DELAWARE MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.
JOHN FENNY, Jr., Agent at Pittsburgh for the Delaware Mutual Safety Insurance Company of Philadelphia. Fire Risks upon buildings and merchandize of every description, and Marine Risks upon hulls or cargoes of vessels, taken upon the most favorable terms.
☞ Office in the Warehouse of W. B. Holmes & Bro., No. 57 Water, near Market street, Pittsburgh.
N. B.—The success of this Company since the establishment of the Agency in this city, with the prompt, liberality with which every claim upon them for loss has been adjusted, fully warrant the agent in inviting the confidence and patronage of his friends and the community at large to the Delaware M. S. Insurance Company, while it has the additional advantages as an institution among the most flourishing in Philadelphia—as having an ample paid-in capital, which by the operation of its charter is constantly increasing, as yielding to each person insured his due share of the profits of the company, without involving him in any responsibility whatever, and therefore as possessing the Mutual principle divested of every obnoxious feature, and in its most attractive form. nov4

FRANKLIN FIRE INSURANCE CO.

HOTELS.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL.
LIGHT STREET BALTIMORE.
TODD AND THURSTON, PROPRIETORS.
THIS establishment long and widely known as being one of the most commodious in the city of Baltimore, has recently undergone very extensive alterations and improvements. An entire new wing has been added, containing numerous and airy sleeping apartments, and extensive bathing rooms.
The Ladies' department has also been completely reorganized and fitted up in a most unique and beautiful style. In fact the whole arrangement of the House has been remodeled, with a single eye on the part of the proprietors, towards the comfort and pleasure of their Guests, and which they confidently assert will challenge comparison with any Hotel in the Union.
Their table will always be supplied with every substantial and luxury which the market affords, served up in a superior style; while in the way of Wines, &c., they will not be surpassed.
In conclusion the proprietors beg to say, that nothing will be left undone on their part, and on the part of their assistants, to render this Hotel worthy the continued patronage of their friends and the public generally.
The prices for board have also been reduced to the following rates:
Ladies' Ordinary, $1.75 per day.
Gentlemen's 1.50
N. B.—The Baggage Wagon of the House will always be found at the Car and Steamboat Landings, which will convey baggage to and from the Hotel, free of charge. may2tf

PEARL STREET HOUSE.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.
THE subscribers having purchased the entire interest of Col. G. P. Williams in the above well known establishment, beg leave to state to their friends and the public generally, that they have taken this commodious Hotel for a term of years, and will exert their best energies to make it a desirable home for Travellers and City Boarders.
The Hotel is spacious and admirably planned for convenience, light and air, having a number of parlors adjoining chambers, presenting unusual attractions to families.
The present proprietors having had the experience of years in the city and country, hope they will be able to give general satisfaction, and will endeavor to give undivided attention to the house alone.
The location of the Pearl Street House is unexceptionably eligible, having fronts on Pearl, Walnut and Third streets, so that it is equally desirable in view of the convenience of business men, or families and private boarders. It is near by the Banks, the Post Office, the Masonic Hall, Odd Fellow's Hall, and but one square distant from Main street, and only one from the City Wharf, thus offering the greatest inducements, especially to country merchants and generally to all persons visiting Cincinnati
