Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ Geo. L. Fuller, of Sheshequin, is authorized to receive subscriptions to the REPORTER.

☞ The Baptists have just purchased one of the celebrated Burdett Organs for their church.

☞ D. J. Sweet has been appointed postmaster at Monroeton, in place of E. Bronson, resigned.

☞ Supreme Court is in session in Philadelphia. Col. Smith, W. T. Davies and J. DeWitt are in attendance.

☞ The inclement state of the weather on Sunday last caused small congregations at the various churches.

☞ Tuscarora Valley is the name of a new post-office just established in Tuscarora township, with H. L. Rugg as postmaster.

☞ The heavy rain of Sunday raised the Susquehanna above good rafting mark, and a large number of rafts were tied up here on Monday and Tuesday.

☞ Several Orphans' Court Sale advertisements appear in the REPORTER this week. Persons desiring to purchase real estate should give them a perusal.

☞ L. G. Rogers has sold his residence on Houston street to G. F. Nichols, Esq. Mr. R., we believe, is about to remove to Utica, N.Y., where he has purchased a farm.

☞ Marbles, skipping-ropes and other juvenile contrivances for amusement and physical development are now in season, and every sidewalk is now crowded with representatives of both sexes.

☞ Mr. A. Fee, assistant assessor of Internal Revenue, has received instructions to have his returns completed by the 15th of April, and he requests all persons with whom he has left blanks to have them filled at once.

☞ We learn that Mrs. Barbour, who has been traveling about the country with her husband begging, for some years past, was struck by the express train going north, on Friday evening last, near Wysox, and killed.

☞ The ladies of the Baptist church will give a "warm sugar" feast in Mr. [illegible]'s new Store this (Wednesday) evening. The proceeds are to be appropriated in paying for the new organ recently put up in the church.

☞ The dwelling-house of J. P. [illegible], in South Towanda, was burned on Sunday morning, Feb. 26. The fire caught in the chamber from a defective flue. Loss about six hundred dollars. No insurance.

☞ Maple sugar is quite plenty in our market, and commands a good price. If any of our friends in the rural districts have more than they know what to do with, they—well, "you know how it is yourself." We're always at home.

☞ The Public School of this borough closed on Friday last. The next term will commence Monday, April 3. During the term just closed nearly three hundred scholars have been in attendance, and the school has been in every respect what it should be.

☞ F. E. Barber, agent of the United States Express Company in this place, has resigned the position, and will remove to Hazleton on the 1st of April, where he has accepted a position in the store of A. Pardee &

☞ At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal church, held last week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Wm. Mix.
Vice President—Mrs. U. Mercur.
Secretary—Mrs. Geo. Stevens.
Treasurer—Mrs. S. W. Alvord.

☞ Mis Della Benson, an intelligent, educated and estimable young lady, committed suicide in Elmira on Saturday afternoon last by taking strychnine. It appears that some eighteen months since Miss B. was engaged to be married to a Ward Hodgkins, of Watkins, N.Y. From some unexplained reason Mr. H. recently changed his mind, which so affected the young lady that she committed the rash act.

☞ Certain judges have been "laying down the law" in regard to flirtations, and declare that they carry with them serious legal consequences. We always knew that flirting was dangerous. It is very much like boxing; it may commence in fun but is very likely to end in earnest. Now that the lawyers have turned their attention to it, the operation may be considered as extra hazardous, and "the fun of the thing" will be taken out of it altogether.

☞ The "Local Option" bill has passed the House of Representatives by a vote of [illegible] to 35. The members voting in the affirmative were all republicans except three, and those voting against it were all democrats except two. What do our "temperance party" friends say to that? What would temperance men gain by organizing a new party? The democrats have a majority of one in the Senate, and we look with some degree of interest to see what that body will do with the bill.

West Franklin Local.—Sic Semper.—Mr. C. Taylor's Store is doing a good business.

There is a hotel, harness-shop and blacksmith shop in full blast, here.

Mr. Ira Morse is finishing his house, and has part of his lot for another store.

Our monotony is relieved by medical lectures held in our church in this place, and we are desirous to have everybody know that we are hopefully expectant in regard to the future.

☞ Granville Centre Lodge, I.O.G.T. is still alive and prospering. Weekly meetings are well attended by a valiant-hearted band of brothers and sisters, who are determined never to give up the ship until King Alcohol is entirely dethroned. The officers of the present quarter are: W.C.T.—S. A. Rockwell; W.V.T.—David Allen; S.—Louisa Reynolds; F.S.—Frank Willer; T.—E. F. Larcum; C.—P. B. Warren; M.—R. D. Bailey; I.G.—Ella Rockwell; O.G.—Erastus Vanbuskirk; A.S.—Orvil Edgar; D.M.—Lavinia Rockwell; R.H.S.—Ella Vanbuskirk; L.H.S.—Lelia Savage.

Beware of It.—To prevent any of our citizens from being victimized by ten dollar notes on the Farmers' and Manufacturers'. National Bank of New York, a large number of which are in circulation, we give the following marks. The note is poorly executed and may be readily detected. It is printed on heavy paper, and on the face the shaded lines are very coarse [illegible]. The back has a centre piece of De Soto discovering the Mississippi, and on the left of this the arms of New York State. On the right side of the centre piece is an eagle and shield. A single glance at the latter will undeceive any person upon whom it is endeavored to pass the bogus note.

☞ There is no way in which persons removing from this county to other sections can keep so well posted in regard to affairs in Old Bradford, as by a weekly perusal of the REPORTER. The following letter, received from a former resident of the county, is given in proof of what we say:

Benson, Vt., Mar. 8, 1871.

S. W. Alvord—Dear Sir: Will you please renew my subscription to the REPORTER, as I find I am getting sadly behindhand in Bradford County news, and think the best way to post myself will be by way of your paper. Please commence with the February numbers. I should have sent in earlier, but have been expecting Mr. S. would call upon you before this time, as he intends visiting your town with a view to locating in business there; but send on the papers until you hear from me again.

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. H. M. S.

A Query.—Why is it that those that profess to love God with their whole heart and are so very anxious for the salvation of souls, never visit the county jail? Is it that they think there is a class there that is not worth looking after, or is it thought to be too low a calling for a Christian to look in upon and talk and pray with and for them? Why do not christians meet there at least once a week for a Union prayer meeting? Please answer.

Towanda, March 12, 1871. Marcus.

☞ At a meeting of the Teachers' Institute of the North School District of Wilkes-Barre Township, Miss Jennie M. Wells, President, and T. C. Mullally, Secretary pro tem., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The intimate relations held by the deceased with the teachers of this township, render it proper that we should place upon record our appreciation of his services as an instructor, and his merits as a man:

Resolved, That we deplore the loss of A. Melvin Park with deep feelings of regret, softened only by the confident hope that his spirit is with those, who having fought the good fight here, are enjoying perfect happiness in a better world.

Resolved, That in the death of A. Melvin Park this Institute has lost a worthy and faithful member, the rising generation a conscientious and devoted teacher, and his parents an obedient and dutiful son.

Resolved, That we tender to his afflicted relatives our sincere condolence and our earnest sympathy in their affliction at the loss of one who was a good citizen, a devoted teacher, and an upright man.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions, signed by the President and attested by the Secretary, be transmitted to the relations of the deceased, and published in the several papers.

Jennie Wells,
President.

The Income Tax.—Under the act of March 2d, 1867, all annual taxes are to be assessed in the month of March each year, and Assistant Assessors are required to complete their assessments and place the same in the hands of the Assessor on or before the last day of that month. The Assessor is then allowed time to hear appeals or complaints, but the complete lists must be placed in the hands of the Collector on or before the 30th day of April. During the month of May the taxes, including those of incomes, must be paid.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has recently sent out seventeen tons of blanks. It is made the duty of any person of lawful age, whose gross income during the year preceding 1870 exceeded $2,000, to make and render a return on or before the day designated by law, to the assistant assessor of the district in which he resides, of the gross amount of his income, gains and profits, and of every guardian and trustee or executor or administrator, and any person acting in any other fiduciary capacity, or as resident agent for or copartner of any non-resident alien deriving income, gains and profits from any business, trade or profession carried on in the United States, or from rents of real estate situated therein, to make and render a return to the assistant assessor of the district in which he resides of the amount of income, gains and profits of any minor or person for whom he acts.

☞ The numerous friends in this place of the late W. E. Shader, will be interested in the following letter from Mrs. Hunt, of Monroeton, who was present at the funeral ceremonies:

Lima, N.Y., March 10, 1871.

Mr. Editor—Sir: Thinking perhaps a brief sketch of the funeral services, at Lima, of Mr. Wesley Shader, who came to his death so cruelly in Towanda, might be of interest to many of your readers, the thought occurred to me that I would write you to-night. On Tuesday afternoon, the 7th inst., the large M.E. Church was filled. The opening ceremonies were performed by Rev. J. T. Brownell, pastor of the M.E. Church. He said he did not rise to pronounce a eulogium upon the deceased, but by request to read several letters which had been written to his parents—letters full of sympathy and condolence from those who had known Wesley during the past five years of his life. A letter also was read from Rev. Mr. McGlathery, rector at Towanda, who administered the ordinance of baptism to Mr. Shader the last Sabbath afternoon of his life. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. Long, rector of the Episcopalian church at Lima. His remarks were founded upon the 12th chapter of 2d Samuel, 22d and 23d verses. It was a sermon full of comfort and consolation, after which the Masonic fraternity completed the remaining services, bearing to the cemetery the earthly remains of their departed brother. Seldom have we known the quiet village of L. to be so thoroughly aroused as at the hour when a telegram was received that one who left his home and friends on Monday, had on Wednesday been unaccountably shot to the ground by one who was extending the hospitalities of his house. Mr. S. was a worthy, respected young man, and though not a professing christian, yet his closing hours showed that he had thought of eternal things, and he emphatically said he knew he loved Jesus. We looked the last look, friends offered human consolation to his grief-stricken parents and sister, and laid his manly form away in the silent tomb to await the resurrection morn.

Zella Rolison Hunt.

March.—Winter, with the three months of gale, storm, snow, ice, sleet, frozen soil, biting blasts and howling storms has past, and March is now upon us. The Spring time is coming. The mild days of the early Spring are in view. Wednesday, the first, was a day of unusual beauty and mildness for the beginning of March. A genial, smiling sunshine, a clear blue sky, gentle zephyrs and fanning breezes delighted the eye and bathed the brow in a balmy atmosphere.

March takes her name from Mars, the Roman God of War. The fifteenth is called the Ides of March, as the same day of May, July and October receive the appellation of the Ides of the respective months. It was on the Ides of March that the great Julius Cæsar was assassinated in the Roman Senate Chamber, when about to be crowned Emperor of the Roman Empire. Since that period—nearly two thousand years ago—the Ides of March has been looked upon by superstitious folks as a day of ill fortune to those about to engage in any new enterprise or undertaking on that day. That occasion and that day ended the existence of the Roman Republic and began the Roman Empire.

At that time the 15th of March carried us to our 27th of the month. This—twelve days—is the difference between old style and new style. So the first then would carry us to the twelfth now. And old folks tell us now that winter ends on the twelfth of March instead of on the first. This was the end of winter to 1752, when the English nation changed dates from old style to new style.

Well, the dormant state of winter is over with farmers and gardeners. The snow has slunk away, the frost has come out and loosened the soil, the ground is ready to be broken, to have her mellow particles stirred by the plough, the spade and the hoe. Farmers are getting their implements of tillage in order for vigorous work—or they should be. Gardeners are putting their hot beds in condition for the season. Housewives are hunting the different seeds to put their gardens in order for the production of early summer vegetables. Things in house and garden are beginning to look busy. This work gives a good promise of a bountiful supply of good, delicious vegetables for home use, and for market the coming season. The planning and laying out of work in March is a fair index to the summer's work. We wish our many patrons a season of bountiful harvest and fruits the coming summer.

☞ The story of the accident which caused the death of Judge Conyngham, as we understand it, is about as follows: Arriving at Magnolia, Miss., about nine o'clock last Thursday evening, the train stopped there for the passengers to take supper. The Judge, W. L. Conyngham, and an old gentleman named Henderson, who had traveled with them from Pittsburg, left the train together and took their supper at the hotel near by, the usual place, the Judge eating very heartily. While they were thus engaged their train was taken away from the place they left it and another came up, and when they returned they went into one of the cars, to find, however, that it did not belong to their train, and very naturally they turned to leave it. The train was slowly starting, and they did so with some haste, Mr. W. L. Conyngham and Mr. Henderson alighting without trouble, except a harmless fall on the part of the latter. The Judge was not so fortunate, as in stepping off the car steps to the platform of the depot, which was rather low, he stumbled and fell, with his legs between the platform and the cars of the train, and when they had passed it was found that his legs, below the knees, were crushed in a terrible manner. It is not known whether they had been crushed between the platform and the steps of the cars, or whether the wheels of one truck had passed over them, and there are no conclusions as to which was the probable way. He was taken to the hotel and medical aid immediately summoned, and everything possible was done for his comfort. He did not realize the extent of his injury at first; no pain attended it, and he even made ar attempt to get up, before removed from the platform, saying, "No matter, I am not hurt; I will get up in a few moments." He lived two hours, and toward the last, when reaction seemed to be taking place, and he began to feel some pain, and was told how serious his injury was, he desired amputation to be performed. Injections of morphia were made to allay the pain, while preparations were making for the amputation, but under the effects of the morphia he seemed to decline, and not a great while after dissolution took place. His last words were, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." When the result of the accident became known in Magnolia, the sympathy of the Masons and ladies, particularly of the village, seemed to be unbounded. Religious services were performed over the remains, and the coffin was profusely strewn with flowers. Their attention and interest were of the most commendable character.—Scranton Republican.

ALBANY—BITS OF HISTORY.—MR. ALVORD: As I intimated in my last, I propose to give a few brief incidents in relation to the early settlement of Albany township. In the year 1799, EPHRAIM LADD moved from Connecticut by an ox team with his family and effects to SCOVELL's flats near Towanda, where he worked land upon shares for two years. In the meantime, the claimants of the land in what is now the township of Albany, had employed JOSEPH LANGFORD and a Mr. WARREN to cut a sled road as far up as now Laddsburg, and offered fifty acres of land to any one who would move on and clear up the land. In the latter part of the winter of 1802, EPHRAIM LADD, having accepted the fifty acres offered to settlers, hired eight ox teams, loaded up his goods, provisions and family, and started for his wilderness home. The first night they staid at RUSSELL FOWLER's, only about four miles on the way, and next morning rose early, fed their teams and themselves, and pursued their journey, crossing the creek eleven times during the day through water, ice and snow, until the sleds became so icy and frozen that it was almost impossible to make the loads stay upon them. In this condition they arrived where Mr. WILCOX had put up the body of a log house, where they made a large fire in the middle of the room, thawed the snow, cooked their suppers, brought in hemlock boughs to lay their beds upon, and tarried all night around the fire with no covering over their heads but a winter sky. The next morning, after preparing and eating their breakfast, they pursued their onward course and arrived at their destination (now Laddsburg) during the day. The next morning the men and teams returned, leaving Mr. LADD and his family to enjoy their wild and solitary home. Mr. LADD, by dint of industry, economy and the help of a real pioneer wife, felled the forest around him, and in time made a comfortable home for himself and family.

Mr. WILCOX (father of SHEFFIELD) next moved into the house spoken of above, after preparing it for his family, and he with his sons cleared large farms in the vicinity. DANIEL MILLER was a tanner by trade, and first established a small tannery in Monroe township near where NORTH's factory now stands; but after LADD and WILCOX had taken up a home in Albany, he with his wife moved where the French from Frenchtown had cleared a small piece of land and raised the frame of a mill; but their leader (we forget the name) having been drowned in the Loyalsock creek, they all (the French) abandoned the enterprise, and with most of those of Frenchtown, returned to their native France. Mr. MILLER established another small tannery on these premises, built mills, cleared a farm, reared a large and respectable family and lived and died upon the premises. JACOB and MOSES MILLER, brothers of DANIEL, moved to Albany soon after their brother, and were among the first settlers of the township.

☞ Great Expectations—the new Prize Collar. Buy a Carton and secure a prize. For sale by TAYLOR & GORE.

☞ For goods that are right, and prices that are low—for everything in the furniture line, go to PHINNEY's on Bridge street.

BOARDING.—A few boarders can secure first-class rooms with board, by applying at No. 32 Second street. F. E. POST.

Also a new one-horse covered Carriage (rubber top) for sale at a bargain. F. E. POST.

☞ PATTERSON & KINNEY know how to sell goods, that's certain; and their customers know that they know how, too. If you have never been there, just step in and see how the "thing is did."

☞ GRIFFITHS & PATTON dealers in real estate, will sell town or country property on a reasonable commission. Description of property, valuation, and terms of payment, left at their office on Bridge-st., Towanda, Pa., will receive their prompt attention. feb15-w4

☞ Two Houses for rent on Second street—possession given on the first of April; and also one house and lot for sale on the corner of Fourth and Elizabeth streets. Inquire of I. S. POST.
Feb. 1, 1871—tf.

NOTICE.—The Fourth Quarterly Meeting for the Herrick Charge will be held (D.V.) in the M.E. Church, Standing Stone, on Saturday and Sunday, March 25 and 26, 1871, commencing at 2 p.m., Saturday. A general attendance is solicited. P. R. TOWER.

☞ COLE, PASSAGE & CO., the enterprising music dealers of this place, will rent Pianos, Organs and Melodeons, and if afterwards purchased, will apply the rent as a payment on the purchase of the instrument. Theirs is the place to find first-class instruments at a bargain, and on easy terms.

☞ Attention is directed to the advertisement, "For Sale," of D. W. SCOTT & Co., in another column. The real estate is valuable, and the concern is doing a flourishing business. There is not a better opening, for a man acquainted with the business, in this place.

☞ Till a man has tried, he would never credit that it is almost as difficult a matter to find a wife as to get rid of one—that is, a suitable wife. Of course, a wife—a vague woman whom he may lead off to his wigwam and exalt into his squaw, and make the lawful mother of young braves, who shall throw stones at their neighbor's windows, and torment their neighbor's cats—any one could get her for asking. But a suitable wife, an angel at once material and celestial, who unites in her own person the dream ideal of youth and the more prosaic reality of womanhood; who, though our fairy queen, is a wise and beneficent one; who, though pretty, can add up her housekeeping book, and knows where to buy groceries at the lowest rates. There are lots of such wives in this vicinity, and they all know that McCABE & EDWARDS sell a better quality of goods, and at a little lower rates, than most other establishments.

☞ We direct especial attention of farmers and horse breeders to the advertisement of MIX & MONTANYE, in to-day's paper. Their Hambletonian colt, "Towanda," is the finest and best horse in the State, and we doubt if there is another in the Union with better pedigree. Mr. MIX has at great expense to himself made an effort to improve the stock of horses in this section, and it is due to him that others who are as much interested as he is should assist in the work. "Towanda" has all the "points" of the old Hambletonian, and is pronounced by the numerous judges of horseflesh, who have been here to examine him, perfect in every respect.

☞ Parties Indebted to Dr. JOS. STEVENS will save trouble and expense by calling on [illegible], Esq., and settling their accounts promptly."

☞ Moving-day and house-cleaning will soon be at hand, and CROSS has prepared himself for the events by purchasing a large and fashionable stock of Wall Paper and Window Curtains. Be sure and give him a call before purchasing goods in this line. It will be to your interest.

WARNING.—As there are now in the market several imitations of our Harris Seamless Kid Gloves, we would warn the public against purchasing an inferior article. Every pair of our Gloves has "Harris Seamless" stamped inside, and none are genuine that do not bear our name. Our Gloves are sold in Towanda, Pa., by TAYLOR & Co, only, and are pronounced by the public to be the best fitting and wearing gloves in the country.

HARRIS BROTHERS.
New York, March 13, 1871.

☞ One of the most unaccountable things in human nature is the concernment people give themselves about the affairs of their neighbors and acquaintances. Out of 100 persons, we will venture that 90 give themselves more trouble about matters no way relating to them than they do about their own individual affairs. But J. O. FROST & SONS have all they can do to attend to their own affairs, and wait upon the large crowds of people who daily visit their Furniture Emporium. There is not another town within forty miles of Towanda where you can find so large an assortment of furniture as at this establishment.

☞ Mrs. E. C. ACKERMAN has employed Mrs. AMANDA CARMAN, the popular dressmaker, who will after the 5th of December assist her in the duties peculiar to her vocation. To those who have employed her, the announcement will be sufficient; to those who have not been as fortunate we can only say, if you want your dresses cut in the most approved style and nicely fitted, give her a call.

Mrs. ACKERMAN also keeps a fine assortment of real laces, embroideries, patterns from Madam DEMOREST; also the greatly celebrated L. M. JILLSON's Improved Chart for cutting ladies', misses' and children's dresses, basques, sacks, &c. Charts of instruction to be had only of Mrs. E. C. ACKERMAN, Bridge Street, Towanda, Pa.

☞ ROGERS & BROTHERS have the reputation of making A 1 Plated Ware, and you can find an assortment of their ware at the Crockery Store of WICKHAM & BLACK.

☞ Mrs. Fletcher, of Boston, and Mrs. Saunders, of Towanda, would announce to the ladies of Towanda that they will open on February 1, 1871, on Bridge street, over Lewis & Son's Hardware Store, a first-class Dress-making Establishment, where will be found all the latest Paris, New York and Boston fashions. Cutting and fitting done at short notice. Also particular attention paid to children's dress-making.

☞ The course pursued by the Cascade Mills, of selling good flour at the lowest possible prices, is productive of numerous advantages. It makes a ready market for the superior wheat of our vicinity; supplies consumers with a cheap and wholesome article of fresh ground flour, and as a natural result makes active business for the Mills. War in Europe, drouth, and short crops, are having the effect to raise prices; but this Mill at all times sell at minimum prices.
