WEDNESDAY MORNING::::::DEC. 9, 1863.

The President's Message.

The Message is absorbing public interest. It will be read on the assembling of the House to-day, at half-past twelve o'clock.

As usual, the Associate Press monopoly has declined furnishing the message under their contract with the press, and have found some of the press, we regret to say, willing to pay black mail for an exclusive copy. We have declined any negotiations with so faithless a corporation—although we might have saved money by so doing. We have instructed our Washington correspondent to send us an exclusive copy by telegraph, and hope to furnish this important document to our readers, in full, at the earliest possible hour after its delivery.

"A Double-minded Man Is Unstable in All His Ways."

The Pittsburgh Post, having to do duty as the Copperhead organ in these parts, must sometimes go on its belly, like any other snake, and, we suppose, eat dust, too,—according to the curse that dooms the species to their proper diet of dissicated, pulverized dirt. But be this latter question—if it is a question—as to the eating of the material—settled or not, just as the reader pleases to regard it, for the nounce, (for we will not argue it at present, either logically or physiologically,) there can surely be no question that, come by its dust as it may, the Post has always a supply ready to throw in the eyes of its readers. Yesterday, in an article apropos of a local contemporary's notice of SMITH O'BRIEN's letter in reply to one written some time ago by General MEAGHER to an Irish editor, it thus "sums up" on the causes of the rebellion:

The bloody teachings of Abolitionism produced our present National troubles, and their continuance is likely to prevent these troubles from coming to a speedy termination. Abolitionism declares that slavery was the cause of the war, and that, consequently, we can have no peace until slavery is destroyed. This is now their programme, a fact that appears quite incomprehensible to Mr. Smith O'Brien.

After reading this, what unsophisticated reader would believe that on Thursday, the 26th ult., the same being Thanksgiving Day, and kept by the Post as such, it had the following radical Abolition article in its editorial column:

THE FUTURE OF SLAVERY.

Independent of the moral of the existence of slavery, it would have been a blessing to our people had the institution never existed among us; and it will be a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing when we hear of its final extinction in the United States. We are not prompted to these reflections, because of the horrible pictures painted of the enormities of slavery, by the frenzied imaginations of Abolitionists; bad as slavery unquestionably is—in its mildest form—its worst phases have never reached the depths of degradation and guilt attributed to them by our Northern fanatical declaimers. Were the entire slave population of the South fitted for emancipation, we should be glad to see them all free to-morrow. As it is we hope to see some scheme of gradual emancipation adopted, by which the institution will speedily die out and be forgotten. Our principal reason for this is, that it will remove a question of agitation and contention, which will never be allowed to rest, so long as there is a slave within our country for canting political hypocrites and hollow-hearted pretenders to whine about.

The great mass of the people North and South have no interest in this eternal slavery question, at all. Those of the South who favor the institution most, are those who make the most out of it, in dollars and cents. Those in the North who are most clamorous against it, are persons who care nothing for the slave, their sympathies for his condition extending no further than how it will affect his party. One set—the slave owners—desire to extend and perpetuate the system, as a means of making money, while the Northern agitator denounces it in order that he may ride into power and consequence. We do not, of course, in these remarks, mean that all those who declaim against slavery are hypocritical; we allude exclusively to those demagogues who use the question for political purposes.

As long as the Southern slavery propagandists were supposed to be all powerful in the counsels of the nation, we saw how subservient to them were many leading Northern statesmen. Mark Daniel S. Dickinson, Benj. F. Butler, Forney and a thousand others of the same sort, who were, according to their own teachings, the natural allies of the South. Look at this same set of reckless and dangerous persons now, in their denunciations of their former Southern masters, as they were a few years since of Northern abolitionists. When the great Silas Wright, in 1846, announced his opposition to the extension of slavery to free territory, these "Northern tools of the slave power" opened their batteries upon him, and never closed their warfare, until death relieved him of their persecutions. So with Col. Benton; he took ground against Calhoun's system of propagandism, and he, too, became a marked man. In all the schemes put forward for the prostration of such lofty statesmen as Wright and Benton, the Northern men alluded to, always assisted in the assassination. The most ingenius of them all was, perhaps, Robert J. Walker, President Polk's Secretary of the Treasury, and he, too, at the present time, is fierce in denunciations of slavery.

If we look South, we perceive another class who, but a few years since, regarded slavery as being a divine institution; but who, now, falling in with the Administration's idea, declare in favor of its extinction. Among this class is that stupendous demagogue, Parson Brownlow, of Tennessee. But a few years since he appeared in public debate in Philadelphia, as the champion of slavery, basing his arguments upon the scriptures; he now comes out and informs us that he favors its destruction.

From these evidences, and they are but a few among thousands at our command, we feel satisfied that the future peace of this now distracted and bleeding country requires the total extinction of slavery amongst us. We do not allude to its eradication this year or next, or whether it shall disappear in this generation or in the next: our idea is that its final abolition, at some fixed period, is necessary for the future peace of this Republic.

It must be removed from the arena of politics, or pretending philanthropists and scheming demagogues, will use it, not for the benefit of the slave, but for their own aggrandizement. Could the effects of the commotion occasioned by the incessant agitation alluded to, be confined to those who riot in it, we could afford to let the tempest rage. Unfortunately, however, this is not the case. We all suffer alike. But there is a rainbow of promise shining through the gloom. One of the results of the present rebellion will be the weakening, or perhaps, destruction of one of its causes—slavery in the South. With that will follow the death of Abolition among ourselves. Then, after the terrible experience of the present times, our country will be recreated, and increased civilization, on its luminous wings, will spread its blessings upon a regenerated Republic, destined to be the greatest nation upon which the sun has yet shone.

—When we read the above Thanksgiving Day article, we began to have some hope even for the Post. It was like a confession of sin, and even if it had not quite a true tone of penitence, we were almost persuaded that it signified a certain measure of that grace, and that full repentance would come at last. But to-day we are possessed with the fear that, when a Post, or any other creature, falls from its uprightness—and the natural position of a Post, especially, is usually accounted to be upright—it may lie, and lie, and grovel in the dust "all the days of its life."

Whittier and Sumner on the Rebellion—Letters to the Anti-Slavery Convention.

At the meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society in Philadelphia, on Thursday, a letter was read from John E. Whittier to William Lloyd Garrison, in which the following passage occurred:

"I look back over thirty years and call to mind all the circumstances of my journey to Philadelphia, in company with thyself and the excellent Dr. Thurston, of Maine, even then, as we thought, an old man, but still living, and true as ever to the good cause. I recall the early gray morning when, with Samuel J. May, our colleague on the committee to prepare a declaration of sentiments for the convention, I climbed to the small 'upper chamber' of a colored friend to hear thee read the first draft of a paper which will live as long as our national history. I see the members of the convention, solemnized by the responsibility, rise, one by one, and silently affix their names to that stern pledge to human freedom. Of the signers, many have passed away from earth, a few have faltered and turned back, but, I believe, the majority still live to rejoice over the great triumphs of truth and justice, and to devote what remains of time and strength to the cause to which they consecrated their youth and manhood thirty years ago.

"For while we may well thank God and congratulate one another on the prospect of the speedy emancipation of the slaves of the United States, we must not for a moment forget that from this hour new and mighty responsibilities devolve upon us, to aid, direct and educate these millions, left free, indeed, but bewildered, ignorant, naked and foodless in the wild chaos of civil war. We have to undo the accumulated wrongs of two centuries; to remake the manhood that slavery has well nigh unmade; to see to it that the long-oppressed colored man has a fair field for development and improvement, and to tread under our feet the last vestige of that hateful prejudice which has been the strongest external support of southern slavery. We must lift ourselves at once to the true Christian attitude, where all distinctions of black and white are overlooked in the heartfelt recognition of the brotherhood of man.

"I must not close this letter without confessing that I cannot be sufficiently thankful to the Divine Providence, which, in a great measure, through thy instrumentality turned me so early away from what Roger Williams calls "the world's great trinity, pleasure, profit and honor," to take side with the poor and oppressed. I am not insensible to literary reputation; I love, perhaps too well, the praise and good will of my fellow-men; but I set a higher value on my name as appended to the Anti-Slavery Declaration of 1833 than on the title page of any book. Looking over a life marked by many errors and short-comings, I rejoice that I have been able to maintain the pledge of that signature; and that, in the long intervening years,

> "My voice, tho' not the loudest, has been heard,
> Whe ever Freedom raised her cry of pain."

LETTER FROM SENATOR SUMNER.

Mr. Sumner wrote as follows:

"BOSTON, December 1, 1863.

"My Dear Sir: I shall not be able to take part in the proceedings to which you kindly invite me; but wherever I may be I shall unite in your thanksgivings that God has already allowed so much of the good work to be accomplished, and, by visible assurances, enabled us to see clearly that slavery will soon be at an end.

"It is sad to think that this infinite good is reached only through the fiery process of war—so contrary to all your desires and to all mine. But we have not been choosers. The alternative has not been ours. To save the republic—to save civilization—to save our homes from degredation—to save ourselves from participation in unutterable crime and baseness, it has been necessary to rally the country against a rebellion whose single object is the exaltation of slavery. Never before in history was there a war so necessary and just as that which we are compelled to wage; and never before was there a war which promised such transcendent results.

"It is only when the rebellion is seen in its true light, as slavery in arms seeking dominion and recognition, at home and abroad, that we can find the true measure of our duties. Of course every concession to the rebellion—all parley with it—is a voluntary assumption of its guilt.

"You and your associates have stood firm for many years. Such pious fidelity must have its reward in an approving conscience; but it cannot be forgotten hereafter on earth or in heaven.

"And may God continue to bless the good cause, and to bless you, who have labored so nobly.

"Believe me, my dear sir, with much regard
"Very faithfully yours,
"CHARLES SUMNER.
"Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Esq."

Incidents at Chattanooga.

The Cincinnati Commercial prints the following extract of a private letter from an officer in Grant's army:

A great many prisoners have been brought in. The charge of the army on Mission Ridge astonished Bragg. Breckinridge's headquarters were on the Ridge, in full view of our troops. The lady who lives there told our troops the following: "Before you all came up here, I asked General Bragg, 'What are you going to do with me, General?' He says to me, 'Lord! Madam, the Yankees will never dare to come up here.' And," she added with a blubber, "it was not fifteen minutes till you were all around here!" A big lot of graybacks were brought in and haulted right in front of where I stay. I went to the door and heard the different squads hallooing for their regiment: "Where's the 34th Alabama?" "Is the 10th Georgia here?" "Is there any South Carolina regiment in that crowd?" The last question was politely answered by a big grayback: "G—d d—n your South Carolina regiments; if it hadn't been for you we wouldn't be here."

U. S. 5-20'S.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY has not yet given notice of any intention to withdraw this popular Loan from Sale at Par, and until ten days' notice is given, the undersigned, as GENERAL SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, will continue to supply the public.

The whole amount of the Loan authorized is Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly FOUR HUNDRED MILLIONS HAVE BEEN ALREADY SUBSCRIBED FOR AND PAID INTO THE TREASURY, mostly within the last seven months. The large demand from abroad, and the rapidly increasing home demand for use as the basis for circulation by National Banking Associations now organizing in all parts of the country, will, in a very short period, absorb the balance. Sales have lately ranged from ten to fifteen millions weekly, frequently exceeding three millions daily, and as it is well known that the Secretary of the Treasury has ample and unfailing resources in the Duties on Imports and Internal Revenues, and in the issue of the Interest-bearing Legal Tender Treasury Notes, it is almost a certainty that he will not find it necessary, for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or permanent Loans, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL OF WHICH ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD.

Prudence and self-interest must force the minds of those contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle money on their hands, to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in subscribing to this most popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and advance to a handsome premium, as was the result with the "Seven Thirty" Loan, when it was all sold and could no longer be subscribed for at par.

IT IS A SIX PER CENT. LOAN, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL PAYABLE IN COIN, thus yielding over NINE PER CENT. PER ANNUM, at the present rate of premium on coin.

The Government requires all duties on imports to be paid in coin; those duties have for a long time past amounted to over a quarter of a million of dollars daily, a sum nearly three times greater than that required in the payment of the interest on all the 5-20's and other permanent Loans. So that it is hoped that the surplus coin in the Treasury, at no distant day, will enable the United States to resume specie payments upon all liabilities.

The Loan is called 5-20 from the fact that whilst the Bonds may run for 20 years, yet the Government has a right to pay them off in gold at par, at any time after 5 years.

THE INTEREST IS PAID HALF YEARLY, viz: on the first days of November and May.

Subscribers can have Coupon Bonds, which are payable to bearer, and are $50, $100, $500 and $1000; or Registered Bonds of same denominations, and, in addition, $5,000 and $10,000. For Banking purposes and for investments of Trust-monies the Registered Bonds are preferable.

These 5-20's cannot be taxed by States, cities, towns or counties, and the Government tax on them is only one-and-a-half per cent. on the amount of income, when the income of the holder exceeds Six Hundred Dollars per annum; all other investments, such as income from Mortgages, Railroad Stock and Bonds, etc., must pay from three to five per cent. tax on the income.

Banks and Bankers throughout the country will continue to dispose of the Bonds; and all orders by mail, or otherwise, promptly attended to.

The inconvenience of a few days' delay in the delivery of the Bonds is unavoidable, the demand being so great; but as interest commences from the day of subscription, no loss is occasioned, and every effort is being made to diminish the delay.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.—As it becomes a matter touching the best interests of every Man, Woman and Child in Allegheny county to see that money is not squandered, and that when expending the hard earned gains procured by anxious care and weary hours of toil and hardship, it becomes the duty of every parent to see that full value is received, and something tangible and useful is obtained, these remarks are called forth at this time, as we are daily and hourly called upon to hear the piteous story of some poor woman, as with a moan of despair she relates the loss of her "prop and stay in this world,"—her brave husband—who went forth and nobly battled for his Country's Honor and Nation's Flag, and now that she is left alone, she finds no friendly hand to aid her; but, on the contrary, all seem ready to impose upon and take the advantage of her inexperience, and with the convincing proof in hand, (a Morocco Boot which has literally dropped in pieces,) we can but credit the stories of their wrongs. Now this is to give notice that on and after this date I will warrant every pair of Boots or Shoes sold at CONCERT HALL SHOE STORE, 62 Fifth street, to be perfect, and in no manner to rip or come to pieces, and the money in all cases to be refunded or the work made good, where the least dissatisfaction may occur, and pledge myself to sell this first class warranted work for less money than is asked for common work and second rate articles elsewhere.

SEMPLE CLAY. St. LOUIS, MO.

Having accepted the Agency for the sale of the SEMPLE CLAY, mined near St. Louis, Mo., I invite the attention of Glass and Steel Manufacturers to the Analysis given above, as reported by Profs. A. A. Hays, of Boston, and J. C. Booth, of Philadelphia, which, together with the test of actual experience by manufacturers in Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis, determines it to be the purest and most valuable Clay now known, whether Foreign or American. Pots made from it have stood in the Glass Furnace from 6½ to 9 months.
The Analysis is of the Clay as taken from the mine, without any washing or preparation whatever. I, possesses great adhesiveness and plasticity qualities, which are not shown by the Analysis, and which admit of the mixture of a large proportion of shell or burned clay.
I am now prepared to fill orders for the above Clay to be shipped from St. Louis or delivered here.

MEDICAL.

LINDSEY'S
IMPROVED BLOOD-SEARCHER,

For the cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, such as SCROFULA, Cancerous Formations, Cutaneous Diseases, Erysipelas, Boils, Pimples on the Face, Sore Eyes, Scald Head, Tetter Affections, Old and Stubborn Ulcers, Rheumatic Disorders, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Mercurial Diseases, General Debility, Liver Complaint, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach, Female Complaints, together with all other disorders from an improper condition of the circulatory system. As a general Tonic, its effects are most benignant, and cannot fail to benefit, where used perseveringly and according to directions.

TESTIMONIALS.

The proprietor has certificates enough on hand to fill a good sized volume, all of them the free will offerings of those who have been cured by the Blood-Searcher, from which he selects the following:

THE GREAT PURIFIER—THE WORLD CHALLENGED TO PRODUCE ITS EQUAL—THE BLOOD-SEARCHER GLORIOUSLY TRIUMPHANT.—Sworn statement of David McCreary, of Napier Township, Bedford County:

In April, 1856, as near as I can remember, a small pimple made its appearance on my upper lip, which soon became enlarged and sore. I used poultices of sorrel, and a wash of blue vitriol, without effect. Finding the sore extending, I called on Dr. Ely, of Shellsburg, who pronounced it CANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead and bread poultices. Finding these remedies of no avail, I called upon Dr. Shaffer, of Davidsville, Somerset county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and gave me internal and external remedies—the latter consisting principally of caustic—but all to no purpose, as the disease continued spreading toward the nose. I next used a preparation of arsenic, in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease, but the inflammation soon increased. I next called upon Dr. Statler, of St. Clairsville, Bedford county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and applied a salve, said to be a never failing remedy, but it had no effect whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In December, in the same year, the disease had eaten away a greater part of my lip, and had attacked the nose, when I went to Cincinnati, where I consulted Prof. R. S. Newton, of the Eclectic Medical College. He pronounced the disease "a cutaneous Cancer, superinduced by an inordinate use of mercury." He applied mild zinc ointment, and gave me internal remedies. My face healed up, but the inflammation was not thoroughly removed. In February, 1857, he pronounced me cured, and I left for home. In April, the disease again returned, and so violent was the pain that I could not rest at night. Late in May I returned to Cincinnati, and again placed myself under the charge of Dr. Newton, with whom I remained until September, during which time he used every known remedy, and partly succeeded in checking the disease, but when I returned home there were still three discharging ulcers upon my face. I continued using Newton's preparations, and also medicine that I got from Dr. Ely, but the Cancer continued growing until it had eat off the left side of my nose, the greater portion of my left cheek, and had attacked my left eye. I had given up all hope of ever being cured, since Dr. Ely said he could only give relief, but that a cure was impossible. In March, 1858, I bought a bottle of "Blood-Searcher," but I must confess that I had no faith in it. I was very weak when I commenced using it; but I found that I gained strength day by day, and also that the ulcers commenced drying up. I continued, and when the third bottle was taken my face was healed as if by a miracle. I used a fourth bottle, and I have been healthier since than I have been for the last seven years. Although my face is sadly disfigured, I am still grateful to a benign Providence who has spared my life, and which has been done through the instrumentality of "Lindsey's Improved Blood-Searcher."

DAVID McCREARY.

LIVER COMPLAINT CURED BY LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD-SEARCHER.

BLAIR COUNTY, ss.
Personally appeared before me, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for Blair county, George Kopp, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: Two years ago I was afflicted with pain between the shoulders, almost constant cough, loss of appetite, chills, night sweats, and very subject to take colds. I at length became so weak that I could hardly walk; my physician did me no good. Some time last fall I commenced taking Lindsey's Improved Blood-Searcher, and by the use of two bottles was perfectly cured. I feel safe to recommend it to all who suffer from liver disease, general debility, loss of appetite and other diseases arising from impurity of the blood. I would not like to do without it. I consider it an excellent family medicine.
(Signed,) GEORGE KOPP.
Sworn and subscribed this 16th day of March, A. D. 1857, before me. J. GORLEY, J. P.
NOTE.—Mr. Kopp is a resident of Frankstown, and is well known to the citizens of Blair and Bedford counties as a man of excellent character and influence.

ANOTHER CASE OF SCROFULA CURED BY LINDSEY'S BLOOD-SEARCHER.

If there be any who still doubt that Lindsey's Improved Blood-Searcher has and will permanently cure the most desperate and long-standing cases of Scrofula, let them read the following and be convinced:
Dr. J. M. Lindsey: I was afflicted for a number of years with a disease, said by my physicians to be Scrofula. For the last three years I was so bad that I was unable to be out of my bed. I tried all the remedies and the best physicians I was able to procure, without any beneficial result. I continued growing worse until the flesh and skin were entirely eaten off the left side of my face, neck, shoulder and arm. My sufferings were so great, and I was so far reduced, that it required the efforts of two persons to move me in bed. This was my condition when I was induced by the Messrs. Ralston, of Elderton, to try your Improved Blood-Searcher, which, to my great relief, and the satisfaction of my friends, I soon discovered was helping me. I continued the use of it, and gained so rapidly that in considerably less than one year I was able to go about and attend to some of my household duties, and the parts affected were all healed up, and covered with sound, healthy flesh and skin, and have so continued ever since; and I now enjoy a state of health that I had for years given up all hopes of ever again being blessed with.

NEW EVIDENCE.

Being afflicted with a grievous tetter on the arms and face—after trying many remedies which utterly failed to cure—I was persuaded by W. M. Barris & Co. to try "Lindsey's Improved Blood-Searcher," and now, six weeks after using the second bottle, pronounce myself cured. The tetter broke out something over one year ago, on the inside of my arms, extending from the elbows down to the wrists; also on my face, immediately around the mouth and chin, and continued to be a perfect torment to me until cured by the Blood-Searcher. My arms were at times almost useless, owing to the deep cracks and sores on them, liable to bleed at any time on the least exertion to lift or work, and sometimes so itchy I could scarcely prevent tearing off my flesh. I have now been cured six weeks, and feel it due to Mr. Lindsey, and to the public generally, to make this statement, in hope that others like myself may be benefited by using his invaluable medicine.

ELDERTON, January 24th, 1859.
J. M. Lindsey—Dear Sir: We are very near out of your medicine; please send us two dozen. We would just say that your medicine has cured a case of Scrofula that has been coming on for years; the flesh was eaten off the lady's arms—you could see the sinews working. She is at the eighth bottle now, and the flesh is growing on very fast. Your Blood-Searcher is going all over the country. The people are very much pleased with the above case. Please send us statement of our account, and oblige us.
Yours truly, JOHN RALSTON & CO.,

AS A TONIC, it has no equal. Unlike the many vile mixtures called "Bitters," it creates no false appetite, but gives tone and vigor to the system gradually and permanently.
