Bradford Reporter.

Towanda, Thursday, January 30, 1873.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ The net profits of Naiad No. 2's Sociable, were $150. Good.

☞ W. B. Dodge, Esq., has sold his match bay team to Adams' Express Co.

☞ The Episcopal Mite Society will meet on Monday evening next, at the residence of Mrs. Burton Kingsbury.

☞ Persons attending Court next week, can get good meals on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, in Mercur's Hall, at reasonable prices.

☞ Jacob Eyerly was Prothonotary of Columbia county for forty years, with an interruption of only nine months. This is without a parallel in the State.

☞ Humphrey Bros. & Tracy's sales last year amounted to over $180,000. Pretty good for the first year. Charley is said to be the "boss" salesman.

☞ We are under obligations to Hon. G. A. Grow, President of the "International, Houston and Great Northern Railroad Co.," for a pass for the year 1873.

☞ The pews in the Presbyterian Church, rent for nearly three thousand dollars this year. Mr. Stewart's discourses will be worth double that amount to the congregation.

☞ A large number of the friends of Mrs. Patton, paid her a surprise visit on Thursday evening last. We are informed that the evening was spent in a pleasant and enjoyable manner.

☞ We are pleased to learn that Jay Chaapel, Esq., of this place, has received a situation with the Washington Insurance Co., of Philadelphia. Mr. C. has few equals with the pen, and is entirely competent to fill almost any position.

☞ The Mansfield Advertiser is the title of a very neat and spicy little sheet, just issued by O. D. Goodenough, late of this place. Mr. G. has peculiar talent for conducting such a paper, and we trust may receive a generous support from the citizens of Tioga county.

The Best.—We believe the Nursery the best magazine for children published in the United States. The low price at which it is offered, $1.50 per year, places it within the reach of every family. It is published by John L. Shorey, 36 Banfield street, Boston, Mass.

☞ Business on the Barclay Railroad will be obstructed for several days in consequence of a "break-down" at the plane. Supt. Judd is pushing the repairs and will have coal trains running at the earliest moment. The passenger trains will continue to run as usual.

☞ H. A. Brooks, late of the late Athens Chief, has formed a copartnership with R. M. Watts, for the purpose of conducting a Job Printing establishment in Elmira. Mr. Watts is an experienced job printer, and will undoubtedly secure a fair share of patronage.

☞ Esquire Nichols, of Spencer, N. Y., who was in attendance at Court in this [illegible] most of the time during the railroad [illegible] recently received from a friend in New [illegible], a crocodile. The Northern climate was too vigorous for the Southern "bird," and [illegible] arrived in Spencer was dead.

☞ The members of Naiad Fire [illegible]pany return their sincere thanks to those ladies who kindly assisted in arranging and decorating the Hall so tastily for their sociable, and to Mrs. S. W. Alvord, in particular, for her present of several attractive chromos and magnificent boquets, with which to grace the occasion.

☞ The ladies of the Episcopal Church, will give a Festival at Mercur's Hall, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week. Meals will be provided from 5 to 10 o'clock in the evening. A number of useful and fancy articles will also be offered for sale. We [illegible] people attending Court and our citizens generally, will patronize them generously, as the object for which the money is to be appropriated is a commendable one.

☞ In publishing the returns of [illegible] borough election last week, we inadvertently omitted the name of James McCabe, who was chosen councilman from the Second Ward. Mr. McCabe's popularity, and the fact that he was elected without opposition, made the omission more noticeable. We now congratulate our citizens on securing the services of a man so well qualified to assist in directing the affairs of the borough.

☞ Ed. Reporter: Agreeable to [illegible] your paper of last week, Rev. Wm. [illegible], the sailor preacher, preached at the "[illegible] School House," and had a full congregation—more than the house could seat. After listening to one of the old gentleman's best discourses, the congregation retired, leaving him alone, to pass that bitter winter's night as best [illegible] could in the school house!

[illegible]lington, January 20, 1873.

Railroad Accident.—A serious accident occurred to the freight train on the Pa. & N. Y. Railroad, at Robert's Siding, between [illegible] and Ransom, at an early hour on Friday morning, 18th inst. A misplaced switch [illegible] the train from the track, and several [illegible] together with the engine, went over the embankment into the abandoned canal. Of [illegible] the engine and cars were badly damaged, and several head of cattle were killed. The [illegible] passenger train was delayed in consequence. John M. Rham was detailed to clear [illegible] wreck and put things in shape.

Sudden Death.—Mr. H. D. Conk[illegible] township, attended a donation [illegible] the house of L. D. Prince, on Wednesday [illegible], January 23, in his usual good [illegible] He left about 3 o'clock on Thursday [illegible] for home, and when within a few rods [illegible] slipped and fell. His wife, [illegible] groans, came to his assistance, and [illegible] great difficulty, in getting him [illegible]. His fall had injured him se[illegible] lingered in great pain until Fri[illegible]. He was fifty-three years of [illegible] known in the eastern part of the [illegible]

☞ We cordially endorse every [illegible] following item, which we clip from [illegible] Democrat:

"Jno. D. Bertolette, our esteemed fellow [illegible] has accepted the position of Adju[illegible] tendered him by Gov. Hartranft. [illegible] young man of excellent abilities, [illegible] and one whose military record [illegible] upon him. No one better quali[illegible] could be found in the length [illegible] of this Commonwealth. He has [illegible], and we trust that all the [illegible]ments of the Governor may be as judi[illegible] acceptable as this one. The Colonel [illegible] upon his duties next month."

☞ The freight depot of the Pa. [illegible] R. R. Co., in this place, was destroyed [illegible] Monday evening. The fire was dis[illegible] about 8 o'clock, but the flames had [illegible] progress that it was impossible to [illegible] building. The fire department was [illegible] owing to the difficulty of obtaining [illegible] the "Naiads" got a stream on the [illegible] The fact that the adjoining buildings [illegible] with several inches of snow, pre[illegible] the fire from spreading. About 20 bar[illegible] owned by the Fall Creek Coal Co. [illegible] slightly. Supt. Maloney gave [illegible] to needy families, after the fire. The E[illegible] Hose Company had a [illegible] sewing machines burned. We have [illegible] the amount of damage. The de[illegible] being rebuilt.

Personal.—The Owego Times says that Miss Emma Wilson, of Towanda, is visiting at Mr. C. T. Smith's, Ahwaga House.

—Col. E. Overton and wife are spending a week in Philadelphia.

—R. A. Elmer and wife, and Hugh J. Baldwin and wife, of Waverly, started last week on a trip to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

—Mrs. Judge Mercur has gone to Philadelphia, to spend a few weeks with her husband.

—F. C. Bunnell, Esq., is the youngest member of Congress, and about the best looking.

Cry Your Wares.—We do not know where the following remarks originated, but present them to our readers for the truth they contain: "This has come to be recognized as a principle in business, Cry your wares! Competition is so keen, and we live in such busy times, that a man's only chance of success lies in proclaiming the merits of his wares far and wide, up and down the market. He must keep a trumpeter. the public attention must be arrested, and he who best succeeds in this has the best chance of making a fortune." The sum of the whole matter is, advertise your goods constantly and mix your advertisements with brains. Under those circumstances, with fair dealing, your success is insured.

Tuscarora.—Mr Editor: The "Progressive Temperance Reform Society," at East Springhill, has initiated a movement for building a Hall for public use, with apartments and folding partitions. One room, to be used for educational purposes—the rental applied to the establishment and maintenance of a public library and free reading room; the other for a lecture room and place of religious worship; and with but little reservation, free to all religious denominations.

An amount sufficient to secure the grounds and commence the building, is already pledged, and the committee feel assured of ability to go forward in the work to an early completion. As a philanthropic undertaking it should commend itself to public favor.

Jan. 24, 1873.

Warren Town Meeting.—Town Meeting was held in the State of Pennsylvania, on Friday last, the 17th inst. In Warren there was an animated contest for School Directors, and consequently a full vote was cast. The election turned on the payment or non-payment of the teacher who taught school a year ago this winter at Warrenham. One ticket was supported by those favorable to the termination of the dispute by the payment of the teacher. The other ticket contained the names of the old directors, who have refused to pay the teacher, and who were elected by fifty-four majority—the town thus endorsing the action of the old directors. A few months ago the teacher entered suit against the directors for her wages, and the case, which has been tried before a Justice and decided in favor of the teacher, will probably again come up for trial before the next county court, into which it has been carried by appeal.—Owego Times.

The N. P. R. R.—The North Pennsylvania Railroad Company held its annual meeting on the 15th inst., when President Comly read the report of the business of the road for the past year. The receipts from all sources were shown to be $1,336,939, making the total increase over the previous year $157,758, and the net earnings $18,570 short of those of 1870. The expenses for the past year were $732,829, an increase over those of 1871 of $85,107, showing net earnings of $604,106, or, after deducting $316,624 on account of interest, net $259 484, equal to nearly 7½ per cent on the stock. The increase in the permanent account of the company during the year, was for payments on real estate, deposits, second track, etc. The mortgage debt increased $99,000. To provide for the maturing loans of the company, etc., a general mortgage for six millions of dollars has been executed to the "Fidelity," as trustees, under which 7 per cent. bonds to the amount of $1,912,000 will be issued. Several branch roads and links of railway are now worked in the interest of the North Pennsylvania road.

Towanda Benevolent Association.—A large number of benevolent ladies, representing the Protestant Churches of this place, met at the residence of Wm. Watkins, Esq., on Monday afternoon last, and organized a "Benevolent Association." The design of the new organization, we understand, is to furnish systematic aid and relief to the poor and destitute in this community. There are many cases of real suffering in our midst, and it is hoped the "Benevolent Association" may be the means of alleviating much of the misery and destitution existing among the worthy poor, and at the same time put a stop to the great annoyance experienced by our citizens from the daily importunities of those who, too lazy to work, make begging from house to house a vocation.

We cheerfully commend the Association to the support and encouragement of all benevolently disposed people. It is purely non-sectarian, and all persons, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited to join. A membership fee of 50 cents will be charged. Contributions of second-hand clothing or money solicited. The Association will meet, until further notice, every Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Watkins.

The following officers were elected for the present year:

President—Mrs. E. T. Fox.
Vice President—Mrs. G. H. Watkins.
Secretary—Mrs. R. M. Welles.
Treasurer—Mrs. H. C. Howes.
Visiting Committee—Mrs. D. S. Pratt, Mrs. Wm Watkins, Mrs. Geo. Stevens, Mrs. Wm. Dittrich, Mrs. P. D. Morrow, Mrs. J. S. Stuart, Mrs. D. W. Scott and Mrs. F. J. Calkins.

The committee request any person to notify them of the names and localities of families requiring assistance.

DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.—At the present time when so many persons are suffering from Throat and Lung Diseases, they should bear in mind that HASSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR never fails in curing Coughs, Colds, Hearseness, Pain in the Breast, Sore Throat, Asthma, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. It is an excellent remedy for Croup and Hooping Cough. No family should be without it.

Sold by all Drug Stores and Dealers, throughout the United States.

P. S.—See that the signature of RUSSELL & LANDIS, Prop'rs, is on each wrapper.

☞ C. W. CANFIELD, Esq., of Athens, has been appointed agent for STANLEY'S new work, "How I found Livingstone," published by SCRIBNER, WELFORD & Co. This is said to be the only authentic account of the discovery of the great explorer—all other works purporting to give the true history of Mr. STANLEY'S journey to the wilds of Africa, are pronounced unauthentic. Mr. C. also has the agency for the sale of SEWARD'S travels, a book which cannot fail to interest and instruct all who peruse it. We advise all our readers to give these works a careful perusal. Mr. CANFIELD expects to be in this place next week.

NOTICE.—Rev. HALLOCK ARMSTRONG and wife, desire to express their gratitude to the people of Monroeton and vicinity, for the generous expression of their kindness as manifested in the donation, January 16. The severe storm raging during the evening, did not seem to diminish the number in attendance. We know how to appreciate kindness under such circumstances. The annual repetition of such scenes at our home for the past ten years, has wonderfully strengthened our attachment to the kindest of friends and neighbors.
Monroeton, Jan. 20, 1873.

☞ It was thought by many when MIX & McCABE established a grocery house in Mercur's Block, that they would not be able to secure customers enough to maintain it, and that they would eventually move farther down town or close business. But the business increased. At the end of two years Mr. MIX retired, and was succeeded by WM. EDWARDS. Since the organization of the new firm, many new customers have been secured, and business seems to flow in upon them. In addition to their share of local trade, they have many profitable customers all along the Lehigh Valley, and in fact in Philadelphia and New York. The secret of their great success, is that they attend promptly to all orders, and never sell inferior goods—a child receives the same attention as an adult.

Their store is now literally "crammed" with fresh goods, comprising everything in the line of choice family groceries, selected with special reference to the wants of this community. Farmers always find a ready market for all kinds of produce, at the highest market rates.

MARRIED.

BARNES—YOUNG.—In Rome, December 26, 1872, by Rev. Faber Bylsby, Mr. C. L. Barnes and Ella I. Young, daughter of O. F. Young, Esq., all of Rome.

DIED.

PLATT.—In Herrick, Nov. 1, Charles Platt, aged 50 years, 6 months and 7 days.

Mr. PLATT had been ill for about a year and a half, during which time he experienced much suffering. He was a life-long resident of the township of Herrick, and was loved and respected by all who knew him.

"A light is from our household gone—
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our heart,
That never can be filled.

"Weep not for him who's now at rest—
His spirit smiles from that bright shore,
Where care and pain no more annoy,
And softly whispers, 'Weep no more.'"

BULLOCK.—In Warren, January 21, 1873, Mrs. Hannah Bullock, aged 92 years, 3 months and 18 days.

Mrs. BULLOCK was one of the oldest settlers in the township of Warren. She with her husband came from Massachusetts fifty-four years ago. She survived her husband thirty-seven years, and for the last seventeen years resided with her daughter, Mrs. SUSANNAH PITCHER.

Thus closes life's scenes with one more earthly pilgrim, full of years, like a shock of corn fully ripe for the harvest, peacefully falling asleep in Jesus, her only hope. She leaves four daughters to mourn her departure, but not without hope. Her remains were followed to the grave on the 24th inst., by a large number of sympathizing friends and old acquaintances.
W. C. PECK.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring Gray or Faded Hair to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes."

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, has no superior.
