R. C. CHANDLER, A. B. Principal.

Mr. E. Foote Associate, Male Dep. and Prof. of French.

Mrs. J. G. H. Blydenburg, Female Dep.

The next term (of 11 weeks) of this institution commences on Monday November the 27th.

STUDIES.

The branches taught include all those of a good English education together with the modern and ancient Languages, Vocal and Instrumental music, Surveying, Book-keeping, &c. Particular attention is paid to the study of the English Language, as a Language, as well as to Vocal music and Declamation, branches, too often overlooked in most schools.

Boarding Scholars.

The Principal would like to receive five pupils, into his family to whose comfort and improvement, his undivided attention will be directed.

TERMS.

$30 per term will meet every necessary expense excepting Books and Tuition: The price of the latter in the English studies varies from three to five dollars per session, with an extra charge of $1 when classical studies are added.

REFERENCES,

The most satisfactory references will be given upon application although the Principal relies rather upon that recommendation which always attends capability and fidelity, than upon that of others.

New Apothecary Store

IN ALLENTOWN.

DR WILLIAM F. DANOWSKY,

Takes this method to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he now occupies his new building, a few doors east of Hagenbuch's Hotel, and has again opened a very large and splendid

Apothecary and Drug Store.

His building the public will remember is one door east of Mertz's Store, in Hamilton street in the Borough of Allentown.

As the whole of his stock of Drugs, Medicines and Fixtures, besides House and Furniture, have been destroyed by the devouring elements on the 1st of June last—made it necessary for him to lay in an entire new stock of all of which he can warrant to be genuine, and of the best quality.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES,

All kinds of Medicinal preparations such as Balsam de Malta, Gold Tincture, Pills, Horse-powders &c. &c., put up in suitable forms for the convenience of his customers.

He also keeps an assortment of Surgical Instruments, Trusses, Paint Oil, &c., all of which he will sell lower than ever before offered in this place.

He also keeps an assortment of hanging and counter Lamps, Lamp glasses, all kinds of fashionable Perfumeries, such as Oil of Rose, Millfleuer, Burgamot, &c.; Hair oils. of different kinds; Fancy and Shaving Soap; Letter Soap; Hair and Tooth Brushes; Tooth Powder, and a large assortment of Fancy Articles, all of which will be sold at the very lowest cash prices.

He invites Physicians, Country merchants and others, to give him a call at his new establishment, and examine his stock of Drugs and Medicines, and he can assure them that they are not only all fresh and newly selected with the greatest care, but that he is also able to sell them at least 30 per cent cheaper than ever before offered in Allentown.

Thankful for the many favors he has received before the fire, he trusts that a generous public will not forget to continue their patronage freely, in order that he may be able to make up the heavy loss, that he has sustained by the fire on the 1st of June.

DOCTOR YOURSELF!

For 25 Cents!

BY MEANS OF THE POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or every one his own physician! twentieth edition, with upwards of a hundred engravings, showing private diseases in every shape and form, and malformations of the generative system,

By W. YOUNG, M. D.

The time has now arrived, that persons suffering from secret disease, need no more become the VICTIM OF QUACKERY, as by the prescriptions contained in this book any one may cure himself, without hindrance to business, or the knowledge of the most intimate friend, and with one tenth the usual expense. In addition to the general routine of private disease, it fully explains the cause of manhood's early decline, with observations on marriage—besides many other derangements which it would not be proper to enumerate in the public prints.

☞Any person sending TWENTY-FIVE CENTS enclosed in a letter, will receive one copy of this book, by mail, or five copies will be sent for one dollar. Address, "DR. W. YOUNG, No. 152 SPRUCE Street, PHILADELPHIA" Post Paid.

☞WANTED—Proprietors of Drug or Book Stores, and Pedlers, in every town in the United States, to act as agents for the above work.
