in St. Louis apologizing for upholding this association? Do they want to see the same state of things exist, in St. Louis as "the work goes bravely on?" Do they want to see Southern men refusing to trade with Southern men, till confidence is destroyed, and that noble class of business men, both from the North and the South, who have given credit and character to St. Louis, driven by the force of circumstances to New Orleans, Memphis, Cairo, Alton, Quincy, and Burlington? Then farewell to St. Louis and all her greatness, instead of becoming the great mart of commerce, the seat of American empire, she will dwindle down to the little border town she once was.—More anon. GEORGE S. PARK.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW!

How often it happens that the bride finds herself, to her sorrow, in that pitiable condition, as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilarating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE

But a few years ago is the flush of health and youth, and buoyant of spirits, rapid and apparent as it is explicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sallow, debilitated wife; with the added disorders unstrung, spirits depressed, disposition bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of the laws governing the marriage state; the violation of which totally dissolve, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often

And must this continue? Must this be? Is there no remedy? No relief? No hope?

The remedy, is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and following the remedies, and submitting to them. These are plained easily.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU,

One Hundred Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 250.

[ON THE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]

A standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES have been sold, of which there were upwards of

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular Medical

BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE

the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the cause of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage.

Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellers as on the public, by imitations of title page, spurious editions, and surreptitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary, therefore, to

to buy no book unless the words "Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, 129 Liberty Street, N. Y." is on (and the entry in the Clerk's Office on the back of) the title page; and buy only of respectable and honorable dealers, or send by mail, and address to Dr. A. M. Mauriceau.

☞ Upon receipt of One Dollar "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION" is sent (mailed free) to any part of the United States, the Canadas and British Provinces. All letters must be post-paid, and addressed to Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, box 1224, New-York City. Publishing Office, No. 129 Liberty Street, New-York.

To the Women of Tioga County.

GREETING: The undersigned, citizens of Wellsboro', Tioga county, Pa., having become the proprietors of one of the greatest Labor Saving Machines of the Age, would respectfully inform the "Lady public" that they are prepared to show the falsity of the old song—

"Scold, scold, fret, fret,
Scold, scold away
There is nae luck about the house
Upon a washing day."

For their new Machine, combining cheapness and economy of room with ease and effectiveness of operation, renders the washing for a large family only a pleasant recreation. This Machine is different from any ever before offered to the public, requiring little labor to work it, and doing a large washing in one-third of the time that it can be done in the old way, and equally as well.

The work is performed by the friction of wooden balls floating in the water in which the clothes are worked by a lever. This machine does its work without injury to clothes, and so perfectly, that a dress may be washed without taking out the rags.

Call and examine them at Sturrock's Cabinet Shop where they are manufactured and sold by
