New York, March 23.—Trading came almost to a standstill to-day and prices barely changed from last week's close, after an early rise and subsequent reaction. Settlement of the New Haven negotiations, the decrease in idle freight cars shown in the fortnightly report and an increase in freight movement on Western lines supplied ammunition to the bulls for operations at the opening, but the inquiry was not sufficiently broad to maintain prices. Copper shares made relatively a better showing than other stocks, owing to the increased demand and higher prices for the metal both here and abroad.

Bonds were irregular.
