WHAT THE CANADIANS THINK OF IT.—The following notice from the Wingham (Ont.) Times, of the "Boss Fanning Mill," indicates that the invention will be a success over there as well as in this country:

"MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISE.—It is with pleasure we learn that a company of enterprising gentlemen from Towanda, Bradford county, Pa., (U. S.,) are coming to our Dominion to manufacture and sell to our farmers an article almost indispensable to them, in we may safely say one of the best wheat growing countries under the sun. We refer to J. W. JOHNSON's 'Boss Fanning Mill,' patented by him in the States in 1871-3, and will soon be in our Province.

"We know of no article more needed, and if it is what we see it recommended to be by many of the leading papers in the States, the owners have in it an independent fortune, and our people will have just what they have so long suffered for the want of. We would most cordially invite these gentlemen to visit our part of the county before locating their place of business, and any particulars they wish to lay before our people, if they will make them known, we will cheerfully aid them in the laudable undertaking. We think Huron county one of the most advantageous parts of the Province for this kind of business, for the following reasons: It cannot be surpassed for grain growing, and the kind of lumber used for the article is cheap, and our farmers able and willing to pay a fair price for a good article.

"In addition to our abundant natural advantages in the way of unlimited water power, Wingham is fast becoming a manufacturing centre, and we shall soon have facilities for shipping to all parts of the country. The southern extension of the W. G. & B. Railway, already doing a fair and ever-increasing business, and now doing the through trade of the main line, affords a first-class outlet. The L. H. & B. Railway, extending through the finest portion of country to be found in Canada, will soon be completed here, forming the junction. The T. G. & B. narrow gauge to Toronto, now within four miles of us, will doubtless at no distant day form one of our railway attractions, extending its line into Wingham, and help to carry away our produce. The enterprise and push of such gentlemen as we speak of, is what is needed to help to infuse life into and build up our town, and we would therefore cordially invite our American friends to come along."

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—As WM. REDDING, employed by J. S. ALLYN & Co., as driver on their furniture wagon, was turning around in front of Judge MORROW's, on Second street, the wagon was upset, and the horse ran at furious speed, drawing the wagon after it until near Main st. at the Means House, when the animal fell, breaking its neck. Mr. REDDING held on to the lines for some time, and was quite badly injured. Master JOHN MORROW was also in the wagon and was somewhat bruised. Both are recovering. The animal was a valuable mare, for which Mr. ALLYN had refused $500.

WE REFERRED last week to the new chronometer lock just placed upon the door of the National Bank vault. The following description of the lock will prove interesting to our readers:

"The patent was secured in May, 1874. The lock consists of two delicately constructed chronometers, which are enclosed in a case of brass with a plate-glass front, and which are attached to the inside of the inner door of a safe. The two chronometers are merely for convenience, or in case one should become disordered, as either is capable of doing the work required. Upon closing the safe at night, the cashier winds the chronometers up till the dials revolve so that the hour when the safe is to be opened stands under a small red index. For instance: the safe is to be closed at 4 P. M., and not to be opened till nine the next morning; the intervening time is seventeen hours, and hence the chronometer is wound up until the number seventeen is brought under the index. Both chronometers run an ordinary clock until nine o'clock the next morning. During the operation of winding, a heavy piece of metal, brass in this instance, is dropped down into position so as to prevent the bolts of the safe doors from being thrown back, even though the combination lock should be opened. This heavy piece of metal is attached to the hands of the chronometers by means of a catch, which is set free when the time for which the dial is set arrives, and being loosed, allows the piece of metal to drop back, thus leaving space for the bolts to be slid. Some idea of the ingenuity and complication of these safety attachments may be derived from their price, which is $500, the chronometers contained in them alone being valued at $450 each. Forty-eight hours is the longest time during which they can be used at one winding, which fully covers the time between four o'clock Saturday afternoon and nine Monday morning."

A RICH TREAT IN STORE.—After many solicitations, Miss FLORENCE GREENMAN, the popular lady elocutionist, has consented to give an entertainment in this place. Miss GREENMAN is a native of this county, and has gained a most enviable reputation as a reader and elocutionist, and we hope our people will evince their good taste in giving her a full house. By invitation of a large number of prominent citizens of Titusville, Miss G. lately appeared before a large audience, in that city, and her performance is thus noticed by the Courier:

"The recitations given by Miss FLORENCE M. GREENMAN, at the Baptist Church last evening, were listened to by quite a large audience. She was introduced by H. C. BLOSS, Esq., editor of the Herald. The programme as published in yesterday's paper, was carried through. All that has been said of Miss GREENMAN as a reader was established by her renditions last evening. Her style is perfectly unaffected and free from the mannerisms of the stage. She succeeds at once in enlisting the attention of her audience, and she keeps up the interest of all who listen to her during the entire performance. So vividly does she portray the various characters of the poems which she reads, that her auditors are always moved to smiles or tears according to the style of the piece recited. One of the pieces rendered by her last evening is especially deserving of mention. It is entitled "Mother and Poet," and is the story of an Italian mother who sent forth two noble boys to battle for the freedom and the unity of Italy. They both fell in the cause of their country, and Miss GREENMAN depicts in truly dramatic style the heart-broken mother as she mourns her dead and asks the question what it is all worth to her after the cause is won, while her loved ones lie cold in the grave. Her Italy is then above, where there is no strife, no war. 'How he saved St. Michael,' is another rare literary gem, into the spirit of which Miss GREENMAN enters with true fervor. This is a story of how a slave saved the church of St. Michael, in Charleston, South Carolina, from destruction during a conflagration in that city, by ascending the spire and detaching a burning brand which had fastened upon the steeple. All who listened to Miss GREENMAN last evening, will agree with us that she is a reader of great talent and power. In this profession she is bound to make a name and a fame inferior to none in the land, and whatever praise may be bestowed upon her she richly deserves. We hope that at some future day she may be induced to visit our city and give public recitations. We have no hesitation in saying that she is at least the equal of any female recitationist now before the American public. Whatever reputation she has in her profession she has won by her own unaided efforts, and she is worthy in every particular of the generous aid and patronage of all lovers of dramatic reading."

PROHIBITION COUNTY CONVENTION.—Pursuant to a call for a County Convention of those favoring a general law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, said Convention met in the Court House, Towanda, Pa., August 30, 1875, at 2 o'clock P. M., and was called to order by C. E. WHITE. Hon. JOHN F. CHAMBERLIN was chosen President; N. S. RHINEVAULT, Secretary; ADEN LYON, Assistant Secretary.

Forty-five delegates, representing the Prohibitionists of Bradford county, responed to their names.

Rev. E. H. CRAMMER, Gen. WM. PATTON, M. O. LOOMIS, S. S. BUTTS and J. B. STERIGERE were appointed committee on resolutions.

J. B. K. BENEDICT, M. L. ROCKWELL, B. S. HARDEN, CYRUS AVERY, and M. D. CAREY, were appointed committee to name suitable persons to be nominated for county officers.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Resolved, That we acknowledge the blessing of Almighty God in our past efforts in behalf of temperance, and that we ask his further guidance and aid.

Resolved, That we view with sorrow and alarm the fearful increase of drinking and drunkenness in our county, under the new license law.

Resolved, That the repeal of the local option law was in defiance of the expressed will of the people concerned,—a clear breach of faith for which there can be no excuse.

Resolved, That we call upon all fair-minded men in our county to carefully and conscientously investigate the claims of the prohibitory movement, before deciding to withhold from it their support.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the platform adopted by the State Prohibitory Convention at Harrisburg, June 15, 1875, and that we pledge our best efforts to the advancement of its principles.

Resolved, That we hereby instruct the President of this Convention to appoint an Executive Committee of five members for the ensuing year, who shall be authorized to have charge of the Prohibitory campaign in this county, receive and use all funds contributed for this cause to the best of their judgment, fill vacancies, should any occur in our ticket, call conventions when deemed expedient, and perform such other duties as are common to said committee.

The following named persons were appointed Executive Committee, in accordance with the sixth resolution: S. S. BUTTS, C. E. WHITE, JOHN F. CHAMBERLIN, C. S. RUSSELL.

The committee on nominations reported, and the convention proceeded to ballot for candidates with the following results:

Sheriff—JOHN F. SATTERLEE, Monroeton.

Prothonotary—BENJ. M. PECK, Towanda.

Register and Recorder—O. J. CHUBBUCK, Orwell.

Treasurer—CHARLES M. HALL, Towanda.

Commissioners—HARRISON BLACK, Wyalusing; M. L. ROCKWELL, Burlington.

☞ NOTICE.—The North Branch Association of Universalists, will hold its thirty-fourth annual session at Springfield, Bradford Co., Pa., on Wednesday and Thursday, 22d and 23d of September, 1875. It is expected that each society will send two or more delegates to this session. Let ships that have any interest in the prosperity of our cause see to it that we have a full attendance of delegates. And to the friends generally we say come and let us have a "feast of fat things" at this session. Those coming by railroad will find trains at Columbia X Road to take them to the church.

R. W. CHENEY, Standing Clerk.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, MANSFIELD, Pa.—Two magnificent brick buildings, ample and unexceptionable accommodations for 200 boarders, a full corps of teachers, thorough courses of study, a very large and choice cabinet, reading room, beautiful scenery, healthful location, and prices which challenge comparison. $201 per year pays for everything; tuition, board, fuel, oil, washing, etc. The State appropriation, from $21 to $22 per year, reduces expenses from $190 to $100 per year. Fall term opens Sept. 6. Send for full circular or catalogue at once. Address CHARLES H. VERRILL, A. M., Principal.

☞ SELECT SCHOOL.—There will be a Select School for teachers and advanced students, at the Centre School House, Sheshequin, commencing August 30, 1875, and continuing eleven weeks, under the supervision of I. S. CRAWFORD, of Herrick. Instruction will be given in the Common Branches, Higher Mathematics, Sciences and Classics, if any desire. Tuition from $4 to $8. No effort will be spared to make the school second to none, and render the term both pleasant and profitable for the students. Board can be obtained at very reasonable rates in the best of families. All are cordially invited to attend.

☞ A MAGNIFICENT OFFER.—A very liberal contract with the Weed Sewing Machine Company will enable us, we hope, to place their celebrated Machines in many families. So fine an opportunity to secure a first-class sewing machine seldom occurs. May we not expect our friends, and all interested in our work, to make an earnest, united effort to extend our circulation and thereby increase our influence? Cannot the reader form a club in his or her neighborhood and secure this sewing machine as a premium? A few hours of well-directed effort will obtain it. Are you a postmaster? With a little thought and effort you can easily send us 40 names. Pass the subscription paper. Forty names at $1.50 each will secure 40 copies of this paper for one year and a $65 sewing machine. In forming such a club you will help us in our work, benefit your neighbors by placing in their families good reading, and at the same time make your own or some other family happy in the possession of a great labor-saving machine, warranted to be perfectly new, of the latest improved construction and in perfect order.

☞ SUSQUEHANNA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—The Fall Term of the twenty-second year of this Institution, will begin MONDAY, AUGUST 23, 1875, with eight experienced teachers—one more than last year. Additional apparatus and facilities for teaching have been provided. The accommodations for non-resident students, will be better than during any previous year. Special inducements to those preparing to teach. As usual a teacher's class will be organized at the commencement of the year, and every effort will be made to thoroughly prepare the members of the class for the special duties of the school room. The Principal will also and those who are earnest and proficient in securing positions. In addition to the usual classes in the common English studies, Mathematical classes, and classes in the languages already somewhat advanced, classes will probably commence Latin, Greek, Algebra, French, German, Philosophy, Rhetoric, Reading, Geometry, and such other studies as the wants of the students may demand. Tuition from $4 to $10 per term. Board, with room carpeted and furnished throughout, lights, etc., $4 per week. Rooms will be secured for those wishing to board themselves by sending their names to the Principal. For further particulars or catalogue, address the Principal,
