Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ Hon. A. S. Diven, of Elmira, has added to the furnishing of his splendid new residence, a library of 3000 volumes.

PERSONAL.—Rev. B. J. Douglas was in town last week, and occupied the pulpit of Christ Church on Sunday.

☞ The Townsend Family Theatrical Troupe will give entertainments at Mercur's Hall on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week.

PERSONAL.—D. KALBFUS, Esq., and W. E. FRISBIE, Esq., of Mauch Chunk, are spending a few days in eastern Bradford shooting squirrels.

☞ Engine No. 64, owned by the L.V.R.R. Co., was blown up at Waverly on Tuesday afternoon last. Fortunately no one was injured, although Mr. DUBOIS, the engineer, was on the engine at the time of the accident.

☞ The following is a list of officers installed in Bradford Lodge, No. 167, I.O.O.F., for the term beginning October 1, 1870:

N.G., M. LEWIS; V.G., J. A. RECORD; P.Secy., A. D. HARDING; A.Secy., B. W. LANE. Treas., C. T. SMITH.

☞ Trade with those who advertise. They can afford to sell cheaper, because they do the most business. Any of the gentlemen whose advertisement appear in the REPORTER will sell you cheap. Examine our columns before making your purchase.

☞ How eloquent is the old homely word, Fall! The flowers fall in the garden, the fruits fall in the orchards, the nuts fall in the woods, the stars fall from the sky, the rain falls from the clouds, the mercury falls into the tubes, the leaves fall everywhere, and man falls into eternity!

GIFT ENTERPRISE. — The Lin-ta Hose Co. gift enterprise drawing and ball will come off on Thursday next, at MERCUR'S Hall. The drawing will take place in the afternoon, and as many of the ticket holders as can should be present. The tickets have all been disposed of and the prizes will certainly be disposed of on that occasion.

OPEN TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The first of a series of meetings for advancing the cause of temperance, under joint auspices of Good Templars and Sons of Temperance, will be held on Sunday, at 6 p.m., in the hall over MONTANYES store. Services will consist of addresses, singing and prayers. Come one, come all.

BE SENSIBLE.—Do not be above your business; he who turns up his nose at his work, quarrels with his bread and butter. He is a poor smith who quarrels with his own sparks; there is no shame about any honest calling; don't be afraid of soiling your hands, there is plenty of soap to be had. All trades are good to trades. You cannot get honey if you are frightened at bees, nor plant corn if you are afraid of getting mud on your boots. When you can dig fields with a toothpick, blow ships along with fans, and grow plumcakes in flowerpots, then it will be a fine time for dandies.

☞ Scribner's Monthly* will appear in a few days as a handsome illustrated magazine, under the editorial care of Dr. HOLLAND. Hours at Home and Putnam's are, or have been merged into this new comer. Hours at Home has prospered so well that its publishers feel warranted in widening its field, and at the same time deem a change of name advisable. Though the new magazine promises to be an advance upon the old, yet we are loth to part with the old familiar title.

Putnam's was about to give up the ghost, and to save it the publishers have sold out to SCRIBNER & Co. We await the advent of the new monthly with impatience.

☞ At a meeting of Ulster Division, No. 134, Sons of Temperance, held Saturday evening, October 8, the following named officers were installed for the present term by C. F. TAYLOR, Division Deputy:

W.P., GEO. W. NICHOLS; W.A., Miss ELLA ROCKWELL; R.S., Miss HATTIE G. SMITH; A.R.S., EMMETT TUTTLE; Treas., T. H. HOLCOMB; F.S., EMMETT ROCKWELL; Con., JAS. MILLER; A.C., H. SHAW; I.S., MARY D. OLMSTEAD; O.S., ANCIL HOLCOMB; Chaplain, S. DETTRA.

This division was organized less than a year ago and now numbers nearly one hundred active temperance men and women. They are taking active measures to abolish the sale of liquors in the town and with a good prospect of success. May others profit by their example.

TAYLOR.

YOM KIPUR! DAY OF ATONEMENT.—This important fast day began on Tuesday evening last, October 4th, and lasted until Wednesday evening. As an important holiday it is kept strictly by all classes of Jews, no manner of food or water is taken during this time. The festival has its origin from Leviticus xxiii. 27, "But on the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement, a holy convocation shall it be unto you, and ye shall fast; and no manner of work shall ye do; for it is a day of atonement to make an atonement before the Lord your God. A Sabbath of rest it shall be unto you, and ye shall fast: on the ninth day of the month at evening shall ye begin, from evening with evening shall ye celebrate your Sabbath." In former times when the Temple stood, the services on that day were grand as the High Priest entered the Holy of Holies to atone for the nation, but now prayers are substituted for sacrifices.

BASE BALL.—The Academy Ball Club assembled on their grounds on Saturday last with the expectation of playing a match game with the College Club of Towanda, but they did not come. There was about seventy-five spectators present composed of men, women and children with every nerve tensioned to its highest pitch with the expectation of seeing a very close contested game played, and so they did. The Centre Valley boys of this place were on the grounds. The two clubs exchanged players. The Centre Valley boys took half of the Academy boys in exchange for half of theirs. The result of the game stood, Union, 45; Orientals, 38.

The reason of changing the names of the clubs is because they exchanged players. We hope the College boys will not get discouraged, but will try and come up some other time.

Rome, Oct. 10, 1870.

FIRE.—About 11 o'clock on Wednesday night a fire broke out in the Eagle Hotel barn. The flames soon spread to the Foundry and Machine Shop of J. F. MEANS & SON.

The barn was completely destroyed, and the foundry badly injured. The machinery was all saved but the loss on patterns, &c., is heavy. J. DE LA MONTANYE lost a large quantity of lumber which was piled on the bank of the river.

The loss on foundry is nearly covered by insurance.

Col. MCKEAN'S loss is about $1000, mostly covered by insurance.

Mr. HUCKLE had a pair of valuable horses burned in the barn. Col. MCKEAN also lost a horse.

Mr. MONTANYES loss is about $1500.

The fire companies were soon on the ground and succeeded in saving the adjoining property. The engines all worked well, but it is the general opinion that the Steamer was the means of saving much valuable property which must have been destroyed without it.

THE ERIE RAILWAY.—October ends the second year of the administration of Messrs. FISK and GOULD in the management of the affairs of the Erie Railway.

When we look at the contrast that exists between the condition of its affairs now and then, we cannot but congratulate the stockholders as well as the public on the remarkable achievements of those truly great railroad managers.

When those gentlemen took charge of the road it was a well-known fact that it had heavy floating debt and no money; the iron was worn out, the ties rotted, and the whole rolling stock of the road in a dilapidated condition. Since that time they have nearly re-ironed the whole road with steel and heavy refined iron rails, and new ties; they have made a large amount of double tracks, depots, side tracks and iron bridges, increased the number of cars from five thousand eight hundred to ten thousand nine hundred, added over one hundred new engines, and reconstructed all the old ones. They have built the Newburgh and New York short cut road, the Patterson and Newark road, and the Jefferson road from Susquehanna to Carbondale (thirty-six miles). They have purchased large tracts of land at the New York terminus, indispensable to the road, constructed docks, piers, cattle yards, oil depots and warehouses at a cost of millions of dollars, and to-day the Erie road stands not second to any railroad in America.—Elmira Advertiser.

☞ What greater luxury could one desire than a comfortable easy chair in which to recline after the toil and labor of the day is over? We were led to this reflection a short time since while passing through Stuben county, N.Y., where we witnessed on the front verandah of almost every house one or two of those large Balcony Chairs, manufactured by A. E. Cooper & Co., at Coopers Plains and we believe every one who buys these chairs will agree with us that the Messrs. Cooper deserve the everlasting gratitude of every business man and every woman, for that matter, for inventing and manufacturing these chairs. They have just turned out a "Ladies Sewing Chair," which is very popular, and will have a extensive sale. Send for a price list to A. E. Cooper & Co., Cooper's Plains, N. Y.

Wyalusing.—Since my last our town has been somewhat aroused, and the old dame, with the poison on her tongue, has succeeded in obtaining a few attentive hearers and gossip, and petty slanders are now passed for current news and gains some credence.

Even Shoo Fly has again spread his literary wings and tried to make an extra buzz, but poor demecratic electioneering whisky has done its work, and its flight was low and groveling. The poor little drunken thing had not brains enough left to tell the difference between a wagon and bar-room, or the man who got his face blackened, and the Irishman who ran the foot race with the Indian at the show.

Welles's mill is again in running order. The dam which was carried away by high water a year ago has been rebuilt, forming a beautiful sheet of water, which will no dout be appeciated by skating parties during the coming winter. Weeds are being thined out of our town of late—frosty nights has a tendency to wilt them. B. Stone is laying the foundation for a new building on Prospect street. Our farmers are at present busily engaged in the collection of crops, and the merchants and mechanics supplying the wants of their numerous customers.

The Grand Fall Races.—The entries have closed for the fall races of the Binghamton Driving Park, with a list of sixty-five entries, comprising in each class horses among the best in the United States. There are eight purses, aggregating $10,000, making four days' races, commencing October 18, and ending October 21. On the first day there is a 2:50 race, with eight entries, and a 2:30 class, with nine entries; on the second day a purse for 2:34 horses, with twelve entries, and a 2:27 race, with five entries, including the famous mare None Such and Harry Harley, winner of the $20,000 purse at Buffalo. The third day is that of the 2:40 class with ten entries, and of the great race between Bashaw, American Girl, Lucy, Hotspur and Mountain Boy. On the last day will be the 2:32 race with ten entries, and the 2:28 race with six entries, including the celebrated winners, Derby, Prince and Colonel Russell.

Several distinguished visitors from New York are expected to witness the great race; among them Commodore Vanderbilt, who rarely fails to witness a contest in which Mountain Boy is engaged. A committee has been appointed by the association to receive and entertain the Commodore and other visitors, consisting of Wm. M. Ely, Sherman D. Phelps, Walton Dwight and Wm. E. Taylor; also, another another committee to look after the wants of strangers unable to find accommodations at the hotels.

The different railroads running to Binghamton will issue excursion tickets at reduced rates.

A grand rush is provided for with the efficiency which has always characterised the officers of this association.—Binghamton Republican.

Coughs and Colds.—During the wet, changeable seasons of fall and winter, when throat and lung diseases are so frequent, persons should bear in mind the importance of promptly arresting their progress by using the proper remedies. The thousands who die annually of consumption were first attacked with what they thought to be only a slight cough or cold on the breast, and erroneously leaving it would wear itself off, neglected the proper remedies until their disease terminated in consumption and death.

Hasson's Compound Syrup of Tar never fails in curing the worst cases of coughs, colds, hoarseness, catarrh on the breast, sore throat and asthma. It is an infallible remedy for whooping-cough. It is no private quack preparation, being prepared under the immediate supervision of a graduate of the Pennsylvania Medical College, and prescribed by some of the leading physicians in the United States. It is strictly a scientific preparation, containing all the medical virtues of the Pine Tree Tar in a concentrated form, combined with the best demulcents and expectorants known to the profession. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold at F. W. Brown's Drug Store, Towanda, and Keeler & Vaughn's Drug Store, Wyalusing. Russel & Landis, Proprietors, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mingos was one of seven sisters, all of whom have now crossed over the river of death. Our sister was converted to God in early life, and was a devoted member of the M.E. Church many years. She had been a great sufferer, but through it all she found the religion of Jesus her sure support. She has left a husband and four children to mourn her loss.

JARVIS.—In Pike, on Sunday morning, Oct. 2, 1870, of erysipelas, Prof. J. King Jarvis.

His funeral took place at East Herrick, on Monday, following. Notwithstanding the rain the church was crowded with an audience anxious to pay their last tribute of respect to the remains of the departed one. Mr. Jarvis tho still in early manhood, had, while engaged in the duties of his chosen profession—teaching vocal music—won for himself hosts of friends. Very few, if any, ever heard him speak ill of any one under any circumstances. At his funeral a beautiful hymn, his own last composition, was read by the minister, Rev. Mr. Tilden, of Susquehanna county, to the congregation. The choir sang the words commencing "Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep!" to a tune composed for these words by the deceased and published in the Sacred Lute some time ago. His remains were deposited in their last resting place with solemn Masonic rites. The ceremonies were conducted by brothers of Towanda—members of Union Lodge, No. 166, and participated in by members of other lodges. The bereaved widow and child have the sympathies of the community in their great loss.

"Gone to the grave is our loved one,
Gone with a youthful bloom;
Lowly we bend, schoolmate and friend
Passing away to the tomb.

Calmly the form now is sleeping,
Under the cypress shade;
Sad though we be, fondly will we
Cherish the name of the dead.

He has gone down the valley,
The deep, dark valley;
We'll see his face again no more,
Till we pass down the valley,
The dark, death valley,
And meet him on the other shore.'

War in Europe, drouth, and short crops, are having the effect to raise prices; but this Mill at all times sells at minimum prices.

New Merchant Tailoring Establishment.—Messrs. Taylor & Gore have opened, in connection with their Clothing Store, a Tailoring Department; and having secured the services of a "first-class cutter" and competent workmen, they are now prepared to make up work in the best style and latest fashions to order. Having just received a new and fresh stock of cloths, they are prepared to offer better inducements than ever before offered in Towanda. The public will find it to their advantage to give us a call before buying elsewhere. Remember we warrant our work and guarantee good fits. Repairing done on short notice.

C. O. D.

I beg leave to inform my old friends and the public generally, that I have opened A NEW GROCERY AND PROVISION STORE IN BEIDLEMAN'S BLOCK, BRIDGE STREET, and respectfully invite an inspection of my goods and prices. As my stock has been purchased entirely for CASH, and as I propose to sell for READY PAY, I feel confident that my prices will compare favorably with any establishment in the country.

I have paid particular attention to the selection of Ground Spices, and warrant them pure.

My assortment of TEAS is complete, and ranges in prices from SIXTY CENTS to ONE DOLLAR AND FORTY CENTS. Coffee ground to order, and sold at the lowest price. Give me a call. GEO. L. KEELER.
Towanda, July 14, 1870.

Emporium of Fashion.—

On walking up Main street in quest of something new,
I gazed in every window that came within my view;
Until I came to Rosenfield's, and gazing above his store,
I saw, Oh! such beauties there, I had never seen before.
I quickly bounded up the stairs, with true heart-felt emotion,
And landed ere I knew in Miss Kingsley's rooms of fashion;
And Oh! the lovely things I saw, of bonnets and gay dresses,
And not in one's or two's, but both in countless masses.

Her fashions for fall are certainly superb,
Her bonnets are, Oh! such gems to be seen,
Now, ladies, my advice is go see for yourselves
If you wish to be dressed like a queen.

Elmira Business Houses.—E. H. Dormaul & Co.—Removal—Fine and Commodious New Quarters.—For twelve years E. H. Dormaul has been engaged in business in Elmira, and during that time by honorable, liberal and accommodating dealing he has attained an enviable reputation and worked his way along until he has reached a front rank in the line of solid business men.

A new era of prosperity has now been entered upon by this well-known and popular merchant, for he has just taken possession of one of the elegant and commodious stores in the Hall Brothers new and splendid block. Mr. Dormaul's quarters are not surpassed in any particular by any store in this city or section of the State, and none of the larger commercial cities of New York excel in adaption, style and attractiveness the new store of the enterprising Dry Goods firm of E. H. Dormaul & Co.

The second floor, to which communication is had by a broad, handsome stairway, is to be used for the exhibition and sale of carpets, of which the firm will carry an immense stock. A portion of the reserve stock of the house will also be stored here.

The first or ground floor will be occupied by the extensive assortment of dress goods which the firm propose to carry on, and is literally packed with every class and style of goods that may be demanded. The rear portion will be handsomely fitted up as the shawl department.

The store is very light and so arranged that purchasers can examine goods in the most satisfactory manner.

The basement will also be used for the storage of heavier goods and for their exhibition.

Altogether the premises are admirably adapted to the immense business enjoyed by this well-known and reliable house, and we predict that in their new and princely quarters they will meet with greatly increased success and business prosperity.—Elmira Gazette.
