Bradford Reporter,

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ The public school of this borough now numbers about 250 scholars.

☞ The County Commissioners are troubled to find a suitable location for the new jail.

☞ Mr. DeLano has just returned from New York, where he has been for some weeks past selecting new goods.

☞ Mrs. Seebich, wife of Andrew Seebich, died on Friday last. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her loss.

☞ The Easter offering of the Episcopal church and Sunday-school in Montrose amounted to $630.

☞ J. S. Allyn & Co. have purchased the Furniture Store of D. I. Peckham in Mercur's Block. We are glad to welcome Jake back to town.

☞ Miss Merrill, of Athens, lost a gold watch on Main street on Friday last. It was found by Lizzie Coolbaugh and returned to its owner.

☞ Binghamton has decided by a decisive vote to tax her citizens for the building of a suspension bridge over the Chenango river in that city.

☞ The Athens Gleaner says a man asked the privilege of going behind the bar at the Exchange Hotel to write a letter the other day, and while there "picked the till" of twenty-three dollars.

☞ John W. Elsbree, who robbed the depot at Milan a short time ago, was caught at Buffalo and brought back by Constable Kingsbury Wednesday night last. He will probably go down the river.

☞ Rev. G. P. Hopkins, of Troy, occupied the pulpit of the Episcopal church on Sunday last. In the morning he preached an excellent, practical sermon, and in the evening delivered an impressive exhortation to a large audience.

☞ Judge Elwell has been appointed arbitrator in the matter of the differences between the coal operators and miners. The selection is a good one. The difficulties will now undoubtedly soon be adjusted, and work in the coal regions resumed.

☞ A barn owned by Wm. Bowman, near Hale's mill, was burned on Tuesday morning about 4 o'clock. Mr. B. was moving the building and had got it nearly where he wanted it. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

☞ It is the unanimous verdict of the best judges, that there is no better school in the country than the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute. The Principals are both energetic and experienced teachers, who deserve the patronage as well as thanks of every friend of education in this section.

☞ Mrs. T. P. Patch, mother of C. B. Patch, Rocerman, died at her residence on this place on Friday last. Deceased was a consistent member of the M.E. Church and much esteemed by all who knew her. Her funeral on Sunday afternoon was attended by a large concourse of people.

☞ The organ ordered by the Methodist church is being put up, and we understand there is to be a Grand Concert at the church, on Saturday evening of this week. Members of the Choral Association and other good singers are to take part in the singing, and an excellent concert may be expected.

☞ Mr. N. M. Pratt, who is laboring in this county in the interests of the Order of Sons of Temperance, organized a Division at Standing Stone on Friday evening last, and christened it "Valley Star" Division, No. 269. DeWitt VanNess was elected W.P. The Divisions recently organized by Mr. P. at Shesheguin and Milan are flourishing, and will undoubtedly accomplish much good.

☞ Attention is invited to the Orphans' Court Sale, Auditor, Land, Guardian, in another column. The tract is a mile and a-half from the Sullivan & Erie Railroad, and contains about ten acres cleared, the balance being covered with hemlock and maple timber. Those desiring to purchase real estate will find this a good investment. The sale will occur on Saturday, 22d inst.

☞ The Wyoming Conference, M. E. Church, at its recent session, made the following appointments for Wyalusing District:

Luther Peck, P.E.; Tunkhannock, R. S. Clarke; Wyalusing, G. M. Chamberlain; Herrick, King Elwell; Rome, Wm. Shelp; Orwell, Silas Barnes; Windham, E. M. High; Lellaysville, S. E. Walworth; Montrose, A. D. Alexander; Brooklyn, Philip Holbrook; Springville, R. S. Ross; Nicholson, J. B. Sumner; Factoryville, J. S. Lewis; Meshoppen, J. H. Weston; Skinner's Eddy, P. R. Tower, T. B. Jayne; Mehoopany, R. W. Breckenridge; Auburn, George Greenfield; Fairdale, Stephen Elwell; Harford and South Gibson, A. C. Sperry; Gibson, Geo. Forsyth; Newton, Alfred Brigham; Northmoreland, A. J. Arnold; Rush, Milner Swallow; West Nicholson, Justus Warner; Jenningsville, A. L. Sterling; G. M. Mead transferred to Central New York Conference.

In the Owego District, Rev. D. Personens remains at Athens, and Rev. J. B. Santee at Horn Brook.

☞ Scribner's for May commences its second volume with such assurances of success as it deserves, for thus far each number has been one of great excellence. In the current number we have a portrait of George Macdonald, the rising novelist, whose story of "Wilfred Cumbermede" is creating so much interest. This number also contains what will be regarded with much interest by Biblical scholars, a fac-simile of the Moabite stone, that remarkable piece of work which has been the means of substantiating many statements and beliefs of linguists, and forms one more of the many evidences of the perfectly historic accuracy of the Bible. Besides these the remaining contents of Scribner's are what the magazine purports to be, on subjects that will satisfy and gratify the largest number of people. It is no wonder to us that under the supervision of Dr. Holland Scribner's has so soon attained a fine circulation.

☞ Miss Anna E. Dickinson delivered the closing lecture of the course under the auspices of the I.O. of G.T. Lecture Committee, on Saturday evening last. Mercur's spacious Hall was literally crowded on the occasion, and every one was mere than pleased. The lecture was entitled "To the Rescue," and was an able, eloquent and unanswerable argument in favor of female suffrage. It does not seem possible that any woman—or man, either—could listen to such an argument and not become convinced that such a woman is fit to have voice in the affairs of government.

Although the course of lectures has not paid pecuniarily, the intellectual improvement afforded our community has more than compensated for the expense incurred, and we trust the effort will be made next season to give us another course. The Lecture Committee deserve much credit for their untiring and indefatigable efforts in the matter, and now that it has been demonstrated that first-class lecturers pay, we trust they will at once secure a supply for next season. They should by all means secure Miss Dickinson.

☞ At a regular meeting of Granville Centre Lodge, No. 507, I.O. of G.T., held April 8, 1871, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has, in His all-wise though inscrutable Providence, permitted death to enter our Lodge and remove from its fold our beloved sister, Martha Lament; therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Martha the church has lost an earnest and exemplary member, the Sabbath-school an energetic and faithful teacher, and our Lodge one of its most devoted members.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of "Him who searcheth the hearts and trieth the reins of the children of men," we deeply sympathize with the afflicted family in this hour of sad bereavement, and pray that our Father in Heaven will give them His gracious support.

Resolved, That the Charter of our Lodge be draped in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge for thirty days, as a tribute of respect to the memory of our departed sister.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, also be placed upon the minutes of the Lodge, and sent to the Northern Tier Gazette and Bradford Reporter for publication.

E. F. Larom,
M. H. Irish,
Committee.

Local History.—The incidents attending the settlement and early history of every locality, frequently reveal a heroism and sacrifice in the hardy pioneer unsurpassed by those who, occupying a more conspicuous position, have made their names and deeds famous. The most striking of these incidents are for a time preserved in the traditions of the place or of the families in which they occurred, but even this imperfect record is soon lost, and that which deserves an ineffaceable record passes away from the knowledge of men.

For the purpose of preserving our local history there was organized about a year ago the Bradford County Historical Society, which has already succeeded in securing much useful material for some competent hand at a future day to work up into a complete and reliable history of the county.

During the past year Mrs. Perkins' "Early Times" has been published, a book in which personal reminiscences and biographical sketches are woven together with rare taste and felicity, and whose racy stories possess the fascination of a novel. Mr. Craft's history of Wyalusing, which is just published, though more local in its character, contains facts of the deepest interest to all who are interested in our local history, and especially to the old families whose record is there given. Of this latter work we are told that only a small edition is printed, and is sold at just enough to pay the cost of printing—that already more copies have been sent out of the county than have been retained by persons in it, who are interested in preserving the stories which are there told. I have been told that the sale of Mrs. Perkins' book has as yet not been large enough to pay for the printing and binding, and that the same is true of Wyalusing; which, if true, does not speak well for the enterprise of our citizens, or their zeal in promoting the history of their own county. The time will soon come when those who are not fortunate enough to secure a copy now cannot obtain one for any price. Let our citizens encourage all workers in this department, and in a short time material will be collected for a history of the county, which will be creditable alike to our people and to the county whose development is now so rapidly progressing.

Sheldenburger's European Menagerie and Circus.—This mammoth consolidation, apparently unknown to the American public, was brought to this country from Europe during the past winter. For the past ten years Sheidenburger's Menagerie and Circus has been acknowledged as the leading traveling exhibition of Europe. This will be its first tour in this country, and from the advertisement (which will be found in another column) we are led to expect something out of the ordinary way. Foremost among the many features is the Only Full Grown Rhinoceros that has ever been exhibited. This Leviathan weighs over 8,000 pounds, and is drawn from place to place by eight of the largest horses. He is a whole show in himself, and fully worth the price of admission. In addition to this huge beast, the menagerie is most complete, and embraces specimens from all quarters of the globe. The Circus is said to be a good one, embracing a score of daring riders, intrepid gymnasts and funny clowns, including the remarkable performer, Prince Sadi Jahni, called the Man Serpent, a perfect human boa constrictor. Our readers should not fail to take their children to see the Rhinoceros, as all must feel a desire to see that monstrous animal, so ably illustrated in the Bible, Book of Job, chapters xl. and xli. Another opportunity may never again be presented of seeing a full grown Unicorn. The street procession on the day of exhibition will be extremely fine, and our readers should be on hand to witness it, as they can then see the magnitude of this colossal show, besides seeing the mammoth rhinoceros den, which will give an idea of his enormous size. The day and date in Towanda is Monday, May 1st. Remember the date and be on hand early in the morning to view the grand entree.
