THE FARMER.

Those who labor in the earth are the chosen people of God, whose breasts he has made his peculiar deposit for substantial and genuine virtue.—Jefferson.

Drive on, thou sturdy farmer.
Drive cheerily o'er the field;
The pleasures of a farmer's life
No other life can yield.

Thou risest with the morning sun,
To till the frutful earth;
And when thy daily task is done,
Thou seek'st thy peaceful hearth.

Thou lovest not the gaudy town,
With its tumult'ous roar:
Plenty and peace thy fireside crown,
And thou dost ask no more.

Monarchs with robes in crimson dyed,
Are low compared with the:
They are the pampered sons of pride,
Thou art God's nobility.

Go on thou sturdy farmer,
Tread proudly on the sod,
Thy proud and goodly heritage,
Thou chosen man of God.

About the House.

A lady writes: A very handsome ornament for the dining room or parlor table may be obtained at a small cost, by having made by any tinsmith two circular tin trays; one, larger than the other, has a socket upon the inside, and the other has a socket upon the outside of the bottom. The shaft to connect the two may be from ten to fifteen inches long, of glass, which can be bought of a druggist or at a china store, or it can be cheaply made of wood and painted. The rod may be cemented into the sockets, or the ends can be wound with a little yarn to make a snug fit; then it can be taken apart for putting away. Fill the trays with wet sand, and arrange the leaves and flowers according to fancy. A profusion of green, wild ferns and vines, looks well with a few flowers, and a trailing vine should be wound around the rod.

A Sacramento newspaper recomends the following directions for preserving fresh meat. As soon as the animal heat is out of the meat, slice it up for cooking. Prepare a large jar by scalding well with hot salt and water. Mix salt and pulverized saltpeter in the proportion of one tablespoonful of saltpetre to one teacupful of salt. Sprinkle the bottom of the jar with a little salt and pepper. Put down a layer of meat, sprinkle with salt and peper the same as if just going on the table, and continue in this manner till the jar is full. Fold a cloth or towel and wet it in strong salt and water, in which a little of the saltpetre is dissolved. Press the cloth closely over the meat and set it in a cool place. Be sure and press the cloth on tight as each layer is removed, and the meat will keep for months. It is a good plan to let the meat lie over night after it is sliced, before packing. Then drain off all the blood that oozes from it. It will be necessary to change the cloth occasionally or take it off and wash it—first in cold water, then scald in salt and water as at first. In this way farmers can have fresh meat the year round. "I have kept beef," says one writer, "that was killed 12th of February, until the 21st of June. Then I picked a large jar of veal in the same way during the dog days, and it kept six weeks."

Field and Orchard.

A correspondent of the New England Farmer says: "Could we do anything better with our worn out lands than to stock them with forest trees especially the white pine? In these days, when almost everything is packed in boxes made of that material, we find that an increasing demand for that stock is very fast levelling all our native pine forests. We often hear the inquiry where are our box logs coming from a few years hence? Well, then, could we, upon the soil which our father and grandfathers have "carried to mill," sow or transplant the pine whose adaptation to the soil, and rapid growth, makes it the tree, we might in a few years rid ourselves of anxiety as to the losses of pine forsts."

A farmer boy in Ohio, recently observing a small flock of quails in his father's cornfield, resolved to watch their motions. They pursued a very regular course in their foraging, beginning on one side of the field, taking about five rows, and following them uniformly to the opposite end, returning in the same manner over the next five rows. They continued in this course until they had explored the greater part of the field. The lad believeing that they were pulling up the corn, fired into the flock, killing but one of them, and examined the ground. In the whole space which they had traversed he found but one stalk of corn disturbed. This was nearly scratched out of the ground but the earth still adhered to it. In the crop of the quail he found twenty-one striped vine bugs, and one hundred chinch bugs, but not a single grain of corn.

A correspondent writes to the Country Gentleman: Some years ago I had a three-year old colt with a large bleeding wart on the left hind leg opposite the stifle joint. It was no doubt as painful to the colt as it was annoying to myself. I secured the colt so that I could properly treat the case. After washing the wart thoroughly, I took a silk cord and tied it as tightly as possible, and then applied muriatic acid freely with a feather, and followed up this treatment for a week. When the wart dropped off I washed the leg clean with warm, soft soap suds, and bathed the parts freely and dried off, then applied the following mixture: "One ounce of oil of tyme, one ounce oil of amber, and two ounces spirits of ammonia, well shaken, and applied by dropping it in the orifice and around the inflamed parts." I have never known it to fail in any case, and if not of long standing this quantity often effects a cure; but sometimes the case requires repetition. If applied before suppuration takes place, and well rubbed in, it will disperse the swelling and soreness, and effect a cure. As this remedy is severe, the animal should be secured by tying up a fore foot, and should be in charge of a careful groom until the irritation of the burning application subsides.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.
A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.
What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of protecting physicians, druggists, and themselves, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute.
PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure Oil in the best and cheapest form.
DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined and this is the sole reason why the pure Oil is sold cheaper in their capsules than in any other form.
OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast supereeding every other remedy, sixty Capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other medicine can this result be had.
DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.
Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.
TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES. No Taste no Smell.
☞ These were the only capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.
Send for circular to 35 Wooster street, New York.
Sold at all Drug Stores Here.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for all the purposes of a Family Physic, curing Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar-coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. Sold by all druggists and dealers in medicines. [aug11,3m.]

SPECTACLES! SPECTACLES!
ARUNDEL TINTED.
These Lenses have the power of Protecting the Eye from IRRITATION arising from Light, accompanied by Heat. Under Wilson's American and English letters patent.
REASONS WHY THE
ARUNDEL TINTED SPETACLES
SHOULD BE PREFERRED TO ALL OTHERS:
They have the power of Arresting the Heat-Rays of Solar and Artificial Light before entering the Eye.
They are Violet Tinted, yet so constructed that when applied to the Eye appear colorless.
The high and low numbers are the same tint.
