Bradford Reporter

Towanda, Thursday, Oct. 16, 1873.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

WADE, the fiend who murdered the McBRIDES, near Williamsport, will be hung November 6.

MESSRS. COLE, PASSAGE & Co., have opened a branch music store in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. COLE will take charge of it.

THE festival of the missionary bands of the Presbyterian Sunday-school, which came off last Wednesday evening, was a complete success, netting about sixty dollars.

THE new Presiding Elder of the Troy District M. E. Church, visited this place on Monday evening last, and conducted his first quarterly meeting.

THE already fine appearance of the new school house, has been materially improved by placing a large brass eagle over the tower. A good bell has also been placed in the belfrey.

THE third visitation district of the Presbytery of Lackawanna, will meet at the Presbyterian Church in Troy, Bradford county, on Tuesday, Nov. 11, 1873, at 7½ o'clock P. M. About twenty-five churches will be represented.

BIXBY & MAYNARD have started a new paper at Lock-Haven, Pa. It is Republican in politics. Mr. MAYNARD is a Bradford county man, and has had considerable experience in the newspaper business. He will make the Enterprise a live paper.

PROF. SHERWOOD is a composer as well as teacher of music. His last piece, which has just been published by OLIVER DITSON & Co., Boston, is entitled the "Towanda Mazurka," and is highly spoken of by musicians. It is for sale at COLE, PASSAGE & Co's.

A PEEP into the money drawers of the First National Bank of Waverly, the other day, satisfied us that they have currency enough to pay a good many checks. If we had what was in one compartment, we'd throw up the printing business and "go West."

ONE of the ticket agents of N. Y. & E. R. R., at Elmira, was drugged, at his own residence, on Tuesday morning last, and the key's to the ticket office and safe taken from him. The robbers then proceeded to the depot and stole from the safe some $2,000 in money and checks.

ONE of the brightest young ladies in Troy, captured a live Wolfe the other day, and has undertaken the task of taming him. We trust her devotion may be repaid, and that many other Wolves may receive her fostering care, during the many years of blissful life which it is ardently hoped she may enjoy.

THE iron bridge at the depot is finished, and in addition to being an ornament, materially shortens the distance for the omnibuses. The foundation for the new depot has been commenced. The building is to be constructed of brick, and is located several rods south of the present depot.

SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—The building in which the elections in the Third Ward were held, was burned about ten days since. It was then determined to hold the election on Tuesday at the house of F. WATTS, but by a strange coincidence that building was also destroyed by fire on the morning of the election.

WE congratulate the M. E. Congregation in this place, on their good fortune in securing the services of Rev. M. C. DEAN. Mr. D. is not a stranger in this county, having been stationed in Troy and Canton for a number of years. He is a man of great energy energy, catholicity, and fervent piety. The spiritual welfare of the church will find in him a prudent, consistent overseer.

A PIANO has been placed in the public school building. Many of the pupils play, and it will not only prove a source of amusement to the school, but real benefit to many. The instrument now in use has been hired by Prof. RYAN, but we hope steps will be immediately taken to purchase a suitable piano for the use of the building. A penny contribution from each scholar would soon raise a fund sufficient for the purpose.

THE Waverly Advocate says Towanda has just built a good jail, and intimates that we need a school-house. If brother KINNEY will show his elongated form here, we will convince him that we have the finest school building in Northern Pennsylvania, and the best conducted public school, with three hundred and fifty as bright intelligent looking youngsters as were ever congregated in any building.

THE Bradford Reporter states as a noteworthy fact that Mr. HOSFORD, in Towanda, raised in his garden a cluster of five tomatoes on one branch, weighing five and three-quarters pounds. It should also note the fact publish that as several weeks ago that D. F. VANFLEET, of Forksville, in this county, raised a cluster of seven tomatoes on one branch, weighing nine pounds. Forksville leaves Towanda far in the rear.—Laporte Free Press.

D. D. G. M. BLACKMAN visited Rome Lodge No. 259, I. O. of O. F., on Tuesday evening, 7th inst., and installed the following officers:—

N. G.—S. N. BARNES.
V. G.—M. D. CARRY.
A. S.—E. C. TOWNER.

W. H. SHAW is Secretary, and Hon. JOHN LAMMORE Treasurer of the Lodge, which is one of the most flourishing in the county.

THE inaccurate census of this place creates a false impression as to the size and importance of Towanda. People at a distance who are looking about for a business location in a thriving town, consult the census and finding that we are put down at less than three thousand, turn their attention in another direction. Now, there is no doubt a correct enumeration of our inhabitants would show a population of over four thousand, and it is clearly the duty of our borough authorities to have the people numbered at once.

THE free-letter delivery system has been adopted in Elmira. Mayor CALDWELL addressed Postmaster FAIRMAN the following congratulatory letter on the successful working of the system:

ELMIRA, N. Y., Oct. 13, 1873.

Charles G. Fairman, Postmaster:

DEAR SIR: Allow me to congratulate you upon the successful working of the "Free Delivery" system in this city, and to thank you on behalf of our citizens for your earnest efforts in obtaining, and your systematic plans in organizing the same.

Respectfully yours,
LUTHER CALDWELL, Mayor.

NORTHERN Lodge Good Templars will meet, until further notice, every Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, pay up their dues, and get the new password. In future, members of other lodges, without pass, will be required to bring certificate of standing from their own lodge. Gentlemen who wish to escort ladies home, are requested to join the lodge, as it is not lawful for outsiders to be in the ante-room. Good Templars—members of other lodges—who may happen to be visiting in Towanda, are invited to meet with us, and, if possible, be prepared with a short speech, a song, or a piece of music.

The membership of our lodge is absurdly small, compared with our population. Can we not have some families? some married people? more young men, and at least one minister of the Gospel? There are plenty of good, active men who are rapidly sinking under the weight of their daily flood of drink, who could stop if they would. Why will they not try? Come, friends! do something. Join us, if you are sober, and get up a little zeal once in your life, and persuade some one who loves his cup too well to come with you and join. Co-operation will gladden our hearts. W. C. T.

A MARRIED friend of ours came home from a ride the other night, and his wife found a curl of blonde hair attached to a button on his cap. He was awfully puzzled as to how it got there—but she was not. He says he shall have his hostler go over him with a brush and currycomb before he returns home again after exercising his horse.

OUR dry goods merchants have all received their fall and winter goods, which were purchased during the late depression in prices. Now is the time to buy, as all kinds of goods will without doubt advance as money matters in commercial and manufacturing centres become more easy. As our merchants were just ready to purchase when the crisis came, they were able to reap the advantage of a heavy decline in merchandise, and purchased goods at figures far below what they can replace them. Read the advertisements, and then come to town and make your purchases. It never pays to deal with men who don't advertise.

IN LOOKING over our country exchanges for the past month, we have been much interested in the reports of agricultural societies and fairs. Why cannot we have an agricultural society? Several years ago one was organized, and was successfully conducted for a number of years, and the good effects of it are still manifest in our improved breeds of cattle and horses, and the interest manifested by farmers in raising the best varieties of grain and other farm products. The improvements in these respects, however, would be much more marked, and the interest stimulated, by annual gatherings for the exhibition of farm products. Who will take the initiatory steps toward re-organizing the Bradford County Agricultural Society?

A NUMBER of parents and others interested in the public school, were present at the Friday afternoon exercises, last week. The school has been in operation only two weeks, but the good order and discipline which was maintained throughout the afternoon, satisfied all present that Prof. RYAN and his assistants are masters of the situation. The scholars who took part in the performances acquitted themselves well, and would have done credit to any school in the country. While the teachers are no pains to make the school a success, parents should not forget that very much will depend upon them. An occasional visit will do much to encourage your children and aid the teachers.

FIRE.—About 4 o'clock on Monday morning last, fire was discovered in the old building on Canal street, in the rear of the Episcopal Church, known as the WARNER house. All the fire companies were promptly on the ground and prevented the spread of the flames, but could not save the building. The house was occupied by Mrs. AVERY and daughter, and a colored family named LEE, both of whom lost a portion of their furniture. It is also stated that Miss AVERY lost four hundred dollars in money. The building was insured for $500, which was the full value. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as it originated in a room where there had not been fire in several weeks.

Is it not about time for the borough authorities to take some steps to find out the party or parties who are causing the conflagrations that are almost weekly destroying so much property in our midst?

WHILE in Waverly the other day, we were shown through the new hotel, which is nearly completed, and when finished will be the best arranged and most convenient hostlery in this section. It contains seventy-five sleeping rooms, with closets and bath-rooms on every floor; large and elegant parlors, a spacious dining room, and cosy breakfast room, beside a large hall and office. There are also two good stores in the block.

Just across the street Mr. SCUDDER has erected a beautiful and substantial brick building for his printing office. Having been arranged with special reference to his business, it is a model, which we advise any of our brethren of the quill, who have a sufficient amount of the "needful," to imitate in building. As brother SCUDDER was out at the time of our call, we "quietly stole away" with a copy of a large book, several copies of which we found lying around loose. If you need any evidence of the truth of this assertion, FRANK, call on friend ELMER.

Rev. O. L. GIBSON goes to Cazenovia, N. Y.

PERSONAL.—The new pastor of the M. E. Church, entered upon the discharge of his duties on Sunday morning last, and preached an excellent and appropriate sermon.

—Rev. J. S. Stewart, of this place, and Rev. —DAVIS, of Waverly, exchanged pulpits on Sunday last.

—THOS. RYAN, Esq., formerly of this place, has been appointed Deputy U. S. District Attorney for the District of Kansas. Mr. R. is one of the leading attorneys of Topeka.

—J. B. SUMNER, of this county, is giving musical concerts in Tioga county, N. Y., in company with several other musical gentlemen. Mr. S., in addition to being a good musician, is a polished gentleman.

—Mrs. WM. WATKINS has returned from Kansas.

—HENRY WATKINS has given up the practice of law, and embarked in the printing business, at Independence, Kan.

—S. F. LATHROP, formerly of this county, has established a correspondence bureau in Washington. Mr. L. is a good writer, and possesses facilities for picking up interesting news, which will render his letters valuable to country papers.

—W. T. DAVIES, G. B. DAVISON, and JOHN W. MIX, will attend the U. S. Court at Pittsburg, next week, as jurors.

—Mr. and Mrs. GRIDLEY, of Wassaic, N. Y., have gone to Europe, and will remain abroad several years. Mrs. G. is a daughter of J. M. REED, Esq., of Myersburg, and has many friends in this county.

—Mrs. CHESTER, formerly Miss FANNIE HULETT, was visiting friends here last week.

AN INTERESTING EVENT.—Friday last October 10, being the eighty-fifth birthday of Deacon JAMES ELLIOTT, of this place, a number of his friends prepared a surprise for him. In the afternoon one of their neighbors induced Mr. and Mrs. ELLIOTT to take a walk. During their absence a party took possession of their house on Second street, and prepared a substantial dinner. On the return of the aged but sprightly couple, they were completely surprised to find their dwelling turned into a "banqueting hall," and furnished with a goodly number of guests. After doing ample justice to the sumptuous repast, Capt. MANVILLE, on behalf of the assembled company, made a short historical address, and concluded by congratulating the Deacon and his wife on their happy and vigorous condition. After an hour or two spent in social intercourse and singing, the happy meeting was terminated with prayer by Mr. WICKHAM. In dispersing the company expressed the hope that Mr. and Mrs. ELLIOTT might live to witness many more such events. From present appearances, these expectations are likely to be fulfilled, as they are as hale and hearty as the majority of people at sixty.

In the evening, Deacon ELLIOTT delivered an interesting address on "Longevity," in the Baptist church, which was listened to with marked attention throughout. His views upon the subject are worthy of attention, as his own well preserved life at the age of eighty-five years, is the strongest argument in favor of his theory and practice.

ANOTHER FIRE!—Are we to be cursed with another series of conflagrations? It certainly begins to look like it, as we are now called upon to chronicle the third fire within two weeks. Between four and five o'clock on Tuesday morning, the dread alarm of fire was again sounded in the upper end of town, and it was soon ascertained that the large residence of FRANK WATTS, in the Third Ward, was in flames. As there is no convenience for getting water in that portion of the town, all efforts to save the building were futile, and it was nearly consumed before the engines got a stream on the fire. Fortunately, however, there was little air stirring, or the adjoining buildings would have been destroyed also. The origin of the fire was, without doubt, the work of an incendiary, as it was discovered in the woodshed where there was no stove, and none of the family had been in the room since bed-time the previous evening. Mr. WATTS' loss on building and furniture must reach four or five thousand dollars, upon which there was an insurance of only $3,700. In connection with other misfortunes which have befallen him during the past few years, the loss is a heavy blow, and Mr. W. receives the sincere sympathy of all our citizens.

No time should be wasted on the part of the borough authorities in ferreting out the cause of these fires, which are becoming alarmingly frequent.

OUR enterprising manufacturers, HUMPHREY BROTHERS & TRACY, have adopted exactly the correct policy in regard to their business during the present stringency in the money market. After paying their workmen on Saturday evening last, they gave notice that they would continue to give employment to all who desired to remain, but would be compelled to withhold half the wages until such time as currency becomes more plenty. As the men earn from fifteen to twenty-five dollars each per week, the amount they will receive every Saturday night will be sufficient to support themselves and families with, and when the money market gets easier they will find themselves possessed of quite a surplus. To the credit of the men, we are pleased to add that they cheerfully acquiesced in the arrangement, and determined to continue work as usual. Such mutual regard for the interests of each other as this action of employers and employes displays, gives a hopeful sign and augurs well for the future of the establishment. Just and honorable treatment of men by capitalists, generally begets an honest interest on the part of employes, and results, as in this case, in advancing the prosperity of both. Let the example set by HUMPHREY BROTHERS & TRACY and their men, be imitated by others, and the crisis will leave no unpleasant recollections.

AT a meeting of Lodge No. 370, K. O. S. C., of Towanda, Pa., the following resolutions of respect to the memory of a deceased brother, ABRAM SWEET, were passed:

WHEREAS: It has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, to deprive our late brother, Abram Sweet, of his reason, by which he came to his death (by his own hands), therefore,

Resolved, That while we bow with humble submission to His Divine will, we cannot cease to mourn the loss of a brother who, during his short sojourn among us, has shown the principles of an honest, industrious and temperate man; and we, the members of Lodge No. 370, K. O. S. C., of Towanda, Pa., deeply deplore his untimely end, and tender our heartfelt sympathy to all friends of the deceased; and be it further

Resolved, That our hall be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered Messrs. Humphrey Brothers & Tracy, for the sympathy manifested by them at the funeral of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered T. R. Jordon, Chauncy Bussell, and others, for services rendered on the occasion.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Towanda papers, and a copy of the same be transmitted to his friends.

DARING ROBBERY!—THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ATHENS ENTERED BY BURGLARS—THE CASHIER BOUND AND GAGGED!—About 10½ o'clock on Monday evening last, as Mr. HULL, cashier of the First National Bank, returned to the office after a short absence, he was overpowered by five men, who had entered through a back door, and gagged and bound. One of the men was then left to guard him, while the others went into the vault, which had not yet been closed for the night, and took out $3,000 in money, and a quantity of bonds deposited for safe keeping.

It appears that Mr. HULL, the cashier, had not completed his settlements for the day, consequently the vault was not locked, and the currency balance of the day's business had not been placed in the safe. The officers of the bank are unable to state just how many bonds were taken, as they were only left for safe keeping. Four of the men left the building, but one promised to guard the cashier until five o'clock in the morning. About an hour afterward, Mr. HAWSON in passing the bank, heard groans and awakened Mr. HULL, the President, who proceeded to the bank and found Mr. HULL in the condition described. Three of the thieves hired a horse in Waverly on the evening of the robbery, and returned with it about half past twelve, but no further clue to the perpetrators of the bold robbery has been ascertained.

Mr. HULL was in a very critical condition when discovered, and it is thought would have expired in a very short time. He is one of the most trusty and faithful men to be found anywhere, and we deeply sympathize with him in his rough treatment.

The bank will not be affected by the robbery.

FATAL RESULT OF A FOOLISH PRACTICE.—A brief dispatch to the Associated Press Saturday afternoon, reads thus: "MORTIMER, son of M. D. LEGGETT, U. S. Commissioner of Patents, was killed last night by falling from a cliff, near Ithaca, N. Y." From information, who was in Ithaca on Saturday, we learn that young LEGGETT was a member of Cornell University, in the Freshman class, and was undergoing an initiation into a secret society of the college, the ceremony taking place in some house in the village, adjacent to the precipitous banks of Six-Mile Creek. In the process of the initiation, it seems the initiated is led through many devious mazes and over threatening difficulties, one of which in this case was the precipitation of young LEGGETT off a high cliff to the banks of the creek below, together with his two attendants. Young LEGGETT fell upon his head, and suffered instantaneous death by crushing of the skull. One of his companions had a clavicle fracture and the other was a good deal hurt. They seemed to have been his conductors during this part of the ceremony. It was at first thought to hush up the intelligence of his death, but the report getting out, the body was taken in charge by the coroner, just as it was leaving the depot. After the inquest, three classmates took the remains in charge to escort them to his father's residence in Washington. They passed through here, in the performance of their sad duty, on Saturday evening, taking the Northern Central south. The sudden death and revelation created the most intense impression throughout the University, and everybody about the village talked it over with bated breath. A student witness of the sad-resulting ceremonials is said to have gone into a condition of insane hysterics, over the occurrence of that fearful last Friday night. We have not at hand the verdict of the coroner's investigation.—Elmira Advertiser.

LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.—The new edifice, at LaFayette College, erected for the Scientific Department, is now occupied by the classes, and will be dedicated by appropriate public exercises, on Tuesday, October 21. The magnificent structure cost over two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and is the princely gift of Mr. ANSON PARDEE, the founder of the Scientific Department of the College. It consists of one centre building, five stories in height, fifty-three feet front and eighty-six deep, and two lateral wings, one on each side of the centre building, measuring sixty-one feet in length and thirty-one in width; four stories in height including a mansard roof, the whole terminating in two cross wings, forty-two feet front and eighty-four feet deep, and four stories in height. The entire length of front, in a straight line, is two hundred and fifty-six feet. The material is the Trenton brown stone, with trimmings of light Ohio sandstone. It is heated throughout by steam and lighted by gas. The first floor is mainly devoted to the study of mining and metallurgy; the second contains the geological and mineralogical cabinets, a spacious auditorium, and smaller lecture rooms, reading rooms, and professors' studies. The third floor is devoted to the engineers. The right wing is occupied by mining engineers. A large drawing room occupies the lateral wing, while the cross wing embraces rooms for models and various professional purposes. The left wing is occupied by civil engineers. The lateral wing comprises a drawing-room, and the cross wing is divided into rooms for lectures, working models, collections, and the like. On the fourth floor the same ample provision has been made for the chemists. The centre building is divided into two large rooms, one for technical collections, and the other an assistant room. The lateral wings are intended for quantitative and qualitative analysis. The cross wings at the extremity of the building are occupied by additional laboratories, lecture rooms, and professors' studies. The fifth floor of the centre building mainly occupied by laboratories for original researches. In determining what rooms were needed, and the best arrangement of them, similar buildings in Europe as well as in this country, were carefully studied, and liberal provision has been made in all the departments of instruction, for every aid which has been devised for the most thorough and attractive teaching, and also for the prosecution of original researches.

The formal dedication of such a noble building, equalled by but few college edifices in the country, will be an event of the greatest interest not only to the Alumni and friends of the College, but to all who are interested in educational matters.

The cold weather, of the past few days suggests the necessity of warm clothing, and especially comfortable gloves. A glance at M. E. ROSENFELD's large assortment of gloves and mittens, will satisfy any one that there is no necessity for any one to suffer from cold hands.

I am now receiving for the fall trade, the most complete stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods ever before brought to this market, and propose to create a sensation by my low prices. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and see me before purchasing elsewhere. M. E. ROSENFELD.

McMAHON, the tailor of Towanda, has just returned from the city, where he has been selecting goods for the fall trade. His experience and practical knowledge are of great advantage. Persons desiring to have perfect fitting clothes, of the best materials, at reasonable prices, should give Mr. McM. a call. Like ANDY JOHNSON, he does his own cutting and warrants satisfaction.

To-Day is a literary journal of great merit. Mr. C. F. CROSS has the agency for this county, and desires canvassers. A handsome chromo is given away to each yearly subscriber. We advise all who desire a good family paper cheap, to get a copy of To-Day, and give it a careful perusal.

CHEAP COAL.—Buy your coal during the warm months. As a rule it will be cheaper and better prepared.

R. M. WELLES is selling best prepared Pittston Stove Coal at $3.85, and Egg and Chestnut at $3.60 for gross ton of 2,240 lbs., by the carload, adding actual freight and delivered at any station north of Wyalusing.

Sept. 10, '73—4w. DANNOR & HOSFORD.

No establishment in the county has done more to encourage farmers and butter makers to improve their products than the enterprising house of MCCLARE & EDWARDS. They always pay the highest price for the best goods, and never handle anything else. The result is they have secured the custom of people who desire to purchase goods where they are always certain of getting a first-class article; and those who make butter or raise produce, knowing it is useless to try to palm off an inferior article on them, never offer poor goods at McCLARE & EDWARS'. These are facts which prudent, economical buyers should bear in mind.

In order to keep pace with their rapidly increasing trade, our enterprising grocerymen, McCLARE & EDWARDS, are soon to occupy the largest store in the new block erected on the site of old brick row. Many of our up-town buyers will miss them from their accustomed place in Mercur's block, but the inducements which they offer to buyers will insure them plenty of customers wherever they are located. They are realizing the truth that "a good name is a fortune." Their reputation for honesty and fair dealing extends all through this county, and the fact that they sell the best brands of goods is equally well known.

Dealers in Strings will do well to call at the Temple of Music, where they will find a large assortment of French, German and Italian Strings, at New York prices.
