Bradford Reporter.

Towanda, Thursday, September 26, 1872.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ Next Saturday is the last day for registering voters.

☞ The jail is nearly ready for the roof. Judges pronounce it a first-class job.

☞ Fruit was never more abundant in this section than the present season.

☞ Every Republican who desires to vote should see to it at once that his name is on the registry.

☞ Mrs. Julia Hopkins Ballard has filed a caveat to the will of her husband's father, the late O. P. Ballard, of Troy.

☞ During the thunder shower on Monday morning last, lightning struck and killed two cows owned by Wm. F. Cobbin, of Warren township.

☞ Mr. Young, having become satisfied that for him to remain in the field as an independent candidate, would injure the Republican cause, has wisely withdrawn.

☞ Brick Row will be enclosed before cold weather, and the stores will be ready for occupancy in the Spring. When completed it will be the handsomest block of the kind in this section.

☞ Messrs. Baum & Tallmadge have rented the store lately occupied by S. N. Aspinwall, and filled it with a good stock of hardware. The new firm came from Bath, N. Y., and we trust their stay among us may not only be permanent, but pleasant and with profit.

☞ Day and evening sesssions of the County Teachers' Institute are being held at the Court House this week. Rev. O. L. Ginsbury delivered an address before the Institute on Wednesday evening, and Prof. F. A. Allen, of Mansfield, will make a popular address on Thursday evening.

☞ D. W. Smith and C. L. Lamb expect to leave this place early next month for Puget Sound, where they intend to locate for the practice of law. They are both intelligent young men, and will undoubtedly make their mark in the West. We commend them to the confidence and regard of all with whom they may meet.

Business Changes.—Mr. Ridgway has purchased the interest of his partner, Mr. Everitt, in the grocery business.

L. L. Moody has sold his stock of boots and shoes to Corbin & Cross.

W. S. Vincent succeeds T. B. Cole in the late firm of Cooper & Nortle.

Prof. Vincent, of the Mansfield Normal School, is attending the Teachers' Institute.

☞ In reporting the proceedings of Court, we inadvertently omitted to notice the fact that our young friend, Charles L. Lamb, was admitted to the bar. Mr. L. has been a diligent student in the office of Mercur & Davies for the past two years, and passed an excellent examination before the board appointed to examine candidates. We predict for him a brilliant future.

☞ Ed. Reporter—Sir: Since announcing myself a candidate for Sheriff, another candidate has been put in the field; and I believe by remaining a candidate would be an injury to the Republican party, which I did not intend when I became a candidate. I therefore gratefully withdraw my name, thanking the gods who so cordially offered me their aid.

W. J. Pecjo.

Towanda, Sept. 20, 1872.

☞ A Grant & Wilson Club was organized Sept. 11, at Orwell, with the following officers:

President—E. M. Farrar.

Vice-Presidents—C. J. Chittenden and Sabin Lake.

Secretaries—S. N. Brobson and J. L. Pendleton.

Treasurer—H. L. Cass.

The Club now numbers 161 members, and is daily increasing.

Sept. 21, 1872.

Alleged Libel upon a Minister.—A painful case has been on trial at Williamsport before the court of quarter sessions of Lycoming county. Messrs. Augustus Pringle, Ira C. Brown and Geo. Hursel, were charged with publishing a letter which they stated had been written by a disreputable woman by the Rev. Wm. A. Kline, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of that city. This was denied by Mr. Kline, and the three persons above named were held by the grand jury and put on trial for the offense. The case was concluded on Tuesday, when they returned a verdict of not guilty.

☞ Two more of Towanda's fair maidens have had a social habitation and a name in the Star Mite Annual Pen-Picture, published in the evening Mr. S. Lockwood in Lock's Nine, enterprise a solemn tribute of labor and support, during his sojourn in Mile Harbor, A. Kline. While many copies have the beauty centered in the of their numerous friends, we think the copies will be passed from the hands of those who have spent so much time, with no small expense, and a central sense of labor and will make lively stirrings.

Orwell in Motion.—A rousing Republican meeting was held in Orwell, on Thursday evening last. The large Town Hall was crowded. The meeting was presided over by E. M. Farrar, Secretary of the Grant and Wilson Club, Hon. Geo. Griffis, Hon. Geo. Scott and stirring speeches were made by W. P. Drew, W. T. Foster and J. Holcomb. The people were in attendance for over three hours, and it was 12 o'clock when the meeting with three cheers for Grant, Wilson and the ticket. The Greeley hard discovered apparently fully aroused, and will roll up a majority.

☞ Dr. Tiffany read an essay before the County Medical Society, in Athens, in opening it, the Advertiser chronicles the following compliments: Eloquent and entertaining on the Brain and Nervous System, by Dr. Tiffany of Towanda. From a mere tower orders of creation, he rose to the contemplation of the groundwork of the delicate organism within the cranium and the effect of the winds of intellectual and imagination! The essay was long, but very short. On every page depth and beauty of language, added to the charm of poetry. A vote of thanks, and expressions of pleasure, was received for the choice of the reading.

Incorporating.—D. D. G. M. D. P. has instituted duly instituted Winte Lily Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Wyalusing on Tuesday last. The following officers were elected and installed:

N. G., Stoner.
V. G., G. K. Thompson.
Secretary, T. Stalford.
Treasurer, H. B. Gaylord.
Trustees, Edwin Vaughan, A. B. Porter, W. F. H. Stalford, H. J. Hallock.
Rep. to G. L., A. B. Colver.
Alternate, J. H. Swart.
Rep. to S. G. L., Geo. Rodelle.
Conductor, C. Vandsall.
Inside Guard, S. W. Vaughan.
Outside Guard, S. C. Gaylord.
Right Supporter, N. J. Gaylord.
Left Supporter, B. Hoe.

☞ Hitherto the Lodge has met with varied success, members from Towanda, Shesbequin, Meshoppen, Camptown, and other places, to the number of 150, were present. Rep.

Personal.—James A. Mears has been appointed dispatcher and freight agent for the S. C. Railroad, and has removed from L. & B. Junction to Athens.

—Gen. Jona Davis, of Davisville, Bucks Co., and father-in-law of Hon. U. Mercur, completed his eighty-fourth birthday on the 7th inst. He is still a hale and hearty man.

—Judge John A. Macdonald, wife and child, of North Carolina, are in town on a visit to Mrs. McD.'s father.

—Dr. Strawbridge, our candidate for Congress, arrived in town on Monday evening. He will remain in the county for several days.

☞ Gen. H. J. Madill made an eloquent and able speech in favor of Gen. Hartranft, before the Grant and Wilson Club of this borough, on Friday evening last. While the General did not take back one word he had uttered in favor of Mr. Greeley, he said it made his blood boil to hear his old commander, Gen. Grant, traduced and vilified by Democratic papers and orators, and declared it to be his honest conviction that the Government had been honestly and wisely administered by him, and should he be re-elected the country would continue to prosper. He did not believe in turning over the reins of government to those who were disloyal in the North, or to the rebels of the South. The General is an earnest, effective speaker, and we hope he will let his voice be heard at other points in favor of our gallant and honest candidate for Governor.

J. O. Ward and Adam Price also made speeches.

☞ Ed. Reporter: In pursuance of notice inviting the members of the I. O. of O. F., in Rome and vicinity, to meet at the Union Hotel in Rome Boro., on Friday, Sept. 20, preliminary to organizing a Lodge, some twenty members of the Order put in an appearance, and after an interchange of friendly greeting, organized by electing W. H. Shaw, Esq., (formerly of Towanda) President of the meeting, who on taking the chair made a few practical remarks as indicative of the object of the meeting. Whereupon such further action was had as would (in the judgment of those present) result in the institution of a flourishing Lodge of the order in this place. The meeting adjourned to meet again at the same place on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1, to take such further action as may be deemed necessary to further the object in view; on which occasion we hope to see a larger representation of the brethren assembled together.

Alex. Keefe, Sec'y.

Rome, Sept. 20, 1872.

Teachers' Association at Orwell.—The Bradford County Teachers' Association met at Orwell Hill, September 13, 1872. President O. P. Young in the chair.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Silas Barner. Music. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The Business Committee then presented to the Association a programme of its exercises in full, which was adopted; subject only to such changes as circumstances might require.

The following questions were adopted for discussion:

Resolved, That mere secular education is no safeguard to free institutions and free government.

Resolved, That the chief effort in teaching should be to discipline the judgment, rather than to furnish the memory.

Resolved, That grammar cannot be successfully taught without drill both in oral and written composition.

Resolved, That it is not within the province or authority of school boards to control the teacher as to manner or method of instruction in the several branches taught.

First resolution before the Association. Adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opened with music. Miss Kate Iveson and Miss A. C. Pendleton appointed as Committee on Membership. Discussion of first resolution resumed. An amendment to it reading thus, was passed:

Resolved, That secular education is one, but not the sole safeguard to free government and institutions.

Music. Declamation by L. E. Chubbuck; subject, "Intellectual Power."

Third resolution discussed by Rev. Cochran, Profs. A. A. Keeney, I. McPherson, P. L. Chappel, E. H. Pitcher, O. J. Chubbuck, and Mr. Hutchinson. Carried.

EVENING SESSION.

Music by choir. Declamation by Geo. Gorham; subject, "The Teachers' Mission." Dr. Colt then spoke upon the "Relation of Common Schools to Christianity." Dr. Allen, being introduced, made a few remarks upon "Physical Culture." We tried to hear what our tired friends were saying, but could not. We presume, however, that the remarks of both were interesting. There was an unusually full attendance, and a large portion of the audience was obliged to remain standing, which probably explained why there was so much confusion.

After music, adjourned.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Music by choir. Devotional exercises conducted by Prof. Ryan. Miscellaneous business in order. The Association voted to hold its next session at Burlington Boro. The appointments for that occasion are as follows:

Lecturer, Rev. J. V. Elwell; Alternate, Dr. R. H. Ely. Declamers, Wright Gustin and John McCilly. Essayists, Miss Mary Rice and Miss Anna Ross. Business Committee, W. H. De Groot, Sherman Hill, Alpheus Rose, Miss Celia Long and Miss Hattie Phelps.

Fourth resolution discussed. Profs. Ryan and Quinlan, Messrs. Pitcher, Chrisspell, Chubbuck, McPherson, Corbin, Hutchinson and Chaffee taking part. Laid on the table.

Mr. McPherson offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That as a general rule it is not expedient for directors to interfere with the methods of instruction pursued by teachers.

Miss Chloe Dimmick then read an essay, which was filled with beautiful thoughts and choice expressions. The essay was solicited for publication.

The "pioneers of education" were called upon, and a few of them responded in a very pleasing manner.

Prof. Quinlan spoke for a few moments upon the "Necessity of Professional Teachers." Mr. Ryan, after some brief remarks on the "Educational Demands of the Times," read the following, which was too late for consideration:

Resolved, That a knowledge of the elements of the natural sciences should be possessed by the teachers in our common schools.

Second resolution passed without discussion.

Report of Committee on Membership.

The following was received as a substitute to the usual resolution:

"We believe its always thought, the proper thing to do,
To frame a resolution just before the meeting's through,
And thank the good, kind people for the bustle and the fuss,
They've endured with martyr spirits for entertaining us.
But we've resolved the resolution till we know it word by word,
So, for sake of variation, let's be a bit absurd.
Here's our thanks for hearty welcome, for a night's unbounded rest,
For the "goodies" from the pantry, for the joking an I the jest,
For the blissful strains of music, poured forth in anthems grand,
For the pleasant, spacious hall, kindly placed at our command.
We've enjoyed ourselves immensely, living so very high,
And the thought of going down brings the tears into our eye.
We'll remember you with pleasure, for in nought you've given us pain,
And if you ever want to see us, why, invite us here again!"

After singing the Doxology, Rev. S. Barner pronounced the benediction, and the Association adjourned to meet at Burlington, on the second Friday in November.

L. M. Ridgway, Sec'y.

Hall's Hair Renewer.—The following is an extract from a letter from Mrs. J. C. Aldrich, Wanscon, Fulton Co., O.: "R. P. Hall & Co., Gentlemen—Please send me one dozen bottles of your Sicilian Hair Renewer. Our bald and gray do not want to be out. My mother is a living recommendation of the results from the use of the Renewer. Being almost seventy years old, and having worn a wig over thirty years, it seems a miracle to those who have known her so long so bald, and what little hair she had being perfectly white; now her wig thrown aside, her hair grown out, and a smooth, glossy brown, as in girlhood. Hoping you may long continue to pour blessings on the heads of the afflicted, I remain, yours truly."

Such evidence, with the endorsement of the great chemists of New England, Dr. A. A. Hayes and S. Dana Hayes, should satisfy anyone, which of the preparations produce the best results.

DIED.

SHATTUCK.—In Burlington, Pa., Sept. 12, 1872, of general debility, Mr. George W. Shattuck, aged 63 years.

KEENEY.—Emma Alice, twin daughter of Luther L. and Arletta Keeney, went to the "Beyond" before the morning dawned, Sept. 17, 1872, from their home in Tuscarora, Bradford county, Pa., after a sojourn here of 18 years and 8 days.

Emma was a considerate, dutiful, affectionate girl, with a keen appreciation of right, and an abhorrence of the wrong.

Her "earthly home" was frail, but her mind was strong and active, grappling with and mastering questions which were too intricate for others of her class.

She was fond of music, and in this delightful art she was no ordinary performer, nor did she labor to secure the praise so often sought. She was more delighted to sing in the Sabbath-school and in church, than in the festive walks of life. While strength was given she sang the songs of Zion in God's house.

Her last sickness was long and painful, but not a murmur fell from her lips. And when the end was nigh, before her friends had noticed the "death damp," she called them to her side and entreated them to love her Jesus here, and meet her in Heaven.

She had many ties to bind her here—a host of young friends and old; brothers, whose greatest delight was to add to her comfort and joy; sisters such as few can boast—one indeed was part of herself, nor could we tell which part she was—and fond parents; yet none of these things moved her. With joy upon her countenance, she bid these all adieu, and went with the angels to sing in Heaven. P. R. T.
