THE GRAPE CROP.

Last year the grape crop was nearly a failure in the East; this year success has been so marked, that just now they will bring but ten cents per pound in the Philadelphia market. This lowness of price is no criterion of the real value of the crop. When things are tolerably plenty, there are many afraid there will be a "glut," and rush to sell at any price. These, added to those who must sell to supply immediate necessities, always overstock a market for the time being. This of course reacts in favor of those who hold on, and who raise good fruit. There is no doubt grapes will bring twenty to twenty-five cents per pound before October and November is over.

But we did not take up our pen to discuss prices, but to note why grapes have done better than last year. Many are the explanations offered; but the real reason is, that the soil can scarcely be too dry for successful grape culture.

In the best vine districts hillsides are most in favor; on flat land they have to underdrain expensively, or be satisfied with greater risks. In our own localities we know how much better the grapes do in towns than elsewhere, which is chiefly on account of the excellent drainage so many cellars afford.

Wherever the soil is flat, the grape should be grown on hillocks raised above the surface, unless naturally well drained. For all this the grape likes to be near water. It glories in nothing more than to be on a very dry bank, and yet near enough to have the points of a portion of its fibres always in the water. Last year was very wet—the roots were injured—hence the failure; this year it was dryer, and hence the success.

How I Make Butter.—A writer in the Rural American give his method of making butter, and although it is intended to be packed for transportation it is none the less applicable for pound-butter intended for home market.

I may as well say, I have been working in a dairy for nearly three score years; fifteen years of that time in Orange Co., N. Y. and twelve years in Wisconsin.

My mode of making butter is this: —Have pails, pans, churn, tray, and ladle well washed, scalded and dried before using them. Set the milk in temperature where it will get thick in from 30 to 40 hours, then either churn the milk, or take the cream off and churn it. Milk should never be permitted to stand until it begins to whey, as that will impair both quantity and quality. If cream or milk is too cold, put in the churn warm water; if too warm put in cold water.

When the butter is properly gathered, put it in a tray, and put on cold water, and work with ladel moderately. Pour off the water, and continue the process until the water looks quite clear. Then salt with good Ashton salt, working it through the butter evenly and pressing out the water or milk. Set it in a cool place; let it stand 24 hours, and work again and pack.

Farming as a Calling.—A writer in the Boston Cultivator, in speaking of the nobility of farming, and after quoting Adam as a farmer goes on justly to say: "The long line of Patriarchs honored this calling. He who spoke as never man spoke drew the vast majority of His illustrations from nature and from the labors of the husbandman. The greatest and best men of earth have always had a fondness for agricultural pursuits. Scientific truth is marvelous. The laws of germination and growth are marvelous. The farmer lives and labors amid wonders. He deals face to face with nature. He is a co-laborer with the Creator in furnishing the means of subsistence to God's creatures. Geology, Natural History and Astronomy are embraced in his calling. Let farmers' sons honor their occupation. Young men, Nature's galeries are free! Look up and behold the power and skill of the Creator. Explore the wonders around you. Note their peculiarities and their beauties, and when the season of rest again comes round, let the wisdom of other minds and the light of knowledge and science fall on them and reveal them in their true glory.

To Keep Tomatoes.—Tomatoes may be kept almost any length of time and come out almost as good and fresh as when first picked by preserving in pure cider vinegar, diluted with water. One gill of vinegar and two of water. Pick when ripe but not very soft, leave the stems on and do not break the skin. Put into wood or stone and put the liquid on them cold. After you get through putting them in, place something upon them to keep them under the liquid, and take out as you may wish to use them. Can use them as you would tomatoes fresh from the vines. It will not fail you if your vinegar is pure and diluted according to directions. Try it.—Mass. Ploughman.

Quinces Preserved Whole.—Pare and put them into a saucepan, with the parings at the top; then fill it with hard water; cover it close; set it over a gentle fire till they turn reddish; let them stand till cold; put them into a clear, thick syrup; boil them for a few minutes; set them on one side till quite cold; boil them again in the same manner; the next day boil them until they look clear; if the syrup is not thick enough, boil it more; when cold, put brandied paper over them. The quinces may be halved or quartered.

Corn Griddle Cakes.—Scald at night half the quantity of meal you are going to use, mix the other with cold water, having it the consistency of thick batter; add a little salt and set it to rise; it will need no yeast. In the morning the cakes will be light and crisp.

Muffins.—Mix a quart of wheat flour, with a pint and a half of milk, half a teacup of yeast, a couple of beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of salt, and a couple of tablespoonsful of lukewarm melted butter. Set the batter in a warm place to rise. When light, butter your muffin cups, turn in the mixture and bake muffins to a light brown.

Fresh Wash. — White sugar, lemon juice, and borax, rub them well together, and put into glass phials.

HOOFLAND'S COLUMN.

INTRODUCED INTO AMERICA FROM GERMANY, in 1835.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, and HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Read the following symptoms, and if you find that your system is affected by any of them, you may rest assured that disease has commenced its attack on the most important organs of your body, and unless soon checked by the use of powerful remedies, a miserable life, soon terminating in death, will be the result.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc, Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts, The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country, to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

CONSUMPTION.

Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with this terrible disease, have been cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, debility, and cough are the usual attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the digestive organs. Even in cases of genuine Consumption, these remedies will be found of the greatest benefit, strengthening and invigorating.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of infirmity.

These Remedies are the best

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood.

Keep your blood pure, keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you.

THE COMPLEXION.

Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, free from a yellow skin tinge and all other disfigurement, should use these remedies occasionally. The Liver in perfect order, and the blood pure, will result in sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Thousands of letters have been received, testifying to the virtue of these remedies.

READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, March 16th, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good ton
