Towanda, Pa., Thursday, April 6, 1876.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

ATTENTION is called to JUNE's new advertisement.

A UNIVERSALIST Sociable will be held at the house of Mr. G. F. MASON, on Friday evening next, April 7th. All are respectfully invited to attend.

THE Sugar Run Hotel, a temperance house kept some years by J. STOWELL, deceased, has taken down its shingle; so weary man and jaded beast must find entertainment elsewhere. The traveling public will much miss this change.

THE non-appearance of M. E. ROSENFIELD's advertisement in our columns for the past few weeks, was owing to an oversight on our part. Mr. ROSENFIELD is not only a liberal advertiser but one of our very best and most reliable dealers.

MR. E. B. POWELL is about to remove from here to Wyalusing, to engage in the wagon-making business. While we lose a good citizen, Wyalusing not only gains one, but a skilled mechanic and an exemplary man. We congratulate them on their acquisition.

OUR borough Legislature met and organized on Monday last. E. T. FOX was chosen Burgess, and N. N. BETTS Jr., Assistant Burgess. JOSEPH KINGSBURY, who has filled the position of Secretary and Treasurer for many years, to the entire satisfaction of the council, was reelected.

FIRE.—A house owned by HENRY PEET, on Popular street, and occupied by H. HOUSE, was burned on Saturday morning last about 2 o'clock. The occupants were absent at the time, and the origin of the fire is unknown. The furniture was covered by insurance. Mr. PEET had an insurance of $1,200 on the building. The Naiads did good service in saving adjoining property.

ANOTHER BUSINESS ENTERPRISE.—We are pleased to learn that Messrs. GEO. W. HATH & SON have purchased a lot adjoining the store-house of McCABE & EDWARDS, and have already commenced work on a building to be erected for the firm to carry on the business of coffins and caskets. The Messrs. H. are experienced in the business, and enjoy an enviable reputation as first-class workmen. They will also continue the manufacture of the celebrated H. N. L. Straw-cutter.

OVERSEERS OF THE POOR.—At a meeting of the Overseers of the Poor, held at the Infirmary on 3d day of April, 1876, the rate of tax to be levied for the support of the poor was fixed at twelve mills on the dollar of valuation for State and County purposes for the year A. D., 1876.

JOSEPH KINGSBURY was reappointed Clerk and Treasurer for the current year, and his compensation fixed at two per cent. on the amount of duplicate for 1876.

FRIENDS ALVORD: In your issue of March 30th, under the head of Local, I find a mistake in relation to the amount of potatoes purchased by me two years ago and the amount raised last season of the "Brownell's Beauty" variety. I purchased three pounds, from which I harvested five bushels. I should judge that they would average one pound each; some of the new ones weighed between two and three pounds each. On cutting them last season for planting there was one bushel of the refuse of the potatoes that were not suitable for planting; from the remaining four bushels I harvested over one hundred and twenty bushels. STEVENS & LOW have a quantity of them which they will sell to farmers. LEVI NORTON.

Ulster, April 3, 1876.

ED. REPORTER: A fearful fire occurred on the premises of Mr. D. TRUMBULL, on the morning of the 29th ult. The wagon-house and barn combined was discovered to be on fire by some passersby, and despite the efforts of all present, was completely, by great odds, Mr. TRUMBULL's horse was rescued, which is valuable to him in hauling coke to his place. The fire is supposed to have been set with the intention of working his father's farm, and adding to the previous session, to unload his goods, had driven them into the barn, and everything was burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. D. TRUMBULL's loss is $800; no insurance.

Liberty Corners, March 29.

THE ladies of the Revolver Association are engaged to make a social night of it at Friends. Protracted sojourns and long rides have nearly exhausted the theory and codes on hand, and it is hoped they will find the practice sufficient. Attention, then, gentlemen, whose cool nerves have enabled them to withstand the fire of the fair ones, and who have so long enjoyed the exclusive privilege of being the only target for the fair ones. Society has ever been a debtor to the gallant, and cheerfully would it thus acknowledge its debt to the gallant, as easy and pleasant.

MRS. E. T. FOX, President.
L. A. BATCHELOR, Secretary.

THE Agricultural Society met on Saturday the 25th ultimo, according to adjournment; J. E. BARTON, President, in the chair. The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, and J. E. [illegible] read a paper on farming, which was received and ordered to be published in the Reporter. The Secretary was instructed to procure the publication of the premium list, and the Society then adjourned to meet on the first Saturday in May, at 1 o'clock, P. M., when the Committee on the location of the grounds for the annual exhibition, as that matter will be decided for the ensuing year. The next following courses on Saturday, the 15th instant.

SYLVANIA.—The Village of the Lamp is to be improved by a coat of paint, or rather, whenever or wherever this pleasant little town is visited in summer, it still appears dressed in its pristine dress, even amid the dismal weather of this most dismal month.

Dr. E. S. TRAY is now absent in Harrisburg, his partner, Dr. GRAY, is going to be in charge during the absence of the latter.

The Messrs. MONROE, who have been here, disposed with their stock in this place, and are now taking the people with their wares at their time, at the very lowest prices. They are left known to be [illegible] here—hence their success, for, by the way, all walks are needed by [illegible] in many places, here about. N.

WELLSBORO.—Rev. R. COMPTON, of the Methodist and Wesleyan Church, who was stationed here, returned from his conference in April. He has been in very bad health for some time. Many will regret the necessity which compelled his removal from charge.

A young man in this county lately took some boxes of patent medicine at a saving on a lady and could survive; Carbolic salve and soothers need not be applied to the sores about giving [illegible] "Expectorant, as one bottle of that standard article went up upon the spot, and seemed only an appetizer.

Mr. [illegible], our popular tinsmith, [illegible] with a fine assortment of [illegible] which he is prepared to sell at low figures. Call and see.

[illegible] you are known to [illegible] and [illegible] of fair play, in [illegible] a few words, as follows: Wm.
