DR. JOHNSON

BALTIMORE

LOCK HOSPITAL.

HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and effectual remedies in the world for

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

NO MERCURY OR NOXIOUS DRUGS.

A Cure Warranted, or No Charge, in from One to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin. Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible,

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

OFFICE, No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

Letters must be post paid and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

DR. JOHNSON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are, nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

MARRIAGE,

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illtimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, fleck his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc. progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveller returns.

INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the Sun, Clipper, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

From our Morning Edition.

THE SITUATION.

It is now positively asserted and believed that there has been no fighting at Williamsport beyond occasional cavalry skirmishes. The fact is, that it was impossible for any portion of our troops to have reached Hagerstown on the Potomac to have fought the battle indicated on Tuesday. From a gentleman who arrived from the front last night, we learned that the rebels were entrenching in the vicinity of the old Antietam battle field. Our informant was of the opinion that the battle was certainly fought yesterday. If this had been true, we would have had some intimation of the fact. Up to a late hour last night, however, the authorities were not apprised of any battle having been fought yesterday.

We are perfectly satisfied that the rebels are still on the north bank of the Potomac. It is also clear that General Heintzelman is on the south side of the Potomac. Lee will be compelled to fight a battle before he can cross the river. This seems settled by the best military ability in the country. Lee cannot reach his entrenchments at Richmond without fighting on both sides of the river—without contending with and vanquishing two armies. We leave those who have been carefully watching the progress of events to decide the ability of the rebel chief to achieve such a result in the face of such obstacles.

On Tuesday, Captain Singiser with 40 men belonging to Col. Wynkoop's regiment of Pennsylvania cavalry, six month's men, captured fifty rebels and three wagons between Green Castle and Hagerstown.

The captain estimated that there were 1,000 wagons in the train, but his force was too small to accomplish anything more. The rebels were making in the direction of the Potomac as rapidly as possible.

Our troops are being rapidly thrown up the valley.

Correspondence of the Telegraph.

The Pennsylvania Reserve Corps in War.

BY MR. W. B. CO. B, 7TH REG'T., P. R. V. C.

When I speak words of praise for this noble division, I am only (inadequately) giving "honor to the brave and justice to the deserving," for there are few, if any, divisions in the great army of the nation, fighting for constitutional liberty, that have won more laurels during this war, than the Pennsylvania Reserves. This division of Pennsylvanians was organized in the spring of 1861, soon after the three months men went into the service, and our army was defeated at Manassas on the 21st of July, and the National Capital threatened by the rebel armads, it was then that this gallant division for the first, but not for the last time, were brought into requisition in our country's service.

It arrived at Washington at an auspicious period, and for the first time, with gay colors fluttering in the breeze, it marched through the streets of our, seemingly doomed capital, while citizens and soldiers looked on with admiration, and pronounced it a "star division." Since then, the division has proven that its chief characteristic was not pomp and show, but was composed of the best blood of Pennsylvania; men who have filled every position in society, and who in the time of our country's peril—when traitors threatened to destroy the old flag of our fathers—were willing to endure all the hardships, and risk all the dangers of war, to perpetuate that precious legacy bequeathed to us by our revolutionary sires.

In the battles of Drainsville, Mechanicsville, Gaines' Hill, Charles City, Cross Roads, the second Bull Run, South Mountain, Antietam and Fredericksburg No. 1, the whole division stands prominent for daring courage and cool determination, always in the thickest of the fight, where death and carnage holds its grandest carnival.

At Mechanicsville on the peninsula, the Reserves stood to their work like veteran soldiers, and repulsed with the most horrible slaughter forty thousand of the Southern chivalry under Gens. Hill and Longstreet, and it was only when old "Stonewall" threatened our flank, that the division fell back on the second line of defence at Gaines' Hill.

Through all the battles on the peninsula and the Maryland campaign, the Reserves manifested the same invincible courage, and at Fredericksburg, buoyed up with the hope of success—with colors perforated by a thousand bullets, floating in the breeze, the Reserves forced the haughty enemy's lines, for more than half a mile, fought for more than two and a half hours against fearful odds, when, with its decimated battalions, being unable to stand the fresh columns the foe incessantly hurled against them, and unsupported by reinforcements, these gallant men, in the language of General Birney, "retreated slowly and sullenly."

Never men fight more nobly than did the Pennsylvania Reserves on that ill fated day. They bounded on the enemy like a famished lion on his prey. It was to them a bloody day. Many a noble-hearted man on the eve of that day who but a brief period before prophesied to himself a golden future, was no more. The loss of the division at the battle of Fredericksburg was, in killed, wounded and missing one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine.

Thirty-seven stand of rebel colors have been captured by the division, whereas they have lost but one stand, that of the Eleventh regiment, which, with the entire regiment, was captured at Gains' Hill.

The original strength of the division was 16,000; now the remnant of it numbers but about 4,000. Through the personal efforts and influence of our excellent and patriotic Governor, Hon. A. G. Curtin, this remnant has been brought back to the defences in front of Washington, and is commanded by Colonel H. G. Sickles.

What the future history of the Reserves will be, we know not, but their past history is without a parallel.

MILLERSBURG, July 9, 1863.

P. S.—The above was written for publication by one of our Millersburg boys, (and who by the way, according to decision of the "Democratic" Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, can never become a man, or at least never exercise the rights of a freeman, while he is a soldier) previous to General Lee's second edition on Pennsylvania horse stealing. Since then the glorious Reserves have again nobly responded to the war cry to arms! to arms!! and with an alacrity unsurpassed by any, have followed the famishing hosts of "southern desperadoes and ragamuffins" to the sacred soil of Pennsylvania, where they have again had a "full hand" in teaching the haughty chieftain and his mob that "all is not gold which glitters," have added another act to their already imperishable renown, and another diadem to their already illustrious crown of military fame.—[ED.]

FROM GEN. MEADE'S ARMY.

REINFORCEMENTS FROM NORTH CAROLINA ARRIVED.

GEN. NAGLEE PLACED IN COMMAND.

FREDERICKSBURG, July 9.

Upon Gen. Naglee reporting at headquarters with troops from Gen. Foster's North Carolina command, Gen. Meade immediately assigned him to the command of Harper's Ferry.

From Fortress Monroe.

All Communication between Lee and Richmond Cut.

ALL REINFORCEMENS PREVENTED.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 9.

The operations of General Dix's command at the White House on the Peninsula, have been very successful.

All direct communication between Richmond and General Lee's army has been cut.

A large number of troops in and about Richmond that would otherwise have gone to reinforce him have been detained.

LATEST FROM LEE'S COMMAND

NO FIGHTING YESTERDAY.

The Reported Death of Gen. Kilpatrick Contradicted.

MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Near Boonesboro, Md., July 9.

There has been no fighting this morning.—The fight of yesterday near Boonsboro was between Buford's and Kilpatrick's cavalry and a party of rebel infantry, and was conducted principally on the bushwhacking style.

Our troops fell back early in the day, but subsequently reoccupied the grounds.

Artillery was used on both sides. There is no truth in the reported death of General Kilpatrick.

A UNION RAID IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Railroad and Other Property Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, July 9.

The following has been received at headquarters:

NEWBERN, N. C., July 7, via Fortress Monroe, July 8, 1863.—Major General H. W. Halleck, General in Chief:

I have the honor to report that the cavalry sent from here, July 3rd, under Col. Lewis, Third New York Cavalry, have safely returned having successfully accomplished their mission, and without loss.

They destroyed, twisting the rails, &c., by Gen Hunt's plan, two miles of the railroad at Warsaw. Also destroying for five more miles all the culverts as well as the telegraph.

At Knoxville, Duplin county, an armory was destroyed, with large quantities of small arms and commissary and quartermaster stores, which were burned.

About 150 animals and some 30 prisoners were captured by them, and some 100 men and 300 negro women and children came in with them.

J. G. FORSTER,

Major General Commanding.

From the Indian Territory.

LEAVENWORTH, July 8.

General Blun started on the 5th with all the cavalry he could raise, from Fort Scott for Fort Gibson. Information received shows that Col. Phillips' Indian Brigade was hard pressed by the enemy, 2,000 strong. The infantry regiments were marching to reinforce Colonel Phillips. General Blunt took no train, and will cross the Arkansas and offer battle.
