GAMBLING.—Let every young man avoid all sorts of gambling as he would poison. A poor man or boy should not allow himself to toss up for a half penny, for this is often the beginning of a habit of gambling, and this poisonous crime creeps on by slow degrees. Whilst a man is minding his work he is playing the game he is sure to win. A gambler never makes any good use of money even if he should win. He only gambles the more; and he is often tempted to commit crimes for which his life is forfeited to his country, or perhaps he puts an end to his miserable existence. If a gambler loses he injures himself, if he wins he injures a companion or friend. And could any honest man enjoy money thus obtained?

1866. THE WORLD,

An Independent Democratic Daily-Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspaper.

AFTER four years of civil war, forced upon the people of the United States by the violence of the sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial cooperation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic Party, whose history is the past is the history of private prosperity, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now as it has ever stood, the party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Once more its voice will be heard, once more its banners will be unfolded to the time honored mottoes in every city and town of the Northern and of the southern States.

To the principles of this great Democratic Party of Nation, The World has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the return of peace, faithful to the real interests of all sections it will be enlightened by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce is a matter of such importance to every citizen as must recommend The World to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Whatever skill can devise or enterprise accomplish will contribute to make The World what it is our resolve that it shall continue to be—the best newspaper of the Day.

EDITIONS

The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.

The Semi-Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, the market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly World a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivaled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

1 Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; altogether composing an unrivaled handbook of current information for the Farmer Live stock or Produce Dealer, the Country Merchant, etc.

2 Its reading for the Family Circle embraces the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc.

3 Its Digest of the News is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.

In every post office district there should be found some active, public-spirited Democrat, who will contract a benefit upon his neighbors, as the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of fifteen, twenty, or fifty for the weekly World, at our greatly reduced rates.
