TOWANDA, PA.

Towanda, Jan. 18, 1877.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

NEXT Tuesday is Borough election.

JUDGE MORROW has ordered a special term of Court held, commencing April 2, to continue two weeks.

THE Universalist Sociable will be held at the residence of WM. K. HILL, Tuesday evening, Feb. 19.

THE next Sociable of the Presbyterian Church will be held at the house of Mr. JAMES MACFARLANE, on Wednesday, Feb. 21.

THE quite unusual sight of two funeral proaessions, one following the other, was witnessed on Main street, Tuesday afternoon.

OUR free bridge, which has been considered somewhat dangerous for a week past, is all right again, and teams are crossing the ice in safety.

THE friends of Rev. J. B. DAVIS will pay him a donation visit at Dimmick Hall, Orwell, on Friday evening, Feb. 23. All are cordially invited.

MANY of our readers will read with regret the announcement in another column of the destruction of LILLY THOMAS' Planing Mill in Harrisburg, last week.

THE next Convention I. O. of G. T. will be held at Rome on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 27 and 28, 1877. It is hoped all the Lodges in the District will be represented.

MESSRS. SNELL & KUYKENDALL have purchased the Third Ward Meat Market. They are both gentlemen in whom the public have the highest confidence, and will command a large patronage.

DURING Lent services will be held in Christ Church as follows: Wednesdays, 4:30 P. M.; Thursdays, 7:30 P. M.; Fridays, 10:30 A. M. Sundays, at the usual hours, 10:30 A. M. and 7 P. M.

OUR neighbor of the Argus pays Commissioners' Clerk LEWIS a graceful and merited compliment for the manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office during the past year.

ALL persons interested in our excellent Graded School, will read with satisfaction the very clear and encouraging financial report of the district, prepared by the Borough Auditors, and printed in another column.

HENRY DICKENS, a blacksmith by trade, living at Gillett, Pa., fell dead as he was getting ready to retire, Monday evening. He had been in his usual health during the day, and had worked all day at his trade. He was about thirty-eight years of age.

The Republican primary meetings for the nomination of Ward and Boro' officers, will be held at the voting places in the several wards on Saturday evening next, between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock. Let there be a full attendance, and good men selected.

MR. MOODY, the evangelist, has published the following card in regard to the fund for the BLISS children:

"I am glad to announce to the Christian public that contributions for the family of Mr. P. P. BLISS, have been so liberal that, with the addition of what he left, they are well provided for, and collections should now cease.

D. L. MOODY."

A LITTLE over a year ago, Rev. L. F. PORTER came to Towanda and commenced circulating a subscription for a new Universalist church. No one then thought that he could possibly succeed, but the Universalist society now possesses one of the finest churches for its size we know of. We hear that it will be dedicated next month, when there will be held a two days' meeting. Prominent clergymen from abroad will be present.

ANOTHER week is gone!—gone, with all its joys and sorrows, into the misty land of the Past. To some of us it brought pleasure, and sweet hopes, and beaming smiles; while to others it bore sad messages that put out the love-light of joyous hearts, and made them all dark forever. And so the weeks go by—one after another, like milestones on the journey of life, each one bringing us nearer our journey's end! Well—come to think of it, we shall all of us be happier when we sleep with our feet to the daisies.

ED. REPORTER: At a regular meeting of the Franklindale Lodge of I. O. of G. T., No. 497, held at their hall, on Saturday evening, Feb. 10, a resolution tendering a vote of thanks to Judge RUSSELL, for his action in taking such ground as will prevent many would-be liquor-sellers from scattering their poison among our people, was adopted. And, on motion, a copy of the resolution was ordered to be sent to Judge RUSSELL, and a notice of the same to be published in our county papers.

J. B. J.

Franklindale, Feb. 12.

AT THE annual meeting of the Bradford County Agricultural Society, the following officers were chosen for the current year:

President—JOSEPH E. PIOLLET.

Vice Presidents—A. E. Buchanan, Orlando Taylor, W. A. Wood, S. D. Barnum, John B. Smith.

Managers—I. A. Park, H. L. Scott, Horace Horton, G. H. VanDyke, G. H. Fox, R. K. Wolfe, John Baldwin, C. J. Eastrooks, B. Laporte.

Secretary—W. S. Vincent.

Corresponding Secretary—John E. Fox.

Treasurer—E. R. DeLong.

THE following named persons have been installed officers of Alvord Lodge, No. 1,071, I. O. G. T., for the present quarter:

W. C. T.—HENRY HARRIS.
W. V. T.—LORAINE BOGART.
W. S.—C. H. ALLEN.
W. T.—J. R KITTRIDGE.
W. F. S.—ANNA KUYKENDALL.
W. C.—T. A. EDWARDS.
W. M.—GEO. C. STOLL.
W. A. S.—Mrs. C. H. ALLEN.
W. D. M.—GRACE STANLEY.
W. I. G.—HENRY JONES.
W. O. G.—FRANK ROSENFIELD.
L. H. S.—
R. H. S.— —— PITCHER.
P. W. C. T.—J. A. WILT.

PERSONAL.—Judge ZEBULON FRISBIE, of Orwell, paid his many friends here a welcome visit last week.

—Mrs. THOMAS. RYAN, of Topeka, Kan., is visiting her parents in East Towanda.

—The friends of Mrs. L. A. CLARK will be pleased to learn that she has arrived in Louisville, Ky.

—E. B. COOLBAUGH, Esq., of Wysox, is dangerously ill.

—Gen. W. H. JESSUP, of Montrose, one of the ablest lawyers in the State, is attending Court here this week.

—H. W. PATRICK, Esq., has been confined to his house in Athens for some time by ill-health. His symptoms, we are glad to learn, are more encouraging now.

—Miss LIZZIE COOLBAUGH, who has been spending several months in the family of her brother-in-law, Hon. THOMAS RYAN, in Topeka, Kan., returned to her home in East Towanda, last week.

—Col. JULIUS W. MASON, U. S. A., is enjoying a short furlough from duty after several years' active campaign service in the Indian country. He is visiting his father, Col. G. F. MASON, in this place.

—Lieut. CALIFF, U. S. A., was a visitor at the REPORTER office on Tuesday. Lieut. C. has just returned from a campaign against the Indians. He seems to have borne the hardships and deprivations of frontier life remarkably well.

C. B. PATCH died at his residence on Sunday morning. Although Mr. P. had been in poor health for a year or two, his sudden demise was a surprise to even his most intimate friends. He was about town as usual on Thursday. On Friday morning he arose at an early hour and went upon the street, where he was found soon after in an unconscious state. He was taken back to his house, and everything done which medical skill could devise, but he did not rally. After remaining in an unconscious state most of the time, he died on Sunday morning. Mr. PATCH came to this place about eighteen years ago, and engaged in the grocery and provision trade. He was one of the first dealers in the town to purchase butter and other farm produce and pay in cash. His coming among us seemed to mark a new era in trade, and for years he was one of our most enterprising and successful merchants. Liberal in his dealings, generous almost to a fault, and strictly honest, he won a large circle of friends. He was buried on Tuesday afternoon, with Masonic honors, beside his wife, who died twelve years ago. Mr. PATCH leaves an intelligent and interesting daughter, to whom he was devotedly attached and who reciprocated his filial affection, to mourn her great loss. The deceased was about 42 years old.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES.—We have received from the Fine Art Publishing House of GEO. STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine, several pictures recently published by them. The subjects, as works of high art, deserve the highest praise. STINSON & Co. were among the pioneers in the Fine Art publishing business in this country, and year by year their business has grown, until at the present time it has assumed colossal proportions.

A short time since they published a chromo that had a run of over one hundred and twenty-five thousand copies. The weight of them unmounted was over nine tons. In the selection of subjects, STINSON & Co. show correct judgment of the public taste, which natural talent, aided by long experience, alone can give. They publish every description of fine works of art, from a chromo to a photograph—from a fine crayon drawing to the most elegant steel engraving.

They bring into service the skill of the most talented artists.

Messrs. STINSON & Co. are at present in want of a large number of new agents, to whom they offer the most liberal inducements. We call attention to their advertisement, headed, "To the Working Class," in our advertising columns.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.—The numbers of the Living Age for the weeks ending Jan. 27 and Feb. 3, contain the Anglo-American Churches of the United States, from the London Quarterly; Dr. SCHLIEMANN's Discoveries at Mycenæ, Nature; Prince BISMARCK's Literary Faculty, by FRANCIS HUEFFER, Gentleman's Magazine; The Marquis of Lossie, by GEO. MACDONALD, Part VIII, Adonais Sheets; A German Bath, Blackwood; Self-Help in Science, Good Words; Fields and Field-Sports in Madras, Fraser; The Wordsworths at Brinsop Court, Temple Bar; JOHN WILSON CROKER, Quarterly Review; The Jews in the East, Saturday Review; Caprices of the Nile, Chambers' Journal; The Storm-Wave in Bengal, Saturday Review; Earldoms, Pall Mall Gazette; The Shadow of the Door, Blackwood; an installment of "Carita," by Mrs. OLIPHANT, and the conclusion of "What She Came Through," by SARAH TYTLER, together with poetry and miscellany.

The back numbers containing the first installments of MACDONALD's new serial, are still sent gratis to new subscribers for 1877. For fifty-two numbers, of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,000 pages a year), the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 periodicals or weeklies, with the Living Age for a year, both post-paid. LITTELL & GAY, Boston, are the publishers.

ED. REPORTER—Dear Sir: Seeing others are free to express their opinions concerning secret societies, through your columns, I will, with your consent, ventilate my own opinion upon that subject.

I am seriously opposed to all organized secret societies. I do not think they are necessary in our land of liberty and free institutions. More than that, I believe they are working mischief to the cause of Jesus. Besides, they are dangerous to our freedom,—some of them conferring knighty titles, which certainly do not become Americans.

Traitors have in many instances escaped justice, who ought to have been hanged, or at least imprisoned for life, because they were shielded by the Lodge from the penalty their crimes deserved.

There is a mighty tide of influence constantly rising in our nation, that will, sooner or later, burst forth against secret societies like the old Abolition element in the days of slavery. "Our God is marching on." Those who opposed slavery were subject to persecution: so now are those who oppose secret societies; but "truth is mighty and will prevail."

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, JAMES MADISON, WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Vice-President WILSON, CHAS. SUMNER, CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, D. R. KERR, D. D., Prof. J. R. W. SLOANE, D. D., J. BLANCHARD, D. D., A. M. MILLIGAN, D. D., Prof. C. A. BLANCHARD, and many others, have spoken strongly against secret societies, and those of them now living are still in the work.

There are seven or more Christian denominations that bear testimony against the Lodge, and many individuals in all the churches are praying and working against this power of darkness.

Armenia, Pa.

ED. REPORTER: Agreeably to notice on the first Thursday of February, at 11 A. M., the Grangers of Bradford began to assemble at the house of Bro. TAYLOR, of Rome, and as they continued to come from the hills and valleys of the county, it was gratifying to note the cheerful faces, the warm and friendly greeting of the brothers and sisters, showing to a close observer that this organization has accomplished much in the way of bringing the farmers together where they may labor in a united brotherhood for the advancement of the interest of agriculture.

After providing for the faithful beasts that brought us among this generous people, the next in order was the satisfying of our appetites, which the ride had done much to improve, becoming satisfied that the people of Rome know how to entertain guests, and in a way that will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be of the number.

We were called to order by Bro. MUNN, who with the assistance of our Worthy State Master PIOLLET, installed the officers for the ensuing year. The afternoon session passed off pleasantly and profitably. There were about five hundred brothers and sisters present. Adjourned to 7 P. M., when all those who wished to be initiated farther in the mysteries of the order, met at the Odd-Fellows Hall for that purpose, when Worthy Master DELONG, with the assistance of the other officers, performed the duties of his office with credit to himself and the order to which he belonged. They all returned to Bro. TAYLOR's large hall (not larger, however, than the brother's heart), and there finished the business of the session, which, all things considered, was one of the most interesting ever held in the county. And when I think of Judge PASSMORE's large turkeys and the way they were roasted, together with the reception we received at the hands of our brothers and sisters of Rome, I am glad for one that I have joined the Grangers.

PATRON.

ITEMS from the Northern Tier Gazette of last week:

"Thursday evening last, A. H. WIXTERMUTE, who for seven or eight years has been carrying on the business of an undertaker here, left the place in company with his adopted son, "Pete," for parts unknown, leaving quite an amount of property and unsettled debts. The Sheriff seized upon and advertised the property to satisfy the creditors, about eighteen in number, with claims amounting to about $1,200. He went to Towanda, made a transfer of some of his property and "lit out." He left his wife and little girl behind.

—The friends of HIRAM KEELY, of Granville, son of EDMUND KELLY, Esq., will be pained to hear that he is again laboring under an attack of insanity. He was attacked with the same malady some years ago, and was taken to Utica, N. Y., for treatment. He remained there about six months, and returned home, it was hoped, permanently cured. No symptoms of mental derangement have been noticed since until about three weeks ago, during the progress of a very exciting law-suit, in which he was a witness, reason gave way, and he was again a raving maniac. Through the advice of physicians, he has been taken to the Hospital at Danville, for treatment. It is hoped that he may soon be restored to health, family and friends. HIRAM has been a sober and industrious citizen, and will have the sympathy of all who are intimately acquainted with him.

—GOLDEN WEDDING.—There was a large gathering at the "Wolfe Farm," near Columbia Cross Roads, on Tuesday last, to attend the Golden Wedding of Rev. JOEL JEWELL and wife, who were united in matrimony fifty years ago, or in 1827. Rev. S. L. CONDE was master of the ceremonies and performed the duties with credit. Letters were read from several parties who were present at the first wedding. Remarks wise and witty were made by Dr. E. G. TRACY, Dr. E. I. FORD, E. S. JEWELL and others. The old family bible was brought out, containing the family pledge, signed long years ago by all the family. Rev. J. SPENCER JEWELL, of King's Ferry, N. Y., made a short address full of interesting reminiscences, especially referring to the interesting circumstances of the organization of the Hector Temperance Society, and the fact that it was the first total abstinence society organized in this country (in 1824). Rev. S. P. GAYES, of Canton, offered prayer, after which came congratulations. A bountiful supper was provided, and justice was done to it. The social element was predominant, and the occasion was one to be long remembered. Among the presents was $139 in gold pieces, about $10 in currency, an elegant gold chain from his son, J. H. JEWELL, a fine silver and gold card receiver from Mrs. E. S. JEWELL, a book and gold piece from Dr. TRACY.

—The Presbyterian Society is now in a very prosperous condition. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed Sunday, Feb. 4, and several members received into the church. The church has decided upon the short term principle in regard to the board of elders, and S. W. POMEROY and GEORGE L. PECK have been elected elders under that arrangement. JOHN E. DOBBINS was elected Deacon. It is a subject for congratulation that the church is able to retain as pastor Rev. S. L. CONDE, whose zeal and untiring labors have been instrumental for great good to the spiritual and temporal interests of the church.

—The body of Mrs. ABRAM CASE, mother of ANDRUS and JABEZ CASE, was brought to this place for burial on Tuesday, from Williamsport. The funeral at the Baptist Church was attended by a large congregation.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, a retired physician, having providentially discovered, while a Medical Missionary in Southern Asia, a very simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all throat and lung affections—also a positive and radical specific for Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all Nervous Complaints, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) to all who desire it, the recipe for preparing, and full directions for successfully using, this providentially discovered remedy. Those who wish to avail themselves of the benefits of this discovery without cost, can do so by return mail, by addressing with a stamp, naming paper,

DR. CHARLES P. MARSHALL,
33 Niagara Street,
Buffalo, N. Y.

From WILLIAM VAN GEZER, Esq., of Lewisburg, Union County, Pa:

This certifies that my wife has been afflicted with consumption for the last four years, and had become so reduced that she was unable, at times, to walk across the room, and a good part of the time unable to be out of bed. She would be seized with violent attacks of coughing until she would lie almost exhausted and helpless. She received the attendance of as good physicians as could be found in Philadelphia and the country, but to no effect. I was at last induced to try DR. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and the effect for the better was truly astonishing. Before she had taken two bottles she felt and appeared almost as well as ever: so much so that it is seldom necessary for her to use any now, except occasionally, from having caught cold from exposure, or from sudden and unfavorable change of whether. I have always been opposed to patent medicines and pronounced them humbugs, but I must say that DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is an exception. I unhesitatingly recommend it to the public as decidedly the best and most efficacious remedy in cases of consumption. WILLIAM VAN GEZER.

CAUTION!—Beware of preparations bearing similar names. Examine the bottle carefully before purchasing, and be sure you get DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, having the signature of "I BUTTS" on the wrapper.

50 cents and $1 a bottle.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE, An illustrated monthly of POPULAR LITERATURE, SCIENCE & ART.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1877.

The number for January begins the nineteenth volume of this Magazine, and while its past record will, it is hoped, be deemed a sufficient guarantee of future excellence, no efforts will be spared to diversify its attractions and to provide an increased supply of popular reading in the best and most emphatic sense.

The great object and constant aim of the conductors will be to furnish the public with literary entertainment of a refined and varied character, as well as instructive in a graphic, and striking manner the most recent information and sound views on subjects of general interest; in a word, to render Lippincott's Magazine strikingly distinctive in those features that are most attractive in magazine literature. The contributions now on hand, or specially engaged, embrace a highly attractive list of TALES, SHORT STORIES, DESCRIPTIVE SKETCHES, NARRATIVES, PAPERS ON SCIENCE AND ART, POEMS, POPULAR ESSAYS, LITERARY CRITICISMS, ETC., ETC., ETC.,

by talented and well-known writers. A large proportion of these articles, especially those descriptive of travel, will be profusely and beautifully illustrated. The pictorial embellishments of the Magazine constitute one of its many attractive features. In addition to the general attractiveness of Lippincott's Magazine, the publishers would invite attention to the following special features for 1877:

1. A new serial story, "THE MYSTERY OF LOSSIE, by George Macdonald, author of "Malcolm," "Alec Forbes," "Robert Falconer," etc. To those of our readers who are familiar with "Malcolm," this new story from the pen of this distinguished writer will need no recommendation, and his reputation is a guarantee to others of a deeply interesting and powerful story. It began in the November number, which issue, with the December part, will be furnished gratis to all new subscribers for 1877.

2. A profusely illustrated series of sketches in SWEDISH SOCIETY AND LIFE, by Willard Fiske, of Cornell University, who is thoroughly familiar with Sweden and its People from personal observation.

3. A series of popular papers on ART AND ART MATTERS, by Edward STRAHAN (Earl Shinn), author of "The New Hyperion," etc.

4. Illustrated sketches of travel, entitled PICTURES FROM SPAIN, by Edward King, author of "The Great South," etc.

5. Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper's interesting and piquant PAPERS AND LETTERS FROM PARIS will be continued through the year.

6. THE BEAUTIES OF THE RHINE will be described in a richly illustrated series of papers.

7. During the year will appear a number of handsomely illustrated short articles, descriptive of life, travel, and adventure in the United States, England, South America, Japan, Mongolia, and other countries.
