Bradford Reporter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ We shall be "at home" every day until Thanksgiving.

☞ We are again compelled to omit our usual variety, to give place to the balance of evidence in the Ward trial.

☞ A subscriber desires us to state what is the standard weight of buckwheat. We answer, forty-eight pounds to the bushel.

☞ A scholars' Prayer Meeting is conducted in connection with the M. E. Sunday School, in this place.

☞ At the Sheriff sale of G. L. Keeler's stock, on Tuesday last, Johnson Wells and Stephen Titus were the purchasers, and will continue the business.

☞ Rev. Wm. McGlathery will preach a sermon on Sunday morning next, on the duty of his parish in relation to the new diocese and the dioscean.

☞ Owing to the absence of several attorneys, but little business was transacted in Court last week. The jurymen were dismissed on Thursday.

☞ Hon. U. Mercur has been nominated by the Philadelphia City Item, for Governor. He would make the best Executive of any of the men mentioned in connection with the office.

☞ Miss Martha Noble, of Ulster township, has been elected a teacher in the Public School of this borough. Miss N. has had several years' experience, and stands high in her profession.

☞ There is now in jail in this place, a man charged with forgery, whose father is worth half a million of dollars, and whose gray hairs are being hastened to the grave by the ingratitude of his worthless son. Whisky caused it.

☞ The Episcopal Mite Society will meet at the residence of Col. Chas. Mercur, on Monday evening next.

The Presbyterian Aid Society will meet on Tuesday evening, at the residence of Chas. D. Humphrey.

☞ The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church, of LeRaysville, will hold a Fair and Festival at Carl's Hall, Thanksgiving day, afternoon and evening, Nov. 30, for the benefit of the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

☞ A lecture will be delivered in Mercur's Hall, on Wednesday, Nov. 29, at 8 o'clock, P. M. by Dr. I. W. Rogers. Subject, "Influence of Ireland on Europe and America." Proceeds to be applied in payment of debts against the Catholic Church, at this place.

☞ The Adjutant General disbanded the "Brockway Battery," of Bloomsburg, because they failed to comply with the requirements of the law in the matter of uniform.

Mercur dispersed the Brockway batteries in the whole district, last year.

☞ The new Methodist Protestant Church, in the Warburton neighborhood, Forks township, Sullivan county, will be dedicated by Divine permission, Dec. 7, 1871. Rev. Augustus Webster, D. D., of Baltimore, is expected. A general invitation extended. A good time expected.

☞ Mrs. Jane Bartlett, wife of the late Daniel Bartlett, died at the residence of her son, O. D. Bartlett, in this place, on Tuesday morning last, in the 76th year of her age. She was an exemplary Christian woman, and highly esteemed by all who knew her.

☞ We do not remember that we ever made any notice of the Typo, one of the neatest little papers ever found on our table. It is mainly devoted to the interests of the craft, and should be in the hands of every printer in the country. It is published by J. & F. B. Garrett, Syracuse, N. Y., extensive dealers in printers' supplies.

☞ Insurance policies in companies which have been compelled to suspend in consequence of the heavy losses in Chicago, should be returned to the agents and cancelled, as otherwise the responsible companies with whom they subsequently insure, will only be held responsible for such proportion of the loss as they would be liable for in case the former companies were still good.

☞ The Lewisburg Chronicle says that the parents of Victoria Woodhull at one time kept tavern on "Chestnut Ridge," in Snyder county. Victoria's mother was a Rosanna Hummel, and was born about three miles from New Berlin. In 1838 she married Buckman Clafflin, a Yankee from Bradford county, and after a short residence at Chestnut Ridge moved to Ohio, where Victoria was born.

This celebrated female has a number of relatives still residing in this county.

Watkins Glen.—A correspondent of the Elmira Gazette, writing from Watkins, says:

"The new proprietor of the Glen arrived here last week and formally assumed possession of the Glen property, including the Mountain House. He is a Philadelphian of ample means and large experience in hotel keeping. He has engaged to pay an annual rent of $7,000 for the term of ten years for this valuable property, and furthermore he binds himself to make substantial improvements upon the property to the value of at least $3,000 per annum. He will early the next ensuing season erect a new hotel with a capacity for one hundred sleeping rooms, on the south side of the Glen, opposite the Mountain House, and connect the two by means of a suspension bridge over the Glen, and a well graded carriage way will be constructed from the south side hotel to the village."

Obituary.—Bishop Peter Wolle.—The Rt. Rev. Peter Wolle, senior Bishop of the Moravian Church, died at Bethlehem, Pa., on the 14th inst., in his eightieth year. His native place was the Island of St. John, W. I., where he was born January 5, 1792. His father was a missionary of that Church, and was at the time stationed at that point. In the year 1800 he came with his father to the United States, and entered Nazareth Hall. He completed the regular school course, and was admitted to the first theological class of his Church formed in this country, in the year 1857. He graduated four years later.

Entering the ministry he received the appointment of pastor at Salem, N. C., and in 1824 was transferred to Philadelphia, where he remained until 1836. Subsequently he was stationed at Lancaster and Litiz, Pa., Canal Dover, Ohio, and other points. After his consecration to the Episcopacy in 1845, he filled various important positions in the Church; was elected a member of the Provincial Elders' Conference or Executive Board of the Northern Province, and removed to Bethlehem, the seat of that body, where, since his retirement from active service, he has resided.

Bishop Wolle was an eloquent preacher and able scholar, and a thorough musician. He revised and rearranged the hymn tunes now in use in the Church by the direction of the Synod. He was the oldest bishop of the entire denomination.

Scribner's Monthly.—An Illustrated Magazine for the People, Conducted by J. G. Holland.—We have the pleasure of presenting our plans for the coming year, beginning with the third volume in November. They involve changes that are full of encouragement to ourselves, and of interest and advantage to our readers.

The unprecedented patronage that has been accorded to our enterprise, has left us in no doubt that all our attempts at greater excellence and larger results will be met with the most liberal spirit on the part of the public. We have therefore decided to enlarge the magazine, and so to condense its materials, while preserving its present large and beautiful type, as to furnish the equivalent of thirty-two extra pages of matter in every number, or nearly four hundred pages a year. This enlargement will enable us, with every issue, to present a greater number of illustrations, and a better variety of articles than it would otherwise be possible to give, and help us to realize our purpose to make the Monthly in all respects the finest magazine that can be made in America. We wish to have it distinctly understood, while instituting this enlargement, that we do not propose to publish the largest magazine in the world. We shall aim simply, excluding all "padding," to publish the best.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS.

We are constantly adding to the number of our contributors who will continue to be, as they have been, among the best who write the English language in Europe and America.

OUR ILLUSTRATIONS.

While having in constant employment a choice corps of designers and engravers for the illustration of literary material produced at home, we shall avail ourselves of rare advantages for securing the finest products of foreign art, some of which we hope to be able to present with every number.

CONTENTS OF THE NEW VOLUME.

The materials which we have already in hand, enables us to state with confidence, that the new volume will be, in literary matter and pictorial illustrations, more brilliant and entertaining than either of its predecessors.

TERMS.

With an increase in size, there must be of course a corresponding increase in price.

The subscription price will be $4.00 per year, in advance; and there will be no club rates.

For $5 we will send the Monthly for one year, and also all the back numbers of Vols. I. and II.; or for $5 we will send the Monthly for one year, and the covers for Vols. I. and II., postage on covers paid. The price of covers singly is fifty cents each. We will exchange at our office back numbers for bound volumes, on payment of seventy-five cents.

We make these liberal offers because we desire that every one shall commence with the first number. We mean to make the series worthy of careful preservation.

Checks on any Bank in the United States (payable to our order), and Post Office money orders, and money in registered letters, may be sent at our risk.

The trade will be supplied through the various news companies, to whose faithfulness and efficiency we are greatly indebted for our present circulation. Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York.

DIED.

DODGE.—On Saturday, Oct. 14, at his residence in Terrytown, Pa., John F. Dodge, in the 57th year of his age.

CHAFEE.—At the residence of her father, Mr. Henry Whitaker, in Warren, Pa., Sept. 24, 1871, Mrs. Elsie Chafee, aged 22 years.

In this mysterious Providence which has called her so early from this life, one so good, so gentle and lovely, has caused a deep shadow to fall upon surviving friends, who deeply feel their loss. She embraced Christ in early life as her only hope, and died in the triumphs of living faith. And now we may by faith look beyond the flowing river, and join in our feeling with the following stanzas:

"Far beyond the rolling river,
Where bright angels are,
The dearest of my heart is gone,
And shines a radiant star.

"She wears a spotless robe of white,
And a shining crown of gold,
For she is with her Savior now,
And a lamb of His dear fold.

"She withered like the bright wild flower,
'Neath the burning noontide's ray,
To bloom again in Heaven above,
And eternal day."

W. C. PECK.

WOODHOUSE.—At Laceyville, Wyoming Co., Pa., Nov. 7, 1871, John G. Woodhouse, M. D., of typhoid pneumonia, after a brief illness.

His sudden demise was alike surprising and sad, for his physical development certainly gave promise of enduring the allotted three score and ten years, but nearly a score of these were wanting when death summoned him.

Vital statistics show that the average age of physicians is less than any other class. The case under consideration is a confirmatory addition. He was born in Bridgewater township, Susquehanna county, Pa., April 9, 1820. Studied medicine under direction of DR. PATRICK, then of Montrose; graduated at the Pennsylvania University in Philadelphia; was associated in practice for three years with DR. LATHROP, of Springville; then removed to Laceyville, where he remained the balance of his days. Well qualified for his noble vocation, with a personal appearance calculated to inspire confidence, he promptly gained the good will of the community, and ministered to their medical wants with a skill rarely excelled by the country practitioner, and soon had an extensive ride. In his intercourse with his professional brethren, he was courteous and fair, usually governed by the established code of ethics. Socially, he was somewhat reserved, but popular, so that his loss is severely felt. He leaves GRANT, an orphan seven years of age—his wife, a daughter of the late CHARLES KENNEY, Esq., having crossed the "dark valley" five years ago.

CODDING, RUSSELL & CO.

TOWANDA, PA.,

Who not only sell at the lowest cash prices, which cannot be undersold in the county, but who, from their long experience in the trade, are able to, and do, keep a variety of goods of all kinds which is not equalled in this part of the State. It is their aim to sell goods that shall give satisfaction, and they have only to refer to their customers in the past as to what they will perform in the future. As the ordinary space of an advertisement would fail to enumerate the goods kept by them, whoever may wish to purchase, should not fail to visit their store.

They have a great variety of Cooking and Heating Stoves, among which are the American, Morning Glory, Oriental, and many other patterns of Base Burners. They have a large lot of Merry Christmas Stoves at Reduced Prices, although the tendency of prices is decidedly upward. American Cook, Magic Shield, Tribune, Union, and many others. They are the only agents for the two best Heaters ever sold, the Oriental and Reynolds. Also Chaffee's National and Harrisburg Feed Cutters, Corn Shellers, Pocket Knives and Table Knives, very cheap, Silver Plated Ware, Lard, Whale and Machine Oils, Brass and Copper Kettles, Clothes Wringers, Boys' Sleds, Skates, Hay Rope, Lath, Tinware, Drain Tile, Cement, Patent Iron Benches, Planes, &c.
