Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7, 1864.

HEAR A LOYAL DEMOCRAT,

IN SUPPORT OF LINCOLN AND JOHNSON.

ONE MORE RALLY

FOR THE UNION!

DANIEL DOUGHERTY, ESQ.,

OF PHILADELPHIA,

One of the ablest, eloquent, and most consistent Democrats in the Union—who has never swerved from the advocacy of sound Democratic principles, and who opposed the election of Mr. Lincoln in 1860, will address the citizens of Harrisburg and the adjoining townships, on

FRIDAY EVENING OCT. 7th,

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

All who are in favor of establishing peace on the vindicated and enforced authority of the Government—all who are in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln—all who are opposed to treason, in the north as well as in the south, are invited to be present and avow their allegiance to the Government, the Union and the Constitution.

Rally, freemen! in support of the war to crush treason, and the effort to maintain the power of the law.

The ladies of Harrisburg, as well as those from Dauphin county, are respectfully invited to be present. Arrangements will be made for their accommodation with seats within the bar.

J. J. SHOEMAKER,
Chairman County Committee.

J. M. WIESTLING, Secretary.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A Grand Torch-light Procession at Lykens.

The citizens of Lykens township will have a grand torch-light procession on MONDAY EVENING next.

Hon. DAVID FLEMING and other prominent speakers will address the meeting.

A new Masonic Hall at York was dedicated on Thursday.

THE tobacco crop of York county this year, it is stated, will be one-third short.

DOWN IT GOES.—The Pottsville Ledger announces a fall of over two dollars per ton in the price of coal, at that place.

THE large porch in front of Herr's Hotel has been removed. When the improvements are completed, the Thompsonian House (that is to be) will bear but little resemblance to the old building.

NO PERFORMANCE AT BRANT'S HALL TO-NIGHT.—The Theatre will be closed this evening, in consequence of a death in the family of the proprietor, Mr. Rouse. To-morrow evening the hall will be re-opened, when a grand bill will be presented.

UNION MEN of Harrisburg, turn out, this evening, and hear Dan Dougherty, the eloquent expounder of the truth—who will address our citizens at the court house. Let us have another grand rally for the Union. Invite your neighbors to go along. Let the court house be crowded.

A MINISTER AND HIS SON CONSUMED IN THE CARS AT THOMPSONTOWN.—The Reading Times of yesterday says:

Among those who perished in the burning railroad train at Thompsontown, about 38 miles above Harrisburg, we are sorry to learn was Rev. Mr. Kroetel, who formerly preached in this city. His oldest son also perished in the flames. There were more burned in that disaster than the public have any knowledge of.

THE festival gotten up by the ladies of the Free Baptist Church resulted in a handsome profit. The proceeds of the two evenings amounted to $260.18—a sum that will be nearly sufficient to furnish the new edifice. Great credit is due those having the festival in charge, for their efforts to render it attractive and profitable. The church is nearly completed, and promises to be one of the most beautiful temples in the city.

VERY IMPORTANT TO ALIEN SOLDIERS.—The 31st section of the act of Congress, passed July 17th, 1862, provides that an alien of the age of twenty-one years, or upwards, enlisted in either the regular or volunteer forces, and who shall be honorably discharged, may upon petition to the courts, become a citizen of the United States, without a previous declaration of intention, and further that he shall not be required to prove more than one year's residence within the United States previous to his application to become a citizen.

LARGE UNION MEETING IN SWATARA TOWNSHIP.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Johnson was held at Locust Grove, last evening. The meeting organized by electing as President John Conrad; Vice President, David Roop; Secretary, George Boyer. J. M. Wiestling and W. T. Bishop, Esqrs., ably and forcibly addressed the meeting, and were enthusiastically applauded. The meeting adjourned with loud cheers for the Union and its candidates.

THE loyal people of Dauphin county are alive to the importance of working for the cause of their country, and will give a good account of themselves next Tuesday. The meetings held have been largely attended, and the enthusiasm exceeds that of any former occasion.

How different are the death throes of the expiring copperhead party. There is no enthusiasm in the ranks, and those who attend their meetings do so after the most earnest drumming of the slave-drivers, who, like their friends in the South, are giving their last kick "to keep up appearances."

OLD DERRY AROUSED—Large Meeting and Pole Raising in Hummelstown.—The loyal citizens of Hummelstown united in raising a fine pole and flag on Tuesday, in front of Mr. Christian Nisley's store. The pole does honor to the patriotism of those who raised it there, dedicated as it is to constitutional Union and Freedom, and whilst the old flag was unfurled to the breeze, wild shouts of applause rang through the air. In the evening a grand Union meeting was held, the largest and most enthusiastic held in Hummelstown for many years. Mr. Richard Fox was chosen President, and the usual vice presidents and secretaries were selected. Martial music enlivened the meeting, and immense applause was given to the patriotic speeches delivered. Able and patriotic addresses were made by H. C. Alleman, J. M. Wiestling, J. W. Simonton, Esqrs., and Rev. A. Weiting, creating much enthusiasm. At the close of the meeting the ladies sang several patriotic odes, and the streets resounded with the martial and vocal music, and cheer after cheer rent the air. A large majority will be given by faithful old Derry for the whole Union ticket.

HOPE BOYS ATTENTION.—A stated meeting of the Hope Fire Company will be held this (Friday) evening at seven o'clock. Business of importance will be transacted.

NATIONAL UNION CLUB.—An organization with this title was formed on last Thursday evening, at Union Hall, Middletown, and the following permanent officers elected: President, Dr. B. J. Wiestling; Vice President, E. J. Ramsey; Secretary, W. H. Kendig. The Club has rented the Hall for the Campaign.

A FREAK OF NATURE.—A correspondent who "saw that of which he speaks," writes us as follows:

"Mr. David Garver, of Macon county, Illinois, has a cane, the head of which is a correct likeness of Abraham Lincoln. It was found by one of his neighbors by the name of Pricer. It grew out of the bark of a tree, and when he saw it he commenced to strip off the bark, when lo, and behold! there was the correct picture of Abraham Lincoln's head, a little smaller than a man's fist. This is perfectly natural, which is shown by the grains of the wood taking such courses as to form perfect eyes, nose, mouth, and also wrinkles where the ears should be. But what is perhaps more singular is a perfect 2 on the back of the head, and an A and an L on his forehead. Mr. Garver's intention was to take it to the President. Whether he has done so or not we do not know. The 2 is doubtless intended to show that Abraham Lincoln will be the second liberator of America."

From the 201st Regiment.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Oct. 4, 1864.

Editor Telegraph—Companies A, B, C, D, I and K, the entire strength of our regiment, at present, are still lying here at Alexandria, awaiting orders to go to our destination; which I have every reason to believe will not be far from this point—probably to guard along the line of the Orange and Alexandria railroad, while the construction corps put this line once more in order to push supplies forward to Sheridan in the valley—so, at least, I have been informed by one of the "knowing ones."

The boys are constantly accosting me with, "Corporal, where is the TELEGRAPH? Why don't she come along?—would go without my dinner to get a sight of one, to-day!" Hold on, lads! The "—— winter of our discontent,"

Shall presently be
"Made glorious summer, by"— a copy of our staunch Harrisburg Union daily the TELEGRAPH!

To drive away an hour or two of monotony, I walked out to the wharf—saw and heard the following: Fifty, or more, soldiers sitting on the different wharves looking out for bites! Observed, lying around "loose," piles of white perch, catties and sun-fish.

Fine specimens of rock-fish are caught by throwing a line, a few hundred feet in length, baited with live-bait, (minnow or smelt,) out into the river, where the water is probably thirty-five or forty feet deep, at high tide. The tide here flows and ebbs twice in twenty-four hours—five hours flow and seven hours ebb in the morning, and the same at midnight.

I managed to get aboard of the hospital steamer, fitting out with all dispatch here, for a floating hospital, and found that she is the same magnificent "Ben Deford," formerly plying between Baltimore, New York and Boston, taking an occasional trip to Trinidad de Cuba. She is two hundred and twenty-five feet long, and has accommodations complete for about three hundred and fifty sick and wounded. Her engine is of nearly five hundred horse-power capacity, eleven feet stroke, and fifty-six inch cylinder. She is a side-wheel steamer, driven by a pair of wheels each ninety feet in circumference. She was built five years ago, at a cost of $175,000, but would now cost $300,000. The vessel is plated to the second deck, with half-inch iron, and draws eleven feet of water when loaded down. She has been in Government service for the last three years. The "Deford" is to be ready for service in a day or two, to hasten down the river, in anticipation of the impending battle, between Grant and Lee, in front of Richmond.

The health of the men, at this writing, is pretty good—a few cases of diarrhœa, from imprudent causes, are the only complaints I heard mentioned.

I think if our mail matter don't soon come to hand some of the boys will grow desperate. On all sides your ears are assailed with the words—"Home! home!—why don't we hear from home?"

I am under the impression that letters directed to "201st Reg't. (at or near) Alexandria, Va.," would come to hand. Try it, Mr. Editor, by forwarding a few copies of the TELEGRAPH, containing "our correspondence under difficulties." More anon,

A. H. B.*

From the Alleman Fencibles.

HEADQUARTERS ALLEMAN FENCIBLES,
CAPT. DETWEILER'S INDEPENDENT CO. VOLS.,
CAMP CADWALADER, PHIL'A, Oct. 5.

EDITOR HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH—Dear Sir:—Believing a communication from us would not be uninteresting to your many readers, I concluded to drop you a few lines. After our arrival in the city of Brotherly Love, we were marched down to Washington street, to the Volunteers' Refreshment Saloons, where we partook of a good and substantial breakfast. From thence we proceeded to camp, where we are pretty comfortably quartered in tents. Our rations are very good pork, bread and coffee for breakfast; excellent bean soup and fresh bread for dinner; and I tell you your humble servant proved a full grown hand at the business. Bread, beef and good coffee for supper.

For the benefit of our Harrisburg friends, who may feel disposed to pay us a visit, I would state that Camp Cadwalader is pleasantly located about one mile and a half from Ninth and Arch streets, where they can take the city passenger cars out Ridge Avenue to within the width of a small field from camp. Rumors were rife this morning that we would be armed immediately and sent down to City Point, but after some enquiry on the subject, I could not have the yarn confirmed, and doubtless was gotten up by some of the smart ones in camp for the purpose of a big sleer and having the laugh on us; but I can assure you the boys would be ready and willing at a moment's notice to march.

I will also say that we have quite a sprinkle of Christians in our ranks, and having two preachers with us prayer meetings are held in the evening. A resolution was also unanimously adopted by the company, that before breakfast we should be called into ranks, and prayer offered by one of the religious persons in the company. While marching to the cook house for our grub, a member of one of the other companies remarked in our hearing there was danger of us being cheated out of our rations, as we were called and known as the praying company. We have as members of the company two hotel keepers, Messrs. McClintock and Roberts; one alderman, 1st Lieut. Cole; two policemen, Messrs. Radabaugh and Davis.

The men conduct themselves in a genteel and soldierly manner under the tuition of Captain Detweiler and Lieuts. Cole and Wingard, and I can assure you we command the respect and esteem of the superior officers of the camp. A good deal of disappointment exists among some of the boys in not getting out of camp to stroll around town and see the elephant. No passes out of camp are issued for the present, but all will be right in a few days should we remain here—and then we will have a chance to go to town and take a swei glass lager un Schweitzer case. As near as I can judge there are about two thousand men here and some six hundred rejected ones pronounced unfit for military duty—except going Dixieward and guarding the cattle.

I will now furnish you with a list of our company officers as fully organized:

Captain—J. Detweiler.
First Lieutenant—Geo. B. Cole.
Second Lieutenant—Jesse Wingard.
Company Clerk—Henry Radabaugh.
Orderly Sergeant—James D. Saltsman.
Second Sergeant—Geo. W. Chase.
Third " —Isaac W. Hoover.
Fourth " —Enos Bernage.
Fifth " —Joseph Davis.
Company Commissary—Samuel W. Roberts.
No Corporals appointed yet.

Five o'clock, P. M.—I have just been credibly informed that we are under marching orders; where to I know not. More anon. H. B.

P. S. Nine o'clock, P. M.—We have just received our arms and will march to-morrow to the front, unless the order is countermanded. (How are you, Independents?)

Union Meeting in Lower Paxton

LINGLESTOWN, Oct. 7.

MR. EDITOR:—The true and loyal citizens of Lower Paxton held a meeting in this place last evening to counsel together for their country's welfare. It was one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held here. On motion of Clement B Care, the meeting was organized by electing John Focht, Esq., Chairman, with the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The President, on taking the chair, briefly and clearly recited the objects of the meeting and the important issues of the present campaign. Addresses were then made by Ralph L. Maclay, A. C. Smith and L. N. Ott, Esqrs., which were listened to with the strictest attention, the only interruptions being the bursts of applause greeting the sentiments of patriotism, and the words of encouragement for the vindication of our national honor, which fell from the lips of the speakers. My word for it, Mr. Editor, there will be but few votes polled among us for the Union on the white-feather, ignominous peace platform.

Yours, &c., LOWER PAXTON.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

MORE EVIDENCE.—The merchants in the surrounding towns find Dr. M'Bride's KING OF PAIN the most popular and saleable medicine ever placed upon their shelves. Orders for it by the dozen are accumulating daily—some from places where it has already been sold and its virtues throughly tested; others from where it has received a reputation from the cures it has performed. There is no mistake at all about it—it is the great medicine of the day.

Sold wholesale and retail by S. A. Kunkel & Bro., No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg, sole agents for Pennsylvania. oct6-2t

PRUDENCE VS. FOLLY.—Prudence and Folly one day a shopping went Do not understand us that they were in company, though each in the main had the same object in view, viz: the purchase of dry goods. Prudence, with a memorandum of wants carefully noted, and with a determination to supply those wants where they could be supplied for the smallest amount of money, started on a tour of examination. After carefully looking through the different dry goods stores, she made her purchases at C. L. Bowman's, No. 1 corner of Front and Market streets. Folly, puffed up and wrapped in a large garment of self-sufficiency, with presumption that said in every movement and gesture, I know more about dry goods than even those who have served many years in the school. Suffice it to say, Folly made her purchases at the first store she entered and said, "It must be so, for, Miss Vanity, just think, I bought silks for a dollar a yard less than they first asked me for them." Can the reader see it?

Cloaks and Furs! Cloaks and Furs!

We will open next week the cheapest and largest assortment of Cloaks and Furs in Harrisburg, all bought at greatly reduced prices. Beautiful muffs at 4 50 and 5 dollars. Splendid cloaks as low as 9 and 10 dollars. Black cloth for cloaks as low as $2 50. White all wool flannels as low as 65 to 70 cents, worth 90 cents. 4 by 4 bleached muslin 55 cents, worth 75 cents. French merinos, black alpaccas, black bombazines, all at reduced prices.

500 doz of woolen and cotton stockings, children's wools stockings as low as 15 cents. Cassimere for boy's wear. The greatest bargins in black silks. We have now in store a very large stock of goods, and will sell at less than wholesale prices, in order to reduce our stock. Bargains in Irish linen bought at auction. Call and judge for yourself. S. LEWY.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—The undersigned takes the pleasure to inform the ladies of this city and vicinity, that she has received this day a large quantity of CLOAKS and CIRCULARS, ranging in price from $6 to $25. This stock comprises the very latest styles and best qualities, all of which have been purchased since the decline in gold, and are offered at lower rates than they can be sold for by any other establishment in the city.

They are purely vegetable, pleasant to take, prompt and salutary in their effects on the broken-down and shattered constitution. Old and young can take them with advantage. Imported and sold in the United States only by JAS. S. BUTLER,
No. 427 Broadway, New York.
Agent for the United States.

P. S.—A Box of the Pills, securely packed, will be mailed to any address on receipt of price, which is ONE DOLLAR, post-paid—money refunded by the Agent if entire satisfaction is not given. jy15-d&w3m

SOLDIERS, TAKE IT WITH YOU!

The greatest trouble to persons in the Army, especially in this season, is Dysentery, which (by death or by disability) weakens the service more than the Rebels do. Very many have found, upon trial, the DYSENTERY DROPS are among the very best preventatives and cures that are to be had. Every officer and every soldier should carry it with him, and thereby reasonably insure himself against a great danger. It is prepared in Harrisburg by MRS. L. BALL, at 27 Pine street, between Second and Front. Take a phial with you. Price 25 cents.

PURE VEGETABLE TONIC.

THE most healthy persons feel more or less weak this extreme warm weather, and lose their appetite. They need a good strong Tonic—one that will strengthen the nervous system and stomach. This they can get at 50 cents per bottle, at Mrs. L. Ball's, No. 27, South Pine street, Harrisburg. Orders from a distance promptly attended to. aug1

Dr. Rand's Specific.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermaorhœa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

Dr. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The SPECIFIC of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR

DIED.

On the 7th inst., of membranous croup, (at the State Capitol Hotel,) FRANCES ELIZABETH, daughter of William A. and Frances Eleanor Rouse, aged 2 years, 2 months and 1 day.

The funeral will take place from No. 1115 Ridge Avenue, Philadelphia, to-morrow (Saturday,) at 2 o'clock, P. M.

[Another innocent has been removed to the realms of bliss, to mingle with the hosts of little angels who were too pure to remain on earth. Death has taken the loveliest of the little household, and parental hearts bleed on account of the loss of their loved one. Frances was beautiful and good—and He who said "suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not," has removed her ere she was surrounded by the cares and troubles of this life, to a happier clime. The parents have the sympathies of our community in their bereavement.]

On the 6th inst., SARAH M. HOOVER, wife of John J. Hoover, aged 22 years, 2 months and 19 days.

The friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral, on Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock, from her residence on the corner of Chestnut and Third streets. *

Valuable Property AT PUBLIC SALE.

WILL be sold on the premises, on THURSDAY, the 20th of October, 1864, at 2 o'clock P. M., that well-known business-stand, the Updegrove Lock Property, situated five miles above Harrisburg, in Susquehanna township, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, fronting east on the Pennsylvania canal and railroad, west on the Turpike, and Susquehanna river, consisting of

A CANAL GROCERY,

The best on the line of canal, as all boats from the branches must pass the place.

A HOTEL

That can at all times be filled with boarders; also a STORE attached, with dry-goods counter, shelving and fixtures. It is decidedly the best situation in the neighborhood for a store. The stabling cannot be equalled on the line of canal. It is new, and so arranged that each team can have a separate lockup; about 30 horses can find room. Also sheds, large and commodious, Hay Houses, Carriage-house, Wagon-shed, Warehouses, Carpenter shop, Stone Ice house and cellar, Stone vault for vegetables, together with Wood-house, Smoke-house, and all in good order; summer kitchen, two pumps never-failing soft gravel water, one pump in the kitchen. The underpinnings are all stone to the buildings. Hay Scales. A constant stream of water running through the hog-yard, and conveniences for butchering. The above premises are within stone throw of the Rockville passenger railroad depot, where stop the cars of the Pottsville, Northern Central and Pennsylvania Central railroads.

Persons are requested to call and view the premises. The title is good and is sold on account of ill health of the proprietor.

BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE.

THE BEST CHANCE to get Cheap Homes NOW OFFERED IN THE CITY.—The subscriber offers for sale 72 Building Lots, situate in the Sixth Ward, between Reilly and Colder streets, fronting on Susquehanna, Two-and-a half and Second streets. Most of them have valuable pear and apple trees on them, bearing the choicest fruits, selected by Col. John Roberts thirty years ago, the fruit of which will pay for the ground in a short time. There is also on a portion of the ground a sand bank, above the grade of the streets, containing sand of the best quality, which will more than pay for the ground. The location is such that no drainage is required; the cellars will always be perfectly dry. These lots will be sold below the current price ground is now bringing in this city, and in fact so low as to afford an opportunity for any person to secure a home.

A plan of the ground can be seen at the office of the subscriber, No. 24, North SECOND street.
