Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ Mrs. Grundy says real ladies do not promenade the streets continually.

☞ The center span of the railroad bridge at this place is to be of iron.

☞ We shall clothe the REPORTER in a new dress about the first of July.

☞ MRS. WILCOX, wife of JOHN W. WILCOX, died in this place on Sunday night last, after a short but severe illness.

☞ EDWARD T. WARD, an experienced operator, now has charge of the Towanda Telegraph Office.

☞ The funeral of the late Mrs. A. M. TAYLOR will be attended from the M. E. Church to-day (Thursday) at 2 o'clock, p.m. Sermon by Rev. J. T. BROWNELL.

☞ SAMUEL DOUGLASS, son of Rev. B J. DOUGLASS, formerly Rector of the Episcopal Church in this village, is a student at the Agricultural College in Center County.

☞ Country printers desiring to order stock from New York will find T. H. SENIOR & Co., in the new Sun building, the right kind of men to deal with.

☞ G. H. WOOD, agent for the Charter Oak Life Insurance Company, is authorized to receive subscriptions for the REPORTER.

☞ Maj. G. B. OVERTON will sell his household goods at auction on Friday next, preparatory to his leaving for Salt Lake City, to take possession of the U.S. Land Office.

☞ DITTRICH & Co.'s advertisement is left out this week, but they still continue to sell the best Pianos and Melodeons manufactured. By purchasing of them you are sure to get a good article.

☞ The MCDUFFEY contested will case will be tried at a special court, to convene in this place on the 21st of June next. The jurors summoned are expected to be prompt in their attendance.

☞ MYER, at the Tobacco Store south of the National Bank, has got the finest stock of imported cigars in town.—GEORGE knows "what is what" in tobacco business. Try him.

☞ O. J. CHUBBUCK, County Superintendent, held his last examination of teachers in this place last week. During the six years Mr. C. has been in office, he has never missed an appointment.

☞ We have been shown a chicken hatched by a hen owned by J. D. GOODENOUGH, Esq., of Wysox, which has four legs. A house-cat, thinking it a "strange animal," made way with the feathered quadruped.

☞ Heretofore persons wanting the celebrated Mortoh Gold Pens, have been compelled to order them from New York. CALKINS & BARBER have now been appointed sole agents in this place for these pens, and will keep a full supply in stock.

☞ Workmen are busily engaged in repairing the store recently occupied by the Bakery. Messrs. SHAW, BRAUND & Co. will soon remove their Market into it, and will hereafter add vegetables of all kinds to their stock.

☞ Rev. J. T BROWNELL will occupy the pulpit of the M.E. Church on Sunday next, morning and evening. We believe Mr. B. expects to spend several days in town visiting with his old parishioners and numerous friends.

☞ Persons going West can now purchase through tickets to all important points, at the depot of the Pennsylvania and New York Railroad, in this place. Mr. BISNOP, the obliging Ticket Agent, will cheerfully give any information in regard to routes, trains, &c.

☞ R. A. MERCUR, son of Judge MERCUR of this place, who received a severe injury in the head while practicing in a gymnasium at New Haven, Conn., in January last, is now being treated by a physician in Philadelphia, with a fair prospect of a permanent cure.

☞ A young son of Dr. FLESCHUT, of Laporte, Sullivan county, was horribly mangled and bruised by a horse in the Doctor's stable a few days since. The little fellow entered the stall for the purpose of feeding the animal, when it is supposed he became frightened, and kicked the boy nearly to death.

☞ A great many people think that Towanda is not large enough to sustain a man who does business upon correct principles, i.e., confines himself to one particular branch of trade. CLONNEY & AMSBRY have knocked this theory in the head. They sell nothing but hats, caps, and furs, and can afford them cheaper than establishments which keep a little of everything.

☞ Our enterprising clothing merchant, Mr. S. ROSENBERG, has just issued the first number of a neat little paper entitled "Rosenberg's Herald of Fashion," which he distributes gratuitously to all his customers. Call at his Store, next door to Warner's Jewelry Store, and see what bargains he offers, and get a copy of the "Herald of Fashion."

☞ Dr. PORTER, W. A. CHAMBERLIN, P. D. MORROW, W. T. DAVIES, and G. D. MONTANYE, left town on Tuesday morning for a fishing excursion in Sullivan county. They have just had built a wagon expressly for fishing trips. The vehicle is neatly and substantially made, with high cushioned seats and rubber-cloth cover, and is provided with ice and provision boxes, axe, hammer, etc. It was "turned out" at the Towanda Agricultural Works.

☞ The Bakery and Eating House carried on by SCOTT & BUFFINGTON, has made a change of base by a flank movement to the left, and is now located on the north of the Ward House, prepared for the accommodation of the public as heretofore.

All will do well to give them a call at their new location. They are also very favorably located and arranged for supplying the public with the luxury of ice cream, which they will do during the summer season.

☞ ELIJAH A. ROCKWELL, who learned the printing business in this office some twenty-five or thirty years ago, is now one of the editors of the San Francisco Call. After completing his trade, he established, in connection with JULIUS SHERWOOD, a paper at Troy, called the New Star; but being of a roving disposition soon gave up his interest in the paper, and made his way to the Sandwich Islands, where he established another paper, and, if our memory serves us correctly, got into some difficulty with the government, on account of which he was compelled to relinquish the business there. From the Sandwich Islands he found his way to California, where he has remained for nearly twenty years past. Mr. R. is a brother of Dr. R. C. ROCKWELL, of Troy, and is a man of more than ordinary ability.

☞ If all our patrons were as prompt as our old friend and subscriber, Col. WILSON, of Alba, the pleasure of publishing a newspaper would be increased. We hope the following note from him will induce others "to go and do likewise":

ALBA, May 10, 1869.

MR. S. W. ALFORD:

Dear Sir.—Enclosed please find Two Dollars, in advance, for the REPORTER from July 8, 1868, to July 8, 1870.

I dreamed a dream the other night,
When all around was still;
I dreamed I saw your Beelzebub
A-coming down the hill.
My printer's bill was in his paw,
And blood was in his eye;
Says he, "Old man, your weasel draw,
Or else prepare to die!"
I gaped young sooty in the face,
And saw my only chance
To avail myself of saving grace:
'Twas—Pay up in Advance!

ISAAD WILSON.

CORRECTION.—Some weeks since an article was published in this paper, cautioning our Good Templars against N. S. FRAZIER, who had been lecturing in some sections of the State. We have recently learned from a letter from a clergyman residing in the place where he was reported to have passed himself off as a Minister "or as the Rev. A. S. FRAZIER," that though this impression was created in the place, and representations of the kind made, it was nothing which Bro. FRAZIER was privy to, or in any wise responsible for, and we take great pleasure in making the correction. The letter alluded to from a Minister whom we well know, clearly exculpates the Brother from all blame.—Keystone Good Templar.

☞ Our people are at last awakening to the importance of keeping up a good fire department. For the past few years, we have virtually been without any fire companies, and we are glad to announce that there is now a fair prospect of having the old companies re-organized. On Tuesday evening last a meeting of Franklin, No. 1, was held, when the following officers were elected:

Foreman—JAS. M. KINSMAN.
First Assistant—J. DELIA MONTANYE, Jr.
Second Assistant—J. C LANG.
Secretary—W. A. ROCKWELL.
Treasurer—D. E. HUNTLY.
Pipemen—JOHN KRAMER and REED KIR.

A meeting of Linta Hose Co. will be held on Saturday evening, when we presume that company will again be put in working order.

☞ At a meeting of soldiers held in the Grand Jury Room on Friday evening last, to make arrangements for decorating the graves of soldiers, Gen. MADILL was called to the chair, and Lt. E. F. SMITH chosen secretary.

It was agreed that Sunday, May 30, should be observed as "decoration day." Cols. A. G. MASON and E. OVERTON, jr., and Major W. A. PECK, were appointed a committee to invite Rev. F. D. HOSKINS to deliver a sermon on the occasion.

A committee was appointed to make all necessary arrangements for the ceremonies. The meeting adjourned to meet again on Saturday evening next, when a full programme will be arranged and made public.

We need hardly urge our citizens to assist in this noble work, as it is one which commends itself to every patriotic heart.

GRAND FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—A grand Fair and Festival in behalf of the new Catholic Church, in course of erection at this place, will open on next Monday, May 24, and continue during the week, in Messrs. CODDING & RUSSELL'S building on Pine St. The ladies of the congregation, aided by a few kind and charitably disposed friends, have already prepared several fancy and useful articles for the occasion. Among the things to be contested for, during its continuance, we may mention a gold watch, platform spring wagon, and a most beautiful set of Japanese and Chinese curiosities. Also another gold watch, and an afgan of very beautiful texture, to be voted for; the former gift presented by a gentleman of Philadelphia, the latter by a lady of the parish.

From the success with which our efforts were crowned at the last fair, held for the same laudable object, may we not hope that our American friends will patronize us this time, too, in their usual generous manner?

Come, maids and youths, for here we sell
All wondrous things of earth and air;
Whatever wild romancers tell,
Or poets sing, or lovers swear,
You'll find at this our Fancy Fair.

Here eyes are made like stars to shine,
And kept for years, in such repair,
That e'en when turn'd of thirty-nine,
They'll hardly look the worse for wear—
If bought at this our Fancy Fair.

We've lots of tears for bards to show'r,
And hearts that such ill usage bear,
That, though they're broken every hour,
They'll still in rhyme fresh breaking bear—
If purchased at our Fancy Fair.

As fashions change in everything,
We've goods to suit each season's air,
Eternal friendships for the spring,
And endless loves for summer wear,—
All sold at this our Fancy Fair.

We've reputations white as snow,
That long will last, if used with care,
Nay, safe through all life's journey go,
If pack'd and mark'd as "brittle ware,"—
Just purchased at the Fancy Fair.

☞ The Northern Tier Gazette contains the following account of a most fiendish murder committed near Canton, a few days since:

HORRIBLE BRUTALITY! A CHILD MURDERED.—On Monday a funeral procession passed through our town on its way to the burying-ground of the Catholic Church, where the remains of a little boy of ten years, named Tiernay, were deposited. Mr. Watts from Canton, who was in the procession, reported to outsiders that there were evidences of foul play, and that undoubtedly the child had died of injuries received from the hands of some person. It appears that the boy, who was a son of a Mr. D. Tiernay, a worthless sort of fellow, whose whereabouts have been a mystery for some time past, but who formerly lived in this town, lost his mother about two years ago, and for the last year and a-half has been living with Michael King, who resides in Union township, between Canton and Carpenter's, about three miles from Canton. About three months ago, King, who has all along been considered a pretty good sort of man, with an even disposition, applied to the boy's uncle, Michael Hooley, of this village, to take the boy away, but Hooley objected as the boy seemed weakly and in ill health. On Saturday last King was in town and applied to Hooley to take the boy, as he said his wife abused him. Hooley said if he was in good health he would do so so, upon which King informed him that there was nothing the matter with the boy but a sore toe. On Sunday morning at daybreak, King was at the house of Mr. Burk, in Canton, for the purpose of having a shroud made for the boy who had died during the night. He seemed greatly agitated and mentioned that the boy fell off the fence some time before.

Suspicion was excited, and on Tuesday the body was taken up, when it was found to bear marks of the most brutal treatment. One eye was injured as if by a blow, there was a mark on the chest as if of a knife or some sharp weapon, three of the ribs on the left side were broken, and there were other mutilations too horrible to name, added to which was the appearance of a part of the back and hips as if they had been roasted. The whole appearance was enough to sicken the heart of any one. Eleazer Pomeroy hastened into Tioga County, and procured warrants for the arrest of King and his wife. On Wednesday they were both brought to town, and after a preliminary examination they were held to await a post mortem examination before the case, proceeds further. King, we believe, accuses his wife of the inhuman crime, but both of them for awhile denied any knowledge of the matter. We await the result of the investigation.

The investigation before the coroner's jury resulted in a verdict that the boy came to his death from ill-treatment by his inhuman foster-parents. They have been committed to jail in Wellsborough to await their trial.

COURT PROCEEDINGS—SECOND WEEK.—The Court of Common Pleas of Bradford county convened on Monday, May 10. But little business of importance was transacted. The following cases were disposed of:

Jane Gibson vs. Helen McCauley.—Action for damages for slander. Verdict for deft.

Beddington vs. Person.—Action to recover a sum of money claimed to have been left with defendant. Verdict for plaintiff for $59 83.

Tracy & Moore vs. J. B. Smith.—Action to recover debt. Verdict for defendant.

Julia Myers vs. Wm. Griffis.—Trespass, to recover the balance of certain property sold on an execution against the husband of plaintiff. Verdict for plaintiff for $383 71.

E. A. Parsons vs. C. S. Russell and J. F. Means.—Suit brought to recover balance on note given for purchase of Bradford Argus printing office. Defendants not appearing, judgment entered for plaintiff for $218 61.

The following divorces were granted:

Rebecca Waterson from N. B. Waterson; Frances A. Ridall from John Ridall; Rebecca Heath from W. P. Heath; L. B. Bowman from Nancy M. Bowman.

Court adjourned on Saturday, 15th, to meet again on Monday, at which time it was adjourned until the third Monday in June.

☞ We take great pleasure in giving the following notice a place in our columns. The good work inaugurated by the Y.M.C.A. of Philadelphia, should receive the hearty co-operation of every friend of the young men who leave the country to seek homes in that city:

To parents, guardians, pastors and others, whose sons, wards or friends may be leaving home for residence in the City of Philadelphia:

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION of Philadelphia, announce that they have a Committee for the purpose of showing kindness to Young Men who are strangers, and leading them under religious influences. They therefore request all who desire the co-operation of this Committee, to send the names and addresses of Young Men about to reside in Philadelphia in whom they are interested, with such particulars of character as they may deem proper, (which will be strictly confidential,) to

JOHN WANAMAKER,
Chairman of Committee, Hall of the Association, 1210 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

☞ Our notice, a few weeks since, of the temperance movement inaugurated in Owego, reminds a correspondent of the following fact which transpired in that town during the campaign of 1860. It bears hard on the bibulous influences of the democratic party, and tends to confirm our expectations in regard to the expulsion of friend BEEBE from that party on account of his espousal of the good cause:

A great mass meeting had been held at Owego, N.Y., and, as usual, the managers took prompt advantage of every opportunity for the free conveyance of attendants. The cars were crammed, and every other moving affair. On the return trip, the son of a cousin of a house democrat of Owego, moved by oratorical and other influences, made a speech full of spread-eagleisms and bacchanalian interjections, on the "glorious constitution," etc., in which occurred the following lucid and practical explanation of the tendencies of his party:

"You may sup-(hic)pose, fellow citizens, (hic) that I am (hic) under spiritual (spirituous) influence, but it is (hic) all a mistake, I am only under (hic) the influence of the real (hic) democrat (hic) party." As he was surrounded by Republicans this public confession was received by shouts of laughter, during which a testy and irreligious democrat at his side put an end to the speech by pulling him down with the energetic remark, "Sit down, you d—d fool."

If the young gentleman referred to has now joined the temperance army, he will enjoy the publication of the incident none the less.

100,000.—Relying upon the intrinsic merits of their Sewing Machines, the Singer Manufacturing Company have never found it necessary, or deemed it in good taste, to make use of the thousands of testimonials and commendations of which they are in constant receipt from enthusiastic admirers throughout the world. Neither have they for several years past made any effort to bring their machines to the notice of the public through the medium of the press, simply because, with all their efforts, and notwithstanding very extensive additions to their manufactories, they were unable to fill orders promptly, and to have advertised would only have increased the demand, and thus have added to their embarassments.

Yet, with all this neglect of this powerful auxiliary, their sales have exceeded those of any other company during the past three years, and they are now manufacturing at the rate of one hundred thousand Sewing Machines per annum.

No comment need be made upon the above facts, they speak for themselves.

Let the skeptical call at the office of the Company, No. 1106 Chestnut street, where a careful examination will convince them that the "Singer" is the best machine in the world.—Philadelphia Age, May 14, 1869.

MESSRS. SHEAR, PACKARD & Co.,

GENTS:—Your agent called on us on the 15th, and put up the Improved AMERICAN STOVE, with which we are very much pleased. We have tested it pretty thoroughly, and it goes ahead of his recommendation. We find no difficulty in keeping a continuous fire by putting on coal twice in twenty-four hours. We have kept a firs sixty hours with thirty-one pounds of coal, and twenty-three hours without replenishing the fire. We are satisfied it is the greatest improvement yet made in cooking stoves.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.—Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benifit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a hair dressing, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and grateful perfume.

THE BASE BURNING AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—MORE IMPROVEMENTS AND TWO MORE PATENTS.—After a long series of experiments, we have added the Base Burning principle to this already world-renowned Stove, by means of hot air chambers in front and rear of the of the fire-box, and a regulator at the pipe collar. With this improvement we accomplish the following results:

1st. A coal fire can be kept all winter by replenishing the fire twice every twenty-four hours.

2d. A continuous fire can be kept through the winter with the consumption of less than 20 lbs. of coal in 24 hours, and the oven kept in baking order a large portion of the time.

3d. The coal will be thoroughly consumed without the usual amount of cinders and clinkers, and the annoyance of dumping the grate every morning to make a fresh fire, avoided.

4th. For a wood fire, with two moderate sized sticks of dry wood, a fire can be kept from 15 to 18 hours without any trouble.

This will be found the greatest improvement yet made in Cooking Stoves. It has all the advantages of a self-feeder with much greater economy of fuel, and without its inconveniences. It is fully secured by letters patent. Manufactured by

TO THE WORKING CLASS:—I am now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at their homes, the whole of the time, or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Fifty cents to $5 per evening, is easily earned by persons of either sex and the boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. Great inducements are offered those who will devote their whole time to the business; and, that every person who sees this notice may send me their address and test the business for them selves, I make the following unparalled offer: To all who are not well satisfied with the business, I will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing me. Full particulars, directions, &c., sent free. Sample sent by mail for 10 cents.—
