Towanda, Jan. 18, 1877.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

NEITHER of the Troy hotels sell liquor.

FATHER KELLY will address the Temperance meeting this Wednesday evening.

ALMOST every one from Athens in attendance at Court this week, has the blue ribbon.

THE temperance movement has greatly reduced the amount of drinking in the country.

THE Elwell House has been still further improved by the application of a good coat of paint.

NOTWITHSTANDING the "hard times," there is a good deal of building going on in Towanda this season.

THE Board of Managers of the Agricultural Society, will meet at the Secretary's office on Saturday next, at 1 o'clock P. M.

C. M. MANVILLE & Co. will sell at their auction rooms on Friday afternoon, several horses, wagons, hotel furniture, etc.

MARVIN COOLBAUGH, of Monroeton, was taken suddenly ill on Monday last, and for a short time his life was despaired of. His symptoms are better now, however, and his friends hope for a speedy recovery.

HIRAM DAY, the clown, will make a barrel ascension for the amusement of his friends, on Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock.

OUR young friend, BENJ. KERRICK, of Asylum, has purchased an interest in the up-town meat market. BEN is a good fellow and deserves a generous patronage.

ALTHOUGH the Baptist Church of this place is without a regular pastor, services will be conducted every Sunday morning by Deacon GEORGE H. WOOD. Sunday-school and prayer meeting as usual.

THE Owego Steamboat Co. have complimented us with a very neatly executed "pass" for the current year. The company will run daily excursions to the various points of interest along the blue Susquehanna.

DECORATION DAY.—All honorably discharged soldiers and sailors are invited to meet at Military Hall, Headquarters of Company K, 12th Regt. Pa. N. G., on Saturday evening, May 12, at 7½ o'clock, to prepare for decorating the graves of our dead comrades.

R. A. MERCUR, Esq., has been nominated by Chief Justice WAITE and confirmed as Register in Bankruptcy, for this district, in place of COL. OVERTON, resigned. Mr. M. is well qualified for the responsible position, and will make an excellent officer.

WE HAVE thoroughly tested the patent gas burner now being introduced in this place by JACK HIGHLAND, and feel satisfied that a large saving in gas can be made by using it. Mr. H. is an affable, pleasant gentleman, and we commend him to the confidence of the people.

BISHOP HOWE, having recovered from the illness which prevented him from filling his appointment to visit the parish of Christ Church, on the 17th ult., will make the visitation on Wednesday evening, May 23. It is expected that a large class will be presented for confirmation.

HUGH HICKS, of Rome, died on Thursday night, after a very brief illness, of only two days. He was about his business as usual on Tuesday. Mr. H. was one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Rome Boro', and was 78 years old. His funeral was largely attended on Sunday. The deceased was the father of N. P. HICKS, of this Boro'.

QUITE an important arbitration came off in this place a few days since. The question involved was the liability of the Catholic Church for certain debts contracted by Father TONER,—the representatives of the church-maintaining that a sufficient sum of money had been contributed to cancel the obligations. The award was in favor of the church. The case will probably be carried to Court.

THE temperance wave is still spreading. Spirited and interesting meetings continue to be held, almost every evening, and large numbers are signing the pledge. There is not that wild enthusiasm which has been experienced in some other towns, but the people generally act with a soberness indicating earnest determination and honest intention to remain steadfast.

THE Barclay School closed May 7, 1877. The following is the Roll of Honor for the term: MARY ANN SULLIVAN, ROSA ELDRED, WINNIE ROCHE, GEO. MOORE, MARY ANN KELLOCK, JANE DUGGAN, ANNA BATTERSON, KATIE MCMAHON, DANIEL SULLIVAN, MC. MAGGIE MCMAHON, ROSA PELTON, ELLEN ROCHE, JULIA O'CONNER. A. T. LILLEY, Teacher.

THE temperance discourse delivered by Rev. G. W. CHANDLER, on Sunday afternoon last, was one of the ablest arguments on the subject we have ever listened to. The house was crowded, and the vast concourse of people listened spellbound to the eloquent, earnest and argumentative address. The sermon should be published, as it deserves a world-wide circulation.

THE officers of LeRoy Lodge No. 545, I. O. G. T., for the term commencing May 1, 1877, are as follows:

W. C. T.—Miss MARY MOTT.
W. V. T.—Miss IDA HOLCOMB.
W. S.—A. T. LILLEY.
W. T.—FLOYD MORSE.
W. F. S.—RANCY MORSE.

W. O. G.—ERNEST MASON.
Lodge Deputy—A. T. LILLEY.

THE Wilkes-Barre Record of the Times says: One of the largest excursion trains of the season bound for the West, passed over the L. V. & Erie Railways a few days ago. Fifteen passenger coaches and six baggage cars, containing about 700 people, farmers, merchants, stock-men, speculators, and others. This excursion was under the able management of Mr. C. DETRICK, of Wilkes-Barre, and Mr. A. B. CLOSE, of Elmira, who are making a great success of these affairs.

THE "Diahoga Club" of Athens, Pa., give public notice that they will prosecute all violations of the fish laws of this Commonwealth committed in this county, upon evidence being furnished.

The following is a part of the Laws in force for the protection of fish, etc.:

"The species commonly known as Susquehanna Salmon, Pike, Perch, Jack Salmon, etc., shall henceforth not be taken in any of the streams, meant to be included in this act during their spawning time, that is to say between the first of February and the first of June, in any year, and the mode of proof of such taking, and the penalty for the same, shall be the same as provided for the care of Salmon and the black bass in this act."

The penalty for violating the foregoing act is five dollars fine for each fish taken or had in possession. One-half the fines to go to the informer, the other half to go the school board of the district in which the offense is committed. See act of May 24, 1871, P. L., page 276, sec. 5.

PERSONAL.—Maj. G. B. OVERTON and family have removed to Dallas, Texas, where they will make their future home. We hope the Major's brightest dreams in regard to his new home may be realized.

—Miss BERNICE KELLOGG, one of the most successful lady teachers in the county, has been granted a permanent certificate by State Superintendent WICKERSHAM.

☞—W. O. THURSTON and NEB. HERRICK have gone to Texas. We believe Mr. T. expects to remain permanently in the "lone star" State.

—Rev. PATRICK TONER, late of this place, sailed for Europe last week. It is said he goes to Rome to see the Pope.

—S. A. YORKS and wife, of Danville, were in town last week, visiting Mrs. Y.'s aged mother and other friends.

—JOHN MATHER paid his friends in this county a visit last week.

—Hon. H. W. TRACY is in town this week, attending to business affairs. He is looking quite hale and hearty.

—Mrs. HARLAN PATCH is dangerously ill. Her disease is pneumonia.

—After an absence of several months in the South, Miss KATE PHINNEY has returned to her home in this place.

—Maj. E. C. CAMP, of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting friends in this place.

STATE SABBATH-SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The 13th Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association will be held in Harrisburg, Pa., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 12, 13, and 14, 1877.

The Rev. LLEWELLYN D. Bevan, LL. B., late of London, and one of the foremost Sunday-school men of England, will deliver an opening address on Tuesday evening. B. F. JACOBS, Esq., of Chicago, is expected to speak on Thursday; Rev. W. F. CRAFTS will give his address on "The Coming Man is the Present Child;" Mrs. W. F. CRAFTS will present "The Ideal Primary Class." Among distinguished workers from our own State who may be expected to add to the interest and enthusiasm of the meeting, are Rev. RICHARD NEWTON, D. D., (to speak at a children's meeting); Rev. GEORGE A. PELTZ; Presidents CATTELL, WYLIE and HAYES; Rev. H. W. WARREN; Rev. P. S. HENSON, D.D., and many others.

Harrisburg extends a hearty welcome to all friends of Sabbath-schools throughout the State. Those expecting to attend will please notify S. J. M. McCARRELL, Esq., Harrisburg, who is Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment, before June 4, and they will be provided with cards introducing them to free homes during Convention. Further information in regard to the programme of the Convention can be obtained of the State Secretary, Rev. E. W. RICE, Philadelphia, or of Jas. W. WIER, Harrisburg, Chairman of the Local Committee of Arrangements.

DECORATION DAY.—The 30th of May will soon be here, and we trust it may be appropriately observed throughout the country. Wherever there is a Post of the Grand Army, that organization will take charge of the arrangements, but every patriotic citizen should interest himself in the subject, and see that the day is observed with proper ceremonies.

Gov. HARTRANFT, as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued the following in reference to Decoration Day:

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 26, 1877.—General Orders, No. 8.—In accordance with the annual custom, Wednesday, May 30, 1877, will be observed as a memorial day, in commemoration of our dead comrades.

It is fitting that we should turn aside from accustomed pursuits to do honor to those who have given the strongest testimony of patriotic devotion; and a general observance of the day, through the active participation of the members of societies, the children of the various schools, and the citizens generally, is earnestly invited.

Every effort should be made to mark the last resting place of each soldier and sailor, and we should also remember with tenderness those who died away from home and kindred, and now rest in distant or unknown graves.

Each Post will be the judge of the manner in which it may best perform this duty, but concert of action should be had wherever practicable.

Wherever there is no Post of the Grand Army to lead in the good work, the commander-in-chief, in behalf of their surviving comrades, asks the citizens to take steps to decorate the graves of the gallant dead and secure a proper observance of the day.

JNO. F. HARTRANFT,
Commander-in-Chief.

TROY.—D C LAMPMAN and A. C. FANNING were chosen delegates to represent the Republicans of Troy Boro' at the County Convention.

Master FRED POMEROY, an enterprising six year old boy, son of the late DANIEL POMEROY, started a bonfire last Saturday, which caught in the straw and set the barn on fire. An alarm was given and Oscoluwa was promptly on hand, but the flames had been extinguished before the engine reached the ground.

Last week E. C. OLIVER and son came very near losing their planing mill, which caught fire in the roof by sparks from the engine. The fire was discovered and extinguished before the engine could be put to work, proving that a bucket brigade and presence of mind are often valuable in preventing fires.

E. B. PARSONS Esq., is the owner of a beautiful trout pond, in which is a school of the "speckled beauties" well worth seeing. Mr. PARSONS put in one hundred young trout about a year ago, and they are now highly respectable fish, some of them being eight or ten inches in length.

B. F. BEEBE is an artist of superior merit, and has made some paintings recently that challenge universal admiration. It should be a source of pride and congratulation to Troy to have such an artist, and he ought to meet with substantial recognition of his talent. Several parties here already possess fine specimens of his work.

Number three of the Millennium course of lectures at the Presbyterian church, was devoted to the return of the Jews to Palestine. Mr. CONDE has very strong convictions upon the subject, and his lectures are very full and interesting.

LOVELAND'S woolen factory is an important feature of business here. Since the fire they have enlarged their business and are doing finely.

Sixteen hundred fruit and ornamental trees were purchased this spring, by Trojans, from a Rochester nursery.

Mr. and Mrs. YORK, of Danville, have been visiting for a few days at ED. T. JOHNSON's, their son-in-law.

Mr. H. B. WELSH, station agent at this place, is soon to leave. If his successor proves to be as obliging and gentlemanly as he has been, we shall feel that we are in luck. Our best wishes will follow Mr. W. wherever he may go.

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT. — The interest in the Temperance movement still continues in this place, and many are signing the pledge. Large meetings were held at the Court House, on Wednesday and Friday evenings of last week, speakers from abroad being present. The meeting Friday evening was one of the largest yet held, the Court House being literally packed, and large numbers going away who could not gain admission. The meeting was addressed by Hon. H. BEAMS, of Hornellsville, N. Y., and a hundred names were added to the roll. Meetings were also held Sunday afternoon and Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week. This Wednesday evening Father KELLEY will speak, and will undoubtedly have a large audience present to hear him.

THE "Fountain House," Scottsville, is open for guests. This hotel has become quite a favorite resort for Towanda people.

FEARS are entertained that the recent heavy rains have damaged the blossoming fruit trees in Lancaster county.

THE Lin-ta Band will give a concert from their stand in the public square on Monday evening next.

BASS fishing can be indulged in from the 1st of July next in this State.

EDS. REPORTER: Having had sundry subjects to interest me and occupy my time until recently, I have not troubled you, Mr. Editor, but now I mean to call out one of your old correspondents, with your consent. Josiah! Josiah! where art thou? Hast thou been imprisoned by stern, relentless winter? Have you left your friends without even an adieu, or have you taken a life-boat, a partner for your joys and sorrows, or what, may I ask, has happened you?

Spring being upon us in all her beauty, emblem of the future life and inspirer of hope, because she lays aside each year her lovely mantel and as often reappears clothed afresh in pure garments, thus confirming our faith in a resurrection to life eternal, it is time to mark out a course for pleasure, instruction, and profit the coming season. Will you assist me, kind friend?

I will suggest a course and name some things that would be, I think, pleasant, could we but meet and share them as friend with friend. You well remember the Great Exhibit of last year, do you not? Well, but a few days intervene ere that vast array of wonderful things, shorn of all the dross, the choice and valuable of every nation, arranged in perfect taste, and combined in the splendid main building, will be opened as a permanent exhibit of world-wide interest; a visit there we could enjoy, I think, and with our old bachelor friends to treat us to drives, excursions, etc., time would speed away like light.

Doubtless grand hotels, with "blue glass" fronts, will rise to invite the traveler to repose and refreshment where health can be secured and the weak made strong without extra outlay of wealth, where all the servants have the "blue badge" conspicuously displayed, and danger from the fiery element is reduced to its minimum, and the virtues of blue are made more apparent in the blonde, rosy-cheeked waiters at table.

Thus we would be cared for while studying those specimens of ancient pottery and cooking utensils, used so many thousand years ago by the mound-builders, yet so like some of present times, or while talking of the latest Russian and Turkish war news, and inspecting at the same time those fine astrachan cloaks, blue and purple velvet robes, with gorgeous trimmings, Turkish uniforms and arms of unique design, or mayhap begging the privilege of reading a chapter from Milton's bible, or looking over one printed at Venice in 1476, etc. Time would pass like a honeymoon, and love of country would prompt a visit to the tomb of Washington; respect, a call at the White House; and a desire to see living curiosities would lead us to the Capitol during the extra session of Congress.

Perhaps we might see a "commission" or two, certainly some ancient relics, and a government laboring heavily under "new policies," but not a healthy place to pass time. From thence wending our way back to Cape May and Long Branch, a new vigor would possess us and our bachelor friends would find their hearts lost amidst the accumulated beauty, wit and bloom of America. From thence to Maine and the Granite State for a season of rest; then returning to our own hills and friends, they would find us walking cyclopædias of interest, glowing with health, firmly attached to each other by silken bands, then unto old age we would have pleasant themes to recall to mind the days of our youth. PRO FORMA.

Athens, April 30, 1877.

WATKINS Post No. 68, G. A. R., will hold a special meeting at Military Hall, on Saturday, May 12, to make preparations for properly observing decoration day, May 30. All honorably discharged soldiers and sailors are invited to be present and take part. By order of

☞ TO CONSUMTIVES.—The advertiser, a retired physician having providentially discovered, while a Medical Missionary in Southern Asia, a very simple yet reliable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all throat and lung affections—also a sure and radical specific for Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all Nervous Complaints, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) to all who desire it, the recipe for preparing, and full directions for successfully using this providentially discovered remed. HUNTLEY.—In Burlington Boro, May 1, H. S. Huntley, aged 47 yrs.

HORAN.—In Burlington, April 28, 1877, Hubert, son of Carey and Ann Horan, aged 16 years, 1 month and 10 days.

The deceased was promising young man, and his early and suddenath is a severe blow to his devoted parents.

BROWN.—In Wilmington, April 25, 1877, Paul, only son of Captain J. Brown, aged 8 years, 11 months and 12 day.

"The sudden death of Little PAUL," as he was familiarly called by family, brought the shadow of a great grief upon a circle of his acquaintances, and especially upon his father, whose constant companion had been since the death of his own mother. His a remarkably thoughtful, quiet boy, and passed a judgment about things with which he was ill familiar rarely found in those of maturer years. He was scrupulously conscientious in the discharge of every duty as far as it was made known him, and the thought of meeting his sainted mother was a joy to which he looked forward with longing. Like many another one, he found expressions for his love to his Savior in familiar hymns. He delighted in those which express the sweet emotions of the heart, and the strongest evidence in the love and faithfulness of Jesus. One on the 91st page of the Winpowed Hymns "Jesus Loves Even Me"—was his favorite, and he one he invariably called for in his sickness, which lasted but a couple of days, when he was with Him who in the days of His flesh said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."
