Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ A. Mullen, Esq., Assistant Assessor, has been appointed to assess legacy and succession tax for this county.

☞ Col. C. F. Wells, of Athens, has the contract for building the Ithaca & Towanda Railroad. The work is to be completed within fourteen months.

☞ Rev. Solomon Cooper, for nearly thirty years past a citizen of this place, has been installed pastor of a colored M.E. church in Philadelphia.

☞ We are informed that strenuous efforts are being made to have the Railroad in running order to this place by Saturday next. We hope they may succeed.

☞ We have received a Mt. Carroll (Ill.) paper, from which we learn that our old friend, M. D. Strickland, is engaged in the real estate business in that place.

☞ John W. Mix, Esq., of this place, has been commissioned by the U.S. Circuit Court of the Western District of Pennsylvania, as U.S. Commissioner for Bradford county.

☞ The celebrated violinist, J. S. Gunton, with his blind quartette, will give one of their pleasing entertainments in Mercur's Hall on Thursday evening, August 19. Give them a full house.

☞ Scott & Buffington, of the Bakery, have our thanks for a very bountiful supply of fine peaches. S. & B. buy their fruit in Delaware at first-class houses, and can afford to sell cheap.

☞ Miss Eliza Pardee, daughter of A. Pardee, Esq., of Hazleton, Luzerne Co., died in Paris, on the 15th of July, of typhoid fever. Miss P. was about to return to this country after quite a protracted visit, when she was suddenly called away.

☞ Harry Mix, of this place, is to exhibit his beautiful Hambletonian colt, "Tioga," at the New York State Fair, to be held in Elmira next month. He is a fine animal, and we do not believe the Empire State can match him.

☞ Lost, several days since, on the sidewalk between the residence of Geo. E. Fox and Mrs. Barstow's, a small Hair Cross, bound in gold. It is valued as a keepsake. The finder will confer a favor and be liberally rewarded on leaving it at the Post Office.

☞ The honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon Dr. Elmer H. Wells, of Meshoppen, at the late commencement exercises of Lafayette College, Easton. Dr. Wells was among the first students at the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute.

☞ We take great pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Miss Lozier, to be found in another column. From personal knowledge we can recommend her as a most thorough and successful teacher, and every way worthy the patronage of the public.

☞ We are indebted to Prof S. R. Wells, editor of the Phrenological Journal, for a copy of "The Illustrated Annual of Phrenology and Physiognomy for 1870." The volume contains much valuable information, and is illustrated with numerous cuts. Price 25 cents.

☞ The Democracy of Sullivan County have unanimously presented the name of Hon. Geo. D. Jackson for re-nomination to the State Senate. As the district is intensely Democratic we hope Mr. J. will secure the nomination, as we know of no better man in that party.

☞ A colored man named Brown was brought here to jail on Sunday last, for assault and battery with intent to commit a rape on a young girl. The parties reside in West Burlington, and the community there is greatly excited over the affair. The rascal was fortunate in escaping Judge Lynch's court.

☞ Mrs. James Blauvelt, of Liberty Corners, has our thanks for a box of very fine Lawton Blackberries. The Squire had the frankness to confess that the measure was full when he started from home, but said the fruit was too tempting for his weak nature. Will pay him some time.

☞ The County Convention of Good Templars has issued a circular to the voting members of the order in the county, urging upon them the importance of attending the delegate meetings and using all honorable means to secure the nomination of temperance men at the coming County Convention.

☞ Rev. Geo. D. Miles, for many years Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Wilkes-Barre, will preach in the Episcopal Church, of this village, on Sunday next.

Mr. M. will also deliver a lecture on "The Old World and the New," in the Court House, on Tuesday evening, August 24.

☞ Andrew Nickerson, of Smithfield, was arrested last week on a charge of killing an illegitimate child. It appears that Nickerson has a wife, and she refused to live with him unless he would get rid of the child. During the absence of the mother the child was drowned, and on the father being charged with secreting it, he confessed that he had killed it and told where the body could be found.

☞ We have received the first and second numbers of the Tunkhannock Republican, published at Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co., Pa., by A. F. Yost. The typographical appearance of the paper is very neat, while the editorial columns display ability and enterprise. The Republicans of Wyoming county owe it to themselves to give the paper a generous support.

☞ We print on the first page of this paper a synopsis of an address delivered by Rev. Joel Jewell, of Wells, before a Sunday-school Convention held in Hector, N.Y., on the sixth of June. Mr. Jewell is one of the most energetic, earnest, and successful Sunday-school men in this county, and his remarks will be read with interest by friends of the cause.

North Towanda Lodge, I.O. of G. T.—The following officers were installed for present term: W.C.T., Geo. Frink; V.V.T., Miss Mary Hollox; W.S., A. C. Smith; W.A.S., Miss A. Carkuff; W.F.S., W. H. Smith; W.T., Mrs. E. L. Smith; W.M., Calvin Newell; D.M., Emma White; Chap., W. H. Thompson; W.I.G., Miss M. J. Mills; W.O.G., S. B. Hardin; W.R.H.S., Miss Jennette Foster; W.L.H.S., Miss S. Frink; P.W.C.T., E. R. DeLong.

☞ The following are the officers of LeRoy Lodge, No. 545, I.O.G.T., which were installed on the 14th instant: W.C.T., C. E. Stone; W.V.T., Emarette Holcomb; W.S., M. E. Lilley; W.F.S., M. L. Fellows; W.T., J. S. Whipple; W.M., Polk Hickox; W.D.M., Lillie Minard; W.R.H.S., Emma J. Holcomb; W.L.H.S., Alice Hickox; P.W.C.T., F. R. Hickox.

Removal.—We are informed that Dr. A. Frank Taylor has removed from Potterville to Upper Lisle, N.Y., where he intends to locate. The Doctor's thorough knowledge of medicine and the success which has attended his practice, combined with his gentlemanly deportment, have won for him the confidence and esteem of the people of Potterville and vicinity, and it is with regret that they part with him. We bespeak for him a cordial reception at Upper Lisle.

☞ Gen. Grant, with his family and several friends, passed through Waverly on Friday evening last, on his way to pay a visit to his old companion-in-arms, Gen. Kane, in Erie county. The special train which conveyed the party over the Erie road, halted at Waverly station for a few minutes, when the President stepped out upon the platform of his car and shook hands with all who could get near enough to reach him.

☞ We have received from Jas. T. Dudley, Esq., Elmira, N.Y., a beautiful song and chorus entitled "Sometime (some day)." The words are of his own composition, and the music by T. M. Brown. The sentiment will carry us all back to long ago, when our "Bessie said something" to each of us. Mr. D. has a peculiarly happy manner of rendering sentiment into charming verse, and in connection with the fine music of this piece, we bespeak for it an extensive popularity everywhere. For sale by Pierwick & Dudley, Elmira, N.Y., and music dealers generally.

Granville.—Birthday Party.—The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, with a few other relatives, paid a complimentary visit to J. C. Rockwell, of Granville, on Saturday, August 14, 1869, the anniversary of his seventy-sixth birthday. There were present thirty-eight, some of whom reside in Marion, Iowa, and after spending several hours in a pleasant and sociable manner, and partaking of a sumptuous dinner, they separated again for their several homes, all well pleased, and trusting in God above for the return of another such day.

—The Climax Mower, manufactured at Corry, Pa., and recommended so highly by both the religious and political press of the day, can be seen any time at S. A. Rockwell's, near Granville Centre. And those wishing to get a good mower, or mower and reaper combined, would do well to call and examine it before purchasing.

Personal.—Hon. F. B. Streeter is holding court in Susquehanna county.

—We are indebted to Mr. Geo. E. Fox for the largest peach we have seen this year. Mr. F. informs us that it was one out of a box sent him by Judge John A. McDonald, of North Carolina.

—Miss Emma L. Warner, of Milan, graduated at the "Allegany Academy of Music," Friendship, N.Y., at the commencement exercises, on the 12th of July.

—The Hamilton University has conferred the honorary degree of D.D. on the Rev. W. H. King, pastor of the Owego Baptist Church.

—Hon. A. Grow paid our town a flying visit last week.

—Henry Keeler, formerly a law student in the office of Wm. Watkins, Esq., of this place, passed through town on Tuesday last, on his way to visit friends in Wyalusing. Mr. K. is now practicing law in Kansas, and is meeting with success.

☞ The following tribute to the memory of Mr. H. S. Mercur, from the pen of one who knew him well, we find in the Scranton Daily Republican:

Obituary.—The very sudden death of H. S. Mercur at Pittston, on Saturday last, has saddened the hearts of all in the community where he died. Deaths are often sudden, but seldom so sudden as his. Death is the occurrence of every day, but seldom strikes down one whose absence will be more generally felt and deeply mourned in every community wherever known. Of this great affliction at home, on the hillside, where bleed the hearts of those who loved him as only an ever devoted wife and children can love a fond and inestimable husband and father, we dare not speak; we know the gushing fountain of tears flowing there; to magnify their loss we would not; and we know our praise of him would be faint in the light of memories which cluster around their hearts. God shield them in this hour of their great tribulation; and for them, penetrate the cloud with the sunshine of hope and faith.

The residence and home of Mr. H. S. Mercur was at Towanda. It was there he was born, and passed most of his life. A few years since he engaged with a brother in coal business at Pittston, still retaining his residence at Towanda. His strict integrity, his habits of industry, his rectitude in all his business relations, combined with a frank and genial disposition, made him a favorite at Pittston; greatly respected as he was in Towanda, he was not less so among those where he was stricken down.

Rare as we think the manhood qualities of Mr. Mercur were; estimable as he was in his sphere of life; yet so unobtrusive was he that the circle of his influence was limited. Without ostentation, he soon impressed others with the fidelity of his character. It was his fortune to gain friends without an effort, and retain them as easily. He was eminently a practical man, in religion, in politics, and business; he identified belief and action in a living, practical union, and although earnest in his convictions, holding them with tenacity, he ever expressed them in a way that gained for him the respect of those who differed with him.

We regard the death of such a man's serious loss to the community, not because he was conspicuous in it, or attempted a display of his virtues, but because they constantly radiated from his example and character, an influence impressing itself for good on all with whom he came in contact. The mission of life is largely fulfilled when from the cradle to the grave a foot-path is made inviting us to tread therein if we would reach the goal of a life well spent. S.

Canton.—Mr. Editor: If you wish to see city style and enjoy city airs in a rural district, you can do so by visiting Minaqua Springs; for the gentlemanly proprietor of the Minaqua House understands his "posish," and the bustle of men, women and children shows from whence they started. Groups of all classes—from the gambler up—may be seen here and there throughout the vicinity of the springs. Seats have been arranged in many parts of the grove, for accommodating invalids and the weary. The reservoir in the gas-house has been filled with water by aid of a fire-engine—Neptune, from Elmira. Forty diggers were discharged a few days ago. An effort is being made to have a post-office.

During the last quarter there have been twenty-six additions to Canton Lodge, I.O.G.T. For the present quarter, Bevellah Channel is W.C.T., and Lizzie Bailey W.V.T.

—Once our farmers used a straight stick and a scythe to cut their grass, but a revolution has taken place, and they use the mower; as great a revolution is now taking place, as Wheeler and others' threshers are being laid aside and the U.S. Thresher substituted. Dunbar & Miller, of Alba, are running one. Economical farmers will use no other after they see it work.

A short time since, Chauncey A. Kelley, of LeRoy, found upon rising in the morning, that $144 had either been lost or stolen from his pockets. A haystack which he assisted in making the previous day was nearly torn down, and a negro who slept in an adjoining room searched, but the money was not found. Finally, the negro was arrested, taken before a justice of the peace, and held to bail for the sum of $500. Our professional friend and others hearing the evidence, do not know why he was bound over, unless it is because "I caught one in my cornfield."

Preparations are already being made for the Teachers' Institute which is to be held here, commencing on the sixth of September. A very large attendance is expected.

The Good Templar's festival at LeRoy proved a success in more ways than one. Fifty-six dollars were received, and better order than was ever had at any other party held in the township.

No wonder why our physicians do not join the temperance army—

"Joy and temperance and repose
Slam the door on the doctor's nose."

Aug. 16, 1869. Nerap.

☞ Messrs. Wickham & Black have shown us a neatly gotten-up book of samples of work done on the Singer Sewing Machine. The samples exhibit needle-work of almost every style, from the finest to the heaviest. An examination of the work must convince any one that the Singer is unsurpassed.

☞ There will be a Harvest Home Festival held at the Wysox Brick Church on Friday evening, August 20, for the benefit of the church. All are invited to attend.

☞ The Tioga County Baptist Association will hold its annual meeting in the Sullivan State Road Church, on Wednesday and Thursday next.

☞ Hon. G. A. Grow declines to allow the use of his name as a candidate for Representative. He says he desires no political office, but prefers to remain quiet until his health is better.

☞ Decker still has a few more of those beautiful bedroom sets, which he is selling below cost; also furniture of all kinds. Go and examine his stock.

Athens.—Ideas are scarce, and local items about its plenty as dollars on contributing day. Many of our citizens have gone to the "country" to spend the heated term, while those less fortunate are shedding crocodile tears over their condition, and we wait with Micawber resignation for something to "turn up."

Our townsmen generally took President Grant at Waverly Friday evening. Master Roxane Stalbird has the distinguished honor of being first to shake hands with the President.

We had a general change of ministers in our churches Sunday. Rev. T. McA. Harding preached in the Episcopal, C. B. Loop in the Reformed, and Mr. Brakeley, of Waverly, in the Baptist. The Catholic friends, with Father O'Malley, attended the re-dedication of their church at Ridgbury.

Thursday, August 12, a large company from here attended a pic-nic at Dr. Corbin's Mineral Springs above Factoryville. The day's entertainment was complete. The Doctor was out in his happiest mood, adding to the enjoyment of the party by his genial good humor and facetious. The water of these springs has something the taste of the celebrated Charlton Springs of New York State, and there can be no doubt but that they possess all the beneficial and medicinal qualities of the noted watering places. Our party, at least, felt their youth renewed, and will the Doctor's pleasure for another just such "dose!"

Mr. Amos Corbin, of this township, died quite suddenly at his residence Saturday. In the morning he arose about as well as usual. About six o'clock he went into the garden, and was taken with an apoplectic fit and died at three p.m. Mr. Corbin was one of our "old settlers," being 74 years old at his death.

Mr. Edward O'Herron, a workman in Blood's Foundry, had his leg too taken off in their sawmill Tuesday night.

A blind quartette of three gave an entertainment at Hunsicker's hall Monday. J. S. Gunton, of the troupe, gave very fine specimens of violin playing. Nip.

Warren.—Editor Reporter—Dear Sir: You have reports from different parts of the County, but as yet I have seen none from Warren, so perhaps a few lines from there would not come amiss, for though some distance from the county seat, we still claim to be a part of old Bradford. Haying is nearly all done around here, and harvesting is nicely under way. Crops are generally very good, though some pieces of corn owing to its being in too good feed, and to the lateness of the season, are not likely to amount to much. Hay and oats will be much better than last years crop was. Politics are at a low ebb this fall, but still Warren may be counted on for a good Republican majority when the time comes to test the thing.

By the way what has become of old friend V. E. Piolett? Time was when his voice rung through through the County in favor of taxing Government Bonds, but now we don't hear a word out of his mouth on the subject. Has the venerable Asa crammed it full of untaxed Bonds, in order to keep it shut, or what is the matter? Well! if he only keeps it shut it does not matter much why he does it. We read a good deal in the papers about a movement among certain women to secure equal rights with the men, and they seem to want to run the whole machine on their own hook. Would it not be a good plan, in order to test the matter, to let them have one of our Territories to manage just as they please, then put all that favor the movement into it, and make it a penal offence for a man to go within ten miles of said Territory for five years? If they make everything as lovely as they think they can, it would do to talk about letting them run the whole Government. But you have had about enough from Warren for once so I will stop.

Truly Yours,
Wissahickon.

Wyalusing.—Camp Meeting.—A camp meeting for Wyalusing District will be held at Lime Hill, on Wyalusing Charge, commencing Wednesday morning, September 8, and continuing one week. The ground is very beautiful, well supplied with water, central to the western part of the District, and easy of access; lying just a mile south of the stage road from Wyalusing to Towanda, 5 miles from Wyalusing, Camptown and Standing Stone, and 1½ miles from the Lehigh Valley Railroad, which, it is expected, will run regular trains at that time. A good boarding tent, under the charge of a responsible committee, will be kept upon the ground, but no huckstering or the like allowed within the limits of the law. Cloth tents are recommended, but should any desire board tents they can address Rev. P. B. Tower, at Camptown, Bradford county, and receive information concerning the same. Straw and horse-feeding will be furnished at reasonable prices. Those who will, are requested to meet the committee on the ground, August 31, at 9 o'clock, to build the stand, arrange seats, &c. And now, dear brethren of the District, suffer a word of exhortation, as I have written a letter unto you in few words. You cannot as individual Christians, nor as charges, well do without the influence of a good camp meeting. The camp meeting has paid—it will pay—try it in faith and zeal. Let us have a grand clerical and lay representation from all parts of Wyalusing District—if half measures will answer—come one, come all! In the name of God and Methodism let us rally as never before, and come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty. The brethren of East Genesee, just across the Susquehanna, and "the rest of mankind, are cordially invited to join us in this "feast of tabernacles."

DeWitt C. Olmstead, P.E.

—Rev. H. A. Cleveland, of Philadelphia, is expected to preach in the M.E. Church on Sunday next, 22d inst., at.

—Geo. H. Wales and family left for Crystal Springs, N.Y., on Tuesday. They will spend several weeks there.

Demorest's Monthly.—The enterprising publisher of this popular Magazine is first in the field in announcing, among the inducements to subscribers for the coming year, the finest premium ever yet offered for a single subscription to any magazine in this or any other country. It consists of a copy, retailed at ten dollars, of Mrs. Lilly M. Spencer's great picture of a "Pic-nic on the Fourth of July," the engraving of which artists were sent for, specially from Europe, to complete.

Demorest's Monthly is in itself by far the most complete and attractive Magazine for ladies published in this country, and requires little extra inducement to persuade them to become subscribers. It is really a saving of money, however, to pay three dollars, and get in addition so valuable a premium—and Mr. Demorest will undoubtedly find his list doubled on the strength of it. Published at 838 Broadway, N.Y.

Demorest's Young America.—This excellent little periodical is constantly adding to its reputation, and is certainly the most sensible, practical, and best edited of all the juvenile magazines. It is not composed, like some others, of a certain number of stilted articles, but it enters right into the sympathies, interests, and occupations of its young readers and patrons, allows them to speak for themselves, and stimulates them wonderfully to activity of thought and expression. We consider it the best investment of $1,50 that any parent can make. Published at 838 Broadway, N.Y.

☞ A young minister was discoursing on the expansive character of the human mind, and said: "Yes, my friend, the mind of man is so expansive that it can soar from star to star, and from satchelite to satchelite, and from seraphene to seraphene, and from cherry-beam to cherry-beam, and from thence to the centre of the dome of heaven." So do Clossney & Amesbury's customers come from one end of the county to the other, because it has become generally known that they offer greater inducements to buyers of Hats and Caps than any other establishment in the United States. If you don't believe it, call at their Store, south side Mercur's block.

☞ It is said that Gen. Grant thought of paying our enterprising town a visit last week, while on his way west, for the purpose of buying himself and family a supply of boots and shoes at Campbell's. We do not know how much truth there is in this statement, but we do know that Campbell beats the world in his line of goods, and the President or any body else would show good sense by purchasing of him.

☞ Miss Kent's music classes will give a concert in the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening next, August 23. The exercises will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. We hope to see a large attendance, as we are confident it will be a rich musical treat.

MARRIED.

MOORE—SMITH.—At the Parsonage, Monroeton, August 14, by Rev. Hallock Armstrong, Mr. Stephen Moore, of Forksville, to Miss Sarah Smith, of Franklindale.

WAVERLY INSTITUTE.
The Forty-eighth Term of this Institute opens August 18th, 1869, under the charge of A. J. Lang, A.M.
It is one of the best Literary Institutions of the country, accessible from all parts, and is situated at WAVERLY, TIOGA CO., N.Y.
The departments are complete. The "Classical" embraces all those studies required for admission to our best Colleges. Also, a thorough drill in the Modern Languages.
The English Course comprehends both the common branches taught in Elementary Schools, and many of the higher branches usually pursued in the Colleges. In the Commercial Course the instruction is as thorough and complete as in our most successful Commercial Colleges.
Instruction upon the Piano and Organ by the old method; also by "Robbins' New American Method," by which pupils can acquire a knowledge of music in one-third the time which it hitherto required.
The rates of tuition are very moderate. Board obtained at reasonable prices; a limited number of pupils can be accommodated in the families of the Instructors. Rooms can be procured in which students can board themselves and lessen the expenses one-half.
Normal class, as usual, organized at the beginning of the Fall Term, in which twenty of the first applicants will receive free instruction for fourteen weeks.
For particulars address the Principal at Waverly, N.Y. Information in reference to Rooms and Board can also be obtained at Waldo & Tracy's Drug Store, 86 Broad Street.
A. J. LANG, A.M., Principal.
