☞ Two elegant new passenger coaches for the Southern Central R. R., passed over the Pa. and N. Y. R. R., a few days since.

☞ Mr and Mrs. H. G. GOFF, of the American House, have the condolence of their friends on the loss of two grand-children last week.

☞ C. M. KOON has disposed of his hotel at Montrose, and will hereafter devote his whole attention to conducting the Ward House.

☞ The venerable JOHN M'CORD, over eighty years of age, is one of the most zealous advocates of GRANT's election in this county.

☞ Mrs. PIATT, of Tunkhannock, who was badly injured by being thrown from a carriage some two weeks since, is slowly recovering.

☞ During the shower on Sunday afternoon, lightning struck two barns belonging to J. M. YOUNG, in Columbia township, entirely consuming them with most of their contents. Mr YOUNG saved his horses, but his loss is about $1600. Insured for $1,300.

☞ We learn that E. W. NEAL has sold out his interest in the Greenwood Cottage to Mr. JOHN T. BREWSTER, editor of the [illegible] Free Press. Mr. B. will take possession about the first of September. We have no doubt he will keep a good house.

☞ A novel "silver wedding" is in preparation at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., H. W. BEECHER's, to take place October [illegible]. The 44 members and friends who wish to attend [illegible] invitations, should send their names to the Clerk of the Church.

☞ The Mutual Building and Saving Fund Association meets on Monday evening next. The Secretary will be prepared at that time to furnish each member with the first annual report of the condition of the institution.

☞ The next meeting of the county convention of Good Templars, which takes place at Rome August 21 and 22, is an open session to which all temperance organizations and churches are invited to send delegates. Should this be done, this may prove the most interesting convention yet held.

☞ When the train from the north arrived at this place at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon, two worthless looking [illegible] were discovered perched on the [illegible] of the engine. They had been put off the train at Athens, and without the knowledge of the conductor secured a free ride in the manner described above. They were left to pursue their course on foot from this station.

☞ Pursuant to call, a GRANT and WILSON Club was organized in Canton, last Friday evening. The following persons were elected officers, to wit:

President—H. N. WILLIAMS.
Vice Presidents—J. W. COLWELL, WARREN LYON.
Secretary—I. W. STONE.
Treasurer—B. W. CLARK.

☞ Minnequa, the celebrated summer resort, is now full to overflowing; never before has this House been crowded to its present capacity. Notwithstanding the extensive additions made to the House since last Summer, it is still almost impossible to accommodate all that apply for admission. Minnequa is fast becoming noted for its health restoring situation, and its springs of curative water.—Canton Sentinel.

☞ A. LOGAN GRIM, Esq., of this place, met with a severe accident on Saturday evening, July 27. While walking through the bridge at Towanda, the night being very dark, he was run into by a team going at a rapid pace, and knocked down. The horses and wagon passed over him, leaving him for a time quite insensible. His injuries though serious were not fatal, and he is now able to attend to his business.—[illegible] Standard.

☞ Miss SADIE PAULHAMUS, daughter of JOHN PAULHAMUS, of "Slabtown," Lycoming county, who resided with her uncle, [illegible] SMITH, in Williamsport, committed suicide on Saturday evening last, by drowning herself in the river. Her body was recovered on Sunday morning. She left a letter showing that disappointed love prompted her to take her own life. A young man to whom she was engaged, instead of fulfilling his promises to her, attempted to blacken her character by stories which had no foundation in fact.

WYOMING COUNTY.—A correspondent writes to the Independent Republican from [illegible]sburg, Wyoming county, as follows:

"In this township, (Northmoreland) we have [illegible] 80 Republican voters, and not one Greeley [illegible], while a large number of the Democrats declare that they will never vote for Greeley. I do not know how many Greeley Republicans we have in the county, but think not many. In about half the townships there are no renegades. Can tell better after a little, but think the Greeley Republicans are growing fewer where there are any."

☞ A few days ago a party of [illegible] visited Lewis Lake, and succeeded in catching several hundred trout. Rev. A. P. BRUSH, who has gained some reputation for skill as a trout fisher, as well as pulpit orator, was the most successful fisherman of the party. They returned to their homes perfectly delighted with their trip, having nothing to mar their pleasure but a slight accident happening a lad of the party, who fell into a bear hole, and was extricated with great difficulty.—[illegible]

☞ A GRANT and WILSON Club was formed in Herrick on Saturday evening last, and the following officers elected:

President—E. CARR.
Vice Presidents—P. S. SQUIRES, Capt. I. A. PARK.
Secretary—I. L. WOODBURN.
Treasurer—W. A. WETMORE.

We have assurances that the defection of Mr. LANDON will not materially affect the vote in this township.

☞ L. D. G. W. C. T., J. F. [illegible], installed the following officers of [illegible] Lodge No. 223, I. O. of G. T., last Friday evening:

R. H. S.—ALENA DOUGLAS.
L. H. S.—BERNICE M'GILL.
W. S.—A. F. MCALLISTER.
[illegible]—H[illegible]E E. PIERCE.
[illegible]—ERNEST FROST.
[illegible]—[illegible] E. DAYTON.
W. O. G.—ALEX. MOSHER.
W. I. G.—FLORA BEIDLEMAN.

A STRANGE CONTEST.—A scene occurred at Minnequa on Sunday afternoon last, that was not laid down in the programme of that institution. It appears that a lady guest, while watching the antics of the bear, got within range of bruin's huge claws, who seized the lady's shawl, and after giving it a thorough inspection, was preparing to gracefully recline upon it. This familiarity was not altogether up to the lady's idea of propriety, and who now entered the arena and contested the bear's right to the garment by pitching into bruin a la HEENAN. The contest was sharp, short and decisive. The bear failing to come to time on the second round, the lady recovered her property and withdrew, with the remark that "she never had but one fight before, and that was with HORACE GREELEY."—Canton Sentinel.

Athens, August 12. 1872.

☞ The following officers were installed at Liberty Corners Lodge No. 1,002, I. O. of G. T., on Saturday evening, August 3, 1872:

W. C. T.—CHAS. CUMMINGS.
W. V. T.—E. A. FOWLER.
W. S.—EDDIE FOWLER.
W. F. S.—J. M. PIATT.
W. T.—C. CUMMINGS.
W. M.—W. FOX.
W. D. M.—LOTTIE PIATT.
W. A. S.—MISS EMMA IRVINE.
R. H. S.—MISS A. E. SUMMERS.
L. H. S.—AMANDA KELLOGG.
W. C.—WM. FOWLER.
W. O. G.—FRANK ARNOUT.
W. I. G.—MISS ANNA HICKS.
L. D. G. W. C. T.—ULYSSES M. PRATT.

PERSONAL.—W. A. WARNOCK and sisters, of New York, are visiting friends in this place. Mr. W. was a student at the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute some ten years since.

O. C. HORTON, lately one of the proprietors of the flouring mill near Maj. HALE's, has purchased a tract of land near Fort Scott, Kan., and left this place with his family for their new home on Tuesday last.

Judge STREETER is holding court in Susquehanna county this week.

Mine host SMITH, of the Ah-wa-ga House, paid us a visit last week.

A. E. MENARDI is soon to leave for Chicago, where he expects to engage in business.

Our young friend NORMAN P. HICKS, has accepted a situation in the Second National Bank, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. HICKS is a young man of fine business qualifications, pleasing address, and unimpeachable moral character.

—Dr. LADD has been quite ill for some days past. We are glad to know, however, that his health is now improving.

☞ At a meeting of Towanda Division No. 163, S. of T., held in Temperance Hall, Towanda, August 10, 1872, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the hand of death has once more been felt among us, and taken away our friend and sister, Mrs. Emma Murray, from the trials and difficulties of this life, to a home in that heavenly city, whose inhabitants shall know no more sorrow nor pain, and where God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Resolved, That to those relatives who mourn her loss as daughter, wife, mother and sister, we tender our heartfelt sympathies in their bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the relatives of the deceased, and also published in the borough papers.

Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee,
Since God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, thy Guide;
He gave thee, He took thee, and He will restore thee,
And Death has no sting since the Saviour hath died.

☞ ED. REPORTER—Dear Sir: Being a reader of your good old Republican paper, and not seeing any locals from this place, I thought I would take the responsibility on my own shoulders.

The farmers are busy in taking care of their hay and grain. Oats, as a general thing, are a good crop, and the indications are good for the corn crop. Business is not very brisk just at present. Our friend LANDMESSER has opened a blacksmith shop just across the street from his hotel. L. W. DEPEW has charge of the wagon-shop, where he is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. The Pa. & N. Y. R. R. Co. have drove the stakes for a depot and switch, we understand. Mr. MYRON KINGSLEY has the contract for putting up the building. Politics is the main topic of conversation, but the Greeleyites are few and far between in this place, which, I guess, is the case all around, except with a few sorehead office-seekers. Well, as my scribbling has become of some length, I will bring it to a close.

Rummerfield, Pa., August 12.

☞ MR. ALVORD: At a meeting of the GRANT and WILSON Club at Camptown on the evening of August 9, the President, JAMES DONOHUE, called the meeting to order and H. B. INGHAM was chosen President, L. B. CAMP, L. B. HEWETT, G. W. ELLIOTT, Rev. E. BURROUGHS, and WILLIAM CHAMBERLAIN, jr., Vice Presidents, and JAMES FEE and P. STATES, Secretaries.

After a neat and appropriate speech by H. B. INGHAM, B. LAPORTE was introduced to the stand, and in a most forcible manner gave to the audience the political situation of the country, as it now stands. He also gave a brief history of H. GREELEY and his vagaries, and closed with a glowing tribute to Gen. GRANT, both as a soldier and statesman. He was followed by the Rev. E. BURROUGHS and S. S. BUTTS, who gave strong and truthful reasons why the party should support GRANT and WILSON.

Allow us to say that J. P. LEE took an active part in the meeting by the firing of cannon and securing the services of the Camptown Brass Band, which marched to the grove and discoursed some appropriate music.

The grove was lighted by pine knots, and the meeting was largely attended. In fact it put one in mind of an evening camp-meeting.

JAMES FEE, }
P. STATES, } Sec'ys.

Camptown, August 12, 1872.

SUICIDE.—On Friday night last, a lady visited Crandall's Hotel from the 10:10 train. She registered by the name of NELLIE WEED, and was apparently about 35 years of age. Saturday she partook of her meals and came down to tea dressed in white. Sunday morning, not getting up to breakfast, her room door was broken in and she was found lying upon her bed dead. The coroner was notified, and the body was removed to the Court House for examination and inquest. When found she was neatly dressed, her hair trimmed with flowers, and to all appearances had died without a struggle. It was ascertained upon inquiry that she was under an alias, and that her real name was Mrs. CHARLES TABER, wife of a blacksmith residing in the Fourth Ward, and as is reported, either a daughter or an adopted daughter of a family named AMSBRY, who reside in the town of Chenango, up the Chenango river. Report also says that she lived unhappily, owing to domestic infelicity.—Binghamton Democrat.

GRANT AND WILSON CLUB MEETING.—The meeting of the GRANT and WILSON Club on Friday evening last, was well attended. Mr. JOHN M'CORD was present and made a short address. Mr. M'C. is better posted in the political history of the State than any other man in this county. He has been a Republican since the organization of the party, purely from principle, never having solicited any office. He believes the defeat of the Republican party at this time would be a great calamity. At the conclusion of his remarks, it was proposed to have an impromptu parade, and about one hundred members, clad in uniforms, joined the procession and marched through several streets under the command of CHARLES W. PAGE. During the evening a salute over the victory in North Carolina was fired. The people turned out in large numbers to witness the sight, thus evidencing that their interest in the cause of freedom and the party of progress, is unabated. At the conclusion of the marching, Judge MERCUR was discovered coming from the Court House, and was loudly called for. The Judge made a few appropriate remarks, thanking the Club for the honor conferred him, and predicting the success of Republican principles.

The members then repaired to their room, where they were addressed by W. T. DAVIES and Col. E. OVERTON. The remarks of both speakers were enthusiastically applauded. At a late hour the meeting adjourned in the best of spirits.

☞ In pursuance to a call signed by some eighty voters, the Republicans of Monroeton, assembled at the rooms of A. J. FISHER, and proceeded to organize a GRANT and WILSON Club, with the following officers:

President—H. W. ROCKWELL.
Vice Presidents—J. F. SATTERLEE and G. L. BULL.
Secretary—J. B. M. HINMAN.
Treasurer—C. M. MYER.
Executive Committee—M. M. COOLBAUGH, A. J. FISHER and D. J. SWEET.

Regular meetings of the Club every Saturday evening.

After the business of organizing was completed, Mr. GEO. DUDLEY of Trenton, N. J., was called upon and responded in a short and stirring address. Mr. D. was for four years a soldier in the Union army, and does not wish to see a foe vanquished by the bullet regain power by the ballot. He is personally acquainted with Gen. HARTRANFT, and speaks of him in the highest terms as a man and a soldier.

The secession of HORACE GREELEY has not affected the Republican party here, unless it has been to strengthen it. And I firmly believe that the coming elections will show that we have not been idle. The Greeleyites, since the late news from North Carolina, are rather desponding, and we hear no more boasting and hurrahs along the street.

Let the good work go on, and in October the old Keystone State will roll up such a majority for the whole ticket as will make H. G. and the whole Democratic party tremble.

O. H. ROCKWELL,
Sec'y pro tem.

Monroeton, August 8, 1872.

HENRY WARD'S PARDON.—Prominent Democrats of this place having more than intimated that Gov. GEARY received a large sum for the pardon of HENRY WARD, we copy the pardon from the Harrisburg Telegraph, to show who are entitled to credit for procuring his release:

Pennsylvania, S. S.: John W. Geary. [Seal.] In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, John W. Geary Governor of the said Commonwealth: To all to whom these presents shall come—Sends greeting:

Whereas, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer in and for the county of Wyoming held at Tunkhannock in said county, on the 19th day of November, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, a certain Henry Ward was convicted upon a certain indictment charging him with manslaughter, and was by the said Court on the second day of February, 1872, thereupon sentenced that he should pay a fine of three hundred dollars to the Commonwealth, the costs of prosecution, and undergo imprisonment for nine calendar months in Wyoming county prison.

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me by numerous communications, petitions and representations, that the unfortunate occurrence which led to the conviction of the said Henry Ward for said crime, was at a time when both he and deceased were intoxicated; that the relations between prisoner and deceased were always friendly; that the shooting was purely accidental and without any malice, as stated by Shader to his physician, Dr. Sayre, and it appearing from affidavits of J. T. Rothrock, M. D., Edward R. Mayer, M. D., and John V. Smith, M. D., that the prisoner is suffering from severe nervous prostration and partial paralysis, and his mental condition is such from his excitable nervous organization, that unless released, he will be a mental and physical wreck, paralyzed and insane for life; and for these reasons the pardon of Ward having been strongly urged as an act of public justice as well as a proper exercise of executive clemency, by letters and petitions from Hon. L. D. Shoemaker, Gen. Wm. Lilly, V. E. Piollet, Overton & Ellsbree, John C. Bullit, Esq., Hon. George W. Woodward, Hon. A. Lathrop, Hon. Asa Packer, Hon. W. W. Ketcham, Hon. Garrick M. Harding, Gen. Edwin S. Osborne, Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, Stanley Woodward, Esq., Henry M. Hoyt, Esq., E. P. Darling, Esq., and also by the county officers and by members of the bar of Wyoming county, and other prominent citizens of said county, and Hon. Charles R. Buckalew having made a personal appeal for the pardon of the said Henry Ward.

Now know, therefore, that in consideration of the premises, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, I have pardoned the said Henry Ward of the crime whereof he is convict as aforesaid, and he is hereby thereof fully pardoned accordingly.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fifteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-seventh.

A. C. REINOEHL,
Deputy Sec'y of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor.

The names of Overton & Ellsbree were by error inserted in the pardon as among the petitioners.
