Polk's majority, 1632.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS.

The elections which have just terminated for the Provincial Parliament show an evident majority for the conservative influence and the policy of Sir Charles Metcalfe. The Montreal Herald, one of the organs of Sir Charles, classifies the members already returns as 28 Conservative, 14 Radical and 8 doubtful, while the Pilot, an opposition paper, places the result 26 Reformers, 13 Tories, and 4 doubtful. The Quebec Gazette considers the election of Dr Wolfred Nelson in the county of Richelieu, which was the scene of his exploits in 1837, as one of the worst symptoms of the spirit of the times.

DECLARED SANE.

The son of Campbell, the poet, who for fourteen years, has been the inmate of a lunatic asylum at the instance of his father, has been declared of sound mind by a jury properly impannelled.

The total revenues of the Prince of Wales, now 3 years old; (from the Duchies Cornwall and Lancaster) amounted in the year, ending the 31st of December last, to upwards of £73,100

It is curious enough that neither in Germany nor France do we meet with weekly journals. This latter is a class which appears peculiar to England

The letter A is in a fair way to be dubbed right royal. Her Majesty's first Christian name is Alexandrina, her husband's Albert, and their four children are called Adelaide, Albert, Alice and Alfred.

The Hamburg (S. C.) Journal of the 23d inst. says:—We notice that several peach and cherry trees in the city are in bloom, and that the latter have the second growth of fruit on them.

LACONIC!

The Democracy of the city and county of Philadelphia assembled in great numbers at the Reading Room, on Saturday evening, to felicitate each upon their glorious victory in Pennsyvania. A series of excellent resolutions were offered by Joseph Pugh, Esq and adopted, among which the following:

Resolved, That Lehigh HAS 'done better;'

THE LATE GALE.

The tremendous gale, which in its devastating course has prostrated buildings trees and almost every thing natural and artificial in the islands of Key West and Cuba, passed us by without even a passing notice. The dreadful accounts of vessels wrecked and lives lost is really heart sickening, and must really cause deep sympathy in the public mind for the bereaved relatives of those who were swallowed in the raging Gulf.—Pensacola Gazette.

RIGHT & LEFT.

Under the heading of Read, Read, Read will be seen an article in the late Democrat written, as the writer says, for the purpose of retracting and reasserting, assertions made by the writer. After which he goes on with a yarn in the following manner.—I shall endeavor to perform my task according to the nature of the subject, and rest all my assertions upon reasonable and solid foundations, such as cannot be shaken & After which he claims to have kept to the truth for once. Had the Honorable said and 'rest my assertions upon unreasonable and sandy foundations,' it would have been honest and to the point. But I stated in my last under the heading of TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth—and therefore consider it unnecessary to go to the trouble of wasting ink and paper, for the purpose of answering such arguments as appeared over the signature of our Brother Chip, the ninth part of a man. As I said before, all persons wishing to know the truth can be satisfied by calling at my shop, as I am prepared, as before, to show the report and fashion as I and the GENTLEMAN. Our worthy Sal talks of seeing the fashion for '44, but is not honest enough to say—44 and five. But we will not be hard on him, will attribute that to his shortness of breath, as it takes a long winded man to say '44 and five, which is the truth, as before stated. The Gentleman keeps very dark about the Ten Dollars I offered to bet him, after denying my having the N. York reports which I told him I had at the house This as well as the rest, I am prepared to prove at any time, and the lark dare not take me up—nor deny it, but after a long sigh and a twist or two, he allowed he would not be much afraid to risk a V that I could not produce the New York reports but took mighty good care not to get on the money, knowing very well on which side his bread was buttered Recollect old hunts are not to be caught with chaff; but a five dollar bill would have a stronger tendency to kench them. I will no go the trouble of saying he had not the money (perhaps) he had, but did not like the notion of loosing it, by way of a bet of that kind It being the fact that the more truths I assert, the more falsehoods will be backed up against them. I have for my part, (so far) as honor to myself and to my occupation will allow me, determined not to answer any more such outlandish untruths, but by way of conclusion, I would now and for the last time, say to our worthy friend P. after a resolution according to his own request to keep cool and not swear, say (Farewell) and may you long live, and have time to repent, and enjoy yourself in this land of Peace and Plenty—Once more, FAREWELL.

BERNARD RUPERT.

No Humbug!

CHARLES KAHLER

Tailor.

EMBRACING the present opportunity of expressing his thankfulness to his friends, and the public generally, for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, informs his friends and the public in general, that he still continues to carry on the above business at his old established stand, on the corner of Main and East streets, where he hopes, by strict attention to business, to receive and merit a share of public patronage as heretofore. He deems it unnecessary to go into the game of brag, or to use any soft soddee about his SKILL in the PROFESSION OF CA'MENT CUTTING as his shop is of long standing, and his work he thinks will speak for itself, and far more louder than words. But he would merely say that, he warrants his work done with neatness, durability, and in the latest fashionable manner, and will ensure a good fit in all cases.

N. B. Charges moderate to suit the times. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work, at market prices.

☞In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, at all approaching in worth, beauty or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.

The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years that it would be superfluous to say much, on that subject here. We may remark however, that to the industry, talent and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continually be made, as well in the Literary as the Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

Histories of Modern Republics—A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men.—Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the rise, progress, and present elevated standing of all distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad,) in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Planting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandize, etc.

This will be a very interesting feature for the Young. It will be a department of the Courier, which it has ever been our aim to render of inestimable value to those for whom we feel so deep an interest as we do for the Young Men of our great and growing Country. The Lives of Distinguished Men are of much value to those who are yet forming their own characters; for the purpose of enacting their parts, correctly, on the Great Stage of Human Life.

Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family who have sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

Incidents, Histories Scenes, Battle Grounds, &c, of the American and all other Revolutions.

Under this head, [which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier,] we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts [occasionally beautifully illustrated] of the thrilling incidents, so profusely strewed through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest or value the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier. This will be of deep consequence also, to every member of any family of the American republic, who may choose to do themselves and us the favor of securing, regularly, the visits of the Courier at their Family Fireside.

POPULAR TOPOGRAPHY.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to prevent vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, etc.

Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These chaste productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

OUR ENGRAVINGS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession.

OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

OUR AGRICULTURIST occupies weekly an important space, with all matters of interest for the noble tillers of the soil.

Our European Correspondents, in Liverpool, London, Ireland the East, &c. keep us regularly advised of all subjects of special interest.

Our Markets and Prices Current embrace all the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks Money, and Land's, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable value to the Traveller, Farmer, and all Business Classes whatever.
